

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the electronics industry of Minnesota has marked a decade of growth and expansion with increasing job opportunities for our citizens and renewed recognition for the technological excellence of our Minnesota firms, and

WHEREAS, during 1962 the electronics industry of Minnesota will experience continued growth, with the outlook that more than 1,500 new jobs will be added to the already impressive total of the 42,000 that now exist in this field, and

WHEREAS, Minnesota is gaining attention, through the achievements of its electronics industry, as an ideal State in which to attract more investment, from the standpoint of its top qualified labor force--people who possess the intellectual and physical characteristics to do a really first-rate job for their industry and the Nation it serves, and

WHEREAS, the future of Minnesota's electronics industry is of great concern to all the people of Minnesota, who want encouragement given to this vital segment of our state's economy,

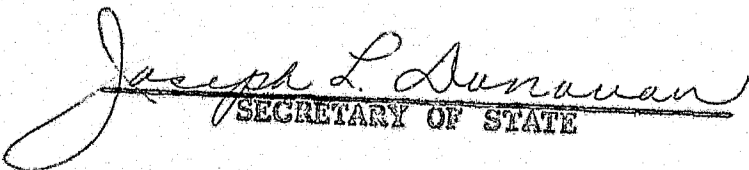

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer L. Andersen, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby designate the week of March 4 through March 10, 1962 as

"MINNESOTA ELECTRONICS RECOGNITION WEEK" in recognition of the important role the electronics industry plays in Minnesota's economy.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twelfth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two, and of the State the one hundred fourth.
