

STATE OF MINNESOTA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
ST. PAUL

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago, Ill., from July 28 to August 30, 1921, held a great exposition to be known as the Pageant of Progress, and,

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago and the State of Minnesota have much in common, and their programs and property are to a large extent dependent upon the same industries, and

WHEREAS, the exposition officials, in recognition of the close industrial and social relations between Illinois and Minnesota, have seen fit to designate

AUGUST 7TH

AS

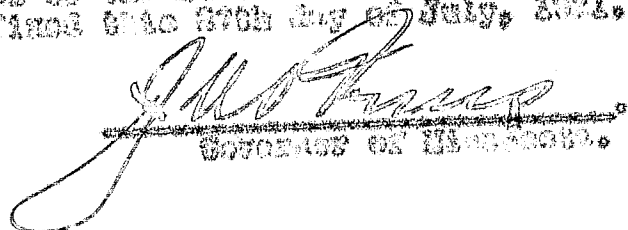

MINNESOTA DAY,

and,

WHEREAS, the Mayor of Chicago, who is President of the Exposition, has extended an invitation to the people of Minnesota to participate in the program on Minnesota Day and to view the many industrial and educational exhibits.

NOW THEREFORE, I, J. A. O. Parn, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby urge as many of our people as possible to attend said Pageant of Progress on August seventh and to assist in the proper celebration of Minnesota Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed this 5th day of July, 1921.

Governor of Minnesota.
