

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Minnesota business and industry are responding to the changing economic opportunities, creating new jobs and eliminating those no longer sufficiently productive; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota workers continue to demonstrate how well they can use training and education in order to respond to working opportunities, including jobs in new and growing occupations and industries; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota companies have developed many excellent corporate training programs to enable their own employees and customers to make good use of new equipment and concepts for greater productivity; and

WHEREAS: Retrain Twin Cities has become the community service agency to match skilled workers who are now dislocated and unemployed with the corporate training opportunities each worker needs in order to secure and retain work in a more stable or growing occupation and industry; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of September, 1983, to be in Minnesota.

FURTHER, I urge all Minnesotans to lend their support to the efforts of Retrain Twin Cities to help Minnesota's dislocated workers develop the additional skills needed in order to return to the productive workforce.

Rudy Perpich Jean Anderson Howe

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State
