Community Support Agriculture (CSA) farms continue to be a fast-growing direct-farm marketing and production model. Benefiting both consumers and farmers, it's easy to see why! Consumers get fresh, healthy, local food directly from the farm. Farmers have a known market for their products and income, allowing them to focus on what they do best – growing food!

CSA farms come in many different shapes, sizes and styles. It's important to spend some time researching different farms to find the right fit for you. They will vary in what they offer, how much it costs, delivery/pick up locations and the length of their season. Some farms offer member-only perks, like a weekly newsletter about what's in the share or on farm work days/visits. Some farms offer egg, meat, poultry or even flower add-ons.

In general, a CSA farm will sell subscriptions/memberships to their farm in the late winter or early spring, before planting begins. Members will pay before the season starts and then receive a weekly share of produce during the growing season, around 14-20 weeks. Most farms will offer a variety of share sizes. Many individuals split their shares with other individuals/families – this is fine, but know that splitting up the goodies will be up to you, not the farm! Shares are either picked up at the farm or delivered to a designated drop site.

It's important to understand that a CSA membership involves a shared risk and reward with the farmer. You will share in the bounty of crops that do well, but also risk any crop failure. This is a great discussion for you to have with the farms of your choice.

Use this quick list to find a farm near you – but also keep in mind many CSA farms deliver to locations outside of their city. You can also search for farms on our website using our drop site finder.

Quick List

Blueberries

Minnesota's blueberry season begins in southern Minnesota and gradually moves north. The season will typically last around 3 weeks starting near the 4th of July in southern Minnesota, with northern growers starting about 2 weeks later. The exact timing and length of the season depends on the weather and will vary from year to year.

Blueberries offer many health benefits. They contain very high levels of antioxidants, are high in fiber and vitamin C, vitamin A and very low in calories. Blueberries are often called a "brain food" because it is said they help improve memory. Recent research has shown blueberries can help keep cholesterol low, helps to prevent heart disease and more. With so many health benefits packed into this little fruit, we are really thankful they grow well in our state!

Many farms will offer pick your own (PYO), pre-picked or both. Conditions, hours and availability can vary from farm to farm and even day to day, so it is very important to call ahead or check the farm's website/Facebook page before visiting the farm.

Picking your own Blueberries

You'll be outside in the summer weather. Be sure to wear comfortable clothing and shoes and bring a hat, sunscreen and water.

Double check the availability of the farm. Conditions can change quickly – just like our weather!

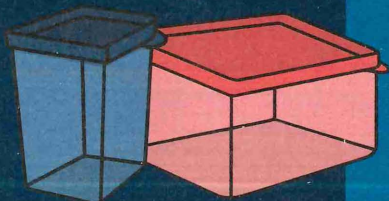

Also check to see if the farm provides picking containers or if you need to bring your own. If you need to bring your own, Tupperware around 3-4 inches deep work great. Gallon ice cream containers are nice too – they have handles!

Blueberries don't all ripen at one time. Only pick berries that are deep blue and easily separate from the plant.

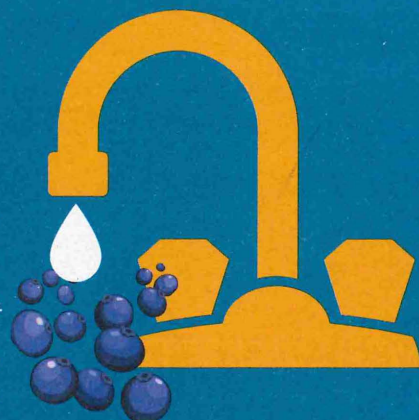

Hold the cluster in your hand and gently roll your thumb over the berries; ripe berries will separate from the plant.

Sort out twigs and leaves prior to refrigerating. Blueberries may be placed in deeper containers during picking and storing.

How long will your blueberries last?

