PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Roland and Jean Meyer are dedicated citizens and exceptional parents; and

WHEREAS: this remarkable couple recognized the great need in Minnesota for a good home where mentally retarded adults can live as dignified human beings; and

WHEREAS: through perseverance and deep personal motivation, the Harry Meyering Center is now a reality; and

WHEREAS: the goal of the Center is to help residents achieve their fullest potential; and

WHEREAS: the Harry Meyering Center is the first of its kind in the United States where a college and resident facility work together;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 23, 1973, as in Minnesota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Governor's Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-third day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State the one hundred and fifteenth.
