

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Productivity has been a hallmark of American enterprise, and, if sufficiently pursued, can once again aid our nation's sound development; and

WHEREAS: The American Institute of Industrial Engineers, and its Twin City Chapter, as professional practitioners in productivity improvement, are emphasizing the vital need to meet the productivity challenge facing this nation; and

WHEREAS: The citizens of Minnesota are equal partners in the national force needed to reverse the downward trend in productivity;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of October 1983, to be in Minnesota.

FURTHER, I urge citizens to seek ways to improve individual and collective productivity in business, industry and government.
