Alexandria wins second CI team title; Wayzata/Minnetonka Lakers claim second consecutive PI crown

By Ellen Giloy

Alexandria (CI Division) and Wayzata/Minnetonka (PI Division) won the team titles at the 2008 State Adapted Bowling Tournament. It was the second team championship for each program, and the second consecutive for Wayzata/Minnetonka.

All of the singles and doubles competitors won their first titles. Sophomore John Hunter of Mankato West and ninth-grader Danielle Krusmark of Lake City won the CI singles events, and eighth-graders Taylor and Josh Stoltz of Austin emerged as the doubles champions.

In the PI Division, Coon Rapids junior Scott Clark and North Branch seventh-grader Alana Stahley won the respective singles titles. Eighth-grader James Dearing and seventh-grader Alyssia Prebonich of St. Michael-Albertville took top honors in the doubles competition.

CI Division

The Alexandria Cardinals won their second CI team title at the tournament. The all-senior team of Anne Friederichs, Amber Lenz, Natasha Randall, and Kayla Krause finished with 1,750 pins. Krause, who won the doubles crown with Friederichs last year, led the team with a score of 473. Friederichs had the second-highest score of 469. The Cardinals won their first team championship in 2004.

One pin separated second and third place in the team event. Another Alexandria team finished with 1,738 pins, and Austin was third with 1,737 pins. Junior Heather Botner paced the Alexandria team with 496 pins, and eighth-grader Josh Stoltz led the Austin team with 476 pins.

Sophomore John Hunter of Mankato West won his first title in the boys' singles competition with a score of 483. He bowled a 263 in his first game, and followed it with a 220 in the second. Sophomore Mark Schuur of Mankato East was a close second with 482 pins. Coon Rapids junior Max Carpenter placed third with a final score of 475.

In the girls' singles competition, Lake City ninth-grader Danielle Krusmark won her first title with 485 pins. She had 241 in the first game, and 244 in the second. Alexandria sophomore Nicole Anderson was second with a score of 474, and Mankato West ninth-grader Annie Barton was third at 448.

Eighth-graders Taylor and Josh Stoltz of Austin earned the doubles crown with 945 pins. Josh led in both games; he scored 263 in the first and 227 in the second, for a total of 490. Ninth-grader Justin Block and seventh-grader Matt Sand of Albany placed second with 913 pins. Seniors Anne Friederichs and Amber Lenz of Alexandria, who won a previous doubles title together in 2004, were third with a score of 908.

PI Division

The Lakers of Wayzata/Minnetonka won their second consecutive and overall team title at this year's tournament. None of this year's bowlers were on last year's winning team, but that didn't stop them from winning by 15 pins. Eighth-grader John Robards and seventh-grader Drew Balls-Barker led the Lakers with 435 and 433 pins, respectively. Ninth-grader Alison Henley and eighth-grader Jack Johnsen rounded out the team.

The Alexandria Cardinals earned runner-up honors with 1,589 pins. Senior Kristina Wiseman finished with 446 pins for the Cardinals. The Huskies of Albany, who were led by sophomore Chris Zierden's 422 pins, placed third with 1,587 pins overall.

Scott Clark, a junior at Coon Rapids, won his first title with a 40-pin victory over eighth-grader Nathan Barclay of St. Paul Highland Park

The 2008 tournament attracted record numbers of participants: in the CI Division, 32 teams, 77 boys' singles bowlers, 58 girls' singles bowlers, and 69 doubles duos; and in the PI Division, historically attracting smaller numbers, there were four teams, 19 boys' singles bowlers, 16 girls' singles bowlers, and 16 doubles duos.

Anoka-Hennepin defends PI crown; Maple Grove Crimson win CI title

By Ellen Giloy & Amy Doherty

The Mustangs of Anoka-Hennepin claimed their second consecutive and overall title after defeating Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka 4-2 in the PI title game. In CI, Maple Grove beat Dakota United 4-1 in the championship match-up. It was the third title for the Crimson, who won previously in 1998 and 2003.

Adapted floor hockey is in its 15th year of League sponsorship and is conducted in two classes. The CI Division is for athletes with cognitive disorders, and the PI Division is for athletes with physical or other health impairments.

CI Division

The Crimson of Maple Grove (14-1) won their third CI title with a 4-1 victory over Dakota United (16-1). It was an improvement on last year's runner-up finish, when the Crimson fell to the St. Cloud Area Slapshots 8-5. This year, Maple Grove was the top seed in the North Division and Dakota United was the No. 1 seed in the South Division.

In addition to this year, the Crimson won previous titles in 1998 (as Osseo Area) and 2003.

Junior George Watkins led Maple Grove with two goals in the championship game. Senior Anthony Nunn added a goal and an assist and sophomore Billy Williams added the final goal. Ninth-grade goalie Joel Phelps was surrounded by his Crimson teammates after the final buzzer, acknowledged for his solid play in the net throughout the tournament.

Junior Dan Kappelhoff scored the only goal for Dakota United. The assists went to junior John Conway and senior Kiki Holmes.

Maple Grove started its title run with an 8-2 quarterfinal victory over Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville. The Crimson dominated early, scoring six goals in the first period. Junior Alicia Taylor had a hat trick for the Crimson, and also had one assist. Anthony Nunn netted two goals and added two assists, as well as generating powerful offensive play.

In the semifinals, Maple Grove beat South Suburban 4-0. The Crimson used a pair of goals in the first period and a pair of goals in the second to defeat the Jets. Four different players scored for the Maple Grove: Billy Williams, junior Antione Driver, Anthony Nunn, and George Watkins.

Dakota United advanced with an 8-7 overtime victory over North Suburban in the quarterfinals. John Conway posted Eighth-grader Tyler Kurkowski added an insurance goal at 12:49 of the third period. Eighth-grader Sam Cashin and ninth-grader Mark Shull accounted for the Jets' goals.

The Owatonna Huskies earned consolation honors for the second consecutive year after defeating the Winona Winhawks 3-1. The Huskies scored all three of their goals in the third period. Sophomore Bobby Spahr scored two goals for Owatonna, including the game-winner. Senior Ben Warren netted the lone goal for Winona.

PI Division

The Mustangs of Anoka-Hennepin (15-0) completed a perfect season and claimed their second consecutive title after defeating Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka 4-2. This was also the second title overall for the Mustangs, who entered this year's tournament as the No. 1 seed in the North Division.

Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka (12-3) was the No. 2 seed in the North Division. The Robins' runner-up finish was an improvement on last year's consolation title.

Dakota United, Anoka-Hennepin win first titles in respective divisions

By Ellen Giloy & Steve Anderson

Two teams became first-time champions at the 2007 State Adapted Soccer Tournament. The Hawks of Dakota United claimed a 7-2 victory over Anoka-Hennepin in the CI championship game. In the PI Division, the Anoka-Hennepin Mustangs won their first crown after defeating Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 3-2 in overtime.

The tournament is divided into two divisions. The CI Division is for athletes with cognitive impairments, and the PI Division is for athletes with physical or other health impairments.

CI Division

The Hawks of Dakota United (12-0-2) claimed their first CI championship after completing an undefeated season. They defeated the Anoka-Hennepin Mustangs 7-2 in the title game. The Mustangs finished their season with a record of 13-1.

Junior Joe Conway led Dakota United with four goals. The score was tied 2-2 in the second half when junior Laura Maher netted a goal to put the Hawks up 3-2. Conway then broke the game open when he added a pure hat trick over the course of several minutes.

The Hawks' senior goalie, Nengi Clement, also played a key role in the game with 19 saves. Seniors Randy Kesterson and Nolan Anderson also scored one goal apiece for Dakota United.

Eighth-grader Tyler Kurkowski and ninth-grader Brandon Brown scored the goals for Anoka-Hennepin. Ninth-grader Matt Pershbacher guarded the net and made 19 saves for the Mustangs.

On its way to the championship, Dakota United defeated Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 6-2 in the quarterfinals and Park Center 7-6 in the semis. Conway and his twin brother, John, accounted for four of the Hawks' goals in the quarterfinal game. Maher and Kesterson accounted for the other two.

In the semifinals, Dakota United got off to a fast start and took a 4-1 lead. The Pirates made a comeback by scoring five times in the second half, and tied it at 12:59 on junior George Watkins fourth goal of the game. The Hawks withstood the rally however with John Conway getting his sixth goal, the game-winner, with 4:25 left in the game. Nengi Clement had 17 saves for the Hawks, including some great stops down the stretch to hold off the Pirates.

Anoka-Hennepin defeated South Washington County 7-2 in the quarterfinals. The Mustangs outshot the Thunderbolts 27-13 and tallied two goals from senior Nathan Jockisch. Tyler Kurkoski added one goal and two assists for Anoka-Hennepin.

The Mustangs advanced to the title game with an 8-7 overtime victory over St. Cloud Area. It was a tight game with Anoka-Hennepin breaking a 2-2 tie with three consecutive goals to take a 5-2 lead at the half. The Thunder continued to fight back until they finally tied the score on senior Mike Doege's second goal of the game with 17.3 seconds remaining. Brandon Brown netted his only goal of the game to secure the win for the Mustangs.

The Pirates of Park Center settled for third-place honors after defeating St. Cloud Area 6-1. Eighth-grader Jack Dougba scored the Pirates' first three goals and they led 3-1 at the half. The Park Center defense shut down the Thunder in the second half and added three more goals of its own; two from George Watkins and one from junior Kamla Ramidhal. Senior Keith Henneman scored the lone goal for St. Cloud Area.

The South Suburban Jets got two goals apiece from four players as they defeated Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 9-4 for consolation honors. Sophomore Biza Peterson, junior Rochelle Nelson, senior Brett Williamson, and junior Antonio Minor each scored twice. Minor also added a pair of assists to give him four points for the game. Senior D.J. Fike led the Rams with three goals.

Junior Nick Hickman of St. Cloud Area was the only competitor to set a new record during the tournament. He recorded 34 saves in the Thunder's 3-1 quarterfinal victory over South Suburban.

PI Division

In the PI tournament, Anoka-Hennepin (11-1-1) claimed its first title after defeating Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 3-2 in overtime. The Rams of Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville had a final season record of 9-5.

Anoka-Hennepin trailed 2-0 during the title game before senior Lesley Sherga put the Mustangs on the board in the opening minutes of the second half. Junior Joe Lehman tied the score soon after, but regulation came to an end without either team scoring again. Finally, with 12 seconds remaining in the overtime period, Lehman drilled home the game-winner.

Sophomore Stephen Gourley guarded the net and made 17 saves for Anoka-Hennepin. Eighth-grader Mark Braun and sophomore Rob Wilhelm accounted for Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville's goals.

Anoka-Hennepin started its championship run with an 8-3 quarterfinal victory over Burnsville/Farmington/Lakeville/New Prague. Sherga scored three goals in the first half and the Mustangs jumped to a quick 4-0 lead. She finished the game with four goals and Lehman and junior Jacob Wiehle added two apiece.

In the semifinals, the Mustangs defeated the defending champions from Dakota United 8-2. Lesley Sherga again led her team with four goals, including the first three of the game. It was a scoreless tie at the half, but Sherga scored 25 seconds into the second stanza and the Mustangs were not to be stopped. The Hawks got a goal from ninth-grader Eric Liggett to make the score 2-1, but the Mustangs responded with six unanswered goals to put the game out of reach.

On the other side of the bracket, Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville squeaked by South Suburban 3-2 in the quarterfinals. Senior Dan Corcoran scored what turned out to be the game-winning goal 76 seconds into the second half. Corcoran, who was minding the net in the first half, moved to a striking position after half-time. The Rams had jumped out to a 2-0 first-half lead on goals by eighth-grader Lucas Towle and Rob Wilhelm.

The Mustangs had another close game in the semifinals, but defeated Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka 4-3. The Robins took a 3-2 lead on sophomore Steven Halsey's goal with 7:23 remaining to play. Rob Wilhelm then tied it for the Rams on a goal off a flurry of activity in front of the Robins' goalie, sophomore Ethan Brenna. The game-winner was scored by sophomore Sabrina Towle who knocked in a rebound off an indirect kick with one minute left in the game.

Third-place honors went to the Robins of Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka after they defeated Dakota United 6-1. The Robins were up 2-1 at the break and shut out the Hawks in the second half. Steven Halsey, ninth-grader Erin Nickell, and junior Jesse Klein each had two goals in the game. Junior Jay Meginnes had the lone goal for Dakota United.

Senior Josh McGill scored three goals in the consolation championship and led his South Suburban squad to an 8-3 victory over Burnsville/Farmington/Lakeville/New Prague. Seniors Jake Hein and Matt Ellenberger also tallied two goals apiece for the Flyers. Junior Jon Schmitz led the Blazing Cats with two goals.

No new records were set during this year's PI tournament.

The 2007 State Adapted Soccer Tournament was held at Stillwater Area High School on November 9-10. Paid attendance was 1,312.

Osseo claims second consecutive CI title, seventh overall; Dakota United captures second PI crown

By Ellen Giloy

Osseo claimed top honors in the CI Division for a second consecutive year at the 2008 State Adapted Softball Tournament. The Orioles defeated Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 6-5 in the championship game.

In the PI Division, Dakota United defeated the defending champions from Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka 6-4. It was the second title overall for the Hawks.

CI Division

The Osseo Orioles (15-3) claimed their second consecutive CI title after defeating Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 6-5. It was also their seventh title overall; they won five consecutive titles between 2000 and 2004. The Orioles and the Rams were ranked No. 1 and 2, respectively, in the North Division this year. Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville, which won consolation honors in 2007, finished with a season record of 16-1.

The two teams were tied 2-2 until the top of the fifth inning when Osseo junior Antoine Driver brought home junior Ryan Cornwell. Later in the same inning, ninth-grader Joel Phelps had a two-RBI double that scored senior Anthony Nunn and Driver.

Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville battled back in the bottom of the fifth and came within 5-4 when junior Jay Paulsen scored junior Josh Congdon. Again, Osseo pushed its lead to 6-4 in the sixth inning when eighth-grader Sam VeoPradith brought home junior Kamla Ramidihal. And, again, Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville shoved back within 6-5 after ninth-grader Alex Vandergrift scored sophomore Angel Carbajal.

Anthony Nunn had three hits and scored two runs for Osseo. Joel Phelps and Ramidihal also had three hits apiece for the Orioles. Senior Matt McDermott and Josh Congdon both had four hits for the Rams.

Osseo started its title run with a 6-3 victory over the South Suburban Jets. The Jets of South Suburban had two singles in the top of the seventh inning, but the Orioles' tough defense shut them out. Anthony Nunn had the final out for Osseo when he made a stellar catch. Juniors George Watkins and Alicia Taylor paced Osseo's offense with two RBI apiece. Taylor also had the game's only triple. Anthony Nunn added two doubles for the Orioles.

In the semifinals, Osseo defeated Dakota United 10-3. Four players had four hits apiece for the Orioles: sophomore Billy Williams, Anthony Nunn, George Watkins, and Alicia Taylor. Nunn also scored four runs for Osseo.

PI Division

The Hawks of Dakota United (11-0) completed a perfect season and claimed their second title after defeating the defending champions from Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka 4-2. The Hawks, who claimed consolation honors last year, won their one previous title in 2006. This season, Dakota United was the No. 1 seed in the South Division and Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka (12-1) was the top seed in the North Division.

Dakota United trailed 2-1 coming into the fifth inning, but the Hawks scored five runs to go up 6-2. Sophomore Nick Habisch tied the score after bringing home sophomore Eric Ferguson. A few minutes later, Dakota United went up 5-2 when eighth-grader Tony Breyer brought home sophomore Eric Liggett and Habisch. Jesse Klein had four hits for Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka. He also scored one run.

Dakota United made short work of the Minneapolis South Tigers in the quarterfinals. Five players had three hits each for St. Paul Humboldt: Eric Liggett, Nick Habisch, sophomore Thomas Bowlin, Mauck, and Holtzer.

The Hawks faced a tougher challenge in the semifinals and squeaked past Anoka-Hennepin with an 8-7 victory. Dakota United trailed 7-6 coming into the bottom of the seventh inning, but Thomas Bowlin tied the score 7-7 after hitting a single. Dan Mauck had the winning hit when he scored sophomore Jay Meginnes. Eric Liggett led Dakota United with four hits and three runs scored. Nick Habisch and Meginnes also scored two runs apiece for the Hawks.

On the other side of the bracket,

In the semifinals, the Robins defeated Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 5-2. The score was 4-2 in favor of Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka in the fifth inning, and the Robins' defense was stellar. Pitcher Jesse Klein had one strikeout and Erin Nickell made a great catch off the wall.

In the bottom of the fifth, Ethan Brenna scored junior James Sneltsjes for the final margin of victory. Sneltsjes, Klein, and Brenna all had three hits for Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka, and Sneltsjes also scored two runs.

Anoka-Hennepin rebounded to win third-place honors after defeating Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 5-1. The Mustangs jumped to the lead early in the game and never looked back. Sophomore Josh Price had three hits in three at-bats to pace Anoka-Hennepin.

Wabasso, St. Anthony Village, Coon Rapids claim championships

By Ellen Giloy, Howard W. Voigt, Tom Nelson & Dave Wright

The Wabasso Rabbits were the only team to claim their first title at the 2008 State Baseball Tournament. They claimed Class A honors with a 5-2 victory over Southland of Adams.

In Class AA, St. Anthony Village won its second title in three years after defeating Annandale 10-0. The Cardinals of Coon Rapids won the Class AAA crown after beating Bloomington Jefferson 6-1.

Class A

The Rabbits of Wabasso (25-6) earned their first championship after defeating the Rebels of Southland 5-2. It was the second consecutive and third overall appearance for the Rabbits, who placed fourth in 2007. Southland (26-3), which is located in Adams, was making its debut appearance at the tournament.

Southland jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first inning, but Wabasso tied it in the bottom of the second when junior Jacob Bierl scored an unearned run. The Rabbits extended their lead to 3-1 in the third when senior Drew Heiling hit a two-RBI single with two outs on the board. Senior Mike Wotschke helped Wabasso in the bottom of the fourth when he hit a single that scored senior Christopher Eichten and the Rabbits were up 5-1.

Junior Johnny Pistolka pitched the entire game for Wabasso. He tossed six strikeouts and allowed three hits, one of them earned. In addition to Heiling, Eichten and Wotschke each added one RBI apiece for the Rabbits.

Seniors Kody Retterath and Brian Voigt each pitched three innings for Southland. Retterath permitted five hits and two strikeouts, and Voigt allowed eight hits and had one strikeout. Senior Derek Emanuel had the lone RBI for the Rebels.

Wabasso started the tournament with a 6-4 quarterfinal victory over New Ulm Cathedral. Pistolka was hot at the plate, going 3-for-4 with one RBI. Pistolka also pitched six full innings, walking seven and not striking out anyone.

The Rabbits earned a berth in the championship game with a clutch seventh-inning two-on, two-out double by Christopher Eichten. That hit gave them an 8-7 come-from-behind semifinal victory over Hawley. Eichten, who also went 5.1 innings on the mound, finished 3-for-3 at the plate with three RBI.

Wabasso took a 2-0 lead into the third before Hawley scored three for the lead. Wabasso countered with three in the fourth to lead 5-3. Hawley, after a three-run sixth, took a 7-6 lead into the bottom of the seventh before Eichten's heroics.

On the other side of the bracket, Southland beat Mayer Luther 5-0 in the quarterfinals. The Rebels set the tone early when Brian Voigt blasted a first-inning, two-run home run off the top of the right-center field wall and onto the scoreboard. Southland continued the early onslaught with another run in the bottom of the second, and two more in the third.

Southland continued its dominance in the semifinals, defeating Red Lake County 5-1. Kody Retterath broke a scoreless tie in the top of the fourth inning when he doubled and brought two runners home. Red Lake County countered with a solitary run in the bottom half of the fourth. In the top of the sixth, Retterath tripled and earned his third and fourth RBI. Brian Voigt earned the victory on the mound, striking out 10 and walking two.

Hawley came back to claim third-place honors after defeating Red Lake County 11-8. The Nuggets went up 11-6 in the top of the sixth after sophomore Jacob Bjornson hit a two-RBI single to score senior Justin Luddusaw and junior Matt Guida. Red Lake County scored its final two runs in the bottom of the sixth when senior Steve Morinville hit a two-RBI single.

Bjornson had three RBI to lead the Nuggets. Sophomore Andrew Regnier pitched five innings for Hawley. He allowed six hits and six earned runs and had one strikeout.

Morinville and sophomore Kyle Larson had two RBI apiece for Red Lake County. Morinville also pitched five innings for the Rebels with eight hits and five earned runs.

In the consolation championship, New Ulm Cathedral notched a 9-1 victory over Browerville/Eagle Valley. The Greyhounds ran the score to 9-0 in the sixth inning, when junior Derek Wilfahrt hit a single that scored senior Tyrone Sellner. Browerville/Eagle Valley scored its only run in the top of the seventh inning when ninth-grader Austen Wollenburg scampered home on a wild pitch.

Three New Ulm Cathedral players had two RBI apiece in the victory: Wilfahrt, sophomore Zach Fischer, and junior Kurt Domeier. Wilfahrt also led the Greyhounds with two hits in four at-bats.

Four players tallied hits for the Broncos: senior Jarid Johnson, junior Dillon Lundin, junior Scott Lieser, and Wollenburg.

The two-time defending champions from Sleepy Eye St. Mary's failed to qualify for the 2008 tournament. They fell to New Ulm Cathedral in the finals of the Section 2A tournament.

Class AA

In the Class AA tournament, St. Anthony Village (29-2) claimed its second title in three years. The Huskies, who defeated Annandale 10-0 this year, won their first championship in 2006. This was the third overall appearance for St. Anthony Village and the second for Annandale (22-7).

Senior Chris Peterson, who pitched the first three innings for St. Anthony Village, gave the Huskies a 3-0 advantage when he hit a two-run home run in the top first inning. The Huskies scored in every inning but the third, and senior Steven Grewe kept the momentum going with a double in the second inning and a home run in the fourth.

Ellsworth defends Class A title; New London-Spicer, Benilde-St. Margaret's win first championships; Minnetonka wins third crown in fourth appearance

By Ellen Giloy, Howard W. Voigt & Amy Doherty

Two teams claimed their first titles at the 2008 State Boys' Basketball Tournament: the New London-Spicer Wildcats won the Class AA title, and the Benilde-St. Margaret's Red Knights claimed the Class AAA crown.

In Class A, the Ellsworth Panthers made it two in a row after defeating Minnesota Transitions Charter School. The Minnetonka Skippers (Class AAAA) engineered an amazing comeback over Henry Sibley to claim their third championship trophy.

Class A

The Panthers of Ellsworth (31-2) successfully defended their Class A title with an 81-63 defeat of inaugural tournament qualifier Minnesota Transitions Charter School of Minneapolis (28-5). This was also the second overall title for the Panthers, who were making their fourth tournament appearance.

Ellsworth wasted no time in establishing itself as the team to beat, creating a 10-point halftime lead and extending that another 8 points in the second stanza. The Wolves, who normally hit at 12 three-pointers a game, were ice cold, going 0-for-9 in the first half.

In the second half, Minnesota Transitions sent 21 Ellsworth players to the line in the final 3:55. Ellsworth senior Cody Schilling took full advantage of his chances, finishing 13-of-16 at the charity stripe. Schilling, who became the state's all-time leading scorer during the tournament, finished the game with 31 points and 10 rebounds. His tournament total was 84 points and the new state record was set at 3,428 points.

Ellsworth sophomore Trevor Gruis had 12 points and 11 rebounds, and junior Adam Van Der Stoep added 15 points. Minnesota Transitions senior Virgil Baker led his team with 34 points. Sophomore Kevin Noreen added a double-double for the Wolves with 17 points and 16 rebounds.

The Panthers started their title trek with a 59-41 victory over the first-time qualifiers from Granada-Huntley-East Chain. Ellsworth led from the beginning, but the drama came when Cody Schilling hit his final shot with 1:27 left on the clock. When the shot went in, Schilling became Minnesota's all-time high school scoring leader with 3,367 points. He was recognized with a lengthy standing ovation by fans on both sides of the arena. The previous record of 3,366 points was held by Isaiah Dahlmann of Braham. Schilling finished the game with 23 points and nine rebounds. Trevor Gruis added 19 points and 14 points for the Panthers.

In the semifinals, Ellsworth cruised past Norman County East of Twin Valley 66-52. Schilling capped an 11-4 run with a three-point play that put the Panthers up 46-32 with 10 minutes left in the game. Schilling led all scorers with 30 points. He also added 10 rebounds, six assists, and two steals.

Minnesota Transitions Charter School defeated Janesville-Waldorf-Pemberton 77-32 in its quarterfinal match-up. The Wolves scored the first 13 points of the game and shot 54 percent from the field overall. Minnesota Transitions' Virgil Baker had a game-high 20 points, which included four soaring 3-pointers. Baker also led his team with 10 rebounds.

The Wolves advanced and notched an 87-77 victory over Cass Lake-Bena in the semifinals. The Panthers finished the first half with a 13-2 run and only trailed 47-45 at halftime.

Minnesota Transition continued its steady shooting in the second half, however, and went up 62-52 after a 10-2 run with 12:23 remaining. Virgil Baker and ninth-grader Kyle Noreen led the Wolves with 26 and 23 points, respectively.

Cass Lake-Bena rebounded to claim the third-place trophy. The Panthers hit 50 percent of their three-point attempts (8-16) and also went 20-of-27 at the free throw line as they defeated Norman County East 78-65. Sophomore Martin Wind finished the game with 33 points for the Panthers. Senior Nate Salscheider added 15 points and also led Cass Lake-Bena with 13 rebounds. Senior David Varriano and junior Tyler Bennefeld each scored 20 points for Norman County East.

Class AA

The Wildcats of New London-Spicer (33-1) returned to the tournament after a one-year absence and won their first state championship. The Wildcats, who were making their fifth appearance overall, defeated Crosby-Ironton 59-51. The Rangers (32-1) were playing in their 19th tournament overall, but their first since 1999.

Crosby-Ironton dominated with fast play in the first half and led 30-26 at the break. The Wildcats stormed back in the second half and took the lead for good at 10:07 when sophomore Erik Tengwall made it 40-38 after hitting a jumper. They went on to score nine unanswered points over the next five minutes and pushed their lead to 49-40.

Senior Skylar Wachter paced New London-Spicer with 19 points, six rebounds, and three steals. Erik Tengwall added 11 points and senior Chris Tengwall had a team-high 14 rebounds. Joe McLaughlin, senior for Crosby-Ironton, had a double-double with a team-high 14 points and 11 rebounds.

New London-Spicer defeated the perennial qualifiers from Braham 98-61 in the quarterfinals. Skylar Wachter scored nine points during a 22-2 run in the opening minutes of the second half. He finished the game with 21 points and six rebounds. Chris Tengwall added 15 points and 10 rebounds for the Wildcats.

The Wildcats faced their greatest challenge in the semifinals as they defeated Maple River of Mapleton 50-49. Senior Wade Powers, who led New London-Spicer with 13 points and 13 rebounds, made the winning jump shot with seven seconds left to play. The Eagles drove down the court on their next possession, but Powers blocked their final shot.

On the other side of the bracket, Crosby-Ironton opened the tournament with a 73-59 victory over Rockford. The Rangers overcame a nine-point deficit after senior Bryce Tesdahl scored 15 points in the final 19 minutes of the game. Senior Derek Swanhorst led Crosby-Ironton with 27 points and Tesdahl had a team-high 13 rebounds.

