

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Major General "Jim" Sieben has served the cause of his state and nation as a member of the Armed Forces for forty-five years; and

WHEREAS: Major General "Jim" Sieben has served as the Adjutant General of the State of Minnesota for thirteen years; and

WHEREAS: Under his dedicated leadership, the Minnesota National Guard has constantly improved its capability to answer any call of both its state and its nation; and

WHEREAS: Through his diligent efforts, the Minnesota National Guard has increased in size to its present strength of 13,000 highly trained men and women; and

WHEREAS: Major General "Jim" Sieben, our state's "Number One" National Guardsman, will perform his last traditional Annual Training during the month of June, 1987; and

WHEREAS: All citizens of Minnesota join his family, friends and the entire Minnesota National Guard in paying tribute to his leadership and his long years of service;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim June 21 to be in Minnesota, and call upon all Minnesotans to join in honoring him for his contributions to our state and nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this second day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-seven, and of the State the one hundred twenty-ninth.
