

C. A. JONES
ATTORNEY AT LAW
NEW LONDON, MINN.

August 7, 1950

Secretary of State,
State Capitol, St. Paul, Minn.
Dear Sir:

On December 28, 1950, the Village of New London adopted an ordinance annexing adjoining territory to the Village. This was filed in your office as by law required. It was Ordinance No. 38.

In April District Court for Kandiyohi County, declared the ordinance invalid because of not enough signatures on the petition.

Today the Village council passed a repealing ordinance, No. 39, and I am enclosing a copy thereof for filing in your office, with an extra copy for your endorsement.

Immediately after the repealing ordinance, the Council passed a new ordinance, No. 40, annexing practically the same land, excepting only a small tract.

Enclosed is two copies of the new ordinance, No. 40, and ask that you file it, and affix your endorsement on a copy and return to me.

Thanking you for past courtesies, I remain

Yours truly

C. A. Jones