The Rangers had another tough game in the semifinals and escaped with a 66-60 victory over St. Bernard's of St. Paul. The score was tied 13 times before clutch free-throw shooting from Bryce Tesdahl sealed the win. Tesdahl, who went 12-of-14 at the free throw line, finished the game with 22 points.

The Maple River Eagles, who trailed by one point at halftime, rallied to defeat St. Bernard's of St. Paul 66-50 in the third-place game. The teams traded points late into the second half, but Maple River scored 13 unanswered points over the final 1:32, with eight of them coming on free throws. Senior Seth Anderson led the Eagles with 17 points, and senior Michael Sohre added another 12. Junior Jordair Jett scored 14 points for St. Bernard's, while senior John Bright corralled 11 rebounds.

Class AAA

In a rematch of last year's championship game, the Red Knights of Benilde-St. Margaret's (29-3) avenged their loss by defeating St. Thomas Academy of Mendota Heights 58-52. Last year, St. Thomas Academy won 56-40.

This was the second consecutive and overall appearance for Benilde-St. Margaret's, which is located in St. Louis Park. The Cadets of St. Thomas Academy (24-7) were making their third consecutive appearance and their ninth overall.

St. Thomas Academy put a significant dent in the Red Knights' 14-point halftime lead, and the Cadets came within 55-52 after senior Alex Schneider tipped in a missed free throw attempt with 30.1 seconds left in the game. That was when Benilde-St. Margaret senior Jordan Taylor took over, sinking three free throws in the final 22 seconds.

Taylor had 20 points, 10 rebounds, six assists, and two steals in the victory. Senior Armond Battle added 14 points and eight rebounds for the Red Knights. Schneider had a double-double for St. Thomas Academy with 27 points and 12 rebounds.

Benilde-St. Margaret's made short work of St. Paul Como Park in the quarterfinals. Taylor scored 15 points in the first 5:27 of the second half, and he and Battle combined for 64 of the Red Knights' points. Battle also grabbed a team-high nine boards for Benilde.

Minneapolis Patrick Henry was the next school to fall to the Red Knights. Benilde-St. Margaret's made 5-of-6 three-point shots in the first half and went on to win 100-70. Armond Battle and Jordan Taylor scored 21 and 19 points, respectively.

St. Thomas Academy opened play with a 59-44 win over Little Falls. Back-to-back three-pointers from juniors Mike Ratelle and Mike Fitzgerald midway through the first half gave the Cadets a seven-point lead that they never relinquished. Alex Schneider posted 18 points and 15 rebounds for St. Thomas Academy in the victory.

In the semifinals, the Cadets defeated Willmar 56-35. The Cardinals trailed by 10 points early in the second half before St. Thomas Academy went on an 8-0 run to take command. Mike Fitzgerald and sophomore Billy Chapman both scored 11 points for the Cadets, and Mike Ratelle added another 10.

The Willmar Cardinals constructed a stellar comeback as they defeated the Minneapolis

Patrick Henry Patriots 64-63 in the third-place game. With only 20 seconds to play, Patrick Henry senior Jerry Sweezy completed a three-point play after being fouled. But Willmar wasn't about to lose and senior Adam Lindblad hit the winning shot with only eight seconds left on the clock. Senior Casey Sussenguth led Willmar with 20 points on 8-of-11 shooting, and senior Jordan Smith added a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Sweezy and sophomore Jordan Hughes scored 19 and 14 points, respectively, for Minneapolis Patrick Henry.

Class AAAA

The Minnetonka Skippers (28-3), who hadn't competed in the tournament since 1999, needed an amazing second-half comeback to win their third championship. After trailing Henry Sibley of Mendota Heights 33-20 at halftime, the Skippers came back to win 68-59.

Minnetonka, which was making its fourth tournament appearance overall, won previous titles in 1965 and 1998. This was the debut appearance for the Henry Sibley Warriors, who finished their season with a record of 26-6.

Henry Sibley rolled to an early 33-11 lead after holding Minnetonka scoreless in the first six and a half minutes of the game. But the Skippers roared back with a 9-0 run to end the first half. Senior Andy Burns highlighted Minnetonka's comeback with a three-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The second half was all Minnetonka. With their half-court traps forcing Henry Sibley into turnovers, the Skippers raced to a 60-49 lead with 4:09 remaining. The Warriors cut the lead to 62-59 with 1:40 left in the game, but Minnetonka senior Anthony Tucker sunk six consecutive free throws to put the game out of reach.

The Skippers shot 66.7 percent from the field in the second half and 78.9 percent from the free throw line for the game. Tucker went 10-of-10 at the charity stripe and led Minnetonka with 27 points. Senior Tyler Schilling added 14 points and senior C.J. Erickson had a team-high seven rebounds. Senior Peter Leslie and junior Maurice Hernandez scored 17 and 13 points, respectively, for Henry Sibley.

In the quarterfinals, Minnetonka defeated Bloomington Kennedy 66-59. The Eagles came within 62-57 with 40 seconds remaining, but the Skippers quick start proved to be too much to overcome. Anthony Tucker scored 15 of his game-high 27 points for Minnetonka in the game's first 11 minutes, and the Skippers led 38-25 at halftime.

The Skippers shot nearly 55 percent from the field as they beat St. Cloud Tech 83-59 in the semifinals. The game was close until the final five minutes of the first half when three three-pointers from Anthony Tucker broke the game open. Tucker finished the game with 25 points for Minnetonka and C.J. Erickson added another 24.

Henry Sibley opened the tournament with a 68-58 victory over Rochester Mayo. There were 14 lead changes and four ties in the game before the Warriors made 8-of-14 free throws in the final two minutes. Peter Leslie, who went 5-of-5 from behind the arc, paced Henry Sibley with 19 points.

In the semifinals, the Warriors defeated the Hawks of Robbinsdale Cooper 68-52. Cooper used a 13-2 run early in the second half to go up 39-38, but Henry Sibley countered with a 25-5 spurt over eight minutes to open a 20-point lead with two minutes to play. Senior Mike Bruesewitz had a double-double for the Warriors with 18 points and 16 rebounds. Peter Leslie added another 10 points for Henry Sibley.

Nate Wolters, a junior at St. Cloud Tech, scored his 1,000th career point as the Tigers defeated Robbinsdale Cooper 84-71 in the third-place game. The Hawks made things interesting in the second half when they pulled within 47-43 after junior Rodney Williams, Jr.

dunked the ball over the Tech defense. But the Tigers put together a seven-point run after that and never looked back. Wolters led all scorers with 22 points. Sophomore Alex Hanks added another 20 points for Tech and also had a team-high 10 rebounds. Rodney Williams, Jr., scored 21 points for Robbinsdale Cooper. He and junior Joe Bright each had 8 rebounds for the Hawks.

The 2008 State Boys' Basketball Tournament quarterfinals were played March 26 and 27 at Mariucci Arena on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis and the Target Center in Minneapolis. All semifinal and championship games were played at the Target Center on March 27-29. The third-place games were played at Gangelhoff Center on the Concordia University campus in St. Paul on March 29. Total paid attendance was 69,195.

Ada-Borup, Totino-Grace win first titles; Albany claims third; St. Paul Central repeats

By Ellen Giloy, Howard W. Voigt & Amy Doherty

St. Paul Central (Class AAAA) was the only school to successfully defend its title at the 2008 State Girls' Basketball Tournament. The Minutemen defeated Minneapolis South for a second consecutive year to claim their fourth overall title.

Ada-Borup (Class A) and Totino-Grace of Fridley (Class AAA) both won their first championships. The Albany Huskies (Class AA), who earned runner-up honors last year, claimed their third overall crown.

Class A

The Cougars of Ada-Borup (31-1), making their third consecutive and overall tournament appearance, succeeded in winning their first state title with a 51-40 victory over the Bombers of Barnum (30-3). The victory was also an improvement on last year's third-place showing.

Barnum was making its seventh tournament appearance. The Bombers' last appearance was in 2006.

Ada-Borup's accuracy from the field was apparent early. The Cougars shot 57 percent in the first half and nearly 54 percent for the game. Barnum sophomore Katrina Newman brought her team within 40-34 midway through the second half, but Ada-Borup junior Laura Kolness responded with a three-point play and a lay-up, followed by a jumper from junior Nicole Smart.

Smart had a game-high 19 points for Ada-Borup and Kolness added 15. Newman led Barnum with 12 points and nine rebounds, and senior Megan Myhre and sophomore Leah Nordvall added 10 points apiece.

Ada-Borup opened its title run with a 56-33 victory over the first-time qualifiers from Wrenshall. After Wrenshall's leading scorer, senior Wendy Bowman, drew her fourth foul and sat down early in the second half, the Cougars went on an 11-2 run and increased their lead to 17 points. Nicole Smart and Laura Kolness finished the game with 17 points apiece for Ada-Borup.

In the semifinals, the Cougars defeated another first-time entrant, Southwest Star Concept of Okabena. Ada-Borup went almost 11 minutes in the second half without scoring a field goal, but they were able to hold on for the 44-35 victory. Smart again led the Cougars with 16 points while junior teammate Katy Ness pulled down seven rebounds.

Barnum held Lake of the Woods of Baudette without a basket over the last 14:23 of the first half, and went on to win its quarterfinal 53-26. Megan Myhre led the Bombers with 24 points, 13 rebounds, and four blocks.

The Bombers advanced and beat New Life Academy of Woodbury 64-61 in the semifinals. Barnum had a 12-point lead 10 minutes into the first half, but New Life Academy came back to take a two-point lead at the break. The teams battled throughout the second half, but the Bombers took the lead for good when Katrina Newman hit two free throws to put her team up 55-54 with 3:47 left in the game. Three Barnum players finished in double figures: Megan Myhre (18), Newman (19), and Leah Nordvall (17).

New Life Academy of Woodbury came back to win third-place honors. The Eagles had 18 points from junior Jenny Ramey as they defeated Southwest Star Concept 62-55. The Quasars tied the score at 55 when senior Breanna Rients hit two free throws with 2:45 left on the clock, but New Life Academy went ahead for good on a lay-up from ninth-grader Cara Lutes with 1:30 left in the game. Senior Brooke Dewall scored 14 points and had 12 rebounds for Southwest Star Concept.

Class AA

In Class AA, Albany (29-2) improved on last year's runner-up finish to claim its third championship in its sixth consecutive and 12th overall appearance. The Huskies, who defeated Jordan 62-52, won previous titles in 1980 and 1983.

The Jaguars of Jordan (29-3) were making their second consecutive and overall appearance. In 2007, they went home with the third-place hardware.

The Huskies slowed the title game's tempo from the start, played some tight defense, and forced Jordan to play from the perimeter, taking them out of their usual drive-to-the-basket fast-paced offense. Albany held the Jaguars scoreless over the final 4:48, after Jordan junior Brittany Chambers pulled her team within 53-52 after hitting a jumper. Albany senior Jennie Noreen, who finished the game with 18 points, sealed the victory by hitting six free throws in the final 1:22.

Noreen, who also had seven rebounds and two steals, led all scorers. Senior Sam Larsen added 14 points for the Huskies, and senior Taylor Voss grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds. Chambers and junior Leah Dietel each scored 15 points for Jordan.

Albany defeated the first-time qualifiers from Hinckley-Finlayson 70-52 in the quarterfinals. The Huskies switched to a man-to-man defense in the second half and quickly ran their lead to 14 points after scoring three consecutive lay-ups following turnovers. Jennie Noreen and Taylor Voss scored 27 and 17 points for Albany, respectively.

The Huskies faced their toughest challenge in the semifinals as they defeated Hayfield 52-50. Taylor Voss, who led Albany with 19 points and 11 rebounds, hit a jumper with 1:22 left in the game to put the Huskies ahead for good. Jennie Noreen added another 17 points for Albany.

On the other side of the bracket, Jordan defeated Caledonia 74-61 in the quarterfinals. The Jaguars closed the first half on a 9-2 run, and opened the second by scoring the first nine points. Jordan's Brittany Chambers recorded 29 points, 11 assists, and nine rebounds in the victory.

Chambers continued her stellar play in the semifinals and scored a tournament-record 47 points as the Jaguars defeated Crookston 79-74. Five minutes into the second half, Crookston led 45-36. From there, Chambers scored 27 of the Jaguars' final 43 points. She finished the game by shooting 16-of-27 on field goal attempts and 14-of-16 on free throw attempts. She also had 12 rebounds and four steals. Leah Dietel led the Jaguars with 19 rebounds.

Chambers' scoring record broke the previous record of 45 points set by Kelly Skalicky of Albany in 1981.

Crookston staged a 75-68 come-from-behind victory over Hayfield to claim the third-place crown. The two teams kept it close until senior Kamille Wahlin put the Pirates ahead for good (64-63) when she hit a lay-up with 2:54 remaining in regulation. Wahlin went on to score an additional seven points in the final two minutes. She finished the game with 26 points, six steals and six assists. Sophomore Jordyn Kreckling and senior Leslie Wilson scored 24 and 23 points, respectively, for Hayfield.

Class AAA

Totino-Grace of Fridley (28-3) won its first title in the Class AAA tournament after defeating DeLaSalle of Minneapolis 53-40. Totino-Grace, which was making its fourth appearance overall, fell in the quarterfinals last year.

DeLaSalle, which was making its third consecutive and overall appearance, also earned runner-up honors after falling to Becker last year. The Islanders finished their season with a record of 29-2.

The Eagles built a strong 24-14 halftime lead behind six points each from seniors Sam Laventure and Jessica Meyer. The Islanders pulled within 37-23 after two quick baskets from ninth-grader Tori Rule with 11 minutes remaining, but they wouldn't get much closer.

Totino-Grace had four players with 12 or more points: senior Veronica Scott (12), junior Lizzi Naumann (10), Jessica Meyer (10), and Sam Laventure (10). Naumann also accounted for a dozen of the Eagles' rebounds. DeLaSalle senior Aaryn Booker led the Islanders with 14 points.

Totino-Grace defeated Grand Rapids 48-38 in the quarterfinals. The Eagles forced 19 turnovers in the first half and limited the Thunderhawks to 11 shot attempts while building a 23-13 halftime lead. Lizzi Naumann scored 15 points and was the only Eagles player to hit double-digits.

In the semifinals, Totino-Grace beat Rogers 48-40. They Royals were stifled by the Eagles' defense in the first half and shot only 18.2 percent from the field. Totino took advantage of the turnovers and built an early 11-0 lead. Veronica Scott led the Eagles with 14 points and Naumann cornered 12 rebounds.

DeLaSalle started its tournament run with a 51-38 victory over Austin. The Islanders fell behind 9-0 in the opening minutes, but quickly made up the difference by hitting six first-half three-pointers. By halftime, the Islanders were up 28-17. Sophomore Carissa Wolyniec paced DeLaSalle with 10 points.

The Islanders moved on and defeated Minnehaha Academy of Minneapolis 54-44 in the semifinals. Senior Anna Kovalchuk led DeLaSalle with 15 points. She scored 10 in the second half, including a pair of three-pointers which gave her team a 39-32 advantage. Aaryn Booker and Tori Rule added 11 and 10 points, respectively, for DeLaSalle.

In the third-place game, Rogers beat Minnehaha Academy 65-52. Senior Casey Mann, who finished the game with 16 points for Rogers, gave her team its first significant lead (37-34) of the second half when she scored at 13:35. Eighteen seconds later, junior Jennifer Dowd pushed Rogers' lead to 39-34. Dowd led the Royals with 20 points and seven rebounds. Senior Megan Erlandson was the top scorer for Minnehaha Academy. She finished with 12 points and two steals.

Class AAAA

In Class AAAA, the Minutemen of St. Paul Central (28-4) defeated Minneapolis South (29-2) in the championship game for a second consecutive year. This year's score was 49-44. The win also avenged two regular-season losses to the Tigers.

St. Paul Central was making its ninth tournament appearance overall. In addition to the past two years, the Minutemen also won titles in 1976 and 1979. This was the third overall appearance for Minneapolis South.

The Tigers led by one point at halftime, but they stretched their lead to nine when sophomore Tyisha Smith scored a lay-up with 13:23 left in regulation. The Minutemen didn't panic, however, and slowly cut into the lead. Finally, with one minute left on the clock, Central junior Kyana Johnson ran down the baseline and hit a running jumper as she was fouled by junior Gabrielle Roberts. Johnson missed the free throw attempt, but the Minuteman had a narrow 46-44 edge. Central senior Kiara Buford clinched the victory when she hit two free throws to put the Minutemen up 48-44.

Junior Theairra Taylor had a double-double for St. Paul Central with 13 points and 11 rebounds. Senior Georgie Jones added a dozen more and Buford finished with 11. Minneapolis South senior Ephesia Holmes had a game-high 14 points.

In the quarterfinals, St. Paul Central defeated the first-time qualifiers from St. Cloud Tech 74-47. The Minutemen led by eight at the break and they opened the second half with a 9-0 run.

In the upper bracket, Minneapolis South started the tournament with a 57-46 victory over Owatonna. After Owatonna senior Lauren Barber was called for her fourth foul with 11:52 to play, Minneapolis South junior Tayler Hill took over. She drained three three-pointers and hit a driving lay-up over the next four minutes as the Tigers went ahead by 11. Hill finished with a game-high 25 points.

In the semifinals, Minneapolis South breezed past the Chaska Hawks 64-49. The Tigers led by as much as 14 points in the second half, and their lead never dipped below seven. Hill again led her team with 24 points. Senior teammate Taquoia Hammick added a double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds.

In the third-place match-up, Eastview defeated Chaska 63-57. Eastview senior DaNae Moore hit two free throws to put Eastview up 61-57 with 35 seconds left in the game. Lightning senior Brittnye McSparron finished the game with 30 points and three steals, while senior Cassie Sheppard led Eastview with seven rebounds. Senior Courtney Boylan paced Chaska with 34 points.

The 2008 State Girls' Basketball Tournament quarterfinals were played March 12 and 13 at Williams Arena on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis and the Target Center in Minneapolis. All semifinal and championship games were played at the Target Center on March 13-15. The third-place games were played at Gangelhoff Center on the Concordia University campus in St. Paul on March 15. Total paid attendance was 41,524.

Perham earns second consecutive Class A team title; Wayzata earns top team honors in Class AA

By Ellen Giloy & Amy Doherty

Two new individual champions emerged at the 2007 State Cross Country Meet. In Class A, senior Donny Wasinger of Winona Cotter emerged as the winner with a time of 15:52.9. The title was an improvement on last year's runner-up showing.

Rob Finnerty, a senior at Burnsville, outpaced the pack and easily claimed the Class AA title with a time of 15:28.8. His time was nine seconds faster than that of runner-up Jordan Carlson, a senior at Rosemount.

In the Class A team competition, the Perham boys claimed their second consecutive title with 88 points. In Class AA, the Wayzata Trojans won top honors with 62 points. It was their fourth title overall.

Class A

The Perham Yellowjackets made it two team championships in a row with their 88-point finish. They placed three runners in the top 25 in team scoring and defeated the runners-up from Adrian by 62 points.

Senior Kevin Lachowitz, who won the individual title in 2006, led Perham again this year. He was first in team scoring and second overall. Lachowitz was followed by senior Justin Tellinghuisen and sophomore Sam Stoll, who placed fifth and 23rd in team scoring, respectively, and 15th and 45th overall. Senior Parker Carignan was next for the Yellowjackets. He placed 26th in team scoring and 54th overall. Senior Eddie Stenger rounded out the scoring positions by placing 33rd in team scoring and 69th overall. Junior Alex Barney and ninth-grader

Donny Wasinger (left) of Winona Cotter outpaced defending champion Kevin Lachowitz (right) of Perham by almost six seconds to claim the Class A individual crown.

Keith Schornack also ran for Perham.

Adrian took home the second-place trophy with 150 points, up from third-place in 2006. Junior Chris Reisdorfer placed sixth in team scoring and 16th overall to pace the Dragons.

Sophomore Nate Reyne and senior Jack Albertson followed. They were 20th and 28th, respectively, in team scoring, and 39th and 56th overall. Fourth and fifth place for Adrian went to sophomore Jordan Pater and junior Brett Springman.

Pequot Lakes, which did not qualify for the 2006 state tournament, finished in third place with 161 points. Junior Clayton Foster led his team with a runner-up finish in the team scoring. He placed fifth overall.

In the individual race, senior Donny Wasinger of Winona Cotter avenged last year's loss to Lachowitz by beating him by almost six seconds. By the 1600-meter mark, the two runners had gained a small lead over the rest of the field and continued to extend that lead throughout the race. With 800 meters to go, they were only separated from one another by two stride lengths, but by the finish Wasinger stretched that lead to more than five seconds. Wasinger's final time was 15:52.9 and Lachowitz's was 15:58.5.

Senior Andrew Hoffman of St. Anthony Village was third with a time of 16:20.4. Junior Ryan Tholen of Tracy-Milroy-Balaton and Clayton Foster of Pequot Lakes placed fourth and fifth, respectively.

In the Class AA meet, Wayzata claimed its fourth team title. The Trojans, who did not qualify for the 2006 meet, won previous championships in 1992, 1993, and 2000. This year, they finished with 62 points and all five scorers finished in the top 20 in team scoring.

+ In 1987 Scott Morken of Winona was the first finisher with a time of 15:58.1. However, Morken had not qualified as an individual (he did not finish in the top five in the Section 1AA Meet), but rather as a member of a team. According to League rules at that time he was ineligible to win an individual title or medal.

The Trojans were led by junior Jeremy Drenckhahn. He placed fifth in team scoring and 12th overall. Junior Danny Ducharme and senior Anders Bowman followed in seventh and 12th place, respectively. They were 18th and 30th overall. The final scoring positions were filled by senior Peter Holmes and junior Andrew Wasz. They were 18th and 20th in team scoring, and 43rd and 48th overall. Junior Evan Day and sophomore Oliver Haugland rounded out the Wayzata squad.

The Rosemount Irish earned runner-up honors for a second consecutive year. The Irish, who finished with 110 points, were led by senior Jordan Carlson. He was first in team scoring and second overall. Junior Chris Massey and senior Obai Hussein followed with 23rd- and 27th-place finishes in team scoring. That placed them 53rd and 59th overall. Senior Justin Sawyers and Matt Thoof earned the remaining points for Rosemount.

Brainerd improved one place to claim third-place honors with 147 points. Leading the way was junior Thomas Ruttger. He placed fourth in team scoring and ninth overall.

The two-time defending champions from Willmar fell to sixth place. Junior Mahad Hassan was the top runner for the Cardinals. He was second in team scoring and fourth overall.

Senior Rob Finnerty of Burnsville ran away with the individual title. Finnerty, who was the runner-up in 2004 and fourth in 2006, won by nine seconds this year. He pulled away from the competition well before the 1600-meter mark in the race and never let up. Jordan Carlson of Rosemount took a patient approach toward his runner-up finish, staying in a loose pack behind the three lead runners for much of the race. Finnerty finished with a time of 15:28.8 and Carlson had a final time of 15:37.8.

Senior Pieter Gagnon of Minneapolis Washburn rounded out the top three scoring positions with a time of 15:44.5. Mahad Hassan of Willmar finished fourth and junior Robel Kebede of Minneapolis South was fifth.

The 2007 State Cross Country Meet was held at St. Olaf College in Northfield on November 3.

Adam Schmidt (348) of Andover, Andy Richardson (421) of Irondale, New Brighton, and Rob Finnerty (414) of Burnsville, lead the pack in the opening minutes of the Class AA race. Finnerty went on to win his first individual title with a time of 15:28.8.

State Boys' Team Participants – Single Class – 1943-1974

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY RUNNING

Adrian girls claim third consecutive Class A team title; Burnsville wins first championship in Class AA

By Ellen Giloy & Amy Doherty

Two newcomers captured individual titles at the 2007 State Cross Country Meet. Paynesville Area junior Linda Keller claimed her first championship in Class A, and Mankato West sophomore Laura Hughes outran the competition in Class AA.

The Class A team title went to the Adrian Dragons for a third consecutive year. The Burnsville Blaze claimed their first championship in their third appearance in Class AA.

Class A

Adding to a flawless state appearance record, Adrian won its third team title in its third consecutive and overall appearance. The Dragons finished with 97 points and were led by the strong duo of seventh-grader Jordin Kopplow and junior Morgan Lynn. The two ran close together the entire race with Kopplow placing eighth in team scoring and Lynn following in 15th. Overall, Kopplow placed 12th and Lynn was 26th.

Eighth-grader Austyn Thier and junior Leslie Stover were the next finishers for Adrian. They placed 21st and 23rd, respectively, in the team scoring, and 37th and 46th overall. Seventh-grader Megan Sauer rounded out the scoring for the Dragons. She finished 30th in team scoring and 56th overall. Ninth-graders Hailee Heitkamp and Natasha Slater also ran for Adrian.

Holy Family Catholic of Victoria, which was making its debut appearance at the meet, earned runner-up honors with 142 points. Junior Lauren Rice led the Fire with a fourth-place

2007 REVIEW

Linda Keller (691) of Paynesville Area led early in the Class A race and held off challenges from Naomi Landecker (741) of Staples-Motley and Marissa Janning (511) of Watertown-Mayer at the end. Keller's winning time was 14:30.2.

showing in team scoring and a fifth-place finish overall. Junior Brenna Wetsch and sophomore Kelsey Mullen placed 10th and 31st in team scoring and 16th and 61st overall, respectively.

Juniors Melanie Rodriguez and Ally Gerads completed the Fire's scoring positions.

Improving one place, the Perham Yellowjackets finished third with 152 points. Sophomore Maddie McClellan led the squad. She was third in team scoring and fourth overall.

In the individual competition, Paynesville Area junior Linda Keller raced into the lead by the 800-meter mark, and while challenged, never relinquished that position. She improved on last year's third-place finish to win with a time of 14:30.2. Junior Naomi Landecker of Staples-Motley finished as Keller's runner-up with a time of 14:43.3. Just a stride behind the two leaders for much of the race, Watertown-Mayer eighth-grader Marissa Janning finished in third place. Earning the fourth- and fifth-place medals, respectively, were sophomore Maddie McClellan of Perham and junior Lauren Rice of Holy Family Catholic.

Class AA

In Class AA, the Blaze of Burnsville claimed their first championship trophy with 90 points. The Blaze had no runners finish in the top 10, but had four athletes place between 14th and 19th in team scoring for the win.

Leading the way toward the championship was junior Maria Tinebra. She was 14th in team scoring and 22nd overall. Juniors Erica Hett and Sarah Daniels followed at 15th and 17th in team scoring, respectively. That placed them at 25th and 28th overall. Ninth-grader Sharmila Ahmed and senior

Alyssa Sybilrud scored the final points for the Blaze. Ahmed was 19th in team scoring and 30th overall, and Sybilrud placed 25th in team scoring and 36th overall. Junior Alyssa Herting and senior Ellen Jesmok rounded out Burnsville's team.

The Eden Prairie Eagles, who were third in 2006, claimed runner-up honors with 106 points. Junior Cassy Opitz was the top finisher in the team scoring and second overall. Ninth-graders Alexandra Rudin and Megan Platner were the No. 2 and No. 3 runners for the Eagles. They were 11th and 12th in team scoring, and 18th and 20th overall, respectively. Seniors Laura Platner and Lauren Moore earned the remaining points for Eden Prairie.

