

<http://www.pca.state.mn.us/>

Water

Water is one of Minnesota's most abundant and precious resources. The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency helps protect our water by monitoring its quality, setting standards and controlling what may go into it.

Water Types and Programs

Watersheds

Surface Water

Groundwater

Impaired Waters and TMDLs

Stormwater

Wastewater

Nonpoint Source Issues

Clean Water Fund

Feedlots »

Permits and Rules

Water Rules

Water Rulemaking

Water Permits and Forms

Water Quality Standards »

The Water Governance Evaluation Project

Environmental Review »

Public Notices »

Monitoring and Reporting

Water Quality and Pollutants

Biological Monitoring of Water in Minnesota

Contaminated Sediments

Volunteer Water Monitoring

Surface Water Data

EDA: Environmental Data Access »

Resources

Publications

Pollution Prevention »

MPCA Training »

Minnesota Pollution Control Agency | 651-296-6300  800-657-3864  | webteam.pca@state.mn.us