

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Seventy-Second Legislature adjourned without enacting essential legislation to provide for the orderly financial management of state government and to raise revenues to fund the operations of the government and programs for which monies have been legislatively appropriated; and

WHEREAS: The time permitted by law for passage of such legislation during the 1981 Session of the Legislature has expired, and an extraordinary occasion in thereby created; and

WHEREAS: Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota provides that a special session of the Legislature may be called on extraordinary occasions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby summon you, members of the Legislature, to convene in Special Session on Saturday, June 6, 1981, at 9:00 in the forenoon at the Capitol in Saint Paul, Minnesota.

It is my belief that the interests of the people of Minnesota will be best served if the Legislature confines its work during the Special Session to passage of those items of legislation which have been agreed upon by legislative leaders of both parties and myself. I hope that this work will be completed as expeditiously as possible.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this fourth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty-one, and of the State the one hundred twenty-third.
