- This agency is committed to the implementation of the affirmative action policies, programs, and procedures included in this plan to ensure that employment practices are free from discrimination. Employment practices include, but are not limited to the following: hiring, promotion, demotion, transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertising, layoff, disciplinary action, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training, including apprenticeship. In addition, this agency will expect all employees to perform their job duties in a manner that promotes equal opportunity for all.

It is the agency's policy to provide an employment environment free of any form of discriminatory harassment as prohibited by federal, state, and local human rights laws. - Nondiscrimination and equal opportunity statements and posters are prominently displayed and available in areas frequented by and accessible to members of the public. Examples of posters displayed include: Equal Employment Opportunity is the law, Employee Rights under the Fair Labor Standards Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act Notice to the Public.

V. STATEWIDE POLICY PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSEMENT

It is the policy of the of the State of Minnesota to prohibit harassment of its employees based on race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local human rights, disability, sexual orientation, or age. This prohibition with respect to harassment includes both overt acts of harassment and those acts that create a negative work environment.

Any employee subjected to such harassment should file a complaint internally with the agency's Affirmative Action Officer or designee. If the employee chooses, a complaint can be filed externally with the Minnesota Department of Human Rights, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or through other legal channels. These agencies have time limits for filing complaints, so individuals should contact the agencies for more information. In extenuating circumstances, the employee should contact the State Affirmative Action Program Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity at Minnesota Management and Budget for information regarding the filing of a complaint. Any unintentional or deliberate violation of this policy by an employee will be cause for appropriate disciplinary action.

Each employee is responsible for the application of this policy. This includes initiating and supporting programs and practices designed to develop understanding, acceptance, commitment, and compliance within the framework of this policy. All employees must be informed that harassment is unacceptable behavior. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee will be expected to keep the Department of Commerce and its employees apprised of any changes in the law or its interpretation regarding this form of discrimination. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee is also responsible for:

- Notifying all employees and applicants of this policy; and
- Informing all employees of the complaint procedure and ensuring that all complaints will be investigated promptly and carefully.

Definitions:

Discriminatory harassment is any behavior based on protected class status which is not welcome, which is personally offensive, which, therefore, may effect morale and interfere with the employee's ability to perform. For example, harassment based on national origin has been defined by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as "Ethnic slurs and other verbal or physical conduct relating to an individual's national origin."

Sexual harassment has also been specifically defined by the Minnesota Human Rights Act, which states in regard to employment, that:

"Sexual harassment" includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other verbal or physical conduct or communication of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to that conduct or communication is made a term or condition, either explicitly or implicitly, of obtaining employment;
- Submission to or rejection of that conduct or communication by an individual is used as a factor in decision affecting that individual's employment; or
- That conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's employment, and in the case of employment, the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

It is possible for discriminatory harassment to occur:

- Among peers or coworkers;
- Between managers and subordinates; or
- Between employees and members of the public.

Employees who experience discrimination or harassment should bring the matter to the attention of the Commerce's Affirmative Action Officer or designee. In fulfilling our obligation to maintain a positive and productive work environment, the Affirmative Action Officer or designee and all employees are expected to address or report any suspected harassment or retaliation.

Varying degrees of discriminatory harassment violations can occur and require varying levels of progressive discipline. Individuals who instigate harassment are subject to serious disciplinary actions up to and including suspension, demotion, transfer, or termination. Additionally, inappropriate behaviors that do not rise to the level of discriminatory harassment, but are none the less disruptive, should be corrected early and firmly in the interests of maintaining a barrier-free work place. Individuals who participate in inappropriate behaviors at work are also subject to disciplinary actions.

Any employee or applicant who believes that they have experienced discrimination or harassment based on race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local human rights commission, disability, sexual orientation, or age may file a complaint of discrimination.

Complaints of discrimination or harassment can be filed using the internal complaint procedure included in this Affirmative Action Plan.

VI. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE FOR PROCESSING COMPLAINTS FOR ALLEDGED DISCRIMINATION/HARASSMENT

The Department of Commerce has established the following discrimination/harassment complaint procedure to be used by all employees and applicants. Coercion, reprisal, or intimidation against anyone filing a complaint or serving as a witness under this procedure is prohibited.

