Joseph L. Donovan
Secretary of State

PROCLAMATIONS

- WHEREAS, the traditions of Minnesota are filled with chronicles of the devotion and wisdom of the family doctor, and
- WHEREAS, the number of family physicians in the State of Minnesota has decreased to an alarming degree, and
- WHEREAS, the medical school of the University of Minnesota has recently inaugurated programs designed to ensure an adequate supply of well-trained family physicians for the people of Minnesota, and
- WHEREAS, the family doctors of the State of Minnesota are meeting in convention for their Annual Scientific Refresher Course, in the City of Minneapolis, during the week of April 16-22, 1967,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 16-22, 1967, as in Minnesota, and send to these physicians the gratitude of the State for their services.

"FAMILY DOCTOR WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in the City of Saint Paul this twenty-seventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State the one hundred ninth.

Harold LeVander
GOVERNOR