Do not wash your berries until you are ready to use them! Berries have a natural protective coating that keeps them from spoiling. If you wash this off before immediate use, you will unintentionally cause them to start going bad. Pick through your berries and remove any overly soft fruit, stems or leaves. You can store them in your refrigerator for up to two weeks.

Freeze your blueberries!

Blueberries, like other berries, freeze really well. Once frozen, they will store for 10-12 months. So go ahead, get enough fresh blueberries to last you until next year! To enjoy them all year long, just follow these simply freezing tips:

- 1) When you are ready to freeze your berries, fill up a big bowl (or your sink) with cold water. Drop in the berries and swish them around gently for no more than 10 seconds before draining them in a colander. Place them on paper towels to dry completely. Remember, if you soak the berries for too long, they will absorb water and lose their taste.
- 2) Line a cookie sheet or pan with wax paper and lay your berries in a single layer (make sure they are not touching, you want to flash freeze them individually). Place the pan on a level freezer shelf for about 30 minutes.
- 3) Once all berries are frozen, put them in a freezer-safe plastic bag. Don't forget to label and date them! Flash freezing results in berries that hold their shape much longer when thawed. And, because they are individually frozen, they won't stick together – so you can grab a few for a smoothie, pancake batter, or to add to your yogurt without having to thaw the entire bag!

Important thawing tips!

To thaw them, simply place them in the refrigerator! Don't thaw blueberries if you're going to bake them into anything. The "melted" juice will turn your cakes, muffins, and other baked goods blue, and your pie will be runny. Toss each cup of frozen berries with 1 or 2 teaspoons of flour, then follow your recipe as usual! If you do thaw your frozen berries before use, put them in a mixing bowl and toss with 1 tablespoon sugar for each quart of berries, or they will be overly-tart when defrosted.

BLUEBERRIES

are a first-choice antioxidant food for lowering risk of heart disease and cancer

Berries are marvelous for health—high in vitamins, minerals and fiber, low in calories, free of fat. Yet Minnesota's climate poses a challenge to berry growers. That's why the University of Minnesota is drawing on decades of research experience to breed new varieties. Our blueberries, raspberries and strawberries are winter hardy, disease resistant and a delight to eat. It's one more way the future is being Made in Minnesota.

Minnesota is home to more than 600 vineyards and our Directory boasts a record-breaking 44 wineries! Minnesota wineries make the perfect day trip, weekend getaway or date-night activity. Some wineries are available for weddings, birthday dinners, retirement parties or other events. With Minnesota's beautiful landscapes, spring, summer and fall weather, and great tasting wines – it's no wonder why these wineries are great destinations and keep expanding!

Much of the growth to Minnesota's wine industry can be attributed to the University of Minnesota, which is recognized for having one of the top wine grape programs in the United States. They have developed four outstanding cold-hardy wine grapes: Frontenac, Frontenac Gris, La Crescent & Marquette. With a state-of-the-art enology lab and research winery, the University of Minnesota is a valuable resource for an industry that has its sights set on continued growth!

To learn more about these grapes, read on! To learn more about the wine industry, visit the Minnesota Grape Growers at: www.mnrapegrowers.com or the Minnesota Farm Winery Association at: www.mnwine.org.

Frontenac

Frontenac has proven to be a very disease resistant, productive, and cold hardy red wine variety. Its deep garnet color complements its distinctive cherry aroma and inviting palate of blackberry, black currant, and plum. Frontenac have been used successfully for a variety of wine styles including dry or semi-dry table wines, rosé, and fortified, port-style wine.

Frontenac Gris

Frontenac gris is the white wine version of Frontenac. Wines are typically intensely fruity, exhibiting dominant peach and tropical fruit flavors, especially pineapple, and hints of honey. Its bronze skin lends color to the juice, which results in wines ranging from pale gold to rich amber. A brilliant balance of fruit and acidity creates lively, refreshing wines. Unique and complex flavors make this an excellent grape for table, dessert, and ice wines. Frontenac gris has also shown well as a dry to off-dry table wine.