Responsibility of Employee:

All employees shall respond promptly to any and all requests by the Affirmative Action Officer or designee for information and for access to data and records for the purpose of enabling the Affirmative Action Officer or designee to carry out responsibilities under this complaint procedure.

Who May File:

Any employees or applicants who believes that they have been discriminated against or harassed by reason of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local human rights commission, disability, sexual orientation, or age may file a complaint. Employees who are terminated are encouraged to file their internal complaint prior to their actual separation; however, complaints will be taken for a reasonable period of time subsequent to the actual separation date.

Complaint Procedure:

The internal complaint procedure provides a method for resolving complaints involving violations of this agency's policy prohibiting discrimination and harassment within the agency. Employees and applicants are encouraged to use this internal complaint process. Retaliation against a person who has filed a complaint either internally or through an outside enforcement agency or other legal channels is prohibited. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee may contact the Office of Diversity and Equal Opportunity if more information is needed about filing a complaint.

Filing Procedures:

1. The employee or applicant completes the "Complaint of Discrimination/Harassment Form" provided by the Affirmative Action Officer or designee. Employees are encouraged to file a complaint within a reasonable period of time after the individual becomes aware that a situation may involve discrimination or harassment. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee will, if requested, provide assistance in filling out the form.
2. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee determines if the complaint falls under the purview of Equal Employment Opportunity law, i.e., the complainant is alleging discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local human rights commission, disability, sexual orientation, or age; or if the complaint is of a general personnel concern. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall also discuss other options for resolution, such as the workplace mediation.

- If it is determined that the complaint is not related to discrimination but rather to general personnel concerns, the Affirmative Action Officer designee will inform the complainant, in writing, within ten (10) working days.
 - If the complaint is related to discrimination, the Affirmative Action Officer or designee will, within ten (10) working days, contact all parties named as respondents and outline the basic facts of the complaint. The respondents will be asked to provide a response to the allegations within a specific period of time.
3. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall then investigate the complaint. At the conclusion of the investigation, the Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall notify the complainants and respondents that the investigation is completed. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall then review the findings of the investigation.
 - If there is sufficient evidence to substantiate the complaint, appropriate action will be taken.
 - If insufficient evidence exists to support the complaint, a letter will be sent to the complainants and the respondents dismissing the complaint.
 4. A written answer will be provided to the parties within sixty (60) days after the complaint is filed. The complainants will be notified should extenuating circumstances prevent completion of the investigation within sixty (60) days.
 5. Disposition of the complaint will be filed with the Commissioner of the Minnesota Management and Budget within thirty (30) days after the final determination.
 6. All documentation associated with a complaint shall be considered investigative data under the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act. The status of the complaint will be shared with the complainants and respondents. After an investigation is completed and all appeals are exhausted, all documentation is subject to the provisions of the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act.
 7. All data collected may at some point become evidence in civil or criminal legal proceedings pursuant to state or federal statutes. An investigation may include, but is not limited to, the following types of data:
 - Interviews or written interrogatories with all parties involved in the complaint, i.e., complainants, respondents, and their respective witnesses; officials having pertinent records or files, etc.; and
 - All records pertaining to the case i.e., written, recorded, filmed, or in any other form.
 8. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall maintain records of all complaints and any pertinent information or data for three (3) years after the case is closed.

VII. REASONABLE ACCOMODATION POLICY

State agencies must comply with all state and federal laws that prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in all employment practices. All state agencies must provide reasonable accommodations to qualified applicants and employees with disabilities unless to do so would cause an undue hardship or pose a direct threat. Agencies must provide reasonable accommodation when:

- A qualified applicant with a disability needs an accommodation to have an equal opportunity to compete for a job;
- A qualified employee with a disability needs an accommodation to perform the essential functions of the employee's job; and

A qualified employee with a disability needs an accommodation to enjoy equal access to benefits and privileges of employment (e.g., trainings, office sponsored events).

Applicant

A person who expresses interest in employment and satisfies the minimum requirements for application established by the job posting and job description.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Coordinator

Each agency is required to appoint an ADA coordinator or designee, depending on agency size, to direct and coordinate agency compliance with Title I of the ADA.

