

Proclamation

WHEREAS: the Minnesota Council for Exceptional Children is an organization of professional educators concerned with life opportunities of Minnesotans in general and exceptional Minnesotans specifically; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota is nationally recognized as providing leadership in all areas touching exceptional citizens' lives; and

WHEREAS: the continuous effort in Minnesota for decades to obtain appropriate services for exceptional children has resulted in the development of legislation, policies, and management systems to facilitate and guarantee that each exceptional child receives the services that he or she requires; and

WHEREAS: concern for the wholeness of the school and community in the decision-making process affecting exceptional children has yielded procedures involving children and their parents or guardians in that process; and

WHEREAS: the quality of life in Minnesota invites a constantly growing population, the need for public information, attitude and idea dissemination, and advocacy within local communities remains a critical and viable mechanism for maintaining our rate of progress in developing a state with appropriate life opportunities for all citizens; and

WHEREAS: there are an estimated 100,000 exceptional children in Minnesota who must be assured of appropriate life opportunities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1977 as

and May 14, 1977 as