Minnetonka finished third with 122 points. Junior Emily Meese, who placed seventh in team scoring and 10th overall, led the Skippers. Minnetonka placed second in 2006.

Sophomore Laura Hughes of Mankato West, who was the runner-up last year, raced to the individual title with a time of 14:28.4. Throughout the course, Hughes was always among the leaders within the tight lead pack of six to eight runners, and she broke free after the 3200-meter mark.

Cassy Opitz of Eden Prairie earned the second-place medal and Elk River/Zimmerman sophomore Emma Bates placed third. Their times were 14:45.2 and 14:47.3, respectively. Junior Katie Moraczewski of White Bear Lake Area and senior Danielle Berndt of Bloomington Kennedy rounded out the top five finishers.

The 2007 State Cross Country Meet was held November 3 at St. Olaf College in Northfield.

Marshall School only team to defend 2007 title

The Marshall School of Duluth was the only team of six defending champions to repeat the feat at the 2008 State Girls' Dance Team Tournament. The Divas won their second consecutive and overall Jazz championship at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul. Two of the other defending champions finished as runners-up and the other three placed third.

With music pumping, teams from 48 schools took to the floor at the 2008 tournament. Twelve teams competed in each of the two dance disciplines and in each of the three classes at the tournament.

High Kick Division

Cannon Falls, second in Class A, came closest to repeating as champion. However, the previous year's runner-up, Yellow Medicine East of Granite Falls, won its first title in this division. The Silhouettes also won the 2003 Jazz/Funk title. Aitkin moved up from fourth to finish third. Bagley was fourth. New Ulm Cathedral dropped from third in 2007 to fifth, and Pequot Lakes was sixth.

St. Cloud Cathedral won the Class AA title in 2005 and again in 2008. The Crusaderettes finished third in 2007. Totino-Grace of Fridley was the runner-up for the second consecutive year. Defending champion Faribault slipped all the way to third. Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park was fourth, Austin was fifth, and Sartell-St. Stephen finished sixth for the second straight year.

If there is a dynasty in this division, it would have to be Burnsville. The Blazettes, second in 2007, won their 10th overall championship. The dynasty began with back-to-back titles in 1982 and 1983, then 1987, 1990, 1998, and 2000 through 2003. Chaska finished second. Defending champion Eastview of Apple Valley slipped to third. Wayzata, fifth in 2007, moved up to fourth. Eden Prairie finished fifth and St. Cloud Tech was sixth.

Jazz Division

The Divas of Marshall School of Duluth succeeded where no other 2007 champion could. They successfully defended their title. BOLD of Olivia finished second for the second straight year. Yellow Medicine East of Granite Falls finished third, one spot better than in 2007. Pequot Lakes moved up from sixth in 2007 to fourth in 2008. Zumbrota-Mazeppa was fifth, and the 2007 fifth-place finisher, New Ulm Cathedral, slid to sixth.

Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park won the Class AA competition, adding another championship trophy to sit beside the school's 2004 championship trophy. The Knightettes were third in the 2007 tournament. Totino-Grace of Fridley finished second for the second consecutive year. Defending champion Spring Lake Park had to settle for third place. St. Cloud Cathedral was fourth, Sartell-St. Stephen was fifth, and Simley of Inver Grove Heights, fourth in 2007, finished sixth.

Maple Grove climbed from third in 2007 to the Class AAA title, its third overall. The Crimson Connection also won in 2004 and 2005. Defending champion Wayzata had to settle for second. Blaine, fifth the previous year, moved up to third place. Mounds View, the 2007 runner-up, slid to fourth. Eden Prairie finished fifth and Eastview of Apple Valley also slid, from fourth in 2007 to sixth.

Although the 2008 tournament was the 12th under Minnesota State High School League sponsorship, it was actually the 34th state competition for dance teams. The previous events were conducted by the Minnesota Association of Dancelines, later renamed the Minnesota Association of Dance Teams. The League's Representative Assembly voted to add girls' dance team as a sponsored activity on March 20, 1996. Although considered an athletic activity, girls' dance team does not meet the federally regulated Title IX guidelines to be considered a sport.

The 2008 State Girls' Dance Team Tournament was conducted February 15-16 at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul. Paid attendance was 17,322.

History of the State Girls' Dance Team Competition

In the mid-1970's, interested dance team advisors in the Minneapolis/St. Paul metro area met to organize the first State Danceline Competition which was held at Anoka High School. In the early years of the danceline competition, the winner of the state tournament was in charge of and hosted the next year's event. This concept created an incredible amount of work and an awesome responsibility for both the school and the dance team. Advisors served as judges, but there were no regulations to guide the number and type of competitions. During the late 1970's dance teams began to hire judges for the State tournament, but there was no formal training for judges other than their experience as former danceline members. In 1980, the state tournament was moved to St. Olaf College, and the state champion from the prior year was still responsible for the organization and administration of the tournament.

On August 23, 1980, a group of eleven advisors from throughout the state met at Minnetonka High School to discuss dance team issues and to find better ways to organize regular season and the state tournament competition. This meeting led to the formation of the Minnesota Association of Dancelines (MAD), the name chosen for the organization. A nine-member Board of Directors was elected, and the group began planning "State '81". During the initial year of competition there were 55 schools.

A second Board of Directors was elected at a general membership meeting in October of 1981, and they accepted the responsibility for "State'82". The MAD members worked together to develop the Constitution, and in 1982 the Board of Directors filed the necessary papers for incorporation.

The first Judges' and Coaches' Clinic was held in the fall of 1983, and the State tournament was moved to St. Cloud State University. In 1984, the State tournament moved to the Minneapolis Auditorium and functioned comfortably there until the move to the St. Paul Civic Center in 1989. In 1995, the University of Minnesota became the state tournament site. This change coincided with a change in the name of the coaches organization, the Minnesota Association of Dance Teams (MADT).

In the fall and winter of 1995, member schools of the Minnesota State High School League began a discussion with MADT and, on March 20, 1996, the League's Representative Assembly voted to include girls dance team as a League-sponsored athletic activity.

The 2008 tournament at the Xcel Energy Center, marked the 34th year of dance team competition, but the 12th one under the auspices of the League.

St. Paul Highland Park's Garcia, Olson win Policy Debate title; Rambachan of Eastview wins Lincoln-Douglas Debate title

2008 REVIEW

Increasing public health assistance to Sub-Saharan Africa and using military force to prevent the acquisition of nuclear weapons were the topics argued at the 2008 State Debate Tournament — the 107th edition and the longest-running event of the Minnesota State High School League.

Akshar Rambachan of Eastview of Apple Valley defeated defending champion, Dan Willey of Robbinsdale Cooper, 4-3 to win the Lincoln-Douglas competition. Rambachan's argument against using military force to prevent the acquisition of nuclear weapons followed nine rounds of debate.

The results of eight rounds of debate proved that Juan Garcia and Nat Olson of St. Paul Highland Park were the very best policy debaters. Garcia and Olson drew the negative argument, arguing against increasing public health assistance to Sub-Saharan Africa, and won the debate by a 3-2 margin over Ben Quam and Ilias Karim of St. Paul Central.

Rambachan, Garcia, and Olson, emerged as champions after two days of debate that began with 60 competitors from 21 teams. The qualifiers were the first- through fourth-place finishers in Lincoln-Douglas debate and the first- through third-place finishers in Policy debate from six section tournaments.

The policy debate portion of the tournament has been conducted since 1902 and the Lincoln-Douglas portion of the tournament, which was an invitational event from 1986 through 1989, was added to the state tournament in 1990. This year's tournament was held at Rosemount High School.

Lincoln-Douglas Debate

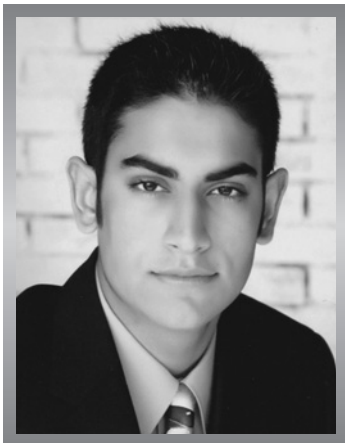

This year's Lincoln-Douglas debate topic was "Resolved: It is just for the United States to use military force to prevent the acquisition of nuclear weapons by nations that pose a military threat." Considered a debate of values rather than policies, this competition is patterned after the Lincoln and Douglas debate nearly a century and a half ago and pits individuals against each other.

Akshar Rambachan of Eastview defeated Dan Willey of Robbinsdale Cooper, the defending champion, 4-3 to win the competition. Rambachan advanced to the championship after defeating Chris Theis of Apple Valley 2-1 in the quarterfinals. In the semifinals, Rambachan defeated teammate Jake Branchaud-Linsk 3-2.

Willey defeated Zac Field of Coon Rapids in the quarterfinals, and teammate Erik Legried 3-2 in the semifinals.

Twenty-four students from 14 schools are qualified for the 2008 tournament. Ten schools qualified two students each: Eastview, Apple Valley, Brainerd, St. Francis, Lakeville North, Lakeville South, St. Paul Central, Forest Lake, Wayzata, and Robbinsdale Cooper. Overall, 10 of the 24 debaters also competed in the 2007 tournament.

Policy Debate

This year's policy debate issue was "Resolved: The U.S. federal government should substantially increase its public health assistance to Sub-Saharan Africa." Teams of two compete against each other.

Juan Garcia and Nat Olson of St. Paul Highland Park, who lost in the quarterfinals of the 2007 tournament, argued against increasing assistance and won the debate by a 3-2 margin. They defeated Ben Quam and Ilias Karim of St. Paul Central for the title.

This year, Garcia and Olson defeated teammates Jillian Jordan and Michael Lando 3-0 in the quarterfinals. They went on to defeat Joe Lance and Hannah Furfaro of Wayzata 5-0 in the semifinals.

Quam and Ilias defeated Lucy Litman and Andrew McCarty of The Blake School of Minneapolis 3-0 in the quarterfinals. In the semifinals, they beat Josh Bernick and David Wolkowicz of Henry Sibley of Mendota Heights 5-0. The runner-up finish was also an improvement for Quam and Ilias, who lost in the quarterfinals of the 2007 tournament.

Megan Swenson of Wayzata, who won the Policy title with Ana Nikolic in 2007, lost in the quarterfinals. She partnered with Chrissy Boyd this year.

Eighteen teams from 12 schools competed in the 2008 tournament. Six schools qualified two teams each: Mankato West, Moorhead, Henry Sibley, St. Paul Highland Park, Wayzata, and Eden Prairie. Nine of this year's competitors also competed in the 2007 tournament.

Spotlight on the Arts Award of Excellence

The Spotlight on the Arts Award of Excellence — sponsored by premier corporate sponsor Wells Fargo in cooperation with the Minnesota State High School League — was also presented to all of the semifinalist policy debate teams and to all of the semifinalist Lincoln-Douglas debaters.

The Spotlight on the Arts campaign was designed to increase awareness and visibility of the League's fine arts disciplines. The award is also presented to the finest participants in the one act festival, music contests, visual arts festivals, and speech competitions.

More than 750 students participate in debate throughout Minnesota. The first state debate tournament was held in May 1902 in Minneapolis.

Two Class A schools earn “starred” ratings; Three Class AA productions named “starred performances”

Two Class A one act plays and three Class AA one act plays received “starred performance” ratings during the 2008 State One Act Play Festival.

The festival does not involve direct competition. Judges rate the plays according to specific criteria, including pace, blocking, costuming, and projection of the play’s meaning. Each production is limited to 10 minutes of stage preparation and 35 minutes of actual performance.

The judges consult after each performance and then openly critique each play in front of the cast, crew, and audience. One school from each of eight sections in each class gets to perform at the state level.

Two hundred and ninety-six teams participated in One Act Play this season: 208 in Class A and 88 in Class AA.

Class A

After watching, listening, and then individually critiquing eight Class A dramatic productions, a panel of judges rated two of them “starred performances.”

The two schools whose performances were cited for “starred performances” were (in order of performance) Belle Plaine for The Winner and Eveleth-Gilbert for Proof. The other participating Class A high schools were Foley, Eden-Valley-Watkins, Hawley, Mountain Lake, St. Charles, and Crookston.

Belle Plaine’s “starred performance” of The Winner by B. Dwayne Craft was directed by Tony Hartmann and Peter Jacobson. The school was making its seventh appearance and earned its sixth “starred” rating. The school earned previous “starred” ratings in 1993, 1997, 1999, 2000, and 2007. Cast members were Tallen Lowe, Philip Kaminsky, Heather Burmeister, Danielle Hron, Lindy Jackson, Andrew Orvick, Andrew VanRavenswaay, Michael Schroers, Kate Effertz, Shelby Witt, Jeremy Winders, Krystal Cline, Caleb Nolte, Kelly Soller, Alex Vechinski, Michelle Malecha, Emily Ryan, and Patrick Fogarty. Andrew Lajeunesse provided support.

Jack Gritzmacher directed Eveleth-Gilbert’s “starred performance” of Proof by David Auburn. This was Eveleth-Gilbert’s fourth appearance under this name, and its third “starred” rating. Cast members were Laura Pershern, Eric Gunderson, Andrew Eilola, and Marcie Killian. Support personnel included Jon Kwiatkowski, Ben Frey, Annie Grierson, Demetri Johnson, and Tanner Gritzmacher. The combined program earned previous “starred” ratings in 2005 and 2006. Eveleth made eight additional appearances, with top ratings in 1949, 1950, 1952, 1954, and 1956.

Four teams defend titles in two-day Prep Bowl XXVI; Multiple records broken or tied in four title games

By Brad Ruiter,
Howard W. Voigt & Ellen Giloy

Over the course of two days, all four teams defending their 2006 state football titles succeeded in their quests. A number of new records were set, and a much-anticipated Class AAAAA match-up of the top two ranked teams produced a one-sided result.

The Stephen-Argyle Central Storm kicked off Prep Bowl XXVI as they secured their 67th consecutive victory and their fifth consecutive and sixth overall Class 9-Man championship. Glencoe-Silver Lake repeated as the Class AAA champion for the school's fourth title, while Totino-Grace (Class AAAA) and Eden Prairie (Class AAAAA) defended their titles and won their sixth overall championships.

Goodhue and Caledonia secured the Class A and Class AA titles, respectively. It was the second title for each school.

Four games were played on Friday, Nov. 23, and several records were tied and broken. In the day's opener, Stephen-Argyle Central rushed for 426 yards and a new record. In the Class A final, Goodhue earned 26 first downs, and 22 were by rushing, also a new record. In the day's final game, Cretin-Derham Hall's Marcus Binns ran the opening kickoff back for a 98-yard touchdown. At game's end, Eden Prairie finished with 520 yards of offense and 30 first downs, establishing new records. Twenty-two of those first downs were by rushing, tying the record set by Goodhue earlier in the day.

On the second day of the tournament, senior Matthew Muenchow of Glencoe-Silver Lake tied the record for most touchdowns. He rushed for one and threw for four more. Cory Hackett of Waterville-Elysian-Morristown set the original standard in 1999.

Class 9-Man

The Stephen-Argyle Central Storm (13-0) capped another unbeaten season and claimed their fifth consecutive Class 9-Man championship with a 43-21 victory over the Waubun Bombers. The Storm, who also won the 9-Man title under this name in 1999, extended their winning streak to a state-record 67 games with the win. In addition to the six titles as a combined program, Argyle won titles in 1981 and 1986, and Stephen won in 1992.

As a team, the Storm rushed 60 times for a Prep Bowl record 426 yards. Stephen-Argyle Central had three junior running backs eclipse the 100-yard mark in the game, led by Brandon Sorenson with nine carries for 107 yards and two touchdowns. Mathew Borowicz rushed 11 times for 101 yards and three touchdowns, while Taylor Swanson gained 103 yards on 15 carries.

touchdowns in 44 seconds in the first quarter, Waubun responded with two scores of their own off two Storm fumbles to grab a 15-14 lead. Stephen-Argyle Central responded with three touchdown drives to end the first half and had a 36-15 lead going into intermission. The teams traded touchdowns in the second half for the final margin of victory.

Senior Anthony Mertens led the way for Waubun with 99 yards on eight carries, including a 72-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Bombers, making their second Prep Bowl appearance, finished the season 11-1.

Stephen-Argyle Central had no problem advancing to the championship game. The Storm defeated the first-time qualifiers from McGregor 44-8 in the quarterfinals. In the semifinals, they cruised past Verndale 35-14. Six different Storm players ran the ball, and each gained 25 yards or more. Mathew Borowicz had 101 yards on 11 carries and also scored three touchdowns. Brandon Sorenson, who gained 106 yards on nine carries, added two additional touchdowns for Stephen-Argyle Central. Senior quarterback Kip Thorstenson completed 3-of-9 attempts and also scampered into the end zone for one touchdown. He finished with 78 passing yards.

Class A

The Goodhue Wildcats (13-1) rode the two-headed running attack of seniors Eric Ryan and Micah Huneke to a 28-7 victory over Adrian in the Class A final. The Wildcats captured their second state championship with the victory, previously taking top honors in 2003.

Ryan rushed 28 times for 141 yards and three touchdowns, while Huneke chipped in 26 rushes for 167 yards and one touchdown. The Wildcats jumped on the board quickly, converting touchdowns on each of their first two possessions. Huneke converted on a 12-yard run to cap a 10-play, 76-yard drive before Ryan broke in from three yards out to culminate a nine-play, 77-yard march. The teams traded touchdowns in the second quarter to make the halftime margin 21-7 in favor of Goodhue.

Goodhue opened the second half with a 17-play drive that, although it didn't result in any points, took over seven minutes off the clock. Goodhue owned the time of possession battle for the game, holding the ball for 32:28 compared to 15:32 for Adrian.

The Wildcats broke two Prep Bowl records in the game with 26 total first downs (22 rushing, two passing, and two by penalty). The previous first-down record was set by Minnesota in 1988.

As time expired in the Class AAAA game, Micah Koehn of Totino-Grace caught a twice-tipped pass and then somersaulted into the endzone. The play gave the Eagles a dramatic 13-8 victory over Mahtomedi and also secured the team's fourth title in five years.

Two teams, Mahnomen in 1993 and Stephen-Argyle Central in 2006, held the previous record for most first downs rushing (21).

Junior running back Jesse Brake led Adrian with 93 yards on 15 rushes. Sophomore Adam Diekmann scored the Dragons' lone touchdown on an 11-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Brett Nowotny. Adrian finished the season with a mark of 11-3.

Goodhue started its championship run by defeating Royalton 40-14. The Wildcats advanced and beat Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg 44-12 in the semifinals. Senior Brett Watson was the big-play man. He touched the ball only seven times, but accounted for 263 all-purpose yards. Watson had 153 yards on four rushing attempts, three receptions for 92 yards, and an interception which he returned for 18 yards. He also scored three touchdowns; one on an 80-yard run and two on pass receptions from senior quarterback Kelby Buck. Micah Huneke added two touchdowns, one rushing and the other on a pass from Buck.

The defending champions from Rushford-Peterson failed to qualify for the 2007 tournament.

Class AA

The Caledonia Warriors used a stingy second-half defense and a time-consuming fourth-quarter drive to claim the Class AA title with a 14-7 win over the Luverne Cardinals. Senior Zach Gran was the workhorse for the Warriors, rushing 30 times for 151 yards.

Caledonia opened the scoring with an eight-play, 67-yard drive which culminated in a five-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback Kody Moore to junior Andy Bauer. Luverne answered in the middle of the second quarter with a two-yard run by senior Mitch Bauman to cap a 16-play, 80-yard drive. There were three lost fumbles in the first half to stymie drives for both teams. Luverne fumbled twice, while Caledonia lost the ball on the ground once.

The Warriors punched in the second half's lone score on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Kody Moore to Zach Gran, capping a four-play, 43-yard drive. Moore completed just two passes on the day, but both went for touchdowns.

Caledonia's defense flustered the Luverne offense in the second half, forcing four punts and not allowing the Cardinals any deep penetration in Warrior territory. Caledonia salted the game away in the fourth quarter with a 15-play, 48-yard drive that consumed the final 7:12 on the game clock.

For Luverne, junior Phil Paquette paced the offense by rushing 19 times for 110 yards. Mitch Bauman and senior Jeremy Hoff added 34 and 29 rushing yards, respectively.

Caledonia took home the school's second state football championship in finishing the season 13-1. The Warriors won their only other title in 1976. Luverne, which finished as the runner-up for a second consecutive year, finished the season 12-2.

The Warriors' performance in the state tournament started with a 16-13 quarterfinal victory over Norwood-Young America. Caledonia then defeated Hawley 35-20 in the semifinals. A fourth touchdown in the third quarter gave the Warriors a 28-20 lead late into the fourth quarter. A key interception by Caledonia on Hawley's last possession with just less than five minutes to play put the game out of reach. Caledonia then ran out the clock, but not before scoring one more insurance touchdown for the 35-20 final.

Caledonia amassed 378 offensive yards, most of which came through the air. Quarterback Kody Moore was 12-for-18 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Moore also rushed for two additional touchdowns. The Warriors' Zach Gran also carried the ball 17 times for 102 yards and one touchdown.

Triton of Dodge Center, which claimed the Class AA title last year, fell to Luverne 10-7 in the quarterfinals.

Class AAA

Glencoe-Silver Lake senior quarterback Matthew Muenchow threw four touchdown passes and ran for another, as the Panthers (14-0) defeated DeLaSalle 56-20 to claim the State

Class AAA title. Muenchow's performance tied the Prep Bowl tournament record for most touchdowns that was originally set by Cory Hackett of Waterville-Elysian-Morristown in 1999.

This was the second consecutive and fourth overall championship for Glencoe-Silver Lake under this name. The Panthers won previously in 2000 and 2003. In addition to these four titles, Silver Lake won 9-Man titles in 1983 and 1987.

Muenchow was 7-for-10 for 203 yards, with three different receivers hauling in the four touchdowns. Senior Chad Pierson caught three passes for 98 yards and a touchdown, and senior Dustin Jurek took in two passes for 60 yards and a pair of scores. Senior Hunter Dunbar caught two passes, including a 31-yard score on 4th-and-11 during Glencoe-Silver Lake's first possession. Dunbar finished the game with 45 rushing yards.

On the ground, Jurek eclipsed the century mark with 22 carries for 118 yards and two touchdowns. Muenchow added 11 carries for 80 yards and a touchdown.

The Panthers racked up 506 yards of total offense - 303 rushing and 203 passing - and narrowly missed setting a new Prep Bowl record for that category. Eden Prairie set the new record of 520 yards the night before.

Senior Jeremy Randle led the DeLaSalle ground game by picking up 153 yards on 19 carries, including a 77-yard touchdown scamper in the second quarter. Junior quarterback Michael Van Leer completed 7-of-14 passes for 137 yards, with junior A.J. Barker catching five passes for 119 yards. The Islanders ended the season with a record of 11-3.

Glencoe-Silver Lake was in control all the way to its title-winning finish. The Panthers defeated the first-time qualifiers from LeSueur-Henderson 33-12 in the quarterfinals. In the semifinal contest, Glencoe defeated the Albany Huskies 22-8. The game hinged on two consecutive plays from scrimmage that resulted in Panther touchdowns. Three plays after Dustin Jurek caught a 36-yard pass from Matthew Muenchow at the Huskies 12-yard line, Jurek dove in from a yard out on the final play of the half. The Panthers received the second-half kickoff and Muenchow, on the first play, ran 64 yards for a touchdown. After Muenchow connected with Hunter Dunbar on a two-point conversion, Glencoe-Silver Lake took a 14-6 lead that it would not relinquish.

The Panthers defense came up large in the second half, holding the Huskies to just 97 total yards. Albany, in its five second-half possessions, never got inside the Panther 37-yard line. Glencoe-Silver Lake's defense was led by senior Tony Schauer who had 11 tackles for the game, including a sack and a tackle for loss. Muenchow was the leading rusher for the Panthers with 105 yards on 12 carries.

Class AAAA

In what was probably the most dramatic finish in Prep Bowl history, Totino-Grace senior Micah Koehn caught a desperation, time-expired pass from senior quarterback Jordan Marshall and rumbled into the end zone to give the Eagles a 13-8 win over Mahtomedi. The title was the sixth football crown for Totino-Grace (13-1) and its fourth this decade. In addition to the past two years, the Eagles also won titles in 1977, 1978, 2003, and 2004.

Mahtomedi (10-4) took its first lead of the game with under a minute to play on a 15-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback Vaughn Schmid to senior Matt Groff. The Zephyrs then executed a successful two-point conversion from Schmid to Groff that followed three successive timeouts, two by Totino-Grace.

The Eagles took the ensuing kickoff and began a drive at their own 37 with just 45 seconds remaining. Four plays later, they had marched to midfield with 10 seconds remaining. On the final play, Jordan Marshall put the ball into the air where it was tipped by Mahtomedi senior Nick Cedargren and then tipped again by the intended receiver, senior Jake King. It ended up in Micah Koehn's hands and, after breaking one tackle, he tip-toed down the line and into the end zone. Just to add style points, Koehn ended his scamper with a forward somersault.

Before the last-minute, fourth-quarter drive by the Zephyrs, the only scoring in the game was in the first quarter. Totino-Grace put together an impressive drive on its second possession, marching 82 yards on 13 plays. The drive was capped by a two-yard touchdown plunge by Micah Koehn.

Marshall finished 12-for-17 through the air for 158 yards and a touchdown. Junior Pierce Lubinski rushed 14 times for 50 yards, while Marshall added 53 yards on 15 carries.

For Mahtomedi, Vaughn Schmid was 14-for-20 for 191 yards and a touchdown. Junior Stephen Johnson rushed 20 times for 60 yards to lead the ground attack.

Totino-Grace started its title run with 31-13 quarterfinal victory over the Duluth East Greyhounds. The Eagles relied on their ground game in the semifinals when they beat Waconia 24-8. They scored three touchdowns, grinding out 269 of the team's 278 total offensive yards. Pierce Lubinski, who gave Totino-Grace a 17-0 advantage on a 4-yard run with 3:19 remaining in the first half, led his squad with 110 yards rushing on 27 carries. He finished the game with two touchdowns.

The Eagles responded by scoring on every possession of the first half—five times overall. The half ended with the two teams combining for 57 points.

Eden Prairie scored the only two touchdowns of the second half, but more importantly, consumed a combined 12:58 on those two drives. The Eagles converted their first 11 third-down tries of the game, finishing with an impressive 11-of-13 on third-down conversions for the contest.

Leading the Eagles on the ground was senior Scott Lindner, who totaled 155 yards on 30 carries and one touchdown. Senior quarterback Ryan Grant was efficient through the air, completing 9-of-12 attempts for 129 yards and two touchdowns. The only drive on which Eden Prairie didn't score was the game's final one—the Eagles simply ran out the clock.

Eden Prairie set two Prep Bowl records in the victory. The Eagles chalked up 30 first downs to eclipse the record of 26 set earlier in the day by Goodhue in the Class A title game. They also amassed 520 yards of total offense, which was one yard better than Minnetonka's total in the 2004 Class AAAAA title contest.

Senior quarterback John Nance led Cretin-Derham Hall both on the ground and in the air. Nance was 11-of-20 for 118 yards passing, and he gained an additional 73 yards on 10 rushes. Binns' opening kickoff eclipsed the previous Prep Bowl record, a 95-yard kickoff return by Raiders' alumnus Kim Sarin in 2000.

