

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has educated Minnesota's children of O'Hara, Amherst, Ellestad, Canton, Newburg Prosper, Pipestone and Faribault Schools, giving tender hearts and minds through adventures of Dick and Jane and summations of twos and threes for over 40 years; and
- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has served her church, preparing Scandanavian smorgasbords, and crocheting snow flakes and angels, knitting dolls and booties for numerous bazars; and
- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has promoted the welfare of senior citizens, many less senior than herself, by driving them to hospitals and concerts, homes and theaters, by preparing dinners and desserts and by providing caring support and friendship; and
- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has addressed the needs and concerns of Retired Teachers of Minnesota and has lobbied effectively for their legislative agenda with her favorite legislator, Representative Dan Knuth; and
- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has supported the arts of Minnesota with her patronage of symphonies and theater nibbled doughnuts, and sampled the best of Minnesota talent; and
- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has traveled extensively throughout the State of Minnesota, appreciating its beauty, flora and fauna, enjoying the diversity of its many cultural and ethnic festivals, and has been a tourist par excellent; and
- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has reared her family; baking bishop's bread and cinnamon rolls; mending pockets and parkas; sewing jackets and tents; assembling tree skirts; Advent Calendars; table linens; knitting booties, hats, scarves sweaters; and accomplishing tasks immeasurable and impossible with the magic words, "Aunt Stella will fix it,";
- WHEREAS: Stella Lund has personified to her family, duty and devotion, patience and perseverance, kindness and generosity;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 4, 1983, to be