La Crescent

La Crescent's intense nose of apricot, peach, and citrus lends itself to superior quality off-dry or sweet white wines. Produced in a Germanic style, La Crescent wine is reminiscent of Vignoles or Riesling. With its lush aromatics and crisp acidity, La Crescent shows best as a semi-sweet to dessert white wine.

Marquette

Marquette wines are complex, with attractive ruby color, pronounced tannins, and desirable notes of cherry, berry, black pepper, and spice on both nose and palate. As a red wine, Marquette is best when utilized as a medium-bodied red table wine and represents a new standard in cold hardy viticulture and enology.

The grape and wine industry has added
$59 MILLION
annually to Minnesota's economy since 2011

Minnesota has five
WINE TRAILS
to enjoy—since the U of M introduced cold hardy grapes

Minnesota has
Over 40
wineries
—up from just two in 1990

Great wine from Minnesota? Meet the Frontenac family. These grapes go into award winning red, rosé and port wines. Or consider the fine La Crescent and Marquette grapes. University of Minnesota scientists bred all these cold-hardy grape varieties. And we invite you to sample them at farm wineries along the wine trails of our state. It's one more way the future is being Made in Minnesota.

Purchasing a real, locally grown Christmas tree is about more than just the tree; it's about the experience your family will have. Many Christmas tree farms provide a fun, festive and family-friendly atmosphere that everyone will remember for years to come. The rows of trees provide a beautiful nature backdrop for those candid pictures or your annual Christmas card photo. Many farms offer additional activities like wagon/sleigh rides, custom wreaths and some are even visited by Santa! Some farm locations let you warm up with cider and cookies while you browse the selection of gifts, decorations and wreaths.

Tips to care for your fresh cut Christmas tree:

Always make a fresh cut! Remove a ½ inch disk from the bottom to help your tree absorb water.

Use a stand that fits your tree! Avoid whittling the sides of the trunk to fit the stand, the outer layers of wood help the tree take up water. Also make sure the stand can hold enough water for your tree. As a general rule, provide your tree with 1 quart of water per inch of stem diameter.

Minnesota Wild Rice & Walleye Croquettes with Cured Cucumber Aioli

Executive Chef Christian Pieper,
KC's Best Wild Rice
& Café Minnesota,
www.kcsbestwildrice.com

Yield: 12-14 croquettes

For croquettes:

3 c hand harvested wild rice
2 qt vegetable stock
2 pt heavy cream
½ c white wine
1 bunch fresh thyme (tied with butcher's twine)
½ T fresh cracked pepper
2 T cumin
2 lbs walleye, skinned & deboned
2 carrots, peeled & small diced
4 celery stalks, small diced
1 medium onion, small diced
1 T salt

For cucumber aioli: Place prepared cucumbers in a colander; cover with 2 T kosher salt. Toss slightly so all cucumbers are salted. Let stand over a sink or another bowl for 1 hr to allow proper drainage. This extracts all bitter juices from cucumbers & gives them a salty cured flavor. After cucumbers are drained, add to a blender along with dill, lemon juice, and xanthan gum. Puree until smooth. Then, with blender running, slowly add extra virgin olive oil through the small hole in lid. Taste for seasoning.

For croquettes: While rice is cooking, in a separate sauce pan combine heavy cream with white wine, thyme, cracked pepper, & cumin. Bring to a boil & reduce to medium simmer. Add cleaned walleye into reducing cream. Cook walleye 8-10 min in cream, or until cooked thoroughly - just before it starts to fall apart. Remove walleye with slotted spoon; set aside to cool. When cooled, flake walleye by hand; set aside in fridge.

After fish is removed, add carrot, celery, & onion, & reduce cream by ¾ of original amount. Be careful to not "break" the heavy cream (cook it so far that the fat separates), though you will reduce it down to the point of almost breaking. Remove thyme; let cool for a moment.