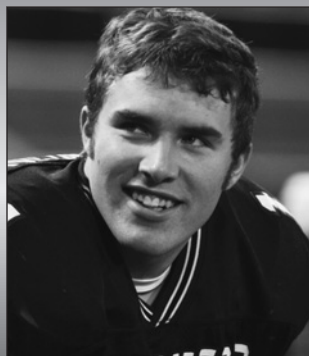

Eden Prairie defeated the first-time qualifiers from Andover 42-7 in the quarterfinals, and went on to beat Eastview of Apple Valley 30-0 in the semifinals. Eastview's three turnovers—two interceptions and a fumble—led to 13 of Eden Prairie's 16 first-half points. The Eagles' only touchdown of the first half came immediately after a fumble recovery on Eastview's 11-yard line. Senior Matt Swanson ran it in and senior Erik Soderberg kicked the extra point.

Another fumble recovery set up Eden Prairie's final score. The Eagles then covered 11 yards on four plays, culminating in Scott Lindner's one-yard rush. Lindner finished the game with 97 yards on 20 carries.

The Eagles rushed for a total of 204 yards. Eastview was limited to 46 yards rushing and 58 yards passing.

The six games of Prep Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome in Minneapolis on November 23 and 24 at the Metrodome in Minneapolis drew a total attendance of 32,430. This was the first year the finals were played over two days. Total tournament attendance was 103,769.

Senior Justin Rajtar earned the first score of the contest when he kicked a 22-yard field goal in the first quarter, plus he kicked all three extra points. The Wildcats' lone touchdown came late in the third quarter on a 48-yard completion from senior Dillon Hackbarth to senior Joe Brandenburg. Waconia ran and passed for near equal yardage, but failed to convert 9-of-11 third downs.

Class AAAAA

The Class AAAAA title game between Eden Prairie and Cretin-Derham Hall featured a pair of 13-0 powerhouse programs. In a much anticipated showdown, Eden Prairie captured its second consecutive and sixth overall state championship with a 50-21 win. The Eagles won their previous titles in 1996, 1997, 2000, and 2002.

Cretin-Derham Hall junior Marcus Binns grabbed the attention of everyone in the Metrodome by returning the game's opening kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown in the first 12

Four schools win first championships; Three individuals also win first titles

By Ellen Giloy

In the first year of a three-class tournament, four schools won their first titles: Meadow Creek Christian of Andover (Class A), Orono and Detroit Lakes (Class AA), and Park of Cottage Grove (Class AAA). Meadow Creek Christian and Orono were also making their first appearances at the tournament.

Three individual players also claimed their first championships. Junior Grant Wayland of Bethlehem Academy of Faribault won in Class A, senior Robert Bell of Pierz won in Class AA, and senior Billy Barnhart of Park won in Class AAA.

Class A

After playing a shortened day because of rain and lightning, the boys of Meadow Creek Christian won their first title with 312 strokes. The scores reverted back to first-day, 18-hole totals when players weren't permitted to finish the course on the second day.

Meadow Creek Christian, which is located in Andover, was making its first tournament appearance. Eighth-grader Andrew Peterson paced the Saints with his 74 strokes, which was good enough for second-place overall.

Senior Derek Tessman and junior Ryan Schultz also finished in the Top 10 for Meadow Creek Christian. Tessman tied for fifth place with 78 strokes, and Schultz tied for ninth place with 79 strokes. Senior Tyler Champ rounded out the Saints' scoring positions with 81 strokes. Sophomore Jason Tessman and eighth-grader Lucas Dickison also competed for Meadow Creek Christian.

Andrew Peterson had a two-stroke advantage over senior Jarvis Weber of Martin County West of Sherburn after nine holes, but he slipped with a 40 on the back nine. Junior Grant Wayland of Bethlehem Academy of Faribault overtook both Peterson and Weber on the final nine holes, shooting a 35, and went on to win championship honors.

Wayland, who tied for 24th place in 2007, finished with 73 strokes. Peterson had 74 and Weber trailed with 75.

Back in the team competition, Windom Area took runner-up honors with a final score of 326. Senior Jordan Stahl, who tied for ninth place, was the highest finisher for the Eagles. Bethlehem Academy, led by Wayland's individual championship, was third at 333. Last year's champions from Virginia/Mountain Iron-Buhl did not qualify for the 2008 tournament.

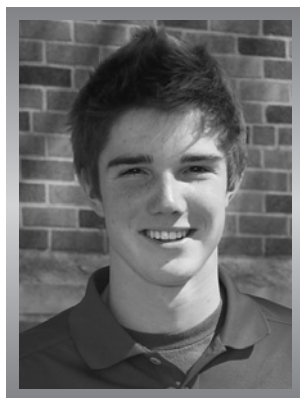

Class AA

The second day of the Class AA tournament was filled with thrilling plays as Detroit Lakes came from a 13-shot deficit to tie Orono for team championship honors. It was the first title for each team, and they each finished with a final score of 639.

After shooting a team total of 311 on the first day, the Orono Spartans led both Benilde-St. Margaret's and Hermantown by six strokes. The Spartans faced a tougher second day, however, and they shot a 328 compared with Detroit Lakes' 315.

Most of the drama took place on the 18th hole. First, it was Orono ninth-grader Patrick Johnston, who was eleven over par after seven holes on the back nine. Johnston was able to regroup, and he birdied the 18th after his final shot rimmed the cup and dropped in.

Then, it was time for heroics from Detroit Lakes senior Mike Brodsho. He put his second shot into a hazard on the 18th, and then sunk a 12-foot putt to save par. Brodsho was the top finisher for the Lakers, tying for fourth place overall with 155 strokes.

Seniors Ben Osowski, Adam Thielen, and Josh Herzog completed the scoring for Detroit Lakes. Herzog and senior Ben Berquist both shot 165 for the tournament and tied for 35th place. Senior Ryan Kuehne was the final competitor for the Lakers.

Senior Zach Barnum led Orono with 157 strokes, tying for sixth place. He was followed by sophomore Zach Roach, Patrick Johnston, and senior Dom Rosati. Junior Chris Hanson and ninth-grader Brian Urness also competed for the Spartans.

Benilde-St. Margaret's, which is located in St. Louis Park, placed third with 645 strokes. Jeff Jopling, a senior, was the highest finisher for the Red Knights; he tied for 11th place with 158 strokes. The showing was an improvement for Benilde-St. Margaret's, which placed eighth in the Class AA tournament in 2007.

In the individual competition, Pierz senior Robert Bell earned his first title. Bell, who was second in the Class A tournament last year, finished with 151 strokes. Hermantown sophomore Andrew Oakes and Triton of Dodge Center senior Chace Sackett tied for second place with 154 strokes.

Defending Class A champion Casey Hill, a senior at Virginia/Mountain Iron-Buhl, tied for 27th place. He had a final score of 163.

Class AAA

The Wolfpack of Park of Cottage Grove won their first team title in their third appearance at the Class AAA tournament. They shot a 13-over 301 on the first day, and led both Chaska and Edina by one stroke. On the second day, the Wolfpack improved to 295, while Edina slid to 302 and Chaska fell to 307.

Senior Billy Barnhart led Park with his first-place finish. Barnhart, who tied for ninth place in 2007, trailed Alexandria senior Gordy Diekman by two strokes at the end of the first day. On the second day, however, Barnhart went ahead when he shot a three-under 33 with five birdies on the back nine. He double-bogeyed at 15, but followed it with a birdie on 16 and pars on 17 and 18. He finished with a three-under-par 141.

Senior Beau Anderson, sophomore Jake Miller, and ninth-grader Jack Barnhart rounded out the scoring positions for Park. Anderson tied for fourth, Miller tied for 38th, and Barnhart tied for 40th. Senior Craig Fisher and sophomore Dylan Sawicki also competed for Park.

Park finished the team portion of the tournament with 596 strokes. Edina placed second at 604 and Forest Lake was third at 605. Senior Jack Dreesen led Edina, tying for 12th place, and senior Peter Follese led Forest Lake, claiming seventh place. The Rangers of Forest Lake placed second in Class AA at the 2007 tournament.

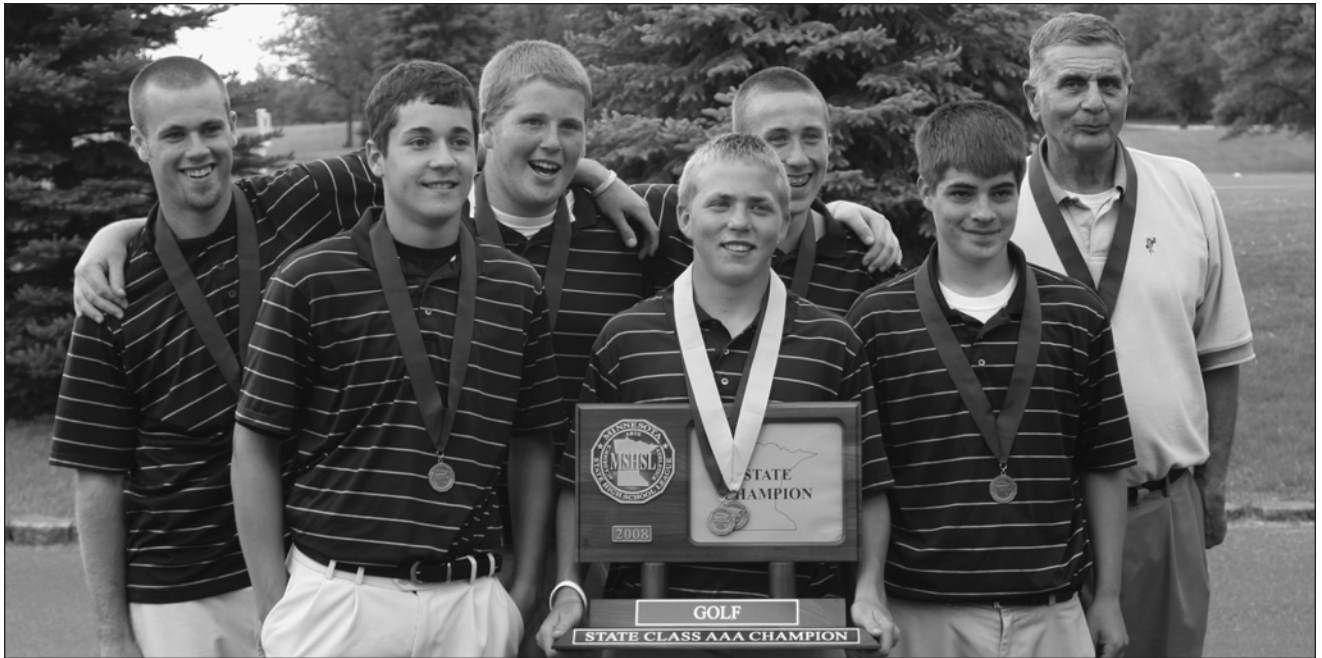

Gordy Diekman of Alexandria and senior Tyler Ekenberg of Apple Valley tied for runner-up honors. They both finished with a final score of 142.

Ryan Peterson of Eagan, who was the Class AA champion last year, graduated in the spring of 2007.

The Class AAA tournament was held June 3-4 at Bunker Hills Golf Course in Coon Rapids. The Class A tournament was conducted June 4-5 at Pebble Creek in Becker, and the Class AA tournament was held June 5-6 at Ridges at Sand Creek in Jordan.

Minnewaska Area claims third consecutive team crown; Mounds Park Academy, Woodbury win first team championships

By Ellen Giloy

In the first year of a three-class tournament, Minnewaska Area of Glenwood claimed its third consecutive title. The Lakers won in Class A in 2006 and 2007 and in Class AA this year. Mounds Park Academy of St. Paul and Woodbury each claimed their first titles in Class A and Class AAA, respectively.

Three individuals also won their first gold medals: Mounds Park Academy junior Natalie Lansing won in Class A; Minnewaska Area sophomore Sarah Roering won in Class AA; and Moorhead senior Ali Nelson won in Class AAA.

In Class AA, Minnewaska Area swept the top three individual positions. In addition to Sarah Roering, sophomore Allie Ostrander was second and junior Emily Roering placed third.

Class A

Mounds Park Academy won its first Class A title with 726 strokes. The Panthers shot the lowest score on each day of the tournament — 367 and 359, respectively — and were led by individual champion, junior Natalie Lansing.

Overall, four of Mounds Park Academy's golfers placed in the Top 10. Junior Lauren Hood finished in fourth place with 186 strokes, ninth-grader Steph Aanenson tied for fifth with 188

In the individual competition, Natalie Lansing shot a field-best 80 on the first day and followed it with a field-best 81 on the second. The win was an improvement on her 2007 showing, when she tied for 26th place overall.

Ninth-grader Kelsey Ross of Osakis earned runner-up honors with 169 strokes, and junior Sarah Utz of Providence Academy of Plymouth placed third with 171 strokes.

Back in the team competition, the top three teams were all making their first tournament appearances. Osakis placed second with a final score of 775 and the co-op of Ada-Borup/Norman County West was third at 822. Junior Shaylyn Fossino was the top finisher for Ada-Borup/Norman County West, placing seventh overall.

Katie Detlefsen of Minnehaha Academy of Minneapolis, who won the Class A individual title for the past four years, graduated in the spring of 2007.

2008 State Girls' Golf Tournament

three consecutive team titles. Long Prairie was the first to set the record, winning three titles between 1985 and 1987.

The Lakers, who were the Class A champions in 2006 and 2007, finished with 643 strokes. They held a 27-shot advantage over Red Wing at the end of the first day, and they defeated the runner-up Wingers by 54 shots overall. Detroit Lakes was third at 724 strokes.

A trio of Minnewaska Area competitors also finished 1-2-3 in the individual competition. Sophomore Sarah Roering, who tied for 13th place last year, earned championship honors with a final score of 157. She posted a 77 on the first day and an 80 on the second.

Sophomore Allie Ostrander of Minnewaska Area was second with 160 strokes, and junior Emily Roering, Sarah's older sister, was third at 161 strokes.

Sophomore Courtney Boe also finished in the Top 10 for Detroit Lakes. She finished at 166 strokes and tied for sixth place overall. Senior Chelsey Falk and eighth-grader Briana Janu rounded out the Minnewaska Area team.

Senior Brittany Herzog led the runners-up from Red Wing. She had 166 strokes overall and tied for sixth place. Detroit Lakes senior Danelle Olson was the top finisher for her squad. She also tied for sixth place overall.

Class AAA

The Woodbury Royals claimed their first title in their 11th appearance at the Class AAA tournament. They finished at 678 strokes and the win was an improvement on last year's third-place tie with Wayzata.

Woodbury led Forest Lake by one stroke at the end of the first day. Things improved for the Royals on the second day and they shot a 333 to Forest Lake's 346.

Ninth-grader Mary Sweeney, who led Woodbury by shooting an 81 each day, tied for 11th place overall. Junior Jackie Rolando followed at 166 strokes and a tie for 20th place. Sophomore Chelsey Larson and junior Jessica Swanson rounded out the top four positions by tying for 26th and 57th, respectively. Ninth-grader Anna Hagemeyer and junior Sarah Strand also competed for the Royals.

Forest Lake, which finished with 692 shots overall, was led by sophomore Betsy Kelly. She had 159 strokes and tied for ninth place. Alexandria and Eden Prairie tied for third-place honors with 699 shots apiece. Sophomore Maggie Leland paced Alexandria with a tie for 14th place, and junior Ally Alm led Eden Prairie with a tie for 36th place. Burnsville, which won the Class AA team title in 2007, did not qualify for the 2008 tournament.

In the individual competition, New Prague sophomore Steffi Neisen led the field with a 2-under 71 at the end of the first day. Austin junior Catherine Wagner trailed her by four shots.

On the second day, however, it was Moorhead senior Ali Nelson who distinguished herself from the field and took top honors. Nelson, who was in eighth place with 78 strokes at the end of the first round, shot a field-best 72 and finished at 150. She tied for ninth place in 2007.

Wagner stayed in second place, shooting a 76 on the second day for a total of 151 strokes. Senior Lizzy Carl of Henry Sibley of Mendota Heights was third at 152 strokes.

The three-time defending Class AA champion, Samantha Sommers of St. Cloud Apollo, graduated in the spring of 2007.

The Class AAA tournament was held June 3-4 at Bunker Hills Golf Course in Coon Rapids. The Class A tournament was conducted June 4-5 at Pebble Creek in Becker, and the Class AA tournament was held June 5-6 at Ridges at Sand Creek in Jordan.

Perham and Roseville add to string of consecutive championships; Breck/West Lutheran's Lundell and Roseville Area's Gleason capture all-around titles

By Amy Doherty & Ellen Giloy

Perham won its fifth consecutive Class A title at the 2008 state meet with 148.750 points. The Yellowjackets swept all four events and defeated the runners-up from New Prague by almost four points.

Junior Carmen Lundell of Breck/West Lutheran claimed the Class A all-around crown with a score of 38.600. She also won the individual vault title with a 9.800.

In Class AA, the Raiders of Roseville Area set a new record for points (153.525), vault (38.750), and beam (38.675), on the way to their third consecutive title. Junior Anna Gleason added to Roseville Area's trophy cache by claiming the all-around title with 38.425 points. She also won her second consecutive individual title on the bars with a score of 9.850, and the beam competition with a 9.875.

In addition to Gleason, junior Alise Post of St. Cloud Tech also defended her 2007 Class AA title. She claimed her third consecutive vault championship by posting a 9.825.

Class A

After faltering in their first event, the balance beam, the Perham Yellowjackets rebounded to claim their fifth consecutive team championship with 148.750 points. They placed first in every event, scoring a 38.050 on the vault, 37.375 on the bars, 35.625 on the beam, and 37.700 on the floor.

Senior Miranda Schmitz and ninth-grader Kelsi Vomacka both posted a 9.650 on the floor, and Vomacka posted the highest score on the beam (9.450) and the vault (9.700). Schmitz led Perham on the uneven bars with a 9.875.

New Prague, which was fourth in 2007, finished in second place with 145.000 points, and the Becker Bulldogs placed third for a second consecutive year. They earned 143.575 points.

Junior Carmen Lundell of Breck/West Lutheran won the all-around title with a score of 38.600. She and Miranda Schmitz of Perham dueled throughout the meet, but when Schmitz fell during her floor routine, the door opened for Lundell. She clinched the victory with a first-place score of 9.800 on the vault.

Taking second in the all-around for the second consecutive year was Perham's

2008 REVIEW

Kelsi Vomacka. Her score was a 37.800. Perham's Miranda Schmitz finished in third place with a 37.575.

Vomacka won two individual event titles, beam and floor, with scores of 9.525 and 9.725, respectively. Schmitz won the uneven bars with a 9.750.

Class AA

Roseville Area won its third consecutive team title, while setting three team records. The Raiders' score of 153.525 bettered their 2007 record of 153.325, and they also set new vault and balance beam records. Their vault score of 38.750 beat Lakeville's 1999 record of 38.600, and their balance beam score of 38.675 improved on Hopkins' 1999 record of 38.425. The Raiders also earned the highest score in the floor exercise (37.975). Their 38.125 was good enough for second place on bars.

Junior Anna Gleason posted the highest score on the bars and beam for the Raiders, with a 9.900 and 9.775, respectively. Junior Christy Hammond earned the Raiders' top vault score with a 9.800, while senior Jenna Lensing's 9.650 led Roseville Area on floor.

The difference between first and second place came in the beam competition. Although the Tech Tigers posted a team-best score of 37.100, the Raiders opened on that apparatus and set the meet record of 38.600. The Tigers came back to win the uneven bars with a score of 38.500, but it wasn't enough to make up the difference.

St. Cloud Tech settled for runner-up honors for a third consecutive year, while Cambridge-Isanti improved one place and finished third. Tech had a final score of 150.775, while the Bluejackets posted a 148.650.

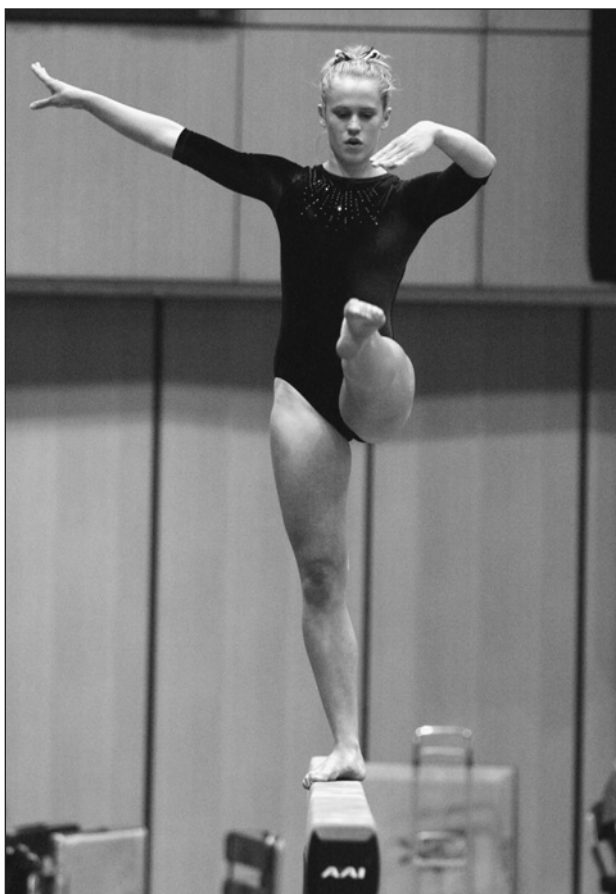

In the individual competition, Roseville Area's Anna Gleason also captured the all-around title with a 38.425. She started with winning performances on the uneven bars (9.850) and beam (9.875), but fell during her floor routine. In her final event, the vault, her score of 9.575 was enough to secure the title.

St. Thomas Academy wins second championship in three years; Hill-Murray Pioneers win first since 1991

By Jil Fiemeyer & Ellen Giloy

The St. Thomas Academy Cadets earned their second Class A championship after defeating the Hilltoppers of Marshall School of Duluth. The Cadets, who also defeated the Hilltoppers for their first title in 2006, won the championship game 5-1.

In Class AA action, the Hill-Murray Pioneers upset Edina 3-0 to take home the title. This was the third title for the Pioneers, but their first since 1991.

A new attendance record was also set at the 2008 tournament. Over the four-day event, 129,643 fans passed through the gates. The previous record of 125,201 was set in 2006.

Class A

St. Thomas Academy (26-5), in a rematch of the 2006 Class A championship game, defeated Marshall School of Duluth (25-6) 5-1 to win its second title. It was sweet revenge for the Cadets, who fell to Marshall School 3-2 in double overtime in last year's championship semifinals.

The runner-up finish was the third consecutive for the Hilltoppers. They fell to Hermantown 4-1 in last year's title game.

Sophomore Christian Isackson and senior James Saintey each scored two goals for the Cadets. Isackson put the Saints on the board 37 seconds into the game, and Saintey gave them the 2-0 lead when he scored in the final minute of the first period.

The other St. Thomas Academy goal was scored by sophomore forward Ryan Walters. Sophomore Kurt Altrichter, the winning goaltender for the Cadets, had 13 saves in the game and 51 saves in the tournament.

Top-seeded St. Thomas Academy defeated Little Falls 5-3 in the quarterfinals. The Cadets scored on their first two shots of the game, on goals from Isackson and Walters, respectively. Walters completed a hat trick with the tying goal in the second period and the game-winner in the third.

In the semifinal round, the Cadets defeated the Crusaders of St. Cloud Cathedral 9-2. James Saintey scored the first goal 17 seconds into the game, and the Cadets went on to score on three of their first four shots. Walters and sophomore Noah Galvin each had two goals for the Cadets and Christian Isackson added four assists.

On the other side of the bracket, Marshall School started the tournament with a 2-1 victory over Mankato West. Down one goal after the first period, Hilltopper senior David Hafferty tied the game at 13:00 in the second. Junior Pat Mahoney scored the game-winner early in the third period.

The Hilltoppers moved on and defeated Warroad 3-1 in the semifinals. Junior Zach Warroad rebounded to win third-place honors after defeating St. Cloud Cathedral 2-1 in overtime. Senior TJ Poganski tied the game for the Crusaders with an unassisted goal in the second period. The winning goal was scored by Warrior junior Dane Shaugabay at 3:38 of overtime.

In the consolation bracket, Little Falls defeated Mankato West 7-3. The Flyers outshot the Scarlets 40-22 and junior Ben Hanowski finished the game with four goals and one assist.

Hanowski was also the top point-scorer in Class A. He had seven goals and three assists. Sophomore Ryan Walters of St. Thomas Academy completed the tournament with nine points on six goals and three assists.

Class AA

The Hill-Murray Pioneers (27-3-1) won their third title in their 22nd appearance by defeating Edina 3-0. The Pioneers, who were the No. 4 seed in this year's tournament, won previous titles in 1983 and 1991. The Hornets finished with a season record of 28-3. They were making their 19th tournament appearance overall.

Hill-Murray senior Ryan Furne scored both of his goals in the first period of the championship game. The first came after he intercepted the puck in the neutral zone, and the second was off a long wrist shot that went under the arm of senior goalie Derrick Caschetta with 0.1 second on the clock.

Senior Delaney Metcalf scored the final goal for Hill-Murray at 4:36 of the third period. The Pioneers' senior goalie, Joe Phillippi, made 31 saves in the victory.

Hill-Murray defeated Lakeville South 3-0 in the quarterfinals. Furne scored two goals while senior Dan Cecka netted the third. Phillippi was perfect in the net, stopping all 18 shots that he faced.

The Pioneers' biggest victory came in the semifinals when they defeated the defending champions from Roseau 6-2. They took control early when Furne and junior Nick Winding scored goals 1 minute, 40 seconds apart. Junior Isaac Kohls added three goals for the Pioneers, including two empty-net shots in the final two minutes of play.

