

Proclamation

WHEREAS: working together for education is a necessity to involve everyone in local education; and

WHEREAS: the continuing success of our schools depends on such involvement if they are to reflect the will of the public in the education of our young; and

WHEREAS: such involvement of the public must be continuing if the success of our schools is to be assured; and

WHEREAS: public participation with educators is a must in the planning and execution of school program; and

WHEREAS: total involvement of community and schools will maintain our high level of education in the state of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: these concerns are reflected in the 1977 national theme -- WORKING TOGETHER FOR EDUCATION -- which suits Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 13 through November 19, 1977 to be in Minnesota, and urge everyone to visit our schools and participate actively in our most vital activity: the total development of our greatest and most precious resource, the creative potential of all our children and adults.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-seven and of the State the one hundred twentieth.