Direct Threat

A significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of the individual or others that cannot be eliminated or reduced by reasonable accommodation.

The determination that an individual poses a direct threat shall be based on an individualized assessment of the individual's present ability to safely perform the essential functions of the job.

Essential Functions

Duties so fundamental that the individual cannot do the job without being able to perform them. A function can be essential if:

- The job exists specifically to perform the function(s); or
- There are a limited number of other employees who could perform the function(s); or
- The function(s) is/are specialized and the individual is hired based on the employee's expertise.

Interactive Process

A discussion between the employer and the individual with a disability to determine an effective reasonable accommodation for the individual with a disability. To be interactive, both sides must communicate and exchange information.

Individual with a Disability

An individual who:

- Has a physical, sensory, or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; or
- Has a record or history of such impairment; or
- Is regarded as having such impairment.

Qualified Individual with a Disability

An individual who:

- Satisfies the requisite skill, experience, education, and other job-related requirements of the job that the individual holds or desires; and
- Can perform the essential functions of the position with or without reasonable accommodation.

Major Life Activities

May include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, and working.

Major life activities also include the operation of a major bodily function, including but not limited to, functions of the immune system, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, endocrine, and reproductive functions.

Medical Documentation

Information from the requestor's treating provider which is sufficient to enable the employer to determine whether an individual has a disability and whether and what type of reasonable accommodation is needed when the disability or the need for accommodation is not obvious.

Medical documentation can be requested using the standardized Letter Requesting Documentation for Determining ADA Eligibility from a Medical Provider.

Reasonable Accommodation

An adjustment or alteration that enables a qualified individual with a disability to apply for a job, perform job duties, or enjoy the benefits and privileges of employment. Reasonable accommodations may include:

- Modifications or adjustments to a job application process to permit a qualified individual with a disability to be considered for a job; or
- Modifications or adjustments to enable a qualified individual with a disability to perform the essential functions of the job; or
- Modifications or adjustments that enable qualified employees with disabilities to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment.

Modifications or adjustments may include, but are not limited to:

- Providing materials in alternative formats like large print or Braille;
- Providing assistive technology, including information technology and communications equipment, or specially designed furniture;
- Modifying work schedules or supervisory methods;
- Granting breaks or providing leave;
- Altering how or when job duties are performed;
- Removing and/or substituting a marginal function;
- Moving to a different office space;
- Providing telework;
- Making changes in workplace policies;
- Providing a reader or other staff assistant to enable employees to perform their job functions, where a reasonable accommodation cannot be provided by current staff;
- Removing an architectural barrier, including reconfiguring work spaces;
- Providing accessible parking; or
- Providing a reassignment to a vacant position.

Reassignment

Reassignment to a vacant position for which an employee is qualified is a “last resort” form of a reasonable accommodation. This type of accommodation must be provided to an employee, who, because of a disability, can no longer perform the essential functions of the position, with or without reasonable accommodation, unless the employer can show that it will be an undue hardship.

Support Person

Any person an individual with a disability identifies to help during the reasonable accommodation process in terms of filling out paperwork, attending meetings during the interactive process to take notes or ask clarifying questions, or to provide emotional support.

Undue Hardship

A specific reasonable accommodation would require significant difficulty or expense. Undue hardship is always determined on a case-by-case basis considering factors that include the nature and cost of the accommodation requested and the impact of the accommodation on the operations of the agency. A state agency is not required to provide accommodations that would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the agency.

General Standards and Expectations

Individuals who may request a reasonable accommodation include

- Any qualified applicant with a disability who needs assistance with the job application procedure or the interview or selection process; or
- Any qualified agency employee with a disability who needs a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of the position; or
- A third party, such as a family member, friend, health professional or other representative, on behalf of a qualified applicant or employee with a disability, when the applicant or employee is unable to make the request for reasonable accommodation. When possible, the agency must contact the applicant or employee to confirm that the accommodation is wanted. The applicant or employee has the discretion to accept or reject the proposed accommodation.

The agency must abide by the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, Chapter 13, in obtaining or sharing information related to accommodation requests.

