Introduction

History

In 1967, the legislature began regulating the practice of law enforcement by creating the Minnesota Peace Officer Training Board (MPOTB). The Board's main responsibility was to certify agencies offering police academy training in hopes that police training would become standardized across the state.

In 1977 several amendments to the original legislation were passed abolishing the MPOTB and replacing it with the Minnesota Board of Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST).

The mission of the POST Board was to create the first law enforcement occupational licensing system in the United States. The system established licensing and training requirements and set standards for law enforcement agencies and officers. Today, the Board continues to develop, maintain and enforce standards for selection, education and licensing.

Compared to other states, Minnesota's licensing system is unique because it requires all peace officers to obtain a post-secondary degree. Also, there is no state-sponsored police training academy as in most other states. Since its inception, POST's standards have been recognized as a model for many other states that have subsequently adopted similar systems.

Mission

The mission of the POST Board is to regulate and enhance the profession of law enforcement across the state of Minnesota through the selection, education and licensing standards of peace officers.

The Board licenses and regulates more than 11,700 peace officers and over 450 state, county and local law enforcement agencies. It also certifies colleges and universities throughout the state that provide professional peace officer education programs.

Like other state regulatory agencies, POST implements policies and procedures enacted by the legislature. The Board and committee meetings often focus on developing practices to clarify statutory requirements impacting officers, law enforcement agencies, higher education providers and students. POST's philosophy is to serve as a resource and partner with stakeholders to ensure compliance with state policies and training mandates.

Board and Committees

The board of an organization establishes and maintains the policies and procedures necessary to fulfill their mission. The POST Board responds to their members' constituencies as well as the governor's office, legislature, other state agencies, law enforcement-related professional organizations and stakeholder and community groups.

The full Board meets four times per year. In addition, committees of the Board meet as needed and are called by the committee's chairperson. The committees are subordinate to the Board and must report their recommendations to the Board for authority to act. For the full Board and all committees, a majority vote of members present and voting is needed to take action.

Board

- The chair is a Board member appointed by the governor. In the absence of the chair, the vice-chair serves. The vice-chair is elected for a twelve month term by the entire Board with a majority vote at the first meeting after new Board members are appointed each year. The Board functions as a voting body and each member has one vote.
- Members are expected to have a working knowledge of state government, the Board's scope and mission, administrative rules, the Board's bylaws, and rules of the organization.

Executive Committee

- The Executive Committee consists of the Board chair, vice-chair and four other members. The purpose of the Executive Committee is to advise and assist the administrative staff.
- The Committee is empowered to act on matters that require immediate action, except when such action might affect or modify existing Board policies and procedures.

Bylaws Committee

- The Bylaws Committee is comprised of three members, including the chair. The bylaws define and control the conduct of the Board.
- The Committee meets to review the language of the current bylaws and, if necessary, recommend changes to the full Board.

Standards Committee

- The Committee is comprised of seven members including the Committee chair and vice-chair.
- The purpose of the Standards Committee is to review and make recommendations relating to minimum selection standards and standards of conduct for peace officers.

Training Committee

- The Training Committee has seven members including the Committee chair and vice-chair.
- The purpose of the Committee is to review and make recommendations to the Board on the certification of post-secondary law enforcement programs in Minnesota, licensing exams and continuing education of peace officers.

Complaint Committee

- The Complaint Committee consists of three Board members, two of whom must be peace officers. All three members must be present for a quorum.
- The purpose of the Complaint Committee is to regulate the management and processing of complaints relative to allegations of administrative rule violations by chief law enforcement officers and for any alleged violation of the standards of conduct for licensed peace officers as defined in Minnesota Rules, Chapter 6700.1600.

Special Committees

- The Board chair may create and empower special committees consisting of at least three members.

Biennial Budget

The POST Board is funded through a special revenue account from a surcharge on certain criminal and traffic offenses. Although the law (§ 357.021, subd. 6 & 7) directs the state treasurer to credit 39% of the proceeds to the Peace Officer Training Account, POST's budget cannot exceed the legislated base appropriation.

Dedicated Receipts

POST receives an appropriation to reimburse law enforcement agencies to help defray their peace officer training costs. Continuing education is essential for law enforcement to learn the skills necessary to ensure public safety. In recent years, training needs have become increasingly more complex and costly while the reimbursement amount has remained stagnant.

The 2005 Omnibus Public Safety bill included a dedicated fee to increase the reimbursement amount to local units of government for continuing education training of peace officers. The $20 fee is paid for the reinstatement of a driver's license in two non-DWI related instances – suspension for failure to appear and suspension for unpaid fines.