In a large bowl mix rice with flaked walleye; slowly add cream & vegetable mixture (this is the binder). Add salt. Once mixed, taste for seasoning & adjust accordingly.

Form mixture into 4 oz. cakes (hockey puck shape) & let chill in fridge for 1 hr.

Prepare 3 separate bowls with flour in one, egg mixture in the other, & panko bread crumbs in the last. Coat chilled walleye cakes first in the flour, then thoroughly in egg, then finish in panko. Heat a sauté pan with canola oil to 345 degrees; pan fry cakes 2-3 min per side to a golden brown sear. Serve walleye cakes hot. Top walleye cakes with aioli, or serve on the side as a dip.

www.katiecannonphotography.com

For dredge:

4 eggs, beaten + 2 T water
2 c panko bread crumbs
1 c flour seasoned with 1 T Lawry's
3 c canola oil (for pan frying)

For aioli:

2 cucumbers, peeled & seeded
2 T kosher salt
2 t fresh dill, chopped
Juice of 1 lemon
1 t xanthan gum (available at specialty grocers)
1 c extra virgin olive oil

Fertile

62 CrossRoads Apiaries, LLC

(218) 230-1146

www.crossroadshoneybees.com

Our bees are kept naturally without harsh chemicals. We also place our beehives where they aren't exposed to spraying. We feel this is best for the bees and the wonderful honey they produce. Our honey is minimally filtered. Heating above a certain temperature destroys the health benefits and changes the delicate flavor, which is why we keep our honey raw. Our honey speaks for itself! Sizes from 12 oz. to 5-gallon buckets. We sell 5-frame bee nucs in May.

Asparagus

Asparagus is a perennial plant in the lily family which has been cultivated for thousands of years. The stalks we see in stores, markets, and CSA boxes are actually young shoots from the underground crown of the plant. To prepare asparagus, trim off stem ends, shave down any woody bits with a vegetable peeler and then braise, grill, or roast! Asparagus contains vitamin K, C, and antioxidants. Keep your asparagus standing up in a plastic bag in the refrigerator, and it can be stored for about a week.

Pumpkins

The word "pumpkin" was originally derived from a Greek word meaning "large melon". This was later adapted to the word "pompon" by the French, and finally to pumpkin by American colonists. For many Minnesotans, it is the definition of fall.

Pumpkins are often used to carve jack-o-lanterns, decorations for the fall months and of course, used to bake yummy treats like pumpkin pie! Don't be fooled, the orange-est pumpkin is not always the ripest. While orange is most popular, you can also find them in many colors, such as red, white and even the more rare blue. They also come in all different shapes and sizes. A variety of pumpkins can make your fall decorations complete!

While picking out your pumpkin at the patch this year, look for a firm pumpkin that still has a 1 to 2 inch strong sturdy stem attached. A strong firm pumpkin will last longer than those with thin stems and soft spots. If carving, choose pumpkins without cracks and with one presentable side to showcase your carving.

Waves of Superior Café,
www.surfsideonsuperior.com &
www.docksidefishmarket.com

Yield: 8 servings

For bouillabaisse:

- 1 c onion, chopped
- 1 c leeks, chopped
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- ½ c olive oil
- ¼ c pernod
- 1 - 28 oz can diced tomatoes, or equivalent of fresh peeled, seeded, & chopped tomatoes
- 2 ½ qt clam juice or fish stock
- 1 2-inch piece of orange peel
- ½ c fennel, sliced thinly
- 2 pinches saffron
- 2 dried bay leaves
- 3 sprigs fresh thyme
- 2 T fresh parsley, chopped
- 2 lb total Lake Superior trout & walleye
- 2 lb total mussels in shell (washed, debearded) & clams in shell (washed)*
- sea salt, crushed red pepper & fresh cracked black pepper to taste

**If desired, substitute shrimp (peeled, deveined, tails on) &/or scallops (foot removed)*

For rouille: In a food processor outfitted with a metal blade, combine all ingredients except olive oil, salt & pepper. Pulse until smooth. Slowly drizzle in olive oil & process continuously until mixture is thick & smooth. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

For bouillabaisse: In a large pot, heat olive oil over medium high heat. Add onions, leeks & garlic. Cook until translucent, but not browned.

