ORDINANCE NO. 14
Change of Regular Village Election Date for the Village of Greenwald, Minnesota

The Village Council of Greenwald, Minnesota, ordains as follows:

1. That at all times after the effective date of this ordinance, the regular village election for the Village of Greenwald, Minnesota, shall be held annually on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

2. The Village Clerk shall cause ten (10) days posted notice and may also cause two (2) weeks published notice of the annual village election to be held, specifying the time and place thereof, the offices to be filled, and the questions, if any, to be determined by vote.

3. The Village Clerk is authorized to notify, in writing, the County Auditor and the Secretary of State, of the change of date of election pursuant to the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, 205.07.

4. This ordinance to be effective on the day following publication of same in the Melrose Beacon of Melrose, Minnesota.

This ordinance passed by the Greenwald Council, this 28th day of August, 1963.

Edwin J. Kraemer
Mayor - Village of Greenwald
Attest: John A. Ohmann
Clerk - Village of Greenwald