How to request a reasonable accommodation

An agency applicant or employee may make a reasonable accommodation request to any or all of the following:

- Immediate supervisor or manager in the employee's chain of command;
- Agency Affirmative Action Officer/Designee;
- Agency ADA Coordinator;
- Agency Human Resources Office;

- Any agency official with whom the applicant has contact during the application, interview and/or selection process.

Timing of the request

An applicant or employee may request a reasonable accommodation at any time, even if the individual has not previously disclosed the existence of a disability or the need for an accommodation. A request is any communication in which an individual asks or states that he or she needs the agency to provide or change something because of a medical condition.

The reasonable accommodation process begins as soon as possible after the request for accommodation is made.

Form of the request

The applicant or employee is responsible for requesting a reasonable accommodation or providing sufficient notice to the agency that an accommodation is needed.

An initial request for accommodation may be made in any manner (e.g., writing, electronically, in person or orally).

The individual requesting an accommodation does not have to use any special words and does not have to mention the ADA or use the phrase "reasonable accommodation" or "disability."

Oral requests must be documented in writing to ensure efficient processing of requests.

Agency request forms can be found at: "Employee/Applicant Request for Reasonable Accommodation Form".

When a supervisor or manager observes or receives information indicating that an employee is experiencing difficulty performing the job due to a medical condition or disability, further inquiry may be required. Supervisors or managers should consult with the agency ADA Coordinator for advice on how to proceed.

When an employee needs the same reasonable accommodation on a repeated basis (e.g., the assistance of a sign language interpreter), a written request for accommodation is required the first time only. However, the employee requesting an accommodation must give appropriate advance notice each subsequent time the accommodation is needed. If the accommodation is needed on a regular basis (e.g., a weekly staff meeting), the agency must make appropriate arrangements without requiring a request in advance of each occasion.

The interactive process entails

Communication is a priority and encouraged throughout the entire reasonable accommodation process. The interactive process is a collaborative process between the employee and/or applicant and the agency to explore and identify specific reasonable accommodation(s). (For information on the Interactive Process see the U.S. Department of Labor, Job Accommodation Network at <http://askjan.org/topics/interactive.htm>). This process is required when:

- The need for a reasonable accommodation is not obvious;
- The specific limitation, problem or barrier is unclear;
- An effective reasonable accommodation is not obvious;
- The parties are considering different forms of reasonable accommodation;
- The medical condition changes or fluctuates; or,
- There are questions about the reasonableness of the requested accommodation.

The interactive process should begin as soon as possible after a request for reasonable accommodation is made or the need for accommodation becomes known.

The process should ensure a full exchange of relevant information and communication between the individual and the agency. An individual may request that the agency ADA Coordinator, a union representative, or support person be present.

The agency ADA Coordinator shall be consulted when:

- Issues, conflicts or questions arise in the interactive process; and
- Prior to denying a request for accommodation.

Agency responsibilities for processing the request

As the first step in processing a request for reasonable accommodation, the person who receives the request must promptly forward the request to the appropriate decision maker. At the same time, the recipient will notify the requestor who the decision maker is.

Commissioner

The commissioner of the agency or agency head has the ultimate responsibility to ensure compliance with the ADA and this policy and appoint an ADA Coordinator.

ADA Coordinator

The agency ADA Coordinator is the agency's decision maker for reasonable accommodation requests for all types of requests outside of the supervisors' and managers' authority. The agency ADA Coordinator will work with the supervisor and manager, and where necessary, with agency Human Resources, to implement the approved reasonable accommodation.

Supervisors and Managers

Agencies have the authority to designate the level of management approval needed for reasonable accommodation requests for low-cost purchases. For example:

- Requests for standard office equipment that is needed as a reasonable accommodation and adaptive items costing less than $100. [Agencies can adjust the dollar amount based on their needs]; and
- Requests for a change in a condition of employment such as modified duties, or a change in schedule, or the location and size of an employee's workspace. [Agencies can choose to delegate specific requests to supervisors or managers or require these types of requests to work through the agency ADA Coordinator].