Add Pernod through the parsley & a small amount of salt, pepper, & crushed red pepper. Simmer 20 min. Add trout & walleye & bring back to a low simmer for another 20 min. Finally, add mussels & clams & cook 5-10 min, or until shells open. Discard unopened shells. (If substituting shellfish, cook shrimp until just pink or scallops until opaque.) Taste broth & add more salt, pepper or crushed red pepper, if necessary.

Place fish & shellfish equally in bowls & cover with tomato saffron broth. Serve with crusty bread topped with rouille.

www.katiecannonphotography.com

For rouille:

- 2 large garlic cloves, crushed
- 1 red bell pepper, roasted, peeled, & seeded
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 ½-inch thick slice baguette, cut on the diagonal, crust removed (or 1 slice torn white bread, crust removed)
- 1 t Dijon mustard
- Juice of 1 fresh lemon
- 1 pinch saffron threads
- 1 c extra virgin olive oil
- salt & pepper, to taste

Raspberries

A sweet and fruity member of the rose family, Minnesota raspberries have a reputation of being a healthy and delicious part of the season! Red raspberries are not the only color; they also come in black, purple, and gold. Raspberries have been found to have anti-cancer effects, and contain antioxidants, vitamin C, and anti-inflammatory phytonutrients.

Because this berry has a hollow core, it is delicate and should be handled carefully! Store your fresh berries in a shallow container as piling them in a deep container will cause them to deteriorate more quickly. If possible, store the berries unwashed, and wash right before eating! They will last three to five days in the refrigerator.

Minnesota is lucky to have both summer-bearing and fall-bearing raspberries.

Braised Pastures A Plenty Pork Belly with Minnesota Sweet Corn, Heirloom Tomatoes and Banyuls Vinegar

Pastures A Plenty (Listing 770)
& Tiny Diner tinydinerfarm.wordpress.com

Yields: 6 servings either as a heavy appetizer or small entrée

For pork belly:

2 lb pork belly (in slab form)
1/2 c salt
1/2 c sugar
1 large white onion, cut into large pieces
2 cloves garlic, peeled and left whole
1 bay leaf
1 sprig thyme
1 bottle dry white wine (Chablis, Sauvignon Blanc, etc.)
2 c water or stock

Mix sugar & salt together in equal proportions.
Generously rub onto pork belly & cure in the refrigerator no less than 24hrs.

After 24hrs, quickly rinse off any visible salt & sugar.
Pat belly dry with a paper towel & allow to air dry for about an hour. Gather remaining ingredients.

In a large heavy bottom sauté or braising pan, sear pork belly fat side down until deep brown. Lower heat & carefully flip the belly. Add onions & sweat until they become aromatic & translucent. Add garlic, bay leaf & thyme. Deglaze pan with 1/2 the bottle of wine. Add water or stock; cover pan with a lid or aluminum foil.

Braise pork belly in 325 degree oven for 3-3½hrs, or until tender but not mushy.

Remove from oven & place a flat pan or plate over belly, pressing it to create an equal thickness. Allow to cool. Once cool, portion belly into 3-4 ounce rashers.
Set aside until ready to complete the dish.

