

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for Public Employees Week

WHEREAS, city, county and state public employees have made an outstanding contribution to safety, health and general welfare in Minnesota; and

WHEREAS, our public employees are dedicated to improving Minnesota for all persons and groups; and

WHEREAS, this service to the people and the future of Minnesota is sometimes not fully recognized or appreciated; and

WHEREAS, public employees over the nation are devoting the first week of June to furthering good will and understanding between public employees and the citizenship they serve;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of June 1 through 7th, 1956 as

"PUBLIC EMPLOYEES WEEK"

and call upon all citizens of Minnesota to recognize the work being done each day by these dedicated public servants.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this tenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six and of the state, the ninety-eighth.
