

Agency Purpose

As chief executive, the governor oversees all operations of state government and takes the lead in shaping public policy and representing the interests of Minnesotans to the legislature.

Core Functions

The Governor's Office is organized to effectively administer the duties of the chief executive. Major duties of the governor are to:

- ◆ oversee and provide leadership for the day-to-day operations of state government, with emphasis on quality service delivery and state agency responsiveness to Minnesota citizens;
- ◆ appoint state department heads, people to state boards and commissions, and judges for all court systems when vacancies occur;
- ◆ chair the State Executive Council, the State Board of Investment, the Land Exchange Board, and the Legislative Advisory Commission;
- ◆ dispatch the National Guard for emergency duty;
- ◆ issue extradition papers, proclamations, and writs of special elections;
- ◆ prepare and establish advisory committees to aid in developing legislative proposals and plans for executive action;
- ◆ inform the legislature of the general condition of the state, review, veto, or sign into law legislation and rules, and call special sessions of the legislature when needed;
- ◆ develop the biennial budget and present it to the legislature;
- ◆ promote business development and help create new jobs with assistance and advice from legislators and business leaders;
- ◆ represent the citizens of the state at various functions at local, state, national, and international levels; and
- ◆ perform all other duties as specified by the laws of the state.

The lieutenant governor's chief duty is to assist the governor in carrying out the functions of the executive branch. The lieutenant government serves as an extension of the governor, represents the governor, and is prepared to act in the governor's place in the event of the governor's absence or disability. The lieutenant governor is a key member of the governor's cabinet and is involved in major policy and budget decisions.

Part of the lieutenant governor's official duties include:

- ◆ chairing the Capitol Area Architectural Planning Board (CAAPB); and
- ◆ serving as a member of the State Executive Council.

Operations

The Governor's Office is organized by three program areas overseen by the chief of staff: Government Relations, Communications (which includes citizen outreach), and Operations (which includes the Governor's Residence).

Budget

The office is funded through a direct appropriation from the General Fund. Because state agencies have an interest in maintaining and supporting the functions of the Washington, D.C. office, the Governor's Office has agreements with 11 agencies who share in the costs of staffing and operating the D.C. office.
