~ American Civil War 1861-1865 ~

THE MAN WHO SHOT LINCOLN'S ASSASSIN

Thomas P. "Boston" Corbett was the union soldier who shot and killed Abraham Lincoln's assassin, John Wilkes Booth.

In April of 1861, Corbett enlisted in the 12th New York Militia, and was discharged after three months with his enlistment ended. Corbett re-enlisted in September 1863 and served with the 16th New York Calvary Regiment. He was captured by Confederate Colonel John S. Mosby, of the famous "Mosby Raiders" in June 1864 and survived a five month imprisonment at the infamous Andersonville prison. Corbett was released from Andersonville as part of a prisoner exchange and returned to the 16th New York.

After the death of Abraham Lincoln, the 16th New York Calvary was ordered to apprehend the assassin. The regiment found John Wilkes Booth hiding in the tobacco barn on the Virginia farm of Richard Garrett. Corbett positioned himself near a large crack in the barn's wall. When he saw Booth moving inside he shot him, despite having orders to take Booth alive. Corbett was arrested immediately for violating orders, but Secretary of War Edwin Stanton later dropped the charges. Eventually Corbett received his portion of the reward money approximately $1,600.

After his discharge from the Army, Corbett stayed on the east coast and returned to his pre-war career as a hatter. Soon he began to display very erratic behavior, which was a professional hazard for hatters due to the mercury used in their work. The slogan, "mad as a hatter," resulted from this phenomenon.

Eventually he moved west and settled in Kansas. Corbett got into more trouble there and was arrested and committed to the Topeka Asylum for the Insane. He escaped from the asylum in May of 1888 and told a friend that he was headed to Mexico. Instead of heading south, it is believed the Corbett settled in a cabin in the forests near Hinckley, Minnesota. He reportedly died in the Great Hinckley Fire on September 1, 1894 and is listed as Thomas Corbett on the list of dead and missing.

IGNATIUS LOYOLA DONNELLY

As the youngest child born to Irish immigrant parents, Ignatius Donnelly had a hard start in life when his father died after contracting typhus. His mother ran a pawn shop to support the family and was successful enough for Donnelly to attend the prestigious Central High School, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Donnelly moved to Minnesota in 1857, with his first wife Katherine McCaffrey and their three children. He entered politics and was elected lieutenant governor from 1860-1863. Donnelly served from 1863-1866 as the Republican Congressman from Minnesota. He came home from Washington D.C., and served as a state senator from 1874-1878. As a legislator he supported extending the powers of Freedmen's Bureau and Women's Suffrage

After leaving the State Senate, Donnelly returned to his law practice and became a successful author. His first wife, Katherine died in 1894. He remarried his secretary in 1898. Donnelly passed away on January 1, 1901, in Minneapolis at age 69 and is buried at Calvary Cemetery in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Former Governor Elmer L. Anderson, in his book, "Elmer's Tour, A former governor's loving look at the Minnesota State Capitol," writes:

"Politician, populist, poet, scholar and more, Ignatius Donnelly is one of the most colorful characters in Minnesota history. He was elected the state's second lieutenant governor before age thirty, and was in and out of Congress and the Legislature for the next forty years. He died in 1901.

In the early 1950s, I noticed a print of the Donnelly home at a Historical Society exhibit. A little lady stood by it, absorbed in the image. I made bold to introduce myself, and ask the nature of her interest in the house. With a half-smile, she said, 'I was Mrs. Donnelly.' I gasped. More than fifty years had passed since his death! Then I remembered that late in life, Donnelly married his young secretary. Here she was, Marian Donnelly Woltman. I invited her to accompany me to the State Senate, to be introduced. The senators were astonished when I said, 'I'd like to present the widow of Ignatius Donnelly.'"

~ American Civil War 1861-1865 ~

THE MASON-DIXON LINE

From 1763 to 1767, Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed the boundaries between the colonies of Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania. The line was later extended another 244 miles westward. The eight-foot-wide line was cut through the wilderness and large stone markers bearing the coats of arms of William Penn and Lord Baltimore were placed at five-mile posts, with smaller stone posts marking each mile in between. Penn and Baltimore paid the $75,000 cost of the project.

During the Civil War this line became the border between northern states that had abolished slavery and southern states that still supported slavery. During the war the southern states were often referred to as "Dixie" which many believe was derived from the name "Dixon" in the Mason-Dixon Line.

