

contested, one or more votes in each said election district in excess of those in fact duly and legally cast for said contestee for said office of State Representative at said general election. That the effect of these errors and improper tallying, counting, returning and canvassing was to cause it to appear, upon the canvass by the said State Canvassing Board, that there were 28 more votes cast at said general election in the said 53rd District for the contestee herein than for the contestant.