Website

The POST Board website is a widely used resource by potential peace officers, students in the professional peace officer education programs, licensed officers and members of the public. The site received an updated design in 2008 allowing users to maneuver within the site quickly and easily. Highlights include:

- How to become a peace officer
- Upcoming continuing education courses around the state
- Current job opportunities for peace officers
- General information for officers and agencies

Below is a snapshot of the home page featuring notices of upcoming events, important deadlines and new policy and licensing updates.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Minnesota POST Board website. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links: "POST Home | Contact Us", "Becoming an Officer", "Exams", "Licensing", "Board Information", "Continuing Education", "Upcoming Approved Courses", "Peace Officer Career Opportunities", and "Complaint Information". Below the menu is a large banner with the text "Welcome to the Minnesota Board of Peace Officer Standards & Training". To the left of the banner is a logo featuring a map of Minnesota. To the right, contact information for Neil W. Melton, Executive Director, is provided: "1600 University Avenue, Suite 200, Saint Paul, Minnesota, 55104-3825" and "Phone: (651)643-3060 Fax: (651)643-3072". Below the banner, there are two main columns. The left column is titled "About the POST Board" and contains links for "Federal Law Enforcement Safety Act", "Links", "Rules", "Forms", "Statistics", and "Ask a Question". The right column is titled "What's New!" and contains a section for "2008 Reimbursement by Law Agency". The text in this section states: "Over seventy-five percent of the POST Board's budget is distributed each year to local units of government. The payment is a partial cost of continuing education for their officers. POST's reimbursement account is funded by a surcharge on criminal and traffic/violator driver's license in non-DWI related instances (suspension for failure to appear or unpaid fines). Although the law (§ 357.021, subd. 5) surcharge the Board is to receive, the legislature has the prerogative to set the Board's budget. The reimbursement rate is calculated based on the total amount allocated by the legislature divided by the number of eligible officer-reimbursement for training costs. If an officer has been employed for eight months. To receive a reimbursement, a law enforcement agency must submit a list of eligible officers." The bottom of the page shows a Windows taskbar with the Start button, Internet Explorer icon, and the URL "http://www.post.state.mn.us/".

Functions

Licensed Peace Officers and Part-time Peace Officers

In Minnesota there are two types of licenses: peace officer and part-time peace officer, and two status categories: active and inactive. A licensed peace officer must graduate from a two- or four-year professional peace officer education program. A part-time licensed peace officer must complete an 80-hour educational curriculum, be supervised by a licensed peace officer and work no more than 1,080 hours annually. An officer's license is active if they are employed by a law enforcement agency. An inactive license indicates the officer is not currently employed by an agency, but they have not exceeded the three year license cycle.

A total of 11,726 officers were licensed in Minnesota as of June 30, 2008. Of the licensed peace officers, there were 10,207 active and 1,154 inactive. The number of active part-time licensed peace officers was 267 and 98 were inactive.

Licensing Examinations

The Board's rules require candidates for peace officer licensing to meet minimum selection standards including educational, non-conviction of certain crimes and job-related physical and psychological fitness. The rules also require candidates to pass a written examination to be eligible for licensure. Individuals who become eligible to be licensed do not receive their license until hired by a law enforcement agency.

The three licensing exams administered by the POST Board are peace officer, reciprocity and part-time peace officer. Candidates who pass a licensing exam are eligible to be licensed for a period of three years.

Peace Officer Licensing Examination

- For candidates who have successfully completed a professional peace officer education program.

The peace officer licensing examination is administered a minimum of six times annually. The exam is always offered in the metropolitan area. When a second site is justified by the demand, the exam is also offered in greater Minnesota.

Reciprocity Examination

- For individuals who are certified peace officers in another state, a federal jurisdiction or who have served in the military as military police officers for a period of five or more years of active duty and have received an honorable discharge.
- Eligibility is based on a combination of basic police training and experience.

Part-time Peace Officer Examination

- For individuals who have completed selection and training standards for part-time peace officers.
- Must be under the sponsorship of a law enforcement agency that intends to hire the candidate when he/she has passed the exam.

Both the reciprocity and part-time peace officer examinations are scheduled by individual appointment and conducted at the Board's office.

State of Residence for Licensing Examination Applicants

Peace officer and part-time peace officer licensing exam applicants must successfully complete a professional peace officer education program in Minnesota; therefore, their state of residence is not recorded. Candidates from other states who meet educational and/or years of experience requirements can apply for the reciprocity licensing exam.

The following table indicates the gender and the states where reciprocity candidates were last certified or licensed. Former federal law enforcement applicants are categorized separately because their last certification or licensing is not necessarily state-related.

Professional Peace Officer Education

In Minnesota twenty-three colleges and universities offer the professional peace officer education (PPOE) at thirty-five campuses. The Board's PPOE certification process ensures the schools meet standards set forth in Minnesota Rules and makes certain the programs provide the academic and skills components necessary to prepare students for a career in law enforcement. After certification, the programs are continuously monitored through regular communication with the schools' PPOE coordinators, annual on-site visits to each campus, annual coordinator conferences and through a re-certification process once every five years.