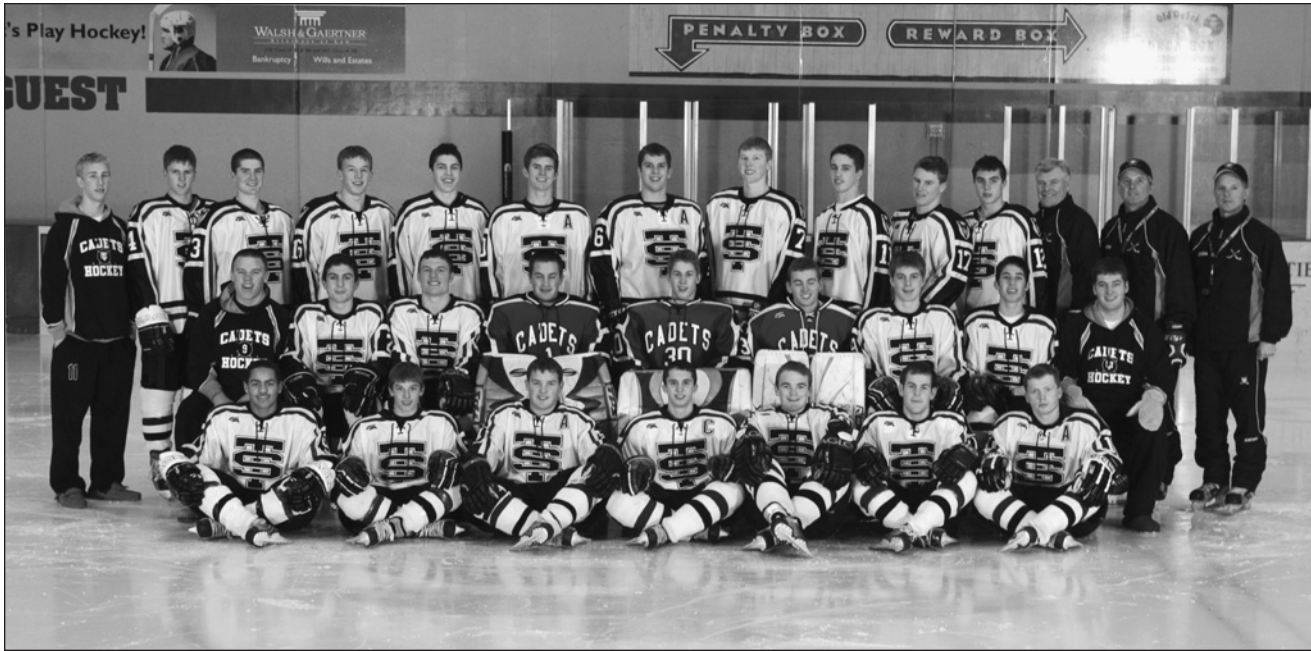

Edina started its tournament trek with a 5-0 quarterfinal victory over Cloquet-Esko-Carlton. Senior Joe Gleason netted two goals and junior

State Boys' Hockey Tournament History

Sixty-fourth state tournament played in 2008

Although the first state hockey tournament was not conducted until 1945, high school hockey was played in approximately 25 schools in the 1930s. Most of the schools were in the northern part of the state and in the Twin Cities area. Inter-school games were very limited in number, and coaching was done in most schools by male faculty members who had hockey experience or by individuals in the community who had a special interest and training in the sport.

The state hockey tournament was conceived by the late Gene Aldrich, St. Paul athletic director who thought it was time for an event of its kind because St. Paul was drawing many fans for its games. With the enthusiastic approval of the Minnesota State High School League Board of Directors and backing for expenses from the late Elmer Englebert, Aldrich went ahead with planning the details for the first tournament. The event produced sufficient revenue to pay expenses and leave a modest balance.

In 1945 the Minnesota State High School League, in cooperation with interested citizens in St. Paul, offered the schools an opportunity to participate in the first State High School Hockey Tournament. It marked the very first state-sponsored high school hockey tournament in the United States. There were 26 high schools registered for the sport at the time and Eveleth's Golden Bears went home with the first of its five state championships. The first field — including Thief River Falls, White Bear Lake, St. Cloud, Staples, Rochester, St. Paul Washington, and Granite Falls — played before a total of 8,434 spectators.

The first-round games during the initial tournament produced many lopsided scores, but the championship affair between Eveleth and Thief River Falls (Eveleth won 4-3) was a fine exhibition of skills and abilities which today are expected of Minnesota high school hockey players. The first tournament proved the merits of this activity for high school competition, and the next year the Minnesota State High School League took full control of the tournament series and assumed complete responsibility for its finances.

By 1947, attendance had more than doubled. It reached the 30,000 plateau in 1956, topped 40,000 in 1961, and leveled off at the three-day auditorium capacity of 46,000 its last three years in the St. Paul Auditorium. For 23 years the tournament was conducted in the Auditorium before leaving in 1969 for the more spacious Met Center in Bloomington. At the bigger Met Center, attendance nearly doubled.

In 1976 the Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournament returned to the city where it had been groomed 31 years earlier. The tournament site became the St. Paul Civic Center Arena, a sports venue with a 15,706 seating capacity for hockey and which was adjacent to the Auditorium where the tournament was nursed through its infancy. The event returned to St. Paul as the biggest high school hockey tournament in the nation. In 1985 an all-time attendance mark of 103,096 was established at the St. Paul Civic Center Arena.

From this meager beginning, high school hockey has grown in programs throughout the state by leaps and bounds. There were 146 high school teams which participated during 1993-94. The rapid development of indoor facilities, improved coaching in schools, and development of youth programs have all been contributing factors.

In 1992 the first two-tier Minnesota State High School Tournament was conducted. Following the recommendations of the state's high school hockey coaches association, the Minnesota State High School League Board of Directors established a two-year experiment of conducting the hockey tournament in two tiers.

Instead of dividing the participating schools based on enrollment, as is the case with all other activities, the coaches suggested the division be based on performance and ability. Thus, following the regular season, coaches in each section ranked all the teams based on their season performance. The top-eight teams were placed in Tier I to play off to send a representative to the state tournament. The remaining teams then played off to determine the Tier II representative to the tournament.

The expansion of the tournament required an additional day of playing time, so the Tier II teams played their quarterfinal games at the St. Paul Civic Center on Wednesday. The Tier I teams played their quarterfinals on Thursday. On Friday and Saturday, the Tier II tournament concluded its schedule at Target Center in Minneapolis. It was the first time hockey had been played at the arena which is home to the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves. The Tier I tournament was concluded at the Civic Center.

In 1994, the tournament was reformatted once again. The League's Board of Directors chose to classify participating schools by enrollment, as it is for every other activity, instead of by performance. The change was reviewed and extended after a two-year experiment. More than 23,000 fans paid to watch the Class A schools, while nearly 83,000 fans paid to watch the Class AA schools.

In 1999 and 2000 the championship round games for both classes were played at Target Center.

In 2001 the tournament returned to St. Paul and the new Xcel Energy Center, which is the home of the Minnesota Wild NHL hockey team. The new arena has a seating capacity of 18,539. In 2008, a new attendance record was set when 129,643 fans attended the four-day tournament.

center Zach Budish scored a shorthanded goal for the Hornets. Derrick Caschetta completed the shut-out, making 27 saves.

In the semifinals, Edina defeated Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park 5-4 in overtime. The Hornets led 4-2 early in the third period, but goals from seniors Chris Student and Matt Bergland forced the game into an extra period. Junior Marshall Everson scored the game-winner for the Hornets. He caught a pass from junior Anders Lee, and after digging it out from between his skates, beat sophomore goalie Jacob Meyers while falling backward.

Third-place honors were awarded to the Benilde-St. Margaret's Red Knights, who defeated Roseau 5-1. Three power-play goals in the third period, including two by senior Matt Bergland, helped clinch the victory. Red Knights junior Mike Shibrowski stopped 21 shots against the Rams.

Woodbury rebounded to win the consolation title after defeating Blaine 4-3. Senior Ben Goff scored the first three goals for the Royals and had an assist on the last one. Blaine outshot Woodbury 42-20, but the Royals' senior goalie, Brandon Wigen, made 39 saves.

Woodbury's Ben Goff led the Class AA competitors in points. He finished the tournament with five goals and three assists for a total of eight points. Roseau junior Tyler Landman put up seven points on four goals and three assists.

Herb Brooks Award

For the fifth consecutive year the Herb Brooks Award was given to the most qualified hockey player in each class of the state tournament who strongly represents the values, characteristics, and traits that defined Herb Brooks.

This year's Class A recipient was senior Bryce Ravndalen of Warroad and the Class AA award was given to senior Joe Phillippi of Hill-Murray.

The 2008 State Boys' Hockey Tournament was held March 5-8. All championship-round and third-place games were played at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul, while all consolation games were played at Mariucci Arena on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis. Paid attendance was 129,643, a new all-time record.

Andy Singerhouse (27) and Jeff Westerhaus (19) of Hill-Murray, Maplewood, chase the puck past the Edina net during the Class AA championship game. The Pioneers won their third title after defeating Edina 3-0.

Alexandria, Eden Prairie claim top honors

By Jil Fiemeyer & Ellen Giloy

In the 14th annual State Girls' Hockey Tournament, the Alexandria Cardinals took home their first Class A trophy after defeating Breck School of Golden Valley 2-1. In Class AA, the Eden Prairie Eagles earned their second Class AA championship after posting a 5-3 victory over Grand Rapids/Greenway. Four records were broken, three were tied, and several more were within reach during the four-day tournament.

Class A

In their fifth consecutive state tournament appearance, the Alexandria Cardinals (27-1-2) defeated Breck School of Golden Valley (21-7-2) 2-1 to earn their first state title. The Cardinals, who fell to Breck School 1-0 in the consolation semifinals in 2007, finished the season with a 27-game unbeaten streak.

The Cardinals were led by sophomore Michelle Anez who had an unassisted goal and an assist in the championship game. Senior goalie Danielle Justice had 30 saves in the 2-1 victory, and 97 saves in the tournament — just eight shy of the tournament record 105 stops.

Neither team scored in the first period, but Alexandria went up 2-0 in the second on goals from senior Kathryn DelZoppo and Anez. Eighth-grader Milica McMillen scored Breck's only goal at 13:37 of the third period.

Five different players scored for Alexandria in their 5-2 quarterfinal victory over South St. Paul. The Cardinals advanced and defeated the first-time qualifiers from Roseau 2-1 in the semifinals. Down a goal after two periods of play, Alexandria scored two unanswered goals in the third to win the game. Cardinal senior Abby Williams tied the game and Anez scored the game-winner.

Breck School started the tournament with a 3-1 victory over Hibbing/Chisholm. The Mustangs scored one goal in each period, and moved on to meet the Austin Packers in the semifinals. In that game, the Mustangs set several tournament records as they pounded the Packers in a 12-1 victory. The team records were: "Most Goals One Game" — 12 by Breck School; "Most Goals Two Teams, One Game" — 13; "Most Goals by One Team in One Period" — 7 by Breck School; and "Most Goals by Two Teams in One Period" — 8.

Three individual records were also set in the game. Senior Ellen Swiontkowski of Breck School can add her name to "Most Assists One Game" with five and "Most Assists One Period" with three. Sophomore Katelyn Weckworth of Austin will be added to the category "Fewest Stops One Period." She didn't make any saves in the third period of the Austin versus Breck School semifinal.

The Roseau Rams defeated the Austin Packers 9-1 to earn third-place honors. Rams junior Kylie Lane led the team with five points on a hat trick and two assists. With 47 shots on goal, the Rams were just shy of making the record books. Roseville Area holds the record for "Most Shots by 1 Team in a Regulation Game" with 48 shots, set at the 2007 tournament.

The Bluejackets of Hibbing/Chisholm survived an onslaught by the Packers of South St. Paul to earn the consolation championship. The Packers pummeled the Bluejackets' junior goaltender Kaye Collier with 15 of their 33 shots in the final period. But she turned all of them away to preserve the 3-2 victory. Senior Jamie Fenstermacher had a hand in both go-ahead goals for Hibbing/Chisholm.

Class AA

Eden Prairie (29-1-1) won its second state title in its fourth appearance by defeating Grand Rapids/Greenway (25-4-2) 5-3. The Eagles, who did not qualify for the 2007 tournament, won their only other title in 2006.

Eden Prairie opened the game by scoring the first two goals of the game on the first two shots. Senior Nikki Ludwigson scored at 1:02, and senior Kelly Seeler followed at 1:58. By the end of the first period, the Eagles had increased their lead to 4-0, and they never looked back. Senior Andrea Green finished the game with three goals and one assist for the Eagles, while senior goalie Maddie Burke made 20 saves. Junior Molly Arola led Grand Rapids/Greenway with one goal and one assist.

Eden Prairie advanced to the championship with a 5-2 victory over Elk River in the quarterfinals and a 1-0 overtime victory over Cretin-Derham Hall of St. Paul in the semifinals. Seniors Kelsey Ketcher and Hannah Riggs had three points apiece in the quarterfinal win, and senior Melissa Feste scored the lone goal in the semifinal.

On the other side of the bracket, the Grand Rapids/Greenway Lightning squeaked by the Centennial Cougars with a 2-1 overtime victory in the quarterfinals. Junior Molly Arola scored the game-winner for the Lightning. Senior Emily Erickson led Grand Rapids/Greenway to its 5-0 semifinal victory over Farmington. She had a hat trick and junior goalie Jessica Havel made 22 saves.

Cretin-Derham Hall earned the third-place trophy after defeating Farmington 3-2. The Raiders were leading 3-0 before Farmington scored two goals late in the third period. Senior Kelly Wild scored the Raiders first goal in the second period, and junior Katie Mancini and ninth-grader Franny Nicholson each netted a third-period goal.

The Red Knights of Benilde-St. Margaret's defeated Centennial of Circle Pines 3-2 in the consolation championship. The Red Knights scored two goals before a short-handed, unassisted goal by senior Ashley Duffy proved to be the game-winner. Centennial tried valiantly to tie the game in the third period, but put only six shots on Red Knights' goaltender Amanda Nagel, who had 21 saves. Senior forward Kate Bacon had two points on a goal and an assist for Benilde-St. Margaret's.

Herb Brooks Award

For the fifth consecutive year the Herb Brooks award was given to the most qualified hockey player in each class who best represented the values, characteristics, and traits that defined Herb Brooks. This year's recipients were senior Ashley Holmes of Alexandria and senior Emily Erickson of Grand Rapids/Greenway.

The 2008 State Girls' Hockey Tournament was held February 20-23 at Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul. Consolation games for both classes were played at Ridder Arena on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis. Total paid attendance was 19,865.

The Blake School humbles Eden Prairie

By Howard W. Voigt

The Bears of The Blake School surged ahead early and kept on scoring until the Eagles of Eden Prairie found themselves on the wrong end of a running-clock 16-5 outcome of the boys' lacrosse championship.

The No. 3-seeded Eagles, who had lost to The Blake School by only a single goal during the regular season, went scoreless until one-third of the second quarter had expired. Prior to that goal, Eden Prairie trailed 6-0.

What happened was that Eden Prairie was unable to defend against senior attacker Kip Dooley. He finished the game with one more goal than the combined scoring of the entire Eagles team.

One could characterize that performance as humbling, especially the defeated team. However, consider Dooley's humility as he talked to reporters after the game.

"They were switching from a zone defense to man-to-man, so my coach told me to go hard to the net when they made the switch," Dooley said. "I couldn't have scored without my teammates getting me the ball."

Dooley, who also scored two goals in the Bears' 15-7 semifinal win over the Bears of White Bear Lake Area, finished with a team-high 63 goals for the 17-game season. He also established himself as a leading state tournament record-holder. He now owns five records: Most Goals-One Game (6); Most Goals-Tournament (8); Most Points-One Game (9); Most Assists-Tournament (5); Most Points-Tournament (13).

The Bears' scoring onslaught forced the game into running time for more than six minutes as a result of Blake's 12-goal lead in the fourth quarter. Eden Prairie's goal by senior attacker Dan Jones ended the running time with only 17 seconds to play.

Dooley finished the game with nine points, adding three assists to his six goals. Ninth-grade midfielder George Ordway scored three times and added two assists and finished the two-game tournament with 11 points including his three goals and three assists in the White Bear Lake Area victory. Senior attackers Jordan Seivold and Collin Wiese each had two goals in the championship victory, while seniors Frankie Bennett and Blake Dressen added one each, as did junior Willie Steenland. Goalkeeper Matthew Aizpuru, a senior, played all but 3:43 and earned the win making 15 saves.

Eden Prairie advanced to the title game for the second consecutive year with a 9-7 defeat of Eastview of Apple Valley in the semifinals. As the No. 2 seed in the inaugural 2007 state tournament, the Eagles lost to Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park by an identical 9-7 score.

Eastview went on to finish third after defeating White Bear Lake Area 18-6. A small portion of that game was also played in running time at two different intervals in the fourth quarter for a total of only about two-and-a-half minutes.

The tournament was played May 21 and 23. Semifinals were played at Hopkins High School. The third-place and championship games were played at Wayzata High School. Paid attendance was 2,428.

Kip Dooley of The Blake School, Minneapolis, scored six goals and added three assists in the championship game against Eden Prairie. The Blake School set a new record for most goals scored in a game as they outscored the Eagles 16-5.

The Blake School unseats Eden Prairie

By Howard W. Voigt

First came humiliation. Then came jubilation. What a difference a year can make.

The humiliation came May 23, 2007, when Eden Prairie defeated The Blake School of Minneapolis 13-5 for the inaugural Minnesota State High School League state girls' lacrosse title. The jubilation occurred May 22, 2008, after the Bears manufactured a come-from-behind 11-10 overtime victory over the Eagles in a vengeful rematch of that 2007 championship game.

The Blake School Bears were seeded No. 2 and the Eden Prairie Eagles were seeded No. 1 in both tournaments. The 2007 title tilt was essentially over at the half with the Eagles leading 11-2. The 2008 rematch found the Bears trailing by only two goals at the half. The margin expanded to four goals roughly halfway through the second half.

Following Eden Prairie's 10th and final goal with about 11-and-a-half minutes to play, the Bears' defense stood fast and two Bears led the offensive charge that led to an 11-10 overtime victory.

Senior forward Julia Hawkins scored her second goal of the game a little more than a minute later to close the gap 10-7. Following an Eden Prairie penalty, junior midfielder Hilary Hayssen, with an assist from Hawkins, brought the Bears to within two after the extra-player opportunity goal. The clock showed 6:42 to play.

Hawkins raced to the net after a pass from junior forward Michelle Tremblay's control of a ground ball about four minutes later, shot and scored to reduce the Bears' deficit to one. Now less than three minutes remained in the game.

Hayssen once again took advantage of an extra-player opportunity to score unassisted with just 43 seconds to play and even the game at 10 goals apiece. The clock expired on regulation time with the game knotted. Six minutes were input on the clock for overtime play.

The Bears won the face-off and the first shot by the Bears' Hawkins was turned away by Eagles goalkeeper Emma Zieske. For about the next two minutes the teams traded turnovers and fouls before junior defender Kathryn Vincent won a face off with three minutes to play.

2008 REVIEW

Twenty seconds later Hayssen took her fifth shot on goal and it eluded Zieske to clinch the title for The Blake School and end Eden Prairie's four-year championship domination if you count the three titles the team had won under sponsorship of the Northcentral Schoolgirls Lacrosse Association.

Hayssen could be heralded as the game's hero. However, she deflected the post-game accolades.

"Lacrosse is a lot of luck," she told reporters after the game. "I got a lot of help from my teammates and I was in the right place."

Right place. Right time. For sure. Hayssen's three goals in the game, besides their critical timing, were her only goals of the tournament. Junior goalkeeper Abby Fink earned the championship win with 10 saves.

Tremblay was the star in the Bear's 7-2 semifinal defeat of No. 3-seeded Bloomington Kennedy. She had five goals and an assist in the game. Eden Prairie advanced to defend its title with a 19-5 drubbing of No. 4-seeded Totino-Grace of Fridley. Totino-Grace rebounded to capture the third-place trophy with a 7-4 victory over Bloomington Kennedy.

Seven scoring records were established in the tournament, three by Eden Prairie senior forward Emily Sherlock — Most Points-Tournament (14), Most Assists-Tournament (8), and Most Points-One Game (10).

The tournament was played May 20 and 22. Semifinals were played at Hopkins High School. The third-place and championship games were played at Wayzata High School. Paid attendance was 1,198.

Hilary Hayssen (1) of The Blake School, Minneapolis, was the hero of the championship game. She scored the last goal in regulation to send the game into overtime, and also scored the game-winner. In a reversal of the 2007 championship game, the Bears upended the Eagles and won 11-10 in overtime.

MUSIC

The League sponsors section music contests for both Class A and Class AA schools. Participating schools have the opportunity to take part in both large group and solo/ensemble contests conducted by individual sections. There are 70 music events in which students may participate as a member of their high school choir and/or band and orchestra.

Approximately 80 percent of League member schools are represented by at least one entry at the section contests. Listed below are those large group performers who earned a Superior rating in 2008. They are grouped in three categories with the section of music determining the category in which the group performed. Category refers to difficulty and the lower the category number indicates more difficult music.

Lakeville North Panthers win first team title; Irondale's Nick Stang wins individual crown

In the boys' team competition, the Panthers of Lakeville North clinched their first title with 160 points. The Panthers, who did not compete in the 2007 tournament, were led by sophomore Jake Huhn and senior Jake Kastner. They placed first and second, respectively.

Sophomores Weston Traub and Randel Pronschinske rounded out Lakeville North's scoring positions. Traub placed 12th and Pronschinske finished 21st.

Duluth East, which placed seventh last year, earned runner-up honors with 138 points. The Minnetonka Skippers slipped one place to finish third with 132 points. Junior David Neustel led East with a third-place showing, while Senior Connor Johnson was the Skippers' top finisher. He placed fifth overall.

The two-time defending champions from The Blake School of Minneapolis did not qualify for this year's event.

In the individual race, senior Nick Stang of Irondale of New Brighton won his first title. He posted 34.55 in his first run and 38.31 in his second, for a total of 1:12.86. The win was an improvement on his 2007 third-place showing. Marc Massie, a junior at The Blake School of Minneapolis, earned runner-up honors for a second consecutive year, and senior Jake Kastner of Lakeville North was third. Kastner did not compete in the 2007 meet.

The 2008 State Alpine Ski Meet was held February 14 at Giants Ridge Golf and Ski Resort near Biwabik.

Forest Lake wins third team title in four years; Andover's Joe Dubay claims second consecutive individual crown

The Forest Lake boys claimed their third title in four years at the 2008 State Nordic Ski Meet. They improved on last year's runner-up showing and finished with 384 points. In addition to this year, the Rangers also won in 2005 and 2006.

Senior Ben Brodin and junior Ryan Wright led the Rangers with third- and fourth-place finishes, respectively. Senior Travis Strike and sophomore Steve Coozenoy rounded out the scoring positions for Forest Lake. Strike placed 15th and Coozenoy was 25th.

Minneapolis Southwest, which did not qualify as a team in 2007, placed second with 356 points, and Wayzata was third with 346 points. It was the second consecutive third-place showing for Wayzata. Senior Ari Resnick was the top skier for Minneapolis Southwest and junior Kasey Bacso led Wayzata. They placed ninth and fifth, respectively.

Junior Joe Dubay of Andover won his second consecutive individual title. Dubay, who competed for Coon Rapids last year, completed the freestyle race in a time of 15:15.0 and the classical in a time of 14:42.6. His overall pursuit time was 29:56.9.

In the freestyle race, senior Hans Nygren of Lakeville South completed the course one second ahead of Dubay. Nygren faltered in the classical race, however, and Dubay beat him by more than 21 seconds in the final leg.

Nygren, who finished eighth in 2007, earned runner-up honors with a time of 30:17.3. Ben Brodin, a senior at Forest Lake, placed third. Brodin placed 16th in the 2007 competition.

The 2008 State Nordic Ski Meet was held February 15 at Giants Ridge Golf and Ski Resort near Biwabik.

Two teams claimed their first titles at the 2007 State Soccer Tournament. The No. 5-seeded Marshall School of Duluth, which was making its third appearance, won the Class A title after defeating The Blake School of Minneapolis 1-0.

In Class AA, top-seeded Anoka also captured its first championship. The Tornadoes, who were making their 10th tournament appearance overall, defeated Wayzata 2-0 in the title game.

Class A

Marshall School of Duluth, the fifth-seeded team in the 2007 tournament, claimed its first title with a 1-0 victory over The Blake School of Minneapolis. The Hilltoppers, who fell in the quarterfinals of the 2006 tournament, were making their third tournament appearance overall. The No. 2-ranked Bears of The Blake School were making their second appearance at the tournament.

The championship was also the first for a non-metro school — boys' or girls' — since 2001. That year, Southwest Minnesota Christian of Edgerton went home with the Class A boys' title.

Senior Doug Frey, Marshall School's leading scorer, scored the game-winner about six minutes into the second half. Fellow senior Jesse Geary sent a crossing pass in the air to Frey who headed it into the goal from just a few yards out. The Bears challenged Marshall School senior goalkeeper Derek Randall several times in the second half, but he was determined to protect that one-goal lead. Randall made four crucial saves in the game and the defenders were credited with two, both in the second half.

The Hilltoppers may have faced their biggest challenge in the quarterfinals when they needed a 4-3 shootout to get past No. 4-ranked South St. Paul 2-1. Frey scored the opening goal in the 17th minute of play, but a late goal by Packer senior Mike Ward tied the score 1-1. In the shootout, Marshall School senior Mickey Huska put a low shot past Packer goalkeeper senior Keith Lowery to secure the victory.

In the semifinals, Marshall School defeated St. Cloud Cathedral, the No. 8 seed, 3-0. Hilltopper senior Geordie Diener netted the first goal of the game at 5:48, with an assist coming from Doug Frey. Frey also assisted on the second goal at 15:01, scored by Jesse Geary. Sophomore Gunnar Sengbush topped off the scoring at 72:15 from an excellent pass just outside the six-yard line from ninth-grader Patrick Sheedy.

The Blake School started tournament play with a 3-2 victory over Northfield. The Bears scored all three of their goals during the first half and had 17 shots to the Raiders' 15. In the semifinals, they beat Mankato West 2-0. Senior Kip Dooley scored the first goal with seven minutes, 37 seconds left in the game when he headed the ball into the net off a corner kick from junior Austin Dressen. Less than three minutes later, junior Eric Barry scored for the Bears on an assist from senior Blake Dressen.

The Scarlets of Mankato West came back to win third-place honors. They defeated St. Cloud Cathedral 4-3. The Crusaders took a 2-0 lead before Mankato West scored three unanswered goals, two by senior Patrick Trembley. Mankato West was also deadly with its shots, scoring on four of its five shots on goal.

Fridley and the defending champions from Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park rounded out the Class A field. Benilde-St. Margaret's fell to St. Cloud Cathedral 1-0 in the quarterfinals.

Class AA

The top-seeded Anoka Tornadoes finished an undefeated season (21-0-2) by capturing the Class AA crown. They defeated the Wayzata Trojans, who were the No. 3 seed, 2-0. This was the 10th tournament appearance for both teams, although Wayzata won two previous titles in 1985 and 2005.

Senior Alex Casey capped his final season by scoring both Anoka goals, one in each half and both unassisted. His first-half goal was a curving corner kick that bypassed the Wayzata keeper junior Tom Lindberg. Casey was also in the right place at the right time in the second half and scored in an open net after the ball came out on a long rebound.

Anoka began the tournament with a 1-0 victory over the No. 8 seed St. Cloud Apollo. Junior Joe Gustafson scored the only goal of the game with one minute and 55 seconds left in regulation.

In the semifinals, Anoka defeated No. 4-ranked Eden Prairie 2-1. Alex Casey scored first, at 6:52, on an assist from senior Josh McElmury. Junior Brian Haukos scored Anoka's insurance goal at 32:09 on an assist from senior Robert Botchaway. Eden Prairie scored its only goal of the game in the 69th minute when senior Sam Butters (16) of The Blake School, Minneapolis, challenges Doug Frey (2) of the Marshall School, Duluth, in the Class A championship. Frey scored the game-winning goal for the Hilltoppers as they clinched their first title with a 1-0 victory over the Bears.

Totino-Grace wins third Class A title in seven years; Lakeville South captures first in Class AA

By Ellen Giloy & Howard W. Voigt

Totino-Grace of Fridley claimed its third Class A championship trophy in seven years at the 2007 State Soccer Tournament. The Eagles, who were the No. 4 seed this year, defeated The Blake School of Minneapolis 2-1 for the title. This was the 10th overall appearance for Totino-Grace.

In Class AA, No. 3-seeded Lakeville South captured its first crown. The Cougars, who were making their third tournament appearance, defeated Edina 2-1 in the championship game.

