EXECUTIVE AND OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION.

State of Minnesota
St. Paul, April 23, 1941.

Hon. C. Elmer Anderson, President of the Senate:

Sir:

I return to you herewith without my approval Senate File 914.

The Attorney General advises me that this bill would grant a very broad consent of the state to be sued in any action affecting any interest in real estate that the state may have, and any lien the state may have.

It also gives the right to the officer of the State charged with the administration of laws in respect of which a lien of the State arises to extinguish the same. Any releasing of State claims is now made after by a very strict procedure requiring presentation by the Attorney General to the State Executive Council.

I therefore conclude that the broad language of this Bill would not be in the interest of the State, although I realize that there are certain situations which arise which might be covered by legislation of this nature along the lines of very restrictive Federal legislation that is now in force.

Respectfully submitted,
HAROLD E. STASSEN,
Governor.