To complete dish: On one side only, crisp pork belly in a medium hot pan until deep brown. Once belly is crisp & hot, set on paper towel to drain. Spoon some corn pudding onto a plate & place pork belly on top.
In a small bowl toss tomatoes with some of the Banyuls vinegar. Garnish with micro greens, chives, or small basil leaves. Enjoy!

www.katiecannonphotography.com

For corn pudding:

4 ears Minnesota sweet corn, cleaned
2 oz butter, divided into small pieces salt, to taste
fresh lemon juice, to taste

Remove corn from cob & place in a sturdy blender. Puree on high until very smooth (if needed, add a couple ounces of water to get mixture moving). Strain corn puree through a fine mesh strainer into a small saucepot. Place corn puree over medium low heat & whisk constantly until corn begins to simmer. Once corn begins to thicken, slowly add butter piece by piece. Season with salt & a few drops of lemon juice.

For tomatoes: About 2 lb mixed heirloom tomatoes (include heirloom tomatoes in various sizes, shapes & colors to create the most interesting and visually appealing dish.), cut & sliced in random sizes

For Banyuls vinegar:

1/2 c Banyuls vinegar
1/2 c high quality extra virgin olive oil
pinch of salt
Whisk together thoroughly.

Prairie Heights Bison Brisket Slider

Prairie Heights Bison & The Bluestem,
www.localharvest.org/prairie-heights-bison-M6191
www.the-bluestem.com

Yield: 8 servings

For brisket:

4 T olive oil & canola oil blend (75/25)
1 5-6 lb bison brisket
salt & pepper, to taste
1 ½ c carrots, rough chop
1 ½ c celery, rough chop
3 ½ c onion, rough chop
15 garlic cloves
½ c tomato paste
6 sprigs fresh thyme
3 12-oz local stout beers
1 qt chicken stock
2 dozen slider buns
cilantro, to garnish (optional)

Bring vinegar, sugar, ginger & pepper flakes to a boil, then pour over onions & put in cooler overnight.

For brisket: Heat oil in roasting pan big enough to hold entire brisket, or cut in half for a smaller pan. Season brisket liberally with salt & pepper. Heat pan & oil to its smoking point, then sear brisket for 2-4 min on each side, or until it turns a nice brown color. Remove brisket from pan & set aside.

Add carrots, celery, onion & garlic; sauté with salt & pepper. When vegetables have browned & cooked down, add tomato paste & sauté another 3-4 min. Deglaze pan with stout beers, then bring to a boil.

Transfer vegetables & brisket into larger pan in which brisket can be mostly submerged. Add chicken stock (there should be enough liquid to cover ¾ of brisket). Add thyme on top, cover, & bake at 275°F for 8hrs, or until it falls apart. Pull/shred brisket.

For MN stout sauce: Remove brisket from braising liquid & set aside. If possible, remove thyme sprigs. Put remaining liquid & vegetables in a blender & blend until smooth. Strain through a fine mesh strainer. Reduce liquid by simmering over medium heat until gravy consistency. Season to taste.

To assemble sliders: Toast slider buns slightly. Heat brisket & sauce together, then put on bun (about 2oz of brisket per slider). Place pickled onions on top of meat. Garnish with cilantro leaves.

www.katiecannonphotography.com

For ginger pickled red onions:

2 red onions, sliced thin with the grain
3 c red wine vinegar
2 c sugar
1 T minced ginger
1 T local honey
Pinch of red pepper flakes

DON'T FORGET

Tell your farmers you found them in the

Minnesota Grown Directory.

Garlic is generally planted in October and harvested in July. There are over 100 varieties grown in Minnesota.

Garlic is a species in the onion genus, Allium. Its close relatives include the onion, shallot, leek, chive, and rakkyo.

Garlic is a source of allyl sulfides. These compounds may be able to prevent cancer development and support health and immune system function (livestrong.com).

Do you know what garlic scapes are?

They are the flower stalks of hardneck garlic. Most producers cut them off the plant, so the growing energy can be concentrated on the garlic itself. They are sometimes referred to as "green garlic" and can be eaten and used just like green onions. Call a Minnesota Grown garlic producer to find out more or reserve some garlic scapes now!

