DEPARTMENT OF RELATIONS
M. I. T. B. D.
JULY 12 1944
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
ST. PAUL, MINN.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, conservation of manpower is imperative as a war measure in the production of food, and

WHEREAS, fatal and disabling accidents annually take a large toll of farm workers, and

WHEREAS, most personal accidents result from lack of forethought and care, and failure to remedy accident-prone conditions, and

WHEREAS, safety education is the most immediately effective weapon in accident prevention,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EDWARD J. THYE, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim

THE WEEK BEGINNING JULY 23, 1944

MINNESOTA FARM SAFETY WEEK

and urge that all farmers, so far as may lie within their power, do survey and remedy accident-prone conditions on their premises; that they institute and practice safety measures especially during that week to the end that such practices and measures become standard and habitual, and I also urge that local safety councils, farm organizations, newspapers, periodicals and radio stations do carry on special farm accident prevention educational activities during that week in cooperation with the National Safety Council and the Minnesota Safety Council.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this 12th day of July, 1944.
