On motion the report of the Committee of the Whole was adopted.

Mr. Craig moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

The President pro tem. ruled the motion out of order, for the reason that he was in receipt of a communication from the Executive, which must be read.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was received from the Governor and announced by the chair.

St. Paul, Minn., April 2, 1891.
Hon. G. S. Ives, President of the Senate:

Sir,—I beg to return herewith without my approval, S. F. No. 128, entitled "A bill to revise, amend and consolidate the charter of the city of Minneapolis, to unite the various boards and departments of said city."

This bill seeks to change the organic act of one of the largest municipalities in Minnesota, creating an entirely new plan for the government of the city of Minneapolis, and inaugurating a centralization of power which is contrary to the best public policy. Under ordinary circumstances, it has been the custom of the executive office to interpose no objection to what is known as local legislation, but inasmuch as this is to be practically the constitution of a city, in population one-seventh of the size of the entire state, and inasmuch as numerous protests have been offered by a large number of people of the city. I feel impelled to return it, believing that under the circumstances, it would be wiser to submit this proposed charter to the people of the city for their approval or disapproval.

In detail, as a further objection, I urge that the bill is loosely and inaccurately drawn, containing provisions, which, from their ambig-
