

Proclamation

WHEREAS: We are living in the Information Age, in which timely and accurate information is increasingly vital to the quality of both our personal and professional lives; and

WHEREAS: Rapid advances in the techniques and technologies of information and records management are changing the lives of Minnesotans for the better; and

WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota plays a leading role in the information industry, with its many manufacturers and major users of information systems; and

WHEREAS: The efforts of Record Management professionals in making vast bodies of information more accessible to those who need it is of benefit to all our citizens; and

WHEREAS: The Twin Cities Chapter of the International Association of Records Managers and Administrators is holding its annual Spring Conference April 6 and 7;

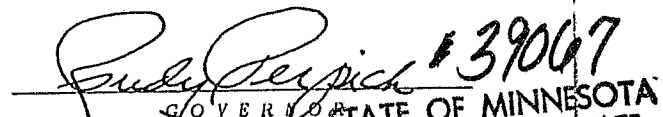

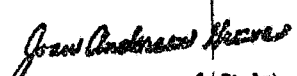

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 3 through 7, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

RECORDS MANAGEMENT WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
