PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: the citizens of our state have benefited in many ways from the efforts of Realtors in civic affairs, for charitable causes, and, most important, in the donation of their professional knowledge of real estate matters for the good of our communities and our state; and

WHEREAS: realtors have assumed these responsibilities with credit, by advocating programs fostering home ownership, and by emphasizing the positive goal to "Sell America First -- Everyday"; and

WHEREAS: these Realtors have joined with thousands of their colleagues throughout the nation in celebrating Realtor Week, May 21 - 27, in extolling the advantages of real property ownership;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the week of May 21 through May 27, 1972, to be in Minnesota. I urge all citizens to join me in saluting the Realtors of this state, and the 100,000 Realtors across this great nation, for their services, programs and professional dedication.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two and of the State, the one hundred fifteenth.
