A PROCLAMATION FOR NATIONAL RADIO MONTH

WHEREAS, our radio stations render a service of great value to the families of Minnesota by providing entertainment and information in the home; and

WHEREAS, our radio stations have become communication links with our citizens on the move, serving as sentinel, advisor and friendly traveling companion; and

WHEREAS, our radio stations take an active role in our community, always ready to assist in the promotion of civic projects and place their facilities at public disposal in times of crisis; and

WHEREAS, radio broadcasting as a means of mass communication contributes much to the economic, technological and cultural development of America and occupies a vital position in the maintenance of our nation's welfare and security;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim that Minnesota will observe the month of May as

and call upon all citizens to take note of the achievements of our radio stations and to salute the men and women associated with them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirtieth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight and of the state, the one-hundredth.

Orville L. Freeman
GOVERNOR