Organic Steel Cut Oatmeal with Black Currant Blueberry Jam, Charred Sweet Corn, Sambal Maple Syrup, Chia Seeds, & Bacon Bits

Blue Fruit Farm (listing 1017) & Birchwood Café
www.birchwoodcafe.com

Note from Chef Marshall: The black currant blueberry jam, bacon, & sambal maple syrup are meant to be prepared in advance & stored. Prepare & then use whatever quantities you desire on your steel cut oatmeal with charred sweet corn.

For black currant blueberry jam (yield 4 c):

- 2 t Pomona pectin
- 3/4 c cane sugar
- 1 c black currants, mashed
- 3 c blueberries, mashed
- 2 t calcium water (comes with Pomona pectin)

In a small mixing bowl, whisk pectin into sugar. In a heavy-bottomed pan, bring berries to a gentle simmer. Add calcium water, then whisk pectin/sugar mixture into berry mixture.

Whisk until sugar & pectin are dissolved. Stir often to avoid scorching. Transfer to jars for water processing, or store refrigerated.

For bacon: Finely mince bacon. At very low heat, stirring often, render fat from bacon until it's very crunchy. Strain through a fine-mesh chinois. Store at room temperature.

For sambal maple syrup (yield 1/3 c):

- 1 T sambal*
- 4 T maple syrup

*to make your own sambal, see recipe below

For steel cut oats & charred sweet corn: Cook desired amount of oats in water with pinch of salt according to package directions until soft. While oats are cooking, grill or roast corn. Place shucked and cleaned corn directly over a very hot grill, turning occasionally, until charred & cooked through, about 10 min. Mix corn into oats.

To assemble: Add desired amounts of bacon, black currant blueberry jam & sambal maple syrup to your steel cut oats with charred sweet corn. Sprinkle with chia seeds & serve.

www.katiecannonphotography.com

For homemade sambal:

- 1 lb red fresno peppers, stemmed (or any spicy red pepper available at the farmers mkt)
- 2 cloves garlic
- half a lime, chopped
- 1/3 c rice wine vinegar
- pinch of salt
- 1 T cane sugar

Put peppers, garlic & lime into a heavy-bottomed pan. Cook on low heat for about 15 min, to soften & sweat. Add vinegar & slightly increase heat. Cook gently for about 8-10 min. Remove from heat, then add salt & sugar. Cool to room temperature, then process in Robot Coupe or blender. Transfer to jars for water processing, or store refrigerated.

Apples

Minnesota apples taste the best when purchased in season! Our apple season starts in August and runs through late October – depending on the weather. We currently have 24 varieties that were designed by the University of Minnesota specifically for our state! With a variety of tastes and textures, whether you like sweet or tart – Minnesota has one for you!

Apples are an excellent snack for everyone. They are low in calories and their natural sugars provide a quick energy burst, while the high fiber makes the eater feel full. It's also an easy snack to take on the road, because even eating the skin gives you benefits. The skin is rich in antioxidants, fiber and pectin. Apples also contain vitamin A, C, and E among other nutritious things our bodies need.

Rhubarb

Despite its typical uses and associations, rhubarb is actually a vegetable! It is one of the first vegetables available in the spring and its season runs through about June.

IMPORTANT: Rhubarb leaves can be poisonous because they contain a substance called oxalate. Never eat the leaves cooked or raw!

Green stalks with green flesh are very sour and are good for jams/jellies. Red stalks with green flesh are slightly tangy and less sour; they are good for cake fillings or cookie fillings. Red stalks with red flesh have a sweeter flavor or a slight raspberry flavor. This variety is good in fruit salads, or fruit tarts or pies. Generally, the deeper the red color, the sweeter the rhubarb will be!

Rhubarb is a great match with other Minnesota Grown products such as strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, apples, peaches, apricots, pears and raisins. Its flavor is enhanced by ginger, cinnamon, orange, lime and mint. Mix all of these wonderful items together and enjoy a terrific fresh fruit salad.
