

WHEREAS: as a player, coach, official and sports editor, Henry (Lefty) Ranweiler has made outstanding contributions to the world of sports; and

WHEREAS: the Willmar area has been the special beneficiary of Lefty Ranweiler's endeavors in all these areas; and

WHEREAS: Lefty Ranweiler has entered upon every challenge, whether as a pitcher and outfielder for the Willmar Rails, the State AA Amateur Baseball Champions, or as editor of the West Central Daily Tribune sports pages, with enthusiasm, good cheer, abundant energy and a continuing dedication to excellence; and

WHEREAS: Lefty Ranweiler has succeeded magnificently in achieving excellence in all that he has undertaken; and

WHEREAS: Lefty Ranweiler has inspired, informed and enriched the lives of thousands of people, young and old, through his performance as an athlete, his talents as a coach, and his tireless work on the West Central Daily Tribune; and

WHEREAS: the people of Willmar, and the State of Minnesota, are deeply grateful for Lefty Ranweiler's presence among them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, June 14, 1973 to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to join with me in honoring this outstanding citizen and in extending best wishes to him in all that he undertakes in the months and years to come.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State the one hundred and fifteenth.