Analysis for processing requests

Before approving or denying a request for accommodation, the agency decision maker with assistance from the agency ADA Coordinator will:

1. Determine if the requestor is a qualified individual with a disability;
2. Determine if the accommodation is needed to:
 - Enable a qualified applicant with a disability to be considered for the position the individual desires;
 - Enable a qualified employee with a disability to perform the essential functions of the position; or
 - Enable a qualified employee with a disability to enjoy equal benefits or privileges of employment as similarly situated employees without disabilities;
3. Determine whether the requested accommodation is reasonable;
4. Determine whether there is a reasonable accommodation that will be effective for the requestor and the agency; and
5. Determine whether the reasonable accommodation will impose an undue hardship on the agency's operations.

An employee's accommodation preference is always seriously considered, but the agency is not obligated to provide the requestor's accommodation of choice, so long as it offers an effective accommodation, or determines that accommodation would cause an undue hardship.

Obtaining medical documentation in connection with a request for reasonable accommodation

In some cases, the disability and need for accommodation will be reasonably evident or already known, for example, where an employee is blind. In these cases, the agency will not seek further medical documentation. If a requestor's disability and/or need for reasonable accommodation are not obvious or already known, the agency ADA Coordinator may require medical information showing that the requestor has a covered disability that requires accommodation. The agency ADA Coordinator may request medical information in certain other circumstances. For example, when:

- The information submitted by the requestor is insufficient to document the disability or the need for the accommodation;
- A question exists as to whether an individual is able to perform the essential functions of the position, with or without reasonable accommodation; or
- A question exists as to whether the employee will pose a direct threat to himself/herself or others.

Where medical documentation is necessary, the agency ADA Coordinator must make the request and use the Letter Requesting Documentation for Determining ADA Eligibility from a Medical Provider. The agency ADA Coordinator must also obtain the requestor's completed and signed Authorization for Release of Medical Information.

Only medical documentation specifically related to the employee's request for accommodation and ability to perform the essential functions of the position will be requested. When medical documentation or information is appropriately requested, an employee must provide it in a timely manner, or the agency may deny the reasonable accommodation request. Agencies must not request medical records; medical records are not appropriate documentation and cannot be accepted. Supervisors and managers must not request medical information or documentation from an applicant or employee seeking an accommodation. Such a request will be made by the agency ADA Coordinator, if appropriate.

Confidentiality requirements

Medical Information

Medical information obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process must be kept confidential. All medical information obtained in connection with such requests must be collected and maintained on separate forms and in separate physical or electronic files from non-medical personnel files and records. Electronic copies of medical information obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process must be stored so that access is limited to only the agency ADA Coordinator. Physical copies of such medical information must be stored in a locked cabinet or office when not in use or unattended. Generally, medical documentation obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process should only be reviewed by the agency ADA Coordinator.

The agency ADA Coordinator may disclose medical information obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process to the following:

- Supervisors, managers or agency HR staff who have a need to know may be told about the necessary work restrictions and about the accommodations necessary to perform the employee's duties. However, information about the employee's medical condition should only be disclosed if strictly necessary, such as for safety reasons;
- First aid and safety personnel may be informed, when appropriate, if the employee may require emergency treatment or assistance in an emergency evacuation;
- To consult with the State ADA Coordinator or Employment Law Counsel at MMB, or the Attorney General's Office about accommodation requests, denial of accommodation requests or purchasing of specific assistive technology or other resources; or
- Government officials assigned to investigate agency compliance with the ADA.

Whenever medical information is appropriately disclosed as described above, the recipients of the information must comply with all confidentiality requirements.

Accommodation Information

The fact that an individual is receiving an accommodation because of a disability is confidential and may only be shared with those individuals who have a need to know for purposes of implementing the accommodation, such as the requestor's supervisor and the agency ADA Coordinator.

General Information

General summary information regarding an employee's or applicant's status as an individual with a disability may be collected by agency equal opportunity officials to maintain records and evaluate and report on the agency's performance in hiring, retention, and processing reasonable accommodation requests.

Approval of requests for reasonable accommodation

As soon as the decision maker determines that a reasonable accommodation will be provided, the agency ADA Coordinator will process the request and provide the reasonable accommodation in as short of a timeframe as possible. The time necessary to process a request will depend on the nature of the accommodation requested and whether it is necessary to obtain supporting information. If an approved accommodation cannot be provided within a reasonable time, the decision maker will inform the requestor of the status of the request before the end of 30 days. Where feasible, if there is a delay in providing the request, temporary measures will be taken to provide assistance.

