

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: R. J. McMullen, affectionately known as Mac, has been director of the Clay County Welfare Department for the past 27 years; and
- WHEREAS: throughout those years, he has provided leadership for progressive social change in the entire northwest area of the state; and
- WHEREAS: R. J. McMullen has initiated many programs to help children, the aged, the infirm and the needy in his community; and
- WHEREAS: he has administered the welfare and social service programs in Clay County with efficiency and concern; and
- WHEREAS: his generous heart has brought hope to the people in Clay County who needed a helping hand; and
- WHEREAS: despite discouragements and unnumbered conflicts and crises he has always maintained his keen sense of humor; and
- WHEREAS: in performing his duties with integrity, understanding, and compassion he has made Minnesota a better place in which to live;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, September 21, 1973 to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State the one hundred and fifteenth.