Class A

The Eagles of Totino-Grace, who entered the tournament as the No. 4 seed, improved on last year's third-place showing and returned to the championship podium after a four-year absence. This was their 10th appearance overall and their third title. In addition to this year, they also won back-to-back titles in 2001 and 2002.

Totino-Grace, which is located in Fridley, needed a 5-3 shootout to overcome The Blake School of Minneapolis 2-1 in the championship game. The teams played a scoreless first half before junior Michelle Tremblay converted a corner kick into a header to give The Blake School a 1-0 advantage with a little more than nine minutes left on the clock. Six minutes later, senior Erin Kastenmeier tied the game when she lofted the ball from 30 feet out. It floated in, went just under the crossbar and over the head of Blake's keeper.

In the ensuing shootout, Totino-Grace made all five of its attempts. Senior Makinzie Krebsbach made the first shot for the Eagles, and senior Lauren Mueller capped the victory with a rocket into the upper left corner.

The Blake School, which was the second-seeded team in the tournament, was making its fourth tournament appearance. The Bears won one previous title in 2000.

Totino-Grace advanced to the championship with a 2-0 quarterfinal victory over the No. 5 seed Sartell-St. Stephen. Mueller broke the game open with 15 and a half minutes left to play when she broke up the middle and beat keeper, senior Kayla Hendrickson, with a shot to the back left corner.

In the semifinals, Totino-Grace defeated the top-seeded Red Knights of Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park 3-0. Makinzie Krebsbach started the scoring with 1:12 remaining in the first half. Junior Abby Serreyn added a goal in the 58th minute, and senior Allie Emch rounded out the scoring with a goal in the 65th minute.

On the other side of the bracket, The Blake School started the tournament with a 2-0 quarterfinal victory over Albert Lea. Senior Emily Moos and junior Kathryn Vincent scored for the Bears. In the semifinals, the Bears squeaked by the three-time defending champions from Mahtomedi 1-0. Ninth-grader Claire Wilson took a pass from senior Sam Butters and scored the game's lone goal at 4:36 of the first half.

Mahtomedi came back to defeat Benilde-St. Margaret's 4-1 in the third-place game. The Red Knights took the initial lead, but the Zephyrs went ahead 2-1 at the half. Junior Brittany Henry scored twice for Mahtomedi, once in each half. The other two Zephyr goals were scored by senior Jordyn Strege and senior Kelsey Zachman.

Cloquet, which includes students from Cloquet Christian Academy, and La Crescent rounded out the Class A field.

Class AA

The Cougars of Lakeville South improved on last year's fourth-place to claim their first title. The Cougars, who were the No. 3 seed this year, defeated Edina 2-1 in the championship game. This was their third appearance under this name, but Lakeville also made four consecutive appearances between 2000 and 2004. The No. 4-seeded Edina Hornets were making their ninth tournament appearance; they won one previous title in 1986.

Edina struck quickly when senior Natalie Pastor scored on a long shot one minute and 12 seconds into the championship game. Lakeville South tied the score 24 minutes later when senior Krista Lundgren caught a centering pass from junior Madeline Russell.

Lundgren also scored the game-winner for the Cougars with 6:32 remaining in regulation. Junior Olivia Bagnall shot the ball off a corner kick and Lundgren put it in the net from two yards out.

Lakeville South started its championship run by defeating the No. 6 seed, Duluth East, 2-0 in

New Life Academy of Woodbury, Orono, and Eagan claim first titles

By Ellen Giloy & Scott Nelsen

Three teams claimed their first titles at the 2008 State Softball Tournament. New Life Academy of Woodbury won in Class A after defeating Maple Lake, and Orono won in Class AA after defeating the defending champions from Pipestone Area. Eagan beat Mankato West in a six-inning romp to win Class AAA honors.

Class A

The Eagles of New Life Academy of Woodbury (21-5) improved on last year's runner-up showing and claimed their first title with a 3-0 victory over Maple Lake (25-3). It was the third overall appearance for the Eagles and the first for the Irish.

The teams were locked in a 0-0 tie into the sixth inning, before Maple Lake senior Andrea Rachel got on base with a walk. She then stole second and third, before a strikeout and pickoff by New Life Academy pitcher, junior Danielle Schmidt, ended the top of the sixth.

The Eagles then used three hits, aggressive base-running, and four Maple Lake errors to score all three of their runs in the bottom of the sixth. Junior Andrea McNutt accounted for both of New Life Academy's RBI when she singled to center field and then advanced on a throwing error, while ninth-grader Rebekah Schmidt and senior Kristin Stein both scored.

Junior Danielle Schmidt threw a complete-game no-hitter with 10 strikeouts and four walks for New Life Academy of Woodbury. Maple Lake senior Laura Dombrowski took the loss, going six innings while allowing six hits and striking out five.

The Eagles started the tournament with a 2-0 victory over Chatfield. Danielle Schmidt recorded a no-hitter with 20 strikeouts and 15 walks. Senior Jordan Miller and Danielle Schmidt had one RBI apiece in the victory.

In the semifinals, New Life Academy of Woodbury cruised past Wabasso 9-0. Danielle Schmidt again went the distance for the Eagles, allowing just one hit while retiring 17 batters via the strikeout. Junior Ashley Jensen led the way at the plate for New Life Academy, going 2-for-3 with two RBI and two runs scored. Rebekah Schmidt and Danielle Schmidt each added two hits as well.

On the other side of the bracket, Maple Lake edged Badger/Greenbush-Middle River 6-5 in the quarterfinals. Andrea Rachel went 3-for-4 from the plate and scored two runs to pace the offense for the Irish. Laura Dombrowski went five innings to earn the win, allowing five runs — all earned — on six hits while striking out nine. Junior Ashley Kempenich worked the final two innings of relief to earn the save.

The Irish scored one run in the bottom of the fifth and another in the bottom of the sixth to break a 1-1 tie en route to a 3-1 semifinal victory over Littlefork-Big Falls. Kempenich hurled seven innings of three-hit ball, yielding just one run — earned — while striking out 16. Junior Amanda Horst had the lone RBI for Maple Lake.

Wabasso came back to claim third-place honors after defeating Littlefork-Big Falls 7-5. The Rabbits led 7-0 at the end of four innings, but the Vikings scored five runs in the top of the seventh. Junior Ashley Fenneren earned the win, allowing five runs — all earned on nine hits while striking out six. Fenneren also went 2-for-2 at the plate with three RBI.

Junior Whitney Junker had two RBI on two hits for Littlefork-Big Falls. Senior Kelly Hams and junior Carlie Anderson both pitched for the Vikings. Hams had three strikeouts and Anderson added four more.

Due to the weather, the consolation final between Chatfield and Badger/Greenbush-Middle River was not played. The teams will share the title of consolation champion.

The defending champions from New Ulm Cathedral were ousted in the consolation semifinals after falling to Chatfield 3-2.

Class AA

The Orono Spartans (28-1), who hadn't been to the tournament since 1993, won their first title in their second overall appearance. They defeated the defending champions from Pipestone Area 4-3. The Arrows (20-5) were making their fourth appearance under this name, but also made one additional appearance as Pipestone-Jasper in 2001.

Orono built a 4-0 lead heading into the fourth inning, but Pipestone Area scored one run in each of the next three innings to trim the lead to 4-3. The Arrows had the tying run on third base in the bottom of the sixth, but Orono's senior pitcher Chelsey Durland was able to strike out senior Amanda Monger to end the threat.

Durland pitched the complete game for Orono, scattering five hits and allowing two earned runs. She also threw seven strikeouts and had two walks. Senior Gennie Bunting paced the Spartans' offense with three RBI, all of which came on a bases-clearing double in the third inning.

Sophomore Bailey Bouman led Pipestone Area with a 2-for-4 performance at the plate with a run scored and one RBI. Senior Chelsey Evans pitched all seven innings for the Arrows. She had nine strikeouts while allowing three hits and one earned run.

Orono defeated Maple River of Mapleton 1-0 in 12 innings in the quarterfinals. Durland threw a tournament-record 22 strikeouts while only allowing four hits. Durland was intentionally walked to start the bottom of the 12th and was replaced by pinch-runner, ninth-grader Erin Lucas. After a single by junior Allison Graf moved Lucas to third, she scored on a single off the bat of Gennie Bunting.

In the semifinals, Orono defeated the first-time qualifiers from Becker 6-0. Durland again pitched the complete game with 10 strikeouts. She also got the job done at the plate, going 2-for-4 with one RBI. Bunting also had a good day at the plate, going 3-for-4 with one RBI and a run scored.

In a rematch of last year's title game, Pipestone Area again asserted its dominance over St. Anthony Village in the quarterfinals. This time, the Arrows won 6-2. Bailey Bouman, and juniors Brooke Henderson, Steph Rudie, and Megan VanderPoel, all pounded out two hits to pace Pipestone Area. Chelsey Evans worked the mound, allowing two runs — neither of which were earned — on four hits while striking out 12.

Despite being limited to just two hits, Pipestone Area downed Hermantown 2-0 in the semifinals. After Evans singled Bouman to second in the bottom of the first inning, a fielder's choice moved her to third, and she scored on wild pitch. Henderson also scored on a wild pitch later in the same inning. Evans pitched the complete game for the Arrows with 14 strikeouts and four hits.

Becker took third-place honors after notching a 5-0 victory over Hermantown. Sophomore Kristen Fah threw a complete-game four-hitter and struck out 10 Hermantown batters en route to the victory. Junior Rachel Gilbert went 1-for-3 with three RBI to pace the Becker offense.

Hermantown sophomore Julia Gilbert went 2-for-3 in the loss. Sophomore Megan Mullen pitched all seven innings for the Hawks. She allowed seven hits and four earned runs, and fired 13 strikeouts.

Maple River and St. Anthony Village will share the consolation title. Their game was not played due to weather cancellations.

Class AAA

In Class AAA, the Eagan Wildcats (21-2) ran away with their first championship after defeating Mankato West 14-1 in six innings. This was the fourth overall appearance for Eagan and the fifth for Mankato West (26-2).

Eagan seniors Paige Ashton and Kaylyn Korth each had two hits and three RBI in the victory. Senior Brittney Erdman, who went 2-for-4, added two more RBI for the Wildcats. Sophomore pitcher Sara Moulton got the win, going the distance while allowing three hits and striking out four.

Junior Ashley Veroeven pitched 5.1 innings for Mankato West. She faced 30 batters and allowed eight hits and eight earned runs. Junior Ashley Goettl had the only RBI for the Scarlets.

Sara Moulton got Eagan off to a stellar start when she only allowed two hits in the Wildcats' 3-0 quarterfinal victory over Hopkins. She also tossed 10 strikeouts and had three walks. Sophomore Kelly Wood went 2-for-3 and had the lone RBI for Eagan.

In the semifinals, Osseo took Eagan to 10 innings before sophomore Bree Blanchette doubled to left field and came around to score off an RBI single from senior Emily Bodeker. That broke a 2-2 tie that had lasted over three innings and the Wildcats advanced with the 3-2 victory.

Paige Ashton and Kaylyn Korth each had two hits to lead Eagan's offensive attack. Sara Moulton allowed two runs — both earned — on two hits while striking out 14.

Mankato West started the tournament with a 3-0 victory over Forest Lake. Ashley Veroeven pitched the entire game for the Scarlets, scattering three hits while striking out seven. She also hit a home run and had one RBI.

The Scarlets rallied from a 3-2 deficit to defeat the perennial qualifiers from Big Lake 4-3 in the semifinals. Mankato West began its comeback in the bottom of the sixth when Ashley Goettl hit a double to right center. That scored junior Alyssa Black and the score was tied 3-3. Goettl then scored when ninth-grader Vanessa Lloyd doubled down the left field line.

In the third-place game, Big Lake defeated Osseo 5-1. Senior Chelsea Erickson pitched all seven innings for the Hornets, allowing one earned run on six hits. She also threw nine strikeouts. Sophomore Lindsay Erickson led the Big Lake offense with two RBI on three hits.

Sophomore Becca Girvan took the loss for Osseo. She struck out 15 batters and had one earned run on five hits.

Due to the weather, the consolation final between Forest Lake and Stillwater Area was not played. The teams will share the title of consolation champion.

The defending champions from North of North St. Paul did not qualify for the 2008 tournament. North fell to Stillwater Area in the Section 4AAA tournament.

The 2008 State Softball Tournament was held at Caswell Park in North Mankato on June 5-6. Paid attendance for the tournament was 6,006.

Eagan wins 15 medals in Class AA; Walker-Hackensack-Akeley earns 13 Class A medals

2008 REVIEW

Mounds Park Academy of St. Paul won two gold medals in the Class A competition, while Eagan took home five gold medals in Class AA. Overall, Eagan won 15 medals and Walker-Hackensack-Akeley won 13.

Four defending champions also won more gold: Ephrem Shaffer of Staples-Motley, Rachel Swedburg of Walker-Hackensack-Akeley; John Ward of Eagan; and Susan Close of Eastview of Apple Valley.

The biggest record of the Class A tournament may have been set by Kaitlyn Berry of Walker-Hackensack-Akeley. With her seventh-place showing in Serious Interpretation of Drama, she became only the second competitor in tournament history to win five medals. Ben Senger of Sacred Heart of East Grand Forks was the first to set the record. He won five medals between 1992 and 1996.

Two Class A competitors claimed rare fourth medals this year. Ephrem Shaffer won in Humorous Interpretation and Anna Zelenz of St. Peter was third in Great Speeches. None of the Class AA competitors earned a fourth medal this year.

Overall, four Class A contestants and 13 Class AA contestants earned coveted third medals.

Class A

Mounds Park Academy led all schools in gold medals, winning two. Of the five returning gold medalists, only two succeeded in winning an event again this year.

Only one champion returned in the same category this year. Beth Tuller of Walker-Hackensack-Akeley, who claimed top honors in Extemporaneous Speaking last year, placed fifth this year.

The champions who competed in different categories were: Ephrem Shaffer of Staples-Motley in Humorous Interpretation; Mia Overly of Eveleth-Gilbert in Extemporaneous Speaking; Laryssa Schoek of Walker-Hackensack-Akeley in Serious Interpretation of Poetry; and Rachel Swedburg of Walker-Hackensack-Akeley in Serious Interpretation of Prose. Last year, Shaffer won in Creative Expression, Overly won in Great Speeches, Schoek won in Extemporaneous Reading, and Swedburg won in Serious Interpretation of Poetry. Shaffer and Swedburg won again in their new categories, while Schoek finished in third place. Overly did not make the finals.

Mounds Park Academy had two winners, and 11 other schools had one winner each. Besides Shaffer and Swedburg, the other 2008 champions were: Joe Roberts and Erik Larson of St. Charles in Duo Interpretation; Jeff Rueter of St. Cloud Cathedral in Creative Expression; Ryan Soller of Belle Plaine in Discussion; Justin Nelson of East Grand Forks in Extemporaneous Reading; Nancy Dietman of Mounds Park Academy in Extemporaneous Speaking; David Tomporowski of Perham in Great Speeches; Sarah Bankson of Fairmont in Informative Speaking; Annie Haws of Blackduck in Original Oratory; Jaya Stenquist of Mounds Park Academy in Serious Interpretation of Drama; Laura Volk of Southwest Star Concept of Okabena in Serious Interpretation of Poetry; and Emily Jansen of St. Peter in Storytelling.

Shaffer, in winning his second gold medal this year also earned his fourth overall medal. In addition to winning gold medals in 2007 and 2008, he also won a gold in Serious Interpretation of Prose in 2006. Anna Zelenz of St. Peter also joined the relatively short list of competitors to win four medals.

Five returning medalists earned their third medals this year: Caitlyn Swinney of Belgrade-Brooten-Elrosa, David Tomporowski of Perham, Emily Jansen of St. Peter, Maggie Michenfelder of St. Charles, and Brett Johnson of Walker-Hackensack-Akeley.

Walker-Hackensack-Akeley and Mounds Park Academy, which qualified a tournament-leading 18 competitors apiece, finished with 13 and nine medalists, respectively. Fairmont was third highest with seven medal-winners. With medals awarded to as many as eight top finishers, 40 schools were represented by students awarded medals for their 2008 state tournament performances.

Walker-Hackensack-Akeley, with its one winner, now can claim 38 state champions between 1969 and 2008, which is fourth place on the list of Most State Champions-All Classes. Mounds Park Academy now has 21 state champions, good for sixth place on that list. With its 13 medals this year, Walker-Hackensack-Akeley still tops the list of top medal-winning Class A schools with 200. Mounds Park Academy, having won nine medals this year, now ranks a distant second with 102. Mankato Loyola had two medalists this year and the school now ranks third with 91.

Class AA

Eagan led all schools in gold medals, winning five. Of the four returning gold medalists, only two succeeded in winning an event again this year.

The two defending champions who claimed more gold were Susan Close of Eastview of Apple Valley and John Ward of Eagan. Close won her second consecutive title in Great Speeches, while Ward won top honors in Creative Expression. In 2007, Ward won in Humorous Interpretation. This was the third medal overall for Ward and the second for Close.

The other two returning champions — Shayla Owodunni of Lakeville North and Lauren Evans of Eagan — were not as successful. Owodunni, who was competing in the same category as last year, finished third in Informative

Speaking. Evans, who won in Serious Interpretation of Poetry in 2007, placed third in Serious Interpretation of Drama.

Eagan finished with five gold medals, while Eastview picked up four. Besides Close and Ward, the other 2008 champions were: Evan Lowder of Eagan in Discussion; Jaci Berkopec and Kjellrun Owens of Eagan in Duo Interpretation; Rebecca Gibson of St. Paul Highland Park in Extemporaneous Reading; Akshar Rambachan of Eastview in Extemporaneous Speaking; Greg Berman of Eastview in Humorous Interpretation; Monique Pratt of Mounds View in Informative Speaking; Marisa Gage of Eagan in Original Oratory; John Hofmeister of Apple Valley in Serious Interpretation of Drama; Semira Mohammed of Eastview in Serious Interpretation of Poetry;

Matt Porter of Apple Valley in Serious Interpretation of Prose; and Jessy Soderbeck of Eagan in Storytelling.

There were no four-time medal winners in Class AA this year, but several competitors won their third medals. In addition to John Ward, those winners were: Jamaka Young of Apple Valley, Maddie Gardner of Eagan, Caroline Snowden of Eagan, Lauren Evans of Eagan, Samantha Dolan of Eagan, Akshar Rambachan of Eastview, Zach Leonard of Hermantown, Greta Besser of Lakeville North, Adam Bouchareb of Lakeville North, Rick Yuronich of Lakeville North, Elena Glass of Roseville Area, and Charlie Douglass of Roseville Area.

Eagan led the list of medal-winners with 15, while Apple Valley and Lakeville North had 11 apiece. With medals awarded to as many as eight top finishers, 29 schools were represented by students awarded medals for their 2008 state tournament performances.

Apple Valley, with its two winners, now can claim 67 state champions between 1969 and 2008, which is first place on the list of Most State Champions-All Classes. Eagan now has 47 state champions, good for second place on that list. With its 11 medals this year, Apple Valley still tops the list of top medal-winning Class A schools with 299. Eagan, having won 15 medals this year, now ranks a distant second with 214. Forest Lake is still third with 175.

The 2008 State Speech Tournament was conducted at South St. Paul High School. The Class A competition was held April 18 and the Class AA competition was held April 19.

State Speech Tournament Medal Records — 1969-2008

Apple Valley in Class AA and Walker-Hackensack-Akeley in Class A lead their respective classes in number of medals earned at State Speech Tournaments from 1969 to 2008. The year 1969 marked the first year in which a preliminary round and final round resulted in awarding medals to the top three place winners in each division. The first two-class competition was held in 1976. In 1979 the number of medals awarded in each of the 11 categories of competition increased from three to six. In 1989 the number of categories increased to 12. In 1990 medals were awarded to each of the finalists through eighth place. In 1993, the Dramatic Duo category was added making the number of categories 13. In 2002 the format changed to qualify three entries from each section in each category, and having three preliminary rounds at the State Tournament before the finals. Since 1969 students from 386 member schools have won medals at the State Speech Tournament.

St. Thomas Academy wins fourth consecutive title in Class A; Edina takes top honors in Class AA

By Ellen Giloy

St. Thomas Academy of Mendota Heights won its fourth consecutive title and its ninth in 10 years at the Class A meet. The Cadets defeated the runners-up from Fergus Falls by 50 points. In Class AA, the Edina Hornets won their eighth title overall, but first since 2004. They finished with 258.5 points, while the second-place finishers from Minnetonka came in at 231.

Two new Class A records were set this year. Senior Zack Strumbell of Eveleth-Gilbert swam the 200 freestyle in 1:40.85, and ninth-grader Mike Hurley of Fergus Falls completed the 200 individual medley in 1:56.15.

No new Class AA or all-time records were set this year.

Class A

The Cadets of St. Thomas Academy made it four titles in a row with their 50-point victory over the runners-up from Fergus Falls. It was also their ninth team title in 10 years and their 10th overall.

Fergus Falls, which improved on last year's fourth-place showing, made things interesting through the first seven events. With five events left, the Otters and Cadets found themselves tied at 107 points apiece. St. Thomas Academy had a distinct advantage in the final three events, however; the Cadets had eight qualifiers to Fergus Falls' three.

Senior Matt Hoyland, junior Michael Quinn, and eighth-grader Paul Brunkhorst clinched the title with their combined 45 points in the 100 breaststroke. Hoyland claimed the top spot for a second consecutive year with a time of 57.42. He was followed by Quinn and Brunkhorst, who placed third and ninth, respectively.

Overall, St. Thomas Academy finished with 247 points and Fergus Falls had 197. Sauk Rapids-Rice placed third with 157 points.

Hoyland's victory in the 100 breaststroke was the only win for the Cadets. He also earned runner-up honors in the 50 freestyle and was on the runner-up team in the 200 medley relay. Quinn, junior Owen Rickey, and junior Adam Rohde rounded out that team.

Fergus Falls won three events overall: the 200 medley relay, the 400 freestyle relay, and the 200 individual medley. Ninth-grader Mike Hurley set a new Class A record with his time of 1:56.15 in the individual medley, and he also swam with seniors Joel Money and Nathan Jobe on both of the winning relay teams. Sophomore Eben Danielson rounded out the medley relay team, and senior Preston Anderson completed the freestyle relay squad.

Senior brothers Zack and Luke Strumbell of Eveleth-Gilbert were the other big winners at the meet. Zack set a Class A record of 1:40.85 in the 200 freestyle and also won the 100 butterfly with a time of 50.37. Luke claimed top honors in the 50 and 100 freestyle races with times of 21.02 and 46.71, respectively. Those four finishes were also enough to place Eveleth-Gilbert 11th overall in the team competition.

Hoyland was the only swimmer to successfully defend a 2007 title.

Class AA

In Class AA, the Hornets of Edina improved on last year's third-place showing to claim their eighth title overall. They finished with 258.5 points.

Edina and Minnetonka battled throughout the meet and the lead changed hands seven times. But the Hornets won the title in the second-to-last event, the 100 breaststroke, when senior Doug Eden and junior Carter Kelly finished first and fourth, respectively. That expanded Edina's lead from 2.5 points to an insurmountable 23.5.

Minnetonka, which placed fifth last year, finished with 231 points. The defending champions from Burnsville slipped to third place with 209.5 points.

The breaststroke victory was the only win for Edina. Sophomore Drew Johnson placed third in both the 200 freestyle and 100 butterfly, and Carter Kelly placed third in the 200 individual medley. Sophomore Chris Satterwaite earned a third-place showing in the 500 freestyle and also swam on the Hornets' 400 freestyle team that earned runner-up honors. Johnson, junior Michael Bergstrom, and senior Keith Yoerg completed that team.

The Skippers won two relays on their way to the runner-up finish. Junior Evan Lee-To, junior Jake Hausauer, and senior Asger Helmg swam on both the 200 medley relay and 200 freestyle teams. Senior Preston Youngdahl completed the medley team and senior Nolan Sinkler rounded out the freestyle squad.

Senior Brandon Adair was the only competitor to defend his 2007 title. He won his second consecutive championship in the 100 butterfly with a time of 50.29.

Paul Tierney, a Burnsville senior, won two individual titles. He won the 200 freestyle with a time of 1:40.68 and the 100 freestyle with a time of 45.56.

No new records were set during the Class AA tournament.

The 2008 State Boys' Swimming and Diving Meet was held February 28 through March 1 at the University of Minnesota Aquatic Center in Minneapolis. Paid attendance was 5,521.

Mike Hurley (left) of Fergus Falls is congratulated by Casey Murnane of Red Wing after setting a new Class A record in the 200-yard individual medley. Hurley's record time was 1:56.15.

Visitation Blazers win third consecutive title; Maple Grove claims first; Cretin-Derham Hall's Weis sets two all-time records

By Ellen Giloy

Visitation, which is located in Mendota Heights, claimed its third consecutive Class A title at this year's state meet. The Blazers defeated Breck School of Golden Valley by 111 points. In Class AA, the Crimson of Maple Grove won their first team championship after defeating the Burnsville Blaze by 33 points.

Lauren Weis, a junior at Cretin-Derham Hall of St. Paul, set two new all-time and Class AA records. She set the record for the 200 freestyle in the preliminaries with a time of 1:49.20. In the 500 freestyle, she set a new record of 4:53.67 in the preliminaries, but then set it again in the finals with a time of 4:52.85.

Several Class A records were also set. Visitation junior Meghan Weiss swam the 200 freestyle in 1:52.33 and the 100 freestyle in 51.38. Senior Sammi Husband of Breck School set a new record of 2:06.18 in the 200 individual medley and junior Megan Geyen completed the 50 freestyle in 23.43. Eighth-grader Olivia McNeely of Visitation set the final record; she finished the 100 breaststroke in 1:04.70.

Class A

The Blazers of Visitation won their third consecutive and overall title with a 111-point margin over the runners-up from Breck School. The Blazers finished with 298 points, and the Mustangs had 187. It was the third consecutive year the teams finished first and second, respectively. Monticello was third with 148.5 points.

Visitation won five events and placed swimmers in 11 events overall. Junior Meghan Weiss and eighth-grader Olivia McNeely also set three new Class A records. Weiss won her second consecutive title in the 200 freestyle and her second overall in the 100 freestyle. She set records in both events with times of 1:52.33 and 51.38, respectively. She captured her first title in the 100 freestyle in 2005.

McNeely claimed her second consecutive title in the 100 breaststroke with a record-setting time of 1:04.70.

In addition to her individual titles, Meghan Weiss also anchored both of Visitation's winning relay teams. She swam with senior Jennifer Steege, junior Sophie Pilhofer, and sophomore Maddy DeMeules on the 200 freestyle team, and Jennifer Steege, junior Julie Steege, and senior Meaghan Rohde on the 400 freestyle team. The Blazers won those events with respective times of 1:38.94 and 3:36.13.

Sophie Pilhofer and Jennifer Steege also put up significant points for Visitation. Pilhofer

Julie Steege added an eighth-place finish in the 200 individual medley and she and junior Carroll Bible placed fourth and eighth, respectively, in the 100 backstroke.

Two other swimmers also set new Class A records. Senior Sammi Husband of Breck School of Golden Valley won her second consecutive title in the 200 individual medley with a time of 2:06.18. Husband also claimed her second consecutive championship in the 100 butterfly and helped her 200 medley relay team to a first-place finish.

Junior Megan Geyen set the final Class A record when she completed the 50 freestyle with a time of 23.43. It was also her third consecutive title in that event.

