

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A PROCLAMATION FOR "FULASKI DAY"

WHEREAS, the Polish General Pulaski rendered great service to the American people during the War for Independence against the British, and

WHEREAS, General Pulaski is held in great esteem by Americans for his valor, and

WHEREAS, on Sunday, October 27, 1957, members of the Polish National Home of Glen Cove, New York, will place wreaths at the monument erected in tribute to American war heroes, including General Pulaski;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ORVILLE L. FREEMAN, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim October 27, 1957 as in Minnesota and do urge citizens of Minnesota to accord respect to General Pulaski as one of our great American heroes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven and of the state, the ninety-ninth.
