

Proclamation

WHEREAS: WCCO Radio has become an integral part of the lives of many residents of Minnesota and surrounding states; and

WHEREAS: WCCO Radio's service to the community is many-faceted -- from comprehensive news coverage and sports events to music to Boone and Erickson; and

WHEREAS: WCCO Radio is fittingly known as "The Good Neighbor to the Northwest"; and

WHEREAS: citizens dial 830 to learn of weather conditions, school closings, election results, and other news of concern to their communities; and

WHEREAS: for thousands of farm families at noontime, WCCO Radio becomes their link with the world of agriculture; and

WHEREAS: in 1973, WCCO became the first commercial radio station in the United States to win the Peabody Award for the fourth time; and

WHEREAS: WCCO Radio is one of twelve stations in the United States known as a "clear channel station" so that after sundown, listeners from all over North America can pick up its 50,000 watt signal; and

WHEREAS: WCCO Radio's rich tradition and continuing standards of excellence have played a significant role in the progress of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: WCCO is celebrating its 50th Anniversary as a good neighbor on Wednesday, October 2, 1974;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, October 2, to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this second day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-four and of the State the one hundred and sixteenth.
