PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the nation will observe National Transportation Week, May 16-22, 1971, in recognition of the essential role of transportation in our country's economy and our prosperity; and
- WHEREAS, women in railroading have made vital contributions in their daily work both in peace and war, toward the service of their industry to the public; and
- WHEREAS, one of the major objectives of the members of the National Association of Railway Business Women, over and above their service to the industry, has been to stimulate good will for the industry and a greater public awareness of the railroad's essentiality to our nation; and
- WHEREAS, the National Association of Railway Business Women has cooperated actively in this particular week in many ways, combining good works in the community with special projects, including the presentation of model electric trains to homes for mentally retarded and handicapped children in many cities throughout the nation; and
- WHEREAS, simultaneous dedication ceremonies of these gift trains to be conducted by the National Association of Railway Business Women on Wednesday, May 19, will also contribute to the observation of National Transportation Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 19, 1971,

RAILROAD WOMEN'S DAY

in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventeenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-one and of the State, the one hundred fourteenth.