Senior Jessica Stanchfield of Orono and sophomore Taylor Foster of Breck School also successfully defended their 2006 titles. Stanchfield claimed her second diving title with 368.25 points and Foster swam the 100 backstroke in 59.65.

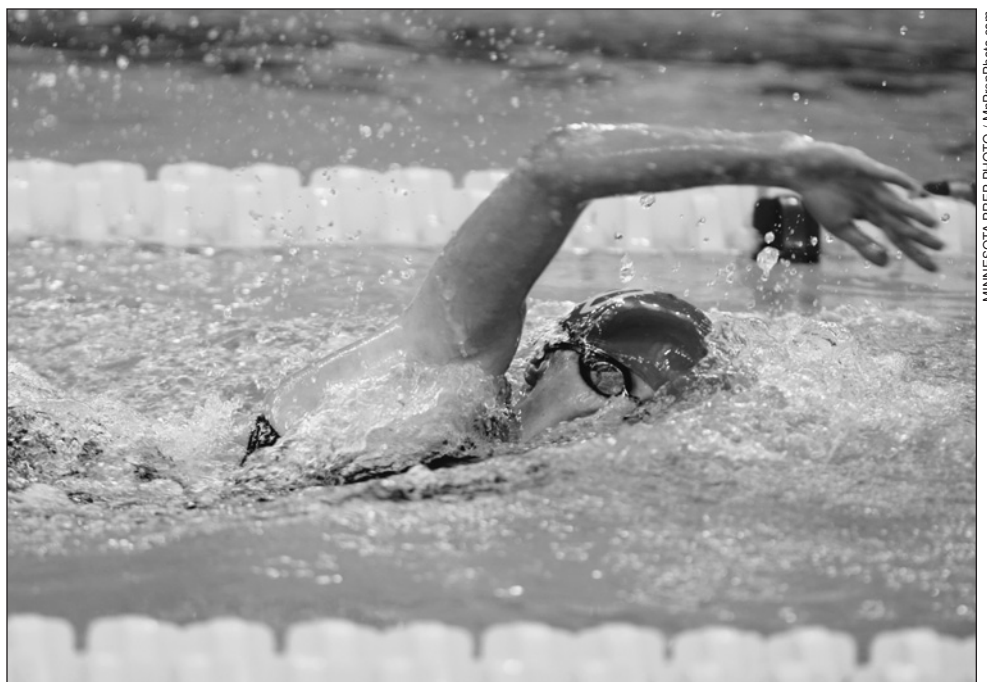

The Breck School team of eighth-grader Chandra Yueh, sophomore Corrie Searls, senior Alli Sisk, and Sammi Husband, also claimed its third consecutive title in the 200 medley relay with a time of 1:49.96.

The final individual winner was Sartell-St. Stephen seventh-grader Marissa Wood. She took top honors in the 500 freestyle with a final time of 5:08.95.

Class AA

2007 State Girls' Swimming & Diving Meet

Maple Grove had two relay teams earn runner-up honors. Sophomore Tess Behrens and senior Kaylan Bailey competed on both the 200 medley and 400 freestyle teams. Juniors Brooke Robbins and Danielle Adank rounded out the medley team, and junior Heather Bodin and senior Melissa Nelson completed the freestyle team. Nelson, Bodin, Bailey, and ninth-grader Elaine Boosalis teamed up for a fifth-place showing in the 200 freestyle relay.

Tess Behrens was the only Maple Grove swimmer to earn an individual runner-up finish. She was second in the 100 backstroke.

The rest of the Crimson's points came from Heather Bodin, Melissa Nelson, Danielle Adank, and Brooke Robbins. Nelson was sixth in both the 50 and 100 freestyle events, and Robbins was fifth in the 100 breaststroke. Bodin and Adank were seventh in the 200 individual medley and 100 butterfly, respectively.

Junior Lauren Weis of Cretin-Derham Hall set two all-time and Class AA records at the meet. She broke the oldest record in the tournament in the preliminaries when she completed the 500 freestyle in 4:53.67. Kirsten Wengler of Hopkins Lindbergh set the previous record of 4:56.20 in 1981. The next day, in the finals, Weis broke the record again and set the new standard at 4:52.85.

Weis also set a new record in the 200 freestyle in the preliminaries. She completed the race with a final time of 1:49.20. Megan Braun of Edina owned the previous record of 1:49.39. She set it in 2005.

In addition to the individual wins, Weis also anchored the winning 400 freestyle relay team. Ninth-grader Kiera Janzen and seniors Alexa O'Brien and Katie Spitzmueller also competed for the Raiders. Their winning time was 3:30.38.

Wayzata was the only team or individual to successfully defend a 2006 title. Seniors Kate Tomasovicova and Shelby Johnson and ninth-graders Heather Arseth and Sara Deis, won with a time of 1:36.59.

Other winners were: Edina in the 200 medley relay; Stillwater Area sophomore Kaela Anderson in the 200 individual medley; Winona/Winona Cotter junior Abbey Staats in the 50 freestyle; Elk River Area/ACA sophomore Laura Ryan in diving; Edina junior Annalise Colton in the 100 butterfly; Hastings junior Katie Scarsella in the 100 freestyle; Eden Prairie eighth-grader Rachel Bootsma in the 100 backstroke; and Champlin Park ninth-grader Abby Duncan in the 100 breaststroke.

The 2007 State Girls' Swimming & Diving Meet was held November 15-17 at the University of Minnesota Aquatic Center. Paid attendance was 5,691.

Spartans repeat, Hornets win 17th; Buffalo's Sicora singles champ again; The Blake School's Jackley wins second doubles crown

By Ellen Giloy

The Spartans of St. Paul Academy & Summit School won their second consecutive and fourth overall tennis title this year. Across town, the Hornets of Edina prevailed for their 17th overall title and fifth this decade.

Two competitors won their second titles this year: Buffalo senior Michael Sicora persevered to win his second Class AA singles title, and junior Phillip "Tips" Jackley of The Blake School of Minneapolis won his second consecutive Class A doubles crown. Jackley won with his older brother, Merritt, in 2007, and with sophomore Jack Bryant this year.

Class A

The Spartans of St. Paul Academy & Summit School made it two championships in a row and three in five years after defeating Rochester Lourdes 6-1. It was the fourth title overall for the Spartans, who won previously in 1993 and 2004.

The title match-up was much closer than the 6-1 score implies. The Eagles, playing for the title for the first time, took St. Paul Academy & Summit School to three sets in three matches before losing. Senior Pierce Norton's victory over sophomore Ben Kopecky of at No. 1 singles clinched the victory for the Spartans.

Norton made short work of Kopecky in the first set, winning 6-0. But, in a way that foreshadowed the individual singles championship, Kopecky bounced back and claimed the second 6-4. At that point, the Spartans held a 3-1 edge over the Eagles with two doubles teams still on the courts. Norton, who was plagued with an ankle injury, battled back and won the third set 6-2.

Eighth-grader Kyle McGrane notched the only victory for Rochester Lourdes. He defeated junior Joe Merrill 6-0, 6-2 at No. 3 singles.

St. Paul Academy & Summit School started the tournament with a strong 7-0 quarterfinal victory over Luverne. All seven matches went only two sets, with sophomores Harry Whitaker and Evan McMillan winning in straight sets at No. 2 doubles, and junior Andrew Magne and eighth-grader Birk Mitau winning in straight sets at No. 3 doubles.

In the semifinals, the Spartans defeated Breck School of Golden Valley 4-3. Ninth-grader John Hill defeated sophomore Eric Chien in a grueling two-hour match at No. 2 singles to secure the victory for St. Paul Academy & Summit School. The final score was 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

2008 REVIEW

On the other side of the bracket, Rochester Lourdes easily defeated Foley 7-0 in the quarterfinals. Eighth-grader Robert Turlington had the only straight-set victory for the Eagles. He defeated Foley sophomore Nick Jansen at No. 3 singles.

Rochester Lourdes advanced and beat Thief River Falls 6-1 in the semifinals. Ninth-grader Brenden Skime won the only match for the Prowlers when he defeated eighth-grader Brian Utz 1-6, 6-3 (10-8) at No. 4 singles.

Breck School bounced back to claim third-place honors after defeating Thief River Falls 6-1. Eric Chien and seventh-grader Myles Tang both had straight-set victories for the Mustangs. They won at No. 2 and No. 4 singles, respectively.

The St. Peter Saints earned consolation honors. They beat Foley 5-2, with only one match going to three sets. Junior Trent Johnson and eighth-grader Spencer Gault won that one for the Saints, defeating eighth-graders Benjamin Hageman and Sam Eherenman 4-6, 6-2, 6-3 at No. 3 doubles.

In the singles competition, Ben Kopecky of Rochester Lourdes turned the tables on Pierce Norton of St. Paul Academy & Summit School. After falling to Norton in three sets in the team championship, Kopecky improved on last year's runner-up finish by defeating Norton 6-3, 6-4.

The two battled through the first set with Kopecky hitting returns to Norton's backhand. In the second, neither competitor led by more than two games. After Norton went up 4-3, Kopecky won the last four points to close out the set.

Kopecky started his championship run by defeating ninth-grader Ford Traff of The Blake School of Minneapolis 6-2, 6-2. He beat senior Jacob Engelstad of Thief River Falls 6-3, 6-2 in the quarterfinals, and senior Peter Freese of St. Cloud Cathedral 6-4, 7-5 in the semifinals.

Freese, who placed fourth in 2007, improved one place after defeating Luverne senior Sebastian Sousa Soares 6-2, 6-1 in the third-place match. Traff rebounded to take consolation honors after scoring a 6-1, 7-5 victory over Breck School junior Will Oberrender.

Phillip "Tips" Jackley, a junior at The Blake School, won his second consecutive doubles crown with sophomore Jack Bryant. Last year, he won with this older brother, Merritt. The championship was a family affair again this year, with Bryant facing off against his cousin, John Wight, a senior at St. Paul Academy & Summit School. In the end, Jackley and Bryant defeated Wight and junior Dillon Titcomb 6-3, 6-3.

The runner-up showing was also an improvement for Wight, who placed third in the singles tournament in 2007.

On their way to the finals, Jackley and Bryant defeated senior Luke Biermaier and junior Jake Thompson of Crookston 6-3, 6-2 in the opening round. They went on to beat Aitkin seniors Adam Cooke and Dan Burke 6-0, 6-1 in the semifinals, and seventh-grader Myles Tang and sophomore Eric Chien of Breck School 6-2, 6-4 in the semifinals.

Tang and Chien came back to win third-place honors after defeating the Breck School tandem of sophomore Grant Bemis and ninth-grader Dan Carpenter 6-2, 7-6 (7-5). The consolation title went to Virginia seniors Brian Villa and Nico Sacchetti after they beat the Crookston team of Luke Biermaier and junior Jake Thompson 6-2, 7-6 (7-4).

Class AA

In the Class AA team tournament, the Edina Hornets improved on last year's third-place showing by winning their 17th championship under this name. Edina East also won five titles and Edina West won one.

This year's squad defeated Mounds View 5-2 in the title match-up. Edina swept the doubles matches and split the singles. Mounds View's biggest victory came at No. 1 singles where ninth-grader Wyatt McCoy, who won the individual title last year, defeated sophomore Hamish Weerasinghe 6-1, 6-3. But Edina countered at No. 2 singles where junior Noah Swiler defeated last year's doubles champion, Mounds View senior David Croonquist, 6-3, 6-4.

This was the second consecutive runner-up finish for the Mustangs. They fell to Rochester Mayo 4-3 in the 2007 championship match.

Edina started tournament play with an easy 6-1 victory over the defending champions from Rochester Mayo. The only match that went to three sets was at No. 3 singles where Edina juniors Eric Lie and Jeff Rosner defeated junior Jonathan Juhn and sophomore Alexander Olsen 3-6, 6-4, 10-5.

In the semifinals, Edina beat Elk River 6-1 with the teams splitting the two three-set matches. Edina senior Chris Kuna beat senior Jeremy Thompson 5-7, 6-1, 6-0 at No. 3 singles, and the Elk River duo of senior Andy Nyquist and eighth-grader Mitchel Brandell defeated senior Casey McCann and junior Brent Radewald 6-4, 6-7 (7-3), 10-8 at No. 1 doubles.

Mounds View defeated Wayzata 6-1 in the quarterfinals and Eagan 7-0 in the semifinals. Wyatt McCoy easily defeated senior Markus Langle 6-0, 6-1 at No. 1 singles in the quarterfinals, and the Mustangs also won both of the matches that went three sets. In the semifinals, junior Tucker Morris was the only Mounds View player to win in straight sets. He defeated sophomore A.J. Lutovsky at No. 4 singles.

Elk River squeaked by Eagan 4-3 to claim third-place honors. The key win for the Elks came at No. 1 doubles where Andy Nyquist and Mitchel Brandell defeated junior James Altendahl and senior Ryan Baumgartner 7-5, 5-7, 6-1.

Wayzata beat Rochester Mayo 4-3 for the consolation title. The teams split the singles matches, but the Trojans won at No. 1 and No. 2 doubles.

In the singles tournament, Buffalo senior Michael Sicora returned to the championship podium after a one-year absence. Sicora, who finished in third place last year, defeated Blaine senior Paul Swanson 6-4, 6-2 to claim his second title. It was also the second consecutive runner-up finish for Swanson, who fell to Mounds View's Wyatt McCoy in 2007.

Swanson came out strong and won the first two games, but Sicora countered by winning the next four. In the second set, Sicora served well and also utilized both his forehand and backhand en route to the 6-2 victory.

Sicora started the individual tournament with a 6-4, 4-6, 6-0 victory over Eden Prairie junior Justin Haag. In the quarterfinals, he defeated Rochester Century ninth-grader 6-3, 6-1, paving the way to a much-anticipated rematch with defending champion Wyatt McCoy, a ninth-grader from Mounds View.

This was the third consecutive year that Sicora and McCoy met in the tournament. In 2006, Sicora defeated McCoy 3-6, 7-6 (10-8), 6-1 in the quarterfinals and went on to win his first title. In 2007, they met in the semifinals with McCoy winning 4-6, 7-6 (7-3), 6-0 on his way to the championship. This year, however, Sicora controlled the pace of the match and won easily 6-3, 6-1.

McCoy rebounded to take third-place honors after defeating Orono senior Dennis Martin 7-5, 6-3. Justin Haag of Eden Prairie claimed the consolation title with a 7-6 (7-2), 6-3, 6-4 victory over eighth-grader Dusty Boyer of Forest Lake.

In the doubles tournament, Rochester Mayo seniors Amrik Donkena and William Tremaine claimed their first title. The win was an improvement for Donkena, who placed fourth in the singles tournament in 2007.

Donkena and Tremaine defeated Elk River seniors Kent Nichols and Andy Nyquist 7-5, 6-2 in the first round. In the quarterfinals, they defeated Mounds View junior Tucker Morris and senior Joe Hodgson 6-4, 6-1, and in the semifinals, they beat the Edina duo of senior Chris Kuna and junior Steven Pjevach 5-7, 6-3, 6-4.

The third-place match-up featured two teams from Edina. Juniors Noah Swiler and Brent Radewald defeated Kuna and Pjevach 6-2, 5-7, 6-2. In the consolation final, Kent Nichols and Andy Nyquist of Elk River notched a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Coon Rapids seniors Erik Sahlin and Matt Dhennin.

The 2008 State Boys' Tennis Tournament was held June 3-6. The Class AA tournament was held at the Baseline Tennis Center on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis, and the Class A tournament was held at the Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center in Minneapolis.

Edina extends win streak, while Mounds Park Academy wins first; Rochester Lourdes' Palen, Burnsville's Wilkins earns first singles titles; Mounds Park Academy's Larson, Washington repeat in doubles

By Ellen Giloy

Edina claimed its 11th consecutive Class AA title at the 2007 State Girls' Tennis Tournament, while Mounds Park Academy won its first Class A title. It was the 26th title overall for the Edina Hornets.

In the Class A singles tournament, Rochester Lourdes junior Alexa Palen added a singles title to the doubles crown she earned in 2005. Burnsville senior Niltooli Wilkins persevered through an extended Class AA championship match to win her first singles title after consecutive runner-up finishes the past two years.

Mounds Park Academy senior Beth Larson and eighth-grader Amber Washington defended their Class A title in the doubles tournament. In Class AA, Rochester Mayo junior Erin Kappers and sophomore Emilie Renault knocked off the defending champions in the semifinals and went on to win the title match in three sets.

Class A

A new state champion emerged when Mounds Park Academy of St. Paul defeated St. James 4-3 to win the Class A team title. The Panthers improved on their previous runner-up finish and captured their first tennis title with the win.

Mounds Park Academy claimed the championship after sweeping the singles matches. Sophomore Brenna Kelly, who won the individual title in 2006, started with a 6-4, 6-1 victory over junior Mallory Shellum in the No. 1 spot. Sophomore Taylor Washington, senior Beth Larson, and eighth-grader Amber Washington all followed with 6-0, 6-0 victories over their respective opponents.

The Panthers took two of the doubles matches to three sets, but the Saints rebounded to claim all three victories. Seniors Katie Carlson and Heidi Westman won 6-2, 2-6, 6-1 in the No. 2 spot, and juniors Maja Johnson and Heather Nelson won 7-5, 1-6, 7-5 at No. 3.

Mounds Park Academy defeated 10-time defending champion Rochester Lourdes 4-3 in the quarterfinal round when Lourdes had to forfeit two doubles matches because an incorrect lineup was used. In the singles competition, Mounds Park Academy's Larson defeated junior Mary Utz 6-0, 6-1 in the No. 3 spot. Amber Washington also posted a win for the Panthers when she beat eighth-grader Kristen Brandhagen 6-1, 6-2 at No. 4 singles.

In the semifinals, the Panthers defeated Staples-Motley 4-3. Brenna Kelly was the only Mounds Park Academy player to fall in the singles competition. She was defeated by senior Katie Edin 6-4, 4-6, 6-1. Katie's younger sister, sophomore Abby, also pushed Taylor Washington to three sets at No. 2 singles, but Washington was able to win 6-3, 6-7 (4-7), 6-3.

St. James advanced to the championship with a 4-3 win over United South Central of Wells in the quarterfinals and a 7-0 victory over Crookston in the semifinals. Junior Mallory Shellum, who was playing No. 1 singles for St. James in the quarterfinals, faced the biggest challenge when senior Andrea Allis took her to three sets. Shellum held on, however, and won 6-4, 6-7 (8-10), 6-1. In the semifinals, St. James' No. 2 and No. 3 doubles matches both went to three sets with the Saints emerging victorious in both of them.

In other quarterfinal action, Staples-Motley defeated Virginia 6-1, and Crookston beat Litchfield 4-3.

Staples-Motley earned third-place honors after defeating Crookston 5-2. The Eagles of Rochester Lourdes took home the consolation hardware after beating United South Central 6-1.

In the singles competition, junior Alexa Palen won her first singles championship after defeating teammate, sophomore Courtney Rust, 6-1, 6-2. This was Palen's second title overall. In 2005, she claimed the doubles championship with Rachel Tiegs.

Rust may have had the tougher road to the championship. In the semifinals, she needed three sets and two tie-breakers to defeated defending champion, sophomore Brenna Kelly of Mounds Park Academy. The final score of that match-up was 6-7 (5-7), 6-4, 7-6 (7-3).

In the third-place match, sophomore Taylor Washington of Mounds Park Academy defeated teammate sophomore Brenna Kelly 6-2, 6-3. Staples-Motley senior Katie Edin earned consolation honors by defeating senior Andrea Allis of United South Central 6-2, 6-4.

Senior Beth Larson and eighth-grader Amber Washington of Mounds Park Academy earned a second consecutive doubles title with their 6-1, 6-4 defeat of St. James senior Nikki Stenzel and junior Danielle Munsterman.

Larson and Washington started the tournament with a 6-4, 6-1 victory over junior Katelyn Dubbelde and senior Melissa Rasmussen of Yellow Medicine East of Granite Falls. They moved on and defeated senior Sarah Rossman and junior Mary Utz of Rochester Lourdes 6-1, 6-2. In they semifinals, they met sophomore Abby Fragodt and senior MacKenzie Weber of Benson/KMS for a second consecutive year. Again, Larson and Washington emerged victoriously and advanced with a 6-0, 6-1 victory.

Fragodt and Weber of Benson/KMS, who finished fourth last year, claimed third place after defeating New London-Spicer seniors Angie Wiegmann and Megan Seipel 6-1, 6-1. Consolation honors were awarded to the Staples-Motley team of seniors Sara Dezell and Miranda Milless. They defeated senior Kirsten Seeland and junior Mary Allen of The Blake School of Minneapolis 2-6, 6-3, 7-6 (7-3).

Class AA

In the Class AA tournament, Edina earned its 11th consecutive title and its 26th overall with a 7-0 victory over Mounds View. The Hornets built a quick 3-0 lead and senior Shehan Ghanci and junior Maria Bryan clinched the victory with a win at No. 2 doubles. They defeated junior Kristin Thompson and ninth-grader Laurel Krebsbach 6-3, 6-1.

Only two matches went to three sets: ninth-grader Mollie Meldahl defeated eighth-grader Melanie Yates 6-3, 4-6, 6-3 at No. 3 singles, and junior twins Caitlin and Chloe Cunagin beat junior Jodi VanDeRiet and senior Ellen Gutzwiller 6-2, 2-6, 7-5 at No. 3 doubles.

In the quarterfinals, Edina defeated Elk River 6-1. The Hornets won all three doubles matches and three of the singles matches. Their lone setback came at No. 2 singles where sophomore Cassandra Brown defeated senior Megan Gaard 6-4, 6-3.

Edina advanced and faced the Spartans of Rochester Mayo for a second consecutive year in the semifinals. After winning handily 7-0 last year, the Hornets faced a bigger challenge this year and escaped with a 4-3 victory. Rochester Mayo took Edina to three sets in three matches and won all of them: senior Caitlin Harper won at No. 2 singles; junior Erin Kappers won at No. 3 singles; and senior Emily Roediger and sophomore Sophie Charlton won at No. 3 doubles. 2007 REVIEW (Continued from page 307)

Minnetonka ninth-grader Aria Lambert defeated Mounds View senior Erin Gudul at No. 1 singles in straight sets, and the Skippers also won at No. 1 doubles.

Rochester Mayo beat Stillwater Area 7-0 and Minnetonka defeated Academy of Holy Angels of Richfield 5-2 in the two remaining quarterfinals.

The Spartans of Rochester Mayo rebounded to win third-place honors for a second consecutive year. They defeated Minnetonka 6-1. In the consolation championship, Elk River handed Bemidji a 5-2 loss.

In the individual competition, Burnsville senior Niltooli Wilkins won her first title. Wilkins, who had finished as the runner-up for the past two seasons, defeated Minnetonka ninth-grader Aria Lambert 6-2, 6-7 (4-7), 7-6 (7-5) in a three-hour battle.

Wilkins dominated in the first set, but Lambert started to shorten points and force Wilkins into errors in the second. With the score tied 6-6, the tie-breaker started with Wilkins winning the first four points. But Lambert stayed calm, won the next seven points, and forced a third set. Again, Wilkins built the early lead but Lambert rallied to force a second tie-breaker. This time, Lambert pulled ahead with a 4-1 advantage before Wilkins settled down and reeled off six of the final seven points for the win.

Wilkins started this year's title run with a 7-5, 6-0 victory over senior Dana VanBruggen of Buffalo. She moved on and defeated senior Molly Geske of Cretin-Derham Hall of St. Paul 6-1, 6-0 in the quarterfinals and senior Michelle Weerasinghe of Edina 7-6 (2), 6-0 in the semifinals.

Weerasinghe of Edina emerged as the third-place winner after Hopkins senior Kathryn Schmidt was forced to withdraw due to an injury. Buffalo senior Dana VanBruggen defeated Rochester Century senior Emily Rogers 7-6 (10-8), 6-2 in the consolation championship.

Rochester Mayo junior Erin Kappers and sophomore Emilie Renault, last year's third-place doubles team, earned a three-set 6-3, 2-6, 6-2 win in the championship match over eighth-graders Melanie Yates and Tacy Lay of Mounds View. Kappers and Renault defeated last year's doubles champions, Edina seniors Megan Gaard and Emily Warner, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2 in the semifinals.

Kappers and Renault began the tournament with a 6-1, 6-0 win over Stillwater Area seniors Ashley Dace and Anna Mahnke. In the quarterfinals, they defeated seniors Stacy Hegland and Maren Holstad of St. Michael-Albertville 6-1, 6-0.

Gaard and Warner rebounded to defeat sophomores Jory Kircher and Mary Ellen Donovan of Rochester Century 7-5, 6-1 in the third-place match. Mounds View senior Christine Muller and sophomore Kelly Humphrey won the consolation title over Edina senior Shehan Ghanchi and junior Maria Bryan 6-4, 6-0.

The 2007 State Girls' Tennis Tournament was played October 24-27. All rounds of the Class AA tournament were conducted at the Baseline Tennis Center on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis. The Class A tournament was held at the Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center in Minneapolis.

Fairmont, Rosemount race to first team titles; Two all-time records set

By Ellen Giloy

The Fairmont Cardinals (Class A) and the Rosemount Irish (Class AA) both won their first titles at this year's State Track and Field Meet. The Cardinals finished 19 points ahead of the runners-up from Glencoe-Silver Lake, and the Irish placed five points ahead of the second-place team from Irondale of New Brighton.

Two new all-time records were set at the meet. Junior Zachary Mellon of Buffalo claimed his second consecutive crown in the 800-meter run with a time of 1:49.69, and an Apple Valley team completed the 4x800 relay in 7:45.31. That all-senior team was comprised of Nick Metzger, Spencer Vadner, Mike Hutton, and Nick Hutton.

Class A

The Fairmont Cardinals, who earned runner-up honors in 2006 and 2007, won their first title at the 2008 state tournament. They had 52 points and the defending champions from Glencoe-Silver Lake had 33. St. Croix Lutheran of West St. Paul, which tied for sixth place last year, improved to claim third-place honors with 32 points.

Senior Paul Mallory was the key factor in Fairmont's victory. He won the 110- and 300-meter hurdles and also anchored the 4x400 relay team that took top honors. His time was 14.51 in the 110 hurdles and 38.57 in the 300 hurdles. The winning relay time was 3:22.88. Seniors Trevor Bulock, Jesse Walters, and Jeff Janssen rounded out that team.

Janssen added a fourth-place finish in the 800-meter run and Mallory placed eighth in the triple jump. Fairmont's final points came from the 4x800 relay team that placed third. That team was made up of Bulock, Walters, Janssen, and sophomore Josh Koehler.

In addition to Mallory, three other competitors also won two titles apiece. Senior Donny Wasinger of Winona Cotter claimed his second consecutive titles in the 1600- and 3200-meter runs. He also set a new Class A record in the 1600 with his time of 4:15.20. The previous record of 4:15.71 was set by Chris Erichsen of Kingsland of Spring Valley in 2004.

Senior Derek Bredy of West Central Area of Barrett claimed two field titles: he won the long jump at 22 feet and one-quarter inch, and the triple jump at 46 feet and one inch. Senior Micah Hegerle was the final Class A individual to win multiple titles. He claimed top honors in the shot put with a distance of 56 feet and 11 and one-quarter inches, and in the discus with a distance of 185 feet and six inches. It was also his second consecutive gold medal in the discus.