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU

On March 3, 1865, Abraham Lincoln signed the bill that created the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands. This agency helped meet the needs of newly freed slaves by providing clothing, food, water, health care, communication with family members, and employment. One of the bureau's most widely recognized achievements was in the field of education.

During its operation the bureau distributed 15 million rations of food to African Americans. A ration was defined as, "as enough corn meal, flour, and sugar sufficient to feed a person for one week." Medical care was also provided to freedmen by this agency. The health care situation of freed slaves at the close of the Civil War was atrocious. Frequent pandemics of cholera and smallpox killed scores of freedmen. Without the financial assets to purchase private health care, and in many cases being denied health care outright, many former slaves had nowhere to turn but to the bureau.

The bureau was operational from 1865 to 1869. It was disbanded under President Ulysses S. Grant.

CIVIL WAR BATTLE NAMES

A confusing part of Civil War history concerns battle names. Many battles had two names—one selected by the North and another chosen by the South. The North tended to name a battle after some natural feature of the land, such as a body of water, a bluff or a mountain ridge or range. The southern armies chose to name the same battle after the nearest town or man-made landmark. For example, the battle known in the North as the First Bull Run is the same battle known in the South as the First Manassas

~ American Civil War 1861-1865 ~

THE END OF THE CIVIL WAR

On April 9, 1865, Confederate General Robert E. Lee met with Union General Ulysses S. Grant to discuss the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia. Lee agreed to Grant's surrender terms and the formal surrender took place April 12, 1865. The Union did not long rejoice over their victory, before being plunged again into mourning. Two days later, on April 14, 1865, the nation was stunned to learn that John Wilkes Booth had assassinated President Abraham Lincoln.

2010 GENERAL ELECTION RECOUNT SUMMARY:

The Nov. 2, 2010 election resulted in four races being automatically recounted. An automatic recount is triggered by Minnesota law (Minnesota Statutes M.S. 204C.35) in state, judicial and federal races when the margin between the candidates is less than one-half of one percent. Automatic recounts were held for the following elections:

- Governor: Mark Dayton (DFL); Tom Emmer (R)
- State House Legislative District 15B: King Banaian (R); Carol Lewis (DFL)
- State House Legislative District 25B: Kelby Woodard (R); David Bly (DFL)
- State House Legislative District 27A: Rich Murray (R); Robin Brown (DFL)

The State Canvassing Board met on Nov. 23, 2010 and certified the results of the Nov. 2 general election for all races that did not trigger automatic recounts. The Board then designated a state recount official and approved the recount plan for those races in which automatic recounts were triggered. The recounts began on Nov. 29, 2010 and were completed by Dec. 7, 2010.

The State Canvassing Board reconvened on Dec. 8, 2010 and certified the following official election results in the recounted races:

- Governor: Dayton, 919,232 and Emmer, 910,462.

During the Dec. 8, 2010 meeting, both candidates withdrew all their challenges and candidate Emmer waived his right to a recount, which resulted in the Board certifying as the official election results the election totals included in the state canvassing report from the Nov. 23, 2010 State Canvassing Board meeting.

State Elections Director Gary Poser presented to the Board a second report that included the numbers from the gubernatorial recount. In this report, 508 challenged ballots would have been allocated to candidate Dayton and 103 challenged ballots allocated to candidate Emmer. The final recount totals were Dayton, 919,691 and Emmer, 910,611.

- State House District 15B: Candidate Banaian, 5,480 and Lewis, 5,467.
- State House District 25B: Woodard, 8,903 and Bly, 8,866.
- State House District 27A: Murray, 7,511 and Brown, 7,454

~ American Civil War 1861-1865 ~

THE FIRST NATIONAL THANKSGIVING DAY 1863

In 1863, with half of the Civil War remaining, President Abraham Lincoln, encouraged by editorials written by Sarah Josepha Hale, proclaimed a National Thanksgiving Day, to be celebrated on the final Thursday in November 1863. Since 1863, Thanksgiving has been observed annually in the United States. Lincoln's proclamation stated,

“The year that is drawing towards its close, has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature, that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to foreign States to invite and to provoke their aggression, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere except in the theatre of military conflict; while that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union. Needful diversions of wealth and of strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defence, have not arrested the plough, the shuttle, or the ship; the axe had enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased...we...fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and Union.”