The PPOE is based on 154 learning objectives developed and regularly reviewed by the Board. The objectives are broken down into five broad categories including: 1) Practical Applications and Techniques, 2) Criminal Justice System: Civil and Criminal Law, 3) Community Policing, 4) Victims and Victims' Rights, and 5) Leading, Managing and Communicating. Each category includes goal statements and required and recommended educational content. After significant revision, the newest version of the Learning Objectives for Professional Peace Officer Education was published in March of 2007 and made available on the POST Board's website for the first time.

On-line Professional Peace Officer Education Courses Survey Findings and Summary

In February 2008, POST conducted a survey of the coordinators of the POST certified professional peace officer education (PPOE) programs to find out how on-line education is utilized in the provision of the PPOE.

Findings

- 11 of the 23 schools report they provide one or more of the PPOE courses on-line
- 12 of the 23 schools report they provide none of the PPOE courses on-line but 6 of these schools report they either will or may offer PPOE courses on-line in the future
- 3 of the 23 schools report offering the entire academic component of the PPOE program on-line
- One of the 3 schools that reports offering the entire academic component of the PPOE program on-line will only allow transition students (students who already have a degree) to participate in the all on-line program
- 1 of the 20 schools that do not provide the entire academic component on-line also reports it will begin to offer the entire academic component of the PPOE program on-line by the fall of 2008
- Virtually all of the schools use on-line tools as at least a part of their PPOE education and some have “Hybrid” or “Blended e-learning” classes that require both on-line work and classroom attendance

Summary

About half of the POST certified PPOE schools offer some of the PPOE academic courses on-line and many others are either planning to do so or are discussing this option for future course offerings. Three programs currently offer the entire PPOE academic component on-line; two of these began in the fall of 2007 and one in the fall of 2006. Few, if any, of the students who have completed all of the PPOE academic education on-line have taken the Minnesota POST Board exam. This means we do not know if taking the entire PPOE academic program on-line will impact students' 1) ability to pass the skills component of the PPOE education, 2) licensing exam scores, and/or 3) licensing exam pass/fail rate. This survey indicates that on-line courses have already taken a firm hold in PPOE education and the trend is to increase this type of course offering.

Continuing Education

Every licensed peace officer and part-time peace officer must complete a minimum of forty-eight hours of continuing education within the three-year licensing period in order to maintain and renew their license. For active officers, training in use of force is required annually and emergency vehicle operations/pursuit driving is mandatory once within the licensing period. It is the officer's discretion which courses they complete to satisfy the remainder of the required forty-eight hours. Inactive officers are not mandated to complete training in any particular subject, just forty-eight hours.

To gain POST-approval for continuing education courses, providers submit an application outlining the course content and instructor qualifications. To be accepted for continuing education training credit, the course must be law enforcement-related, promote professional peace officer competence, and be related to the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to perform peace officer duties.

When the course is approved the sponsor can request the course be automatically added to the POST Board website. The approved course list is updated weekly and divided into nine regions across the state for ease of locating training in a specific area (see below).

Continuing Education Expenditures

To qualify for reimbursement, law enforcement agencies must submit their continuing education expenses to the POST Board. Agencies are asked to list their actual costs although reimbursement is no more than the per-officer share or the amount expended on training.

The categories of continuing education expenditures are cost of course, officer's salary while in training, lodging and meals per diem, transportation to and from course, fees paid to training organization, and other costs including facility rental and training vehicle maintenance. The costs do not include expenses paid for by officers themselves, membership dues to the training association, training officer or support staff salaries, or expenditures from state agencies. The table below reflects the continuing education expenditures submitted to POST over the past fourteen years.

Reimbursement

Over seventy-five percent of the POST Board's budget is distributed each year to local units of government. The payment is a partial reimbursement to the law enforcement agency for costs of continuing education for their officers. POST's reimbursement account is funded by a surcharge on criminal and traffic violations and fees collected for the reinstatement of a driver's license in non-DWI related instances (suspension for failure to appear and unpaid fines). Although the law (§ 357.021, subd. 6 and 7) dictates the percentage of the surcharge the Board is to receive, the legislature has the prerogative to set the Board's budget.

The reimbursement rate is calculated based on the total amount allocated by the legislature divided by the number of eligible officers. A law enforcement agency is able to request reimbursement for training costs if an officer has been employed for eight months. To receive a reimbursement, a law enforcement agency must submit an application detailing the costs of continuing education and a list of all eligible officers.

The per-officer share varies from year to year depending on the number of eligible officers submitted by agencies for reimbursement and the account amount. The table below shows the per-officer share has increased and decreased while the number of eligible officers has steadily grown.

