

Proclamation

- REAS: there is an ever-increasing need for better understanding of how the lives of all Minnesotans, and often their jobs, are touched by Agriculture each day; and
- REAS: Minnesota's farmers are becoming more aware of their role of supplying products which fit consumers needs; and
- REAS: communicating these fundamental principles and understanding them are of prime importance to the continued growth of Minnesota and the United States of America; and
- REAS: the National Agri-Marketing Association, an organization of agri-business leaders, is planning an American Agriculture Day March 22, 1976; and
- REAS: it is planned that this Agriculture Day will have as its theme, "Almost Everything Starts On A Farm", which dramatically points out the interaction and interdependence of rural and urban Americans; and
- REAS: the North Central Chapter of NAMA, has endeavored to build a solid bridge of understanding between rural and urban Minnesotans;

THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim March 22, 1976 as

MINNESOTA AGRICULTURE DAY

I urge our citizens to make a special effort on this day to consider the importance of Minnesota's agriculture industry and to take advantage of the information which will be made available to them during this effort.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this tenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-six and of the State the one hundred eighteenth.
