

We Invite You To

The Regents of the University of Minnesota hereby affix the date of September 17, 1965, at 10 o'clock A.M. at 238 Morrill Hall, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota, as the date, time and place for a public hearing relating to the adoption of the attached Traffic Ordinance...

REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA TRAFFIC REGULATION ORDINANCE

An Ordinance to promote and conserve the public safety, health, peace, convenience, and welfare, by regulating the use by the public of the highways, streets, private roads and roadways situated on property owned, leased or occupied by the Regents of the University of Minnesota...

ARTICLE I Application

This Ordinance and subsequent Ordinances unless expressly stated therein shall apply only to highways, streets, private roads, and roadways, as herein defined, situated on property owned, leased or occupied by the Regents of the University of Minnesota...

ARTICLE II Definitions

The following words and phrases when used in this Ordinance shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this section:

Section 1. Street or Highway - "Street or Highway" means the entire width between curb or surface lines of any way or place when any part thereof is open to the use of the public for the purpose of vehicular traffic.

Section 2. Private Road or Driveway - "Private Road or Driveway" includes every street or highway not dedicated to the respective governmental subdivision and every way or place in University ownership used for vehicular travel by the owner and those having express or implied permission from the owner, but not other persons.

Section 3. Roadway - "Roadway" means that portion of a street, highway, private road, or driveway, or parking facility, designed for ordinary use, for the accommodation of stopped or parked vehicles.

Section 4. Parking - "Parking" refers to the standing of a vehicle upon a street or highway, private road or driveway, or driveway whether accompanied or unaccompanied by the operator thereof.

ARTICLE III Traffic Provisions

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive and operate, stop or park a vehicle upon any roadway so as to needlessly, unnecessarily and unwarrantably block, obstruct or interfere with the orderly flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic. Proof that such traffic was blocked, obstructed, or interfered with shall be prima facie evidence that such person is obstructing and interfering needlessly, unnecessarily and unwarrantably.

No vehicles shall stop on or in any crosswalk or driveway so as to interfere with the passage of pedestrians.

Section 2.

Parking - (a) Except where signs designate angle parking, no person shall stand or park a vehicle other than parallel with the edge of the roadway, headed in the direction of traffic, with the curb-side wheels of the vehicle within twelve inches of the edge of the roadway, and not closer than four feet to another vehicle parked at the curb; or not in compliance with the established signs and markings then evident.

(b) Except where signs designate angle parking upon any roadway not having a curb, each vehicle stopped or parked shall be stopped or parked parallel with and to the right of the paved or improved or main traveled part of the street or highway.

(c) No person shall park in a vehicle for a longer period of time than is designated on traffic control devices marking such zone.

(d) No person shall stop, stand or park a vehicle, unless directed to do so by a police officer, on any roadway...

(d) "Temporary" shall be considered of a duration not longer than 90 calendar days.

Section 4.

Miscellaneous Provisions - No vehicle shall be driven, operated or parked upon properties owned by or under the supervision and control of the Regents of the University of Minnesota, except upon highways, streets, private roads, and roadways, as defined in this Ordinance, and then only subject to the provisions of the Ordinances of the Regents of the University of Minnesota, the Highway Traffic Regulation Act (Minnesota Statutes Chapter 169, as amended) or other lawful authority.

Section 5.

Towing - Any police officer is hereby empowered to cause to be removed and towed away and to be stored in other areas on University premises or in a public garage, any unattended vehicle standing or parked in violation of the terms of this Ordinance, the Uniform Traffic Regulation Act or other lawful authority. Where such vehicle is towed away and stored in other areas on the premises of the University or in such public garage, such vehicle will not be returned to the owner thereof except upon satisfactory proof of ownership and upon payment of the reasonable cost for towage and storage of such vehicle.

ARTICLE IV Penalties

Any person found violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in jail or workhouse for not more than ninety (90) days or by a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100), unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

ARTICLE V Saving Clause

If any part or parts of this Ordinance shall be held unconstitutional, such fact shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Ordinance. The Regents of the University of Minnesota hereby declares it would have passed the remaining parts of this Ordinance if it had known that such part or parts thereof would be declared unconstitutional.

ARTICLE VI Effective Date

This Ordinance shall be enforced and in effect upon the filing of the same with proof of publication thereof with the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota. #17691 t35