Once approved, the reasonable accommodation should be documented for record keeping purposes and the records maintained by the agency ADA Coordinator.

Funding for reasonable accommodations

The agency must specify how the agency will pay for reasonable accommodations.

Procedures for reassignment as a reasonable accommodation

Reassignment to a vacant position is an accommodation that must be considered if there are no effective reasonable accommodations that would enable the employee to perform the essential functions of his/her current job, or if all other reasonable accommodations would impose an undue hardship.

The agency ADA Coordinator will work with agency Human Resources staff and the requestor to identify appropriate vacant positions within the agency for which the employee may be qualified and can perform the essential functions of the vacant position, with or without reasonable accommodation. Vacant positions which are equivalent to the employee's current job in terms of pay, status, and other relevant factors will be considered first. If there are none, the agency will consider vacant lower level positions for which the individual is qualified. The EEOC recommends that the agency consider positions that are currently vacant or will be coming open within at least the next 60 days.

Denial of requests for reasonable accommodation

The agency ADA Coordinator must be contacted for assistance and guidance prior to denying any request for reasonable accommodation. The agency may deny a request for reasonable accommodation where:

- The individual is not a qualified individual with a disability;
- The reasonable accommodation results in undue hardship or the individual poses a direct threat to the individual or others. Undue hardship and direct threat are determined on a case-by-case basis with guidance from the agency ADA Coordinator; or
- Where no reasonable accommodation, including reassignment to a vacant position, will enable the employee to perform all the essential functions of the job.

The explanation for denial must be provided to the requestor in writing. The explanation should be written in plain language and clearly state the specific reasons for denial. Where the decision maker has denied a specific requested accommodation, but has offered a different accommodation in its place, the decision letter should explain both the reasons for denying the accommodation requested and the reasons that the accommodation being offered will be effective.

Consideration of undue hardship

An interactive process must occur prior to the agency making a determination of undue hardship. Determination of undue hardship is made on a case-by-case basis and only after consultation with the agency's ADA Coordinator. In determining whether granting a reasonable accommodation will cause an undue hardship, the agency considers factors such as the nature and cost of the accommodation in relationship to the size and resources of the agency and the impact the accommodation will have on the operations of the agency.

Agencies may deny reasonable accommodations based upon an undue hardship. Prior to denying reasonable accommodation requests due to lack of financial resources, the agency will consult with the State ADA Coordinator at MMB.

Determining direct threat

The determination that an individual poses a "direct threat," (i.e., a significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of the individual or others) which cannot be eliminated or reduced by a reasonable accommodation, must be based on an individualized assessment of the individual's present ability to safely perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation. A determination that an individual poses a direct threat cannot be based on fears, misconceptions, or stereotypes about the individual's disability. Instead, the agency must make a reasonable medical judgment, relying on the most current medical knowledge and the best available objective evidence.

In determining whether an individual poses a direct threat, the factors to be considered include:

- Duration of the risk;
- Nature and severity of the potential harm;
- Likelihood that the potential harm will occur; and
- Imminence of the potential harm.

Appeals process in the event of denial

In addition to providing the requestor with the reasons for denial of a request for reasonable accommodation, agencies must designate a process for review when an applicant or employee chooses to appeal the denial of a reasonable accommodation request. This process:

- Must include review by an agency official;
- May include review by the State ADA Coordinator; and/or
- Must inform the requestor of the statutory right to file a charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or the Minnesota Department of Human Rights.

Information tracking and records retention

Agencies must track reasonable accommodations requested and report once a year by September 1st to MMB the number and types of accommodations requested, approved, denied and other relevant information.

Agencies must retain reasonable accommodation documentation according to the agency's document retention schedule, but in all cases for at least one year from the date the record is made or the personnel action involved is taken, whichever occurs later. 29 C.F.R. § 1602.14.

