WHEREAS, the Health Insurance Industry is vital to the welfare of the citizens of Minnesota and is one of the greatest economic and social tools devised by man to indemnify, along with government programs, against the financial losses resulting from hospital medical bills and disablement of individuals, and

WHEREAS, the Health Insurance Industry represents an economic flow of over 100 million dollars in benefits paid annually to our citizens in need, and

WHEREAS, the health insurance agents and companies doing business in the State of Minnesota serve in the public interest to bring the health insurance message into homes and businesses in our state,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of January 13-17, 1969 as

"MINNESOTA HEALTH INSURANCE WEEK" in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to observe this week accordingly.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, and of the State, the one hundred eleventh.

Harold LeVander
GOVERNOR

Joseph L. Donovan
