

STATE OF MINNESOTA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

PROCLAMATION.

Next Monday is Labor Day. It is a holiday that should be observed for the purpose of discussing the privileges and duties of all those who toil. It is upon the wage-earners of our country that we must mostly depend for its perpetuity and for the true happiness of its people. To secure the proper co-operation among all of our citizens is one of the greatest problems of our times. To solve it properly demands a thorough and serious consideration of the rights of our workers and those dependent on them.

It is, therefore, urged that

SEPTEMBER 6, 1920

be set aside as Labor Day and that it be properly and fittingly observed by the people of our State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed this 4th., day of September, 1920.

Attest:

Julius A. Schuyler
Secretary of State.

J. M. Bergquist
Governor.
