

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: safe student transportation in school buses is extremely vital in today's high-volume traffic throughout the State of Minnesota, and
- WHEREAS: the vigilance required to reduce accidents is a big job for everyone, and
- WHEREAS: School Bus Safety Week underscores the vigilance, caution, and courtesy that must be exercised by every citizen in order for there to be any significant reduction in vehicle accidents, and
- WHEREAS: this program has been initiated for a three-fold purpose: to make safer drivers of the school bus driver, to emphasize the state law regarding when and when not to pass a school bus, and to help inform the general public of the importance that a school bus plays in the education program, and
- WHEREAS: the excellent safety record achieved by school buses in our State is worthy of recognition and commendation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 23 through April 28, 1973, as in Minnesota, and urge activities designed to increase public understanding and awareness of the significance of the pupil transportation program on a national basis to the pupil, the parents, the community, the state, and the nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twelfth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State, the one hundred fifteenth.