Fiscal Year	Reimbursement Account Total	Eligible Officers	Per-Officer Share	Per-Officer Share Increase / (Decrease)
2008	$ 3,610,510	9026	$ 400.54	($ 1.44)
2007	$ 3,531,464	8799	$ 401.98	$ 40.23
2006	$ 3,093,710	8567	$ 361.75	$ 9.26

License Sanctions

The POST Board has licensing jurisdiction when a peace officer has been criminally convicted and when the chief law enforcement officer fails to implement a mandated policy or follow a directive of the Board.

Based on legislation passed in 1995, a peace officer's license is automatically revoked if the officer is convicted of a felony. Convictions include a finding of guilt, whether or not the adjudication of guilt is stayed or executed, an admission of guilt, or a no contest plea. The Board's Complaint Committee procedure provides due process for licensees.

According to Minnesota Rules, Chapter 6700.1610, licensees themselves or persons with knowledge of the licensee's conduct which could be grounds for disciplinary action, must report the violation to the Board.

It is mandatory for all law enforcement agencies to adopt policies and procedures for the investigation of allegations of misconduct against their licensed peace officers. In 2001, the legislature mandated all agencies adopt a policy to prevent racial profiling governing the conduct of peace officers engaged in stops of citizens. Since then, complaints against peace officers received by the POST Board are separated by general allegations and impartial policing allegations.

Agency Compliance Reviews

Per MN Statutes 626.8459, the Board is directed to conduct annual compliance reviews of all state, county and local law enforcement agencies. The reviews ensure law enforcement agencies meet the minimum state standards set for policy and procedure, training and recordkeeping as well as ensuring all officers meet minimum standards for hiring.

Every July, the Board mails a policy and training compliance review form to each agency's Chief Law Enforcement Officer (CLEO) requesting affirmation that their agency's policy and training requirements have been met. The CLEO's are asked to submit forms to POST within thirty days.

In addition to the annual forms, POST's Standards Coordinators make random on-site reviews of agencies. The Board's practice is to review 50 randomly selected law enforcement agencies. The agencies chosen are generated by a computer program which calculates geographic regions to ensure representation across the state each year. In addition to the ones randomly selected, the Standards Coordinators have the discretion to review other law enforcement agencies. In FY 2007, 71 on-site visits to agencies were completed and 83 were reviewed in FY 2008.

Administrative Rules

The POST Board is authorized to adopt rules and standards relating to the selection, training, and licensing of peace officers and part-time peace officers pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, sections 626.84 to 626.863.

In April 2008, the Board adopted rules pertaining to peace officer continuing education and accreditation. The notice of adoption was published in the State Register on June 9, 2008. The rules were effective five working days after the date of publication.

The adopted language revises the continuing education application process to clarify requirements and makes technical changes to improve the consistency and readability of the rules pertaining to continuing education. The newly adopted amendment also deletes the requirement that an accredited sponsor must designate a continuing education coordinator due to the limitations imposed.

Classes most likely to be affected by the adopted rule change include continuing education sponsors, sponsors wishing to become accredited and the law enforcement community in general.

On-going Projects

Along with the key service components, the Board manages several on-going projects. These tasks are generally a bi-product of one of the core functions of the Board or are legislatively mandated. The following examples are on-going projects from the biennium.

Additional Part-time Peace Officer License Requests

Through legislation in 1999, POST was directed to determine the number of part-time peace officers employed per law enforcement agency during the previous three years and assign a quota allowed to be employed at each agency. The legislation also permitted agencies to request additional part-time licenses if they demonstrated an extraordinary and temporary need.

To request an additional part-time peace officer license(s), an application must be submitted to the POST Board detailing the following:

- specific extraordinary circumstances,
- agency's action plan to solve the extraordinary and temporary circumstances,
- other options available and why they are not sufficient, and
- list of supporters for agency's request.

During the biennium, the Board received 18 applications and granted 13 additional temporary part-time peace officer licenses.

Federal Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act of 2004

In June 2005, the Board began processing applications from retired peace officers as a result of HR 218, a federal law which allows qualified former officers to carry concealed firearms. During the past biennium, 1,055 applications were processed.

The form requires the following:

- signature of retired officer certifying they met the state's standards for firearms training,
- copy of retired officer's agency-issued photo ID,
- signature of firearms instructor certifying the applicant successfully completed the training, and
- copy of instructor's certification(s) as a qualified firearms instructor.

After reviewing the form and accompanying documentation, the Executive Director signs an ID card certifying the applicant has met the state's standards for firearms training and assigns an expiration date. The signed original is mailed to the retired officer as their proof of authority to carry a weapon under the provisions.

General Statistics

A law enforcement agency is defined as a unit of state or local government with full powers of arrest and with the duties of preventing and detecting crime and enforcing the criminal laws of the state. As of June 30, 2008, Minnesota had 458 law enforcement agencies. Since 1980, 167 agencies have disbanded, consolidated or contracted with the sheriff's office.
