

Proclamation

WHEREAS: one of the greatest resources possessed by our Nation and State is the talent and wisdom of older Americans; and

WHEREAS: in Minnesota, more than ten percent of our total population, or nearly 410,000 persons, are 65 or older; and

WHEREAS: these individuals can offer priceless experience and mature judgment in helping us to build the future of this nation on the fundamental lessons of the past; and

WHEREAS: we are mindful of the needs of our senior citizens and have a deep concern and commitment to programs of service to our elderly citizens; and

WHEREAS: a special day at the Minnesota State Fair has been planned for seniors on Thursday, August 29, 1974;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, August 29, 1974 to be at the State Fair.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-four and of the State the one hundred and sixteenth.
