

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Licensed non-profit nursing homes in Minnesota contribute to the public good by providing individualized rehabilitative, social, and spiritual services as well as medical and nursing care for our aged, chronically ill, and the convalescent; and

WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota is appreciative of the many dedicated people who provide skilled and compassionate care for our elderly in nursing homes, and is also grateful for the many generous contributions of nursing home residents to our quality of life; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Association of Homes for the Aging, representing not-for-profit homes in our State, is observing Nursing Home Week in 1980 with the theme "Living With a Caring Family";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1980 to be