VIII. EVACUATION PROCEDURES FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

A copy of the agency's weather and emergency evacuation plans can be found at: Evacuation Plan

Directors, managers, and supervisors should review the emergency evacuation procedures with staff, including informing all staff that if additional assistance may be needed, and individuals with disabilities should contact the agency contact(s) below to request the type of assistance they may need.

Tim Jahnke, Administrative Services Director 651-539-1501, Tim.jahnke@state.mn.us

Karen Santori, Management Analyst Supervisor, 651-539-1530, Karen.santori@state.mn.us

Evacuation Options:

1. In an evacuation, an audio alarm will sound and strobe lights will be activated.
2. Commerce workspace is divided into zones. Each zone has assigned fire wardens responsible for the evacuation of that zone.
3. In addition to the wardens there at least two helpers assigned to someone needing assistance.
4. When the alarm sounds, the helpers should direct those needing assistance to a "waiting area" close to the stairwell but without hindering the evacuation of others.
5. Once the floor is clear, those needing assistance may move into the stairwell if threatened by smoke or flames.
6. One helper should stay with the evacuees and the other helper should proceed down the stairs and report the name and location of those needing assistance to the stairwell coordinator.
7. The helper should then proceed to 401 Robert Street.

8. The name and location of those waiting for evacuation assistance is reported to the fire department, even in a practice drill.
9. Remember: SPFD will evacuate individuals needing assistance in the event of an actual emergency.
10. Definition of staff needing assistance: someone with any temporary or permanent condition that could interfere with his/her ability to quickly evacuate the building.

Severe Weather Evacuation Options:

Individuals with disabilities or who are in need of assistance during an evacuation should “Shelter in Place.” Seeking shelter in a designated severe weather shelter and remaining there until the all clear is used.

IX. GOALS AND TIMETABLES

Through the utilization analysis, the agency has determined which job categories are underutilized for women, minorities, and individuals with disabilities within the agency and has set the following hiring goals for the next two years (Reference Table 2).

Table 2. Underutilization Analysis and Hiring Goals for 2016-2018

The second, third, and fourth columns of this chart show the number of underutilized individuals of each group in each category at this agency. The fifth, sixth, and seventh columns show the agency’s hiring goals for each group in each category.

Job Categories	Underutilization - # of Individuals			Hiring Goals for 2016-2018
	Women	Racial/Ethnic Minorities	Individuals With Disabilities	Women	Racial/Ethnic Minorities	Individuals With Disabilities
Officials/Administrators		2	2		1	1
Professionals	16	8	3	8	3	1
Protected Services: Sworn			2			1
Office/Clerical			1			1
Technicians	6	3	2	2	1	1

Availability:

The agency determined the recruitment area to be metropolitan availability. In conducting its underutilization analysis, the agency used the two factor analysis. The agency determined it was best to use this type of analysis because it gave Commerce the ability to take into consideration both internal and external availability.

Underutilization Analysis worksheets are attached in the appendix. Numbers less than 10 are indicated with "<10" in accordance with Minnesota Management and Budget's guidance on data privacy.

Women:

At the agency, the population of women has improved in the following job categories Officials/Administrators and Protective Service: Sworn. It has not improved in the following job categories: Professionals and Technicians. Additional efforts to recruit women will be implemented. By more closely examining applicant pools, we will be able to infuse women into the applicant interview process. While we are underutilized by 16 women in the Professional job category, a more obtainable goal of 8 is more realistic, in an agency that hires approximately 50 new employees a year. This is the first plan year for both the new Human Resources Director and two staffing professionals so success will be gradual in nature as agency changes in hiring practices are implemented.

Minorities:

At the agency, the population of minorities has stayed the same for Protective Service: Sworn and has maintained a diverse applicant pool in Office/Clerical. However, we have not improved in the following job categories: Officials/Administrators, Professionals and Technicians. Additional efforts will be made to recruit a diverse applicant pool. By more closely examining applicant pools, we will be able to infuse minorities into the applicant interview process. In addition, we will make efforts to attend job fairs with a focus on minority applicants. For the same reason as the category of Women, we plan to set obtainable goals.

