PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it is the human spirit which enables man to enrich his life by recognizing and appreciating the natural beauty about him and creating loveliness where none existed before, and

WHEREAS, our state has dedicated itself to a program of seeking out and encouraging all expressions of the human spirit which will enrich and beautify the lives of its citizens, and

WHEREAS, the self-confidence and emotional harmony, which comes from the knowledge that one is well groomed and attractive, has a beneficial effect on the individual, and hence, on the ability to contribute to, and take enjoyment from the beauty of life, and

WHEREAS, this state can proudly point to an excellent number of professional hairdressers and cosmetologists who have contributed to the citizens of this state through a dedicated program of public service, have brought special beauty and honored spirit to many of our communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim February 14 to 21, 1965, as

and I urge all citizens to consider the many ways in which we can enrich our lives and the lives of our fellow citizens, by expressing the beauty and harmony inherent in our own spirit, in our daily work, and in our personal appearance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five and of the State, the one hundred seventh.
