

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The rehabilitation and training of handicapped Americans is a goal worthy of the support of all the citizens of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Such rehabilitation requires a sophisticated, modern program of vocational testing, counseling, guidance, work experience, and job placement service; and

WHEREAS: This program is best carried out in an atmosphere of encouragement and understanding that fosters the development of pride, independence, and self-esteem in the individuals involved; and

WHEREAS: Goodwill Industries of America has been providing these essential services for 77 years, making it possible for hundreds of thousands of handicapped persons to become self-sufficient, contributing members of society; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 6 through May 12, 1979, to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to give their support and attention to the valuable efforts of this fine organization.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this third day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-nine, and of the State the one hundred twenty-first.
