

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Clarence A. Bertram is celebrating his 65th birthday on February 12, 1989; and
- WHEREAS: Clarence Bertram has set an example through the years for his four children and thirteen grandchildren in his hard work, his dedication to his family, friends and church, his generosity, and his concern for others; and
- WHEREAS: In his hometown of Spring Hill, Minnesota, Clarence has shown his sense of community spirit over and over, through participating in numerous local organizations, including church groups, farm organizations, Knights of Columbus, and more; and
- WHEREAS: Clarence is a life-time farmer, and has made a large contribution to rural Minnesota through his endless efforts as an advocate for rural development; and
- WHEREAS: Clarence takes his projects and commitments seriously, and has made many friends through his loyalty;
- WHEREAS: It is fitting to set aside a day to honor Clarence Bertram on his 65th birthday;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim February 12th, 1989 to be