Two relay teams and one additional individ-

Providence Academy, Eastview earn first team championships; Three all-time records set

By Ellen Giloy

Two teams claimed their first titles at the 2008 State Track and Field Meet: Providence Academy won the Class A crown with 55 points, and Eastview of Apple Valley claimed the Class AA championship with 74 points.

Two new all-time records were also set during the Class AA meet. Wayzata senior Jordan Helgren set the new standard in the triple jump at 39 feet and three inches with one her final jumps, and Grand Rapids senior Jessica Cagle won the discus with a distance of 162 feet and four inches. Helgren's win in the triple jump was also her third consecutive.

Class A

Providence Academy, which is a co-op between Providence Academy of Plymouth and Heritage Christian Academy of Maple Grove, won its first team title with 55 points. The victory was an improvement on last year's ninth-place finish.

Three different sprinters paced the Providence Academy victory, with the only two first-place showings coming in the 4x100 and 4x200 relays. Senior Ellie Jensen and juniors Leighton Lerum and Samantha Zopf competed on both of the winning teams. Senior Katie Huot rounded out the 4x100 team, and sophomore Rebekah Dyrud completed the 4x200 squad. The winning times were 49.31 and 1:43.63, respectively.

Zopf also finished as the runner-up in the 100-meter dash, while Jensen and Lerum placed third in the 200- and the 400-meter dashes, respectively. The 4x800 team of juniors Liz Chambers and Kit Chambers and seniors Molly Doboszanski and Katie Finley earned the final points for Providence Academy. They placed fifth with a time of 9:41.29.

Lake Park-Audubon improved two places to earn runner-up honors with 48 points. The Perham Yellowjackets, who tied for sixth place in 2007, finished third with 40 points.

Junior Ashley Tingelstad of Lake Park-Audubon and junior Linda Keller of Paynesville Area were the only individual competitors to win multiple titles. Tingelstad swept the sprints, posting a time of 12.28 in the 100, 24.93 in the 200, and a Class A record of 55.83 in the 400. The previous record of 56.19 was set by Anne Hillier of The Blake School of Minneapolis in the 2001 preliminaries.

Keller, who also claimed the Class A individual cross country title this year, won the 1600- and the 3200-meter runs. Her time in the 1600 was 5:05.74, and her time in the 3200 was 11:03.29.

2008 REVIEW

Three individuals were successful in defending their 2007 titles: senior Leslie Thomas of DeLaSalle of Minneapolis won her second consecutive title in the 100-meter hurdles with a time of 15.21; senior Toni Tollefson of Lake Park-Audubon claimed her second consecutive crown in the high jump with a height of five feet and 7 inches; and senior Lyndie Bosshart of St. James won her second consecutive gold medal in the pole vault with a height of eleven feet and six inches. Bosshart also tied the Class A record with her winning vault. Amanda Frame of Pine Island set the original standard in 2001.

Tingelstad and Bosshart were the only competitors to set or tie Class A records.

Class AA

Eastview of Apple Valley claimed its first team championship with 74 points at the Class AA meet. The Lightning, who placed fourth last year, finished 14 points ahead of the runners-up from Mounds View. Apple Valley was third with 50 points. In 2007, Mounds View was eighth and Apple Valley was 20th.

Alex Beckman and Amanda Beckman and sophomore Mallory Burnham completed that team.

Eastview also placed teams in the 4x400 and 4x800 relays. The Lightning team of junior Kayla Willer, ninth-grader Anne Ferguson, and seniors Christine Fries and McKenzie Melander was third in the 4x800, and the team of Ferguson, Elliott, Fries, and sophomore Taryn Dwyer raced to a sixth-place finish in the 4x400.

Alex and Amanda Beckman added fourth- and eighth-place finishes, respectively, in the 100-meter dash, and Anne Ferguson was seventh in the 800-meter run.

Senior Kjrsten Jacobson and Amanda Beckman put the finishing touches on the Eastview victory in the long jump. Jacobson placed fifth and Beckman followed in sixth.

Among the other competitors, senior Jordan Helgren of Wayzata won her third consecutive title in the triple jump and her second in the long jump. Her winning distance in the long jump was 18 feet and 10 and one-half inches, and in the triple jump it was 40 feet and eight and one-half inches. Although Helgren's winning triple jump was wind-aided, she set a new Class AA and all-time record of 39 feet and three inches with one of her qualifying jumps. Helgren set the previous record of 38 feet and 10 and one-quarter inches at last year's state meet.

Kylie Peterson, a senior at Apple Valley, was the only other individual to win multiple titles. She claimed her second consecutive in the 100-meter dash and her first in the 200-meter dash. Her respective times were 11.79 (wind-aided) and 24.70. On the first day of competition, Peterson also set a set Class AA and all-time record of 11.88 in the 100-meter race. The previous record of 11.93 was set by Vanessa Clarida of Bloomington Kennedy in 2002.

Eden Prairie was the only team to successfully defend a relay title. The Eagles won their second consecutive 4x800 championship with a time of 9:16.50. Seniors Rachel Edwards and Laura Platner competed on both teams with ninth-graders Laura Lawton and Megan Platner rounding out this year's squad.

One additional Class AA and all-time record was set this year by Grand Rapids senior Jessica Cagle. She broke a 15-year-old record in the discus with her winning throw of 162 feet and four inches. Sandy Fuchs of Rocori of Cold Spring set the previous record of 156 feet in 1993.

The 2008 State Track and Field Meet was conducted on June 6-7 at Hamline University in St. Paul. Total paid attendance for the combined girls' and boys' event was 11,393.

VISUAL ARTS

Section Festivals for Class A and Class AA schools are sponsored by the MSHSL. Each participating school may enter up to two artworks in each of six categories: Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Mixed Media, Crafts, and Print Making. 2006-2007 was the fifth year of this program. Over 150 schools participated, with close to 1,000 artworks entered at the festivals.

Student's artwork is judged, and based on established criteria, and the piece may earn either an Excellent or a Superior rating. Listed below are those students who earned a Superior rating. Also listed are those who received the Best at Site Award. Each judge was able to select one artwork to receive this award, which is part of the Spotlight on the Arts program sponsored by Wells Fargo.

Jessica Bregel of New London-Spicer received 'Best at Site' honors for her artwork "Ji" in the Printmaking category at the 5A Visual Arts Festival. She also received 'Best at Site' ratings for her entries in the Drawing and Painting categories.

Bethlehem Academy, Marshall win in Class A, Class AA; Shakopee wins first Class AAA title in first appearance

By Ellen Giloy

The Shakopee Sabers were the only team to claim their first title at the 2007 State Volleyball Tournament. The Sabers, who were making their first tournament appearance, claimed the Class AAA title after defeating Andover 3-0.

In Class AA, the Marshall Tigers won their second championship after staging a 3-2 come-from-behind victory over St. Cloud Cathedral. Bethlehem Academy took home its third Class A crown after beating Windom Area 3-1.

Class A

The Cardinals of Bethlehem Academy (25-8) claimed their third title after defeating Windom Area 3-1 (25-17, 22-25, 25-19, 25-19). Bethlehem Academy was making its sixth appearance overall and competed in the championship game in every appearance. They won their previous titles in 2003 and 2005. The Eagles of Windom Area (31-3) were making their 10th overall appearance, but first since 1999. They won one previous championship in 1988.

The two teams battled evenly throughout the first two games, but Bethlehem Academy was able to assert its dominance in the third. Windom Area was sending big serves over the net, but the Cardinals were receiving well and they went up 18-7. The Eagles battled back and reeled off nine unanswered points to pull within 18-16, but the Cardinals rallied again and won 25-19 on an attack error by Windom Area senior Amy Robinson.

In the fourth game, the score was tied at 10-10 before Bethlehem Academy went ahead 18-12. The Eagles never got closer than six points after that and the Cardinals won 25-19.

Bethlehem Academy, which includes students from Discovery Public School of Faribault, finished the game with 42 kills to Windom Area's 50. Sophomore Holly Hafemeyer led the Cardinals with 14 kills and senior Liz Schlobohm had 19 assists and 18 digs. Senior Casey Christensen and ninth-grader Courtney Ysker each had 12 kills for Windom Area. Junior Megan Ysker added 30 assists and 14 digs for the Eagles.

Bethlehem Academy defeated the Northern Freeze, a co-op between Tri-County of Karlstad and Marshall County Central of Newfolds, 3-0 (25-18, 25-21, 25-19) in the quarterfinals. Hafemeyer again led the Cardinals with 12 kills and Schlobohm added 24 assists.

In the semifinals, the Cardinals breezed past the Mayer Lutheran Crusaders 3-0 (25-13, 25-12, 25-13). Bethlehem Academy's Holly Hafemeyer had 18 kills against the Crusaders and teammates Liz Schlobohm and sophomore KariAnne Ness added 16 assists apiece.

Windom Area started the tournament with a 3-0 (25-7, 25-14, 25-15) victory over Wheaton. The Eagles held Wheaton to .077 hitting and notched 17 service aces. Senior Malori Paplow posted a team-high nine kills and seven assists for Windom Area. The Eagles advanced and defeated Chisholm 3-0 (25-15, 25-14, 25-5) in the semifinals. Megan Ysker led the Eagles with 14 assists and 10 kills, and Casey Christensen chipped in 10 kills.

Mayer Lutheran took third-place honors with a hard-fought 3-1 (25-10, 25-20, 22-25, 31-29) victory over Chisholm. The Crusaders, who had 61 kills to the Bluestreaks' 43, were led by Dana Schlottman and senior Courtney Kelzer. They both had 16 kills and Kelzer added a team-high 17 digs.

The Eagles of Wheaton won the consolation title. They defeated the Northern Freeze 3-1 (25-21, 27-25, 21-25, 25-14). Three Wheaton players hit double-digits with their kills: senior Whitney Boom led the Eagles with 12 and seniors Kaitlin Schmitz and Nicole Thiel added 10 apiece.

Class AA

The perennial qualifiers from Marshall (26-6) added a second championship trophy to their cache after coming from behind to defeat St. Cloud Cathedral 3-2 (21-25, 23-25, 25-22, 25-17, 15-10). The Tigers, who took the consolation title in Class AAA last year, were making their 19th appearance overall. They won their only other title in 2004.

St. Cloud Cathedral dominated the first game, winning 25-21. Trailing 23-22 in the second, the Crusaders scored three unanswered points and took the commanding 2-0 lead. But the Tigers weren't ready to give up and stepped up their aggressive play. In the third game, the score was tied at 19-19 before Marshall took a tenuous 21-19 lead on a kill from sophomore Kayla Wallerich.

With the Crusaders spinning and the momentum shifting, Marshall went up 19-13 in the fourth game. St. Cloud Cathedral battled back within 20-17, but the Tigers reeled off six unanswered points for the victory. The score went back and forth in the deciding stanza, but Marshall captured the final three points and won on an attack error by Cathedral junior Anna Zyvolski.

Senior Anna Full had 23 kills and three blocks for Marshall and sophomore Kelsey Deragisch added 32 assists. Junior Shay Birath and sophomore Rachel Westby each had 19 digs for the Tigers. Anna Zyvolski led St. Cloud Cathedral with 30 kills, 22 digs, and three blocks. Junior Nina Lindquist had 46 assists for the Crusaders.

St. Cloud Cathedral (33-1), which hadn't been forced to a fifth game all season, was making its ninth tournament appearance. The Crusaders claimed the consolation title in 2006 and were still in the hunt for their first title.

Marshall started its championship run with a 3-1 (25-1, 18-25, 25-21, 25-22) victory over the Hibbing Bluejackets. Anna Full had 19 kills for the Tigers and Kayla Wallerich added another 11. Wallerich also had 20 assists.

Full's 18 kills and Wallerich's 23 assists helped Marshall defeat Stewartville 3-1 (25-23, 20-25, 25-22, 25-17) in the semifinals. Both teams finished the game with 50 kills and 47 assists.

On the other side of the bracket, St. Cloud Cathedral faced the first-time qualifiers from Visitation of Mendota Heights in the opening round. The Crusaders won 3-0 (25-11, 25-21, 25-19) and were led by Anna Zyvolski, who had a game-high 21 kills. St. Cloud Cathedral scored another victory in the semifinals when the team defeated Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton 3-0 (25-20, 25-22, 25-21). Zyvolski again led the Crusaders with 33 kills. Nina Lindquist added 44 assists for Cathedral and senior Alex Lenzen had 12 digs.

Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton defeated Stewartville 3-2 (25-18, 22-25, 19-25, 25-13, 15-11) in the third-place match-up. Senior Jennifer Lopez had 29 kills for the Rebels. Senior Emily Liljestrang had 45 digs for Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton and sophomore Morgan Mathison had 27 assists and four aces.

The defending champions from Jordan rebounded to take consolation honors. The Jaguars defeated Hibbing 3-0 (25-19, 25-23, 25-23). Jordan had 44 kills to Hibbing's 30, with 30 coming from junior Brittany Chambers. Chambers also led the Jaguars with 15 digs and senior Amanda Dietel had 36 assists.

Class AAA

The Shakopee Sabers (31-1), who were making their debut appearance at the tournament, made short work of the Andover Huskies (27-5) in the Class AAA championship game. The Sabers defeated the Huskies 3-0 (25-19, 25-9, 25-17). This was the third tournament appearance for Andover, which has not won a state title.

Shakopee set the tone of the match early. The Sabers played Andover close in the first game, but went up 22-16 and won 25-19. In the second, they cruised to an 18-5 lead and held the Huskies to nine points. Andover rallied to keep things close in the third game, but after being tied 9-9, Shakopee scored three unanswered points and never looked back.

Senior Maggie Geske paced the Sabers with 18 digs and 17 kills, and senior Jessica Menden added 35 assists. Sophomore Ashley Wittman had 12 kills and 11 digs for Shakopee, and sophomore Elizabeth Benusa had an additional 13 digs. Senior Megan Carlson led Andover with 16 digs and 13 kills, and junior Sarah Kurtovich added 16 assists.

In the quarterfinals, Shakopee defeated Hopkins 3-0 (25-13, 25-12, 25-16). Maggie Geske had 20 kills and 16 digs against the Royals, and the Sabers hit .377 while holding the Royals to .058.

In what many considered the championship match-up, Shakopee met Lakeville North in the semifinals. The two teams split an earlier season series, but Shakopee won this one 3-1 (26-24, 19-25, 25-23, 25-21). The Sabers, led by Ashley Wittman's 33 kills, wrapped up the third game

Megan Carlson finished the game with 18 kills and 17 digs for the Huskies. Junior teammate Shannyn Rosendahl also had 17 digs in the victory.

In the semifinals, Andover avenged an earlier loss by defeating the Woodbury Royals 3-0 (25-19, 25-22, 25-19). Carlson, who will play for Marshall University next year, again led her squad with 19 kills. Junior Lauren Ciperly added 15 kills and sophomore Nicole Husenfeldt had 21 assists.

Lakeville North rebounded to take third-place honors after defeating Woodbury 3-0 (25-11, 25-7, 25-17). Senior Kelsey Brandl paced the Panthers with 16 kills and junior Leah Johnson had 35 assists. Senior Taylor Fieldsted and junior Amy Braun added 18 and 15 digs, respectively, for Lakeville North.

21, 25-14) in the consolation match-up. The stats were close throughout with both teams finishing with 76 digs. Senior Alli Rice led Owatonna with a game-high 20 kills and 27 digs. Senior Greta Mattison had 12 kills in the victory and senior Gina Nowacki added another 13 digs.

Apple Valley wins 16th title and five Eagles win individual gold; Six wrestlers earn third gold medals

By Ellen Giloy & Steve Anderson

The Eagles of Apple Valley (Class AAA) were the only team to successfully defend their 2007 title at the 2008 State Wrestling Tournament. The Eagles claimed their third consecutive title and their 16th overall when they defeated Albert Lea Area 57-6.

In Class A, Jackson County Central won its third championship after cruising to a 42-10 victory over Canby. Simley of Inver Grove Heights captured the Class AA crown after winning a 30-28 thriller over Perham. It was the fifth title for the Spartans.

Apple Valley also moved to the top of the all-time winners list when five of its wrestlers earned titles this year. The Eagles now have 52 individual champions overall.

Six wrestlers earned coveted third gold medals at this year's tournament. They were: junior David Thorn of St. Michael-Albertville; ninth-grader Destin McCauley and senior Matt Mincey of Apple Valley; senior Derek Schreiner of Wayzata; senior Jake Deitchler of Anoka; and senior Sam Maresh of Champlin Park.

Class A

In Class A, the Huskies of Jackson County Central (26-6) breezed through the tournament and captured their third title after defeating Canby 42-10. The Huskies, who were making their eighth appearance overall, earned their 1999 and 2000 titles as a co-op with Southwest Star Concept of Okabena. They dropped from Class AA to Class A this year, and the victory was an improvement on last year's consolation championship.

The Canby Lancers finished their season with a record of 29-3. This was their 27th tournament appearance overall.

Jackson County Central started quickly in the championship match with wins from ninth-grader Bronson Steuber and seventh-grader Spencer Johnson at 103 and 112 pounds, respectively. Sophomore Taylor Menke pushed the Huskies' lead to 13-4 when he pinned junior Brett Citrowski at 125 pounds. Seniors Cole Von Ohlen (130 pounds) and Travis Rutt (189 pounds) both added technical falls for Jackson County Central.

The Huskies started their championship run with a 45-25 victory over the first-time qualifiers from Kenyon-Wanamingo. Jackson County Central trailed 18-5 after the first five weight classes, but a pin by Von Ohlen at 135 pounds sparked the comeback. After that, the Huskies had pins in every weight class from 145 pounds through 189 pounds.

In the semifinals, Jackson County Central defeated the perennial qualifiers from Frazee

40-22. The Hornets were within 28-22 with two weight classes remaining, but seniors Caleb Lines (215 pounds) and Joe Skow (285 pounds) both forced falls for the Huskies' final margin of victory.

On the other side of the bracket, Canby defeated the co-op of Madelia/Truman/Martin Luther 37-23 in the quarterfinals. The teams battled through the first 10 weight classes, but a pin by senior Jon Verhelst at 171 pounds turned the tide for the Lancers and gave them a 28-19 advantage.

Canby then defeated New York Mills 36-18 in the semifinals. Senior Daniel Deslauriers (130 pounds), Verhelst (160 pounds), and junior Brad Wollum (285 pounds) all had pins for the Lancers.

Third-place honors went to the Frazee Hornets after they defeated New York Mills 39-18. The Hornets went up 15-6 after back-to-back pins from junior Mike Lucero at 125 pounds and senior Isaac Galbrecht at 130 pounds, and they never looked back.

Kenyon-Wanamingo rebounded to win the consolation title with a 36-19 victory over Madelia/Truman/Martin Luther. Sophomore Drew Lexvold put the Knights up 13-3 with his pin at 125 pounds, and senior Nathan Lexvold (135 pounds) and ninth-grader Luke Hainka (285 pounds) also added pins for Kenyon-Wanamingo.

Jackson County Central also proved to be a big winner in the individual tournament. The Huskies finished with four individual champions: senior Cole Von Ohlen (44-1) at 130 pounds; senior Torey Stewart (42-3) at 145 pounds; senior Travis Rutt (45-1) at 171 pounds; and senior Caleb Lines (44-3) at 189 pounds. It was also the second consecutive title for Von Ohlen, who won the Class AA title at 119 pounds in 2007, and for Rutt, who claimed the Class AA crown at 160 pounds last year.

Kevin Steinhaus, a junior at Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg, was the only other wrestler to successfully defend a 2007 title. Steinhaus (47-0) won at 152 pounds, after claiming the 145-pound title last year.

In addition to Steinhaus, two other competitors also won titles with unblemished records: senior Nathan Lexvold (42-0) of Kenyon-Wanamingo at 135 pounds; and senior Parker Brand (44-0) of Lewiston-Altura/Rushford-Peterson at 215 pounds.

There were no three-time medalists in Class A this year.

Class AA

The Simley Spartans (31-2) won a 30-28 thriller over Perham to claim their fifth title. In addition to this year, the Spartans also won three consecutive titles between 1987 and 1989, and again in 1992. This was their 14th appearance overall; their last was in 2005.

The Perham Yellowjackets, who also earned runner-up honors last year, were making their fourth overall appearance. Their final record was 30-1.

In the championship bout, Simley went up 21-12 after an 11-3 victory by senior John Prokopowicz at 140 pounds and a technical fall by junior Jack Barnes at 145 pounds. Perham was not ready to give up, however, and junior Nathan Schmitz tied the score at 24-24 after he pinned Simley's Eulisses Sanchez at 189 pounds. At 215 pounds, Perham junior Casey Sazama defeated senior Cullen Berg and the Yellowjackets owned a 28-24 advantage.

Enter Simley junior Charlie Gelhaye. Without a second thought, he pinned eighth-grader Jesse Hein and secured the victory for the Spartans.

Kevin O'Brien of Becker (top) completed an undefeated season (41-0) with his 2-1 victory over Tee Baker of Big Lake in the Class AA 145-pound individual championship.

In the quarterfinals, Simley handled Windom/Mountain Lake/Butterfield-Odin 44-21. The Spartans built a 17-0 lead after sweeping the first four weight classes, and pins from sophomore Torrie Morgan (152 pounds) and junior Mic Berg (160 pounds) extended their advantage to 32-13.

Simley advanced and beat Milaca/Faith Christian 35-18 in the semifinals. Morgan had the only pin in the victory. He defeated senior Mike Crain at 152 pounds.

Perham started its tournament trek with a 36-21 victory over the four-time defending champions from St. Michael-Albertville. When junior Jake Horn pinned sophomore Taylor Doll at 145 pounds, St. Michael-Albertville pulled within 16-15. The Knights couldn't capitalize on the momentum, however, and Perham won the next five weight classes to go up 36-15.

In the second semifinal, Perham defeated Scott West — a co-op comprised of Belle Plaine, Jordan, and Holy Family Academy of Belle Plaine — 29-19. Sophomore Charlie Schmitz provided the spark when he defeated senior Gabe Dvorak at 152 pounds. That gave Perham a narrow 16-15 lead, and the Yellowjackets went on to win the next three weight classes.

The Panthers of Scott West took third-place honors after defeating Milaca/Faith Christian 36-26. The Wolves won the last three weight classes, but it wasn't enough to overcome a 36-12 deficit.

Foley defeated St. Michael-Albertville 28-22 to take consolation honors. The score was tied 6-6 after four weight classes, but a pin by senior Jacob Bowland at 130 pounds ignited a 12-point run for the Falcons.

Junior David Thorn (43-2) of St. Michael-Albertville was the only three-time individual champion in Class AA. He moved from 112 pounds to 125 pounds this year.

In addition to Thorn, senior Joe Selly (43-2) of Montgomery-Lonsdale/Le Center was the only other wrestler to successfully defend a 2007 title. He won at 135 pounds this year, after winning at 130 in 2007.

Three wrestlers won championships with perfect records: junior Kevin O'Brien (41-0) of Becker at 145 pounds; senior Drew Ross (39-0) of Fergus Falls at 189 pounds; and senior Matt Groff (37-0) of Mahtomedi at 215 pounds.

Watertown-Mayer was the only Class AA school to produce two individual champions: sophomore Drew Fleming (44-2) at 103 pounds and senior Eric Reinert (41-3) at 160 pounds.

Class AAA

Apple Valley (37-1) won its 16th state championship in 27 appearances after defeating Albert Lea Area (27-8) 57-6. It was the third consecutive title for the Eagles, who also won championships in 1983, 1985, 1986, 1991, 1994, 1995, 1997, and 1999-2004.

Albert Lea Area, which includes students from Glenville-Emmons and Alden-Conger, was making its ninth tournament appearance. The Tigers placed sixth in 2007.

Eighth-grader Eric Devos started Apple Valley's championship bout with a technical fall over ninth-grader Cory Hansen at 103 pounds. After that, it was business as usual for the Eagles, as four of Devos' teammates had pins: ninth-grader Destin McCauley at 119 pounds; junior Jarret Hoepfner at 145 pounds; sophomore Taylor Lehman at 171 pounds; and senior David Maxwell at 189 pounds.

The Eagles started their title run with a 54-12 victory over the first-time qualifiers from Tartan of Oakdale. The Eagles posted wins in the first 10 weight classes, including five pins, and were up 49-0 before Tartan senior Aaron Samuelson defeated senior David Maxwell at 171 pounds.

In the semifinals, Apple Valley knocked off Coon Rapids 45-15. Eric Devos had a pin over ninth-grader Kahron Nix at 103 pounds, and then the next six Apple Valley wrestlers had technical falls. Coon Rapids put their first points on the board when senior Scott Gorham notched an 8-5 win over senior Evan Gonzo at 145 pounds.

Albert Lea Area defeated Prior Lake 28-22 in the quarterfinals. The teams were tied heading into the heavyweight bout, but Tiger senior Andrew Peterson secured the victory when he pinned senior Nick Norton.

The Tigers had an easier time in the semifinals as they beat Centennial of Circle Pines 40-13. Albert Lea Area posted wins in the first three weight classes and was up 24-3 after eight. Junior Ethan Reed had the only pin for the Tigers; he defeated sophomore Patrick Hughes at 215 pounds.

Coon Rapids won third-place honors after defeating Centennial 50-12. Senior Shamus O'Grady's pin of senior Don Pieschke at 160 pounds sparked a run of three consecutive pins, and the Cardinals cruised to victory.

The Lakers of Prior Lake overwhelmed Tartan 48-9 for the consolation title. Four of the Lakers' wrestlers had pins in the victory: junior Levi Kropp at 125 pounds; junior Chris Stevermer at 145 pounds; junior Eric Muldoon at 152 pounds; and senior Nick Norton at 189 pounds.

In the individual competition, Apple Valley set another tournament record when five of its wrestler won gold medals. That put their school total at 52, which surpassed both Blue Earth Area and Robbinsdale, who have 50 apiece. The Eagles' winners were: eighth-grader Eric Devos (46-0) at 103 pounds; ninth-grader Destin McCauley (45-0) at 119 pounds; junior Justin LaValle (43-4) at 130 pounds; senior Matt Mincey (45-1) at 135 pounds; and sophomore Tyler Lehman (34-5) at 171 pounds. It was the second consecutive title for Devos, who won in the same weight class last year.

With their victories, McCauley and Mincey also claimed their third gold medals overall. Three other competitors also won their third titles: Wayzata senior Derek Schreiner (41-0) at 140 pounds; Anoka senior Jake Deitchler (38-0) at 152 pounds; and Champlin Park senior Sam Maresh (46-0) at 285 pounds. Maresh was the only grappler to compete in the same weight class this year. McCauley won at 112 pounds last year, and Mincey won at 125 pounds. Schreiner took top honors at 119 pounds in 2007, and Deitchler won at 145 pounds.

Prior Lake senior Jake Kahnke (46-0) was the only other competitor to win a second consecutive crown. He won at 215 pounds, after competing at 189 pounds in 2007.

Coon Rapids also had multiple medal-winners at this year's tournament. Junior Carter Adams (41-2) won at 145 pounds and senior Shamus O'Grady (42-3) took top honors at 160 pounds.

Rosemount senior Billy Morgan (40-0) was the final wrestler to strike gold with an unblemished record. He won at 189 pounds.

The 2008 State Wrestling Tournament was conducted February 27 through March 1 at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul. Paid attendance for the tournament was 52,509.