Individuals with Disabilities:

At the agency, the population of individuals with disabilities has stayed the same for Officials/Administrators. However, we have not improved in the area of Professional, Technicians, and Protective Services: Sworn. In FY15 and FY16 separation data shows that we have had a number of individuals with disabilities retire (4 in FY15 and 1 in FY16). We will work with community partners to further examine opportunities for applicants with disabilities. This is the first plan year for both the new Human Resources Director and two staffing professionals so success will be gradual in nature as agency changes in hiring practices are implemented.

X. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

In pursuing the agency's commitment to affirmative action, the agency will take the following actions during 2016-2018:

Objective #1: To recruit affirmatively for all positions.

Action Steps:

- a) Agency human resource staffing specialists will ensure that all job postings, Department literature, official correspondence and the website communicate that the Department is an Equal Opportunity Employer,
- b) Agency human resource staffing specialists will review applicant pools to ensure that applicants belonging to an underutilized group are properly represented. We will do this by running the Affirmative Action Report on each posting as part of the monitoring the hiring process. We will look by EEOC category (Professional, Clerical, etc.) to see where disparities exist. Supervisors and managers will review the resumes of all applicants that meet the minimum qualification of their position, they will rank the candidate's qualifications and send that spreadsheet to HR for review along with the candidates they plan to extend an interview. At this time, HR will examine the selected interview pool to determine if underutilized applicants are represented properly. If they have an adequate representation, per the agency Affirmative Action Officer, the manager will proceed with the interview process. If the Affirmative Action Officer deems that the pool is underrepresented, they will recommend that additional candidates (underrepresented) be interviewed.

Evaluation:

This is an ongoing objective set for 2016-2018, which provided additional efforts have been made to reach out affirmatively. All postings are communicated on the MMB Diversity email list; each posting communicates Commerce as EOE. Human resource staff, in conjunction with the Agency Affirmative Action Officer, will help guide hiring managers throughout the resume evaluation process to aid in the proper representation of candidates that are in disparate job categories in the interview process.

Objective #2: Promote the Department of Commerce's Affirmative Action policy to current and new employees.

Action Steps:

- a) Provide Affirmative Action policies and objectives at new employee orientation.
- b) Provide all employees information on policies and practices related to Affirmative Action via the Agency's intranet site.

Evaluation:

This is an ongoing objective set from the 2014-2016 Plan. New employee orientation is being reconfigured and all new hires will be given and made aware of Commerce's Affirmative Action policy.

Objective #3: Identify and utilize additional sources for recruitment

Action Steps:

- 1 a) Attend and participate in the Statewide Recruitment Group.
- 1 b) Pursue community partnerships with organizations with like missions (i.e. energy groups, insurance organizations, etc.)
- 1 c) Utilize an enhanced recruitment network for advertising of jobs to more diverse populations and communities.

Evaluation:

This objective was originally established in the 2014-2016 Affirmative Action Plan. In the 2016-2018 Plan, a new focus will also be on forging relationships with organizations, so that qualified applicant pools can be established and we can create a hiring "pipeline".

Objective #4: Efforts made in hiring a designated Affirmative Action Officer

Action Steps:

Develop a comprehensive Affirmative Action Officer position description and secure funding for the position.

Evaluation:

Hiring a designated Affirmative Action Officer will help the Department of Commerce work on state and department wide initiatives.

Objective #5: All Commerce employees are trained in the area of diversity and inclusion.

Action Steps:

- 1 a) Create initial diversity and inclusion training for all Commerce staff.
- 1 b) Provide supervisors and managers with Connect 700 training.
- 1 c) Develop a training plan for continued cultural growth and knowledge development throughout the agency in the areas of diversity and inclusion.

Evaluation:

All employees will feel valued and included in the workplace. Commerce will be a workplace where all employees can contribute freely. We will better understand the customers and population that we serve.

XI. METHODS OF AUDITING, EVALUATING, AND REPORTING PROGRAM SUCCESS

A. Pre-Employment Review Procedure/Monitoring the Hiring Process

The agency will evaluate its selection process to determine if its requirements unnecessarily screen out a disproportionate number of women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, or veterans. The agency will use the monitoring the hiring process form for every hire to track the number of women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, and veterans in each stage of the selection process (from infusing applicant pools with disparate candidates to the final selection and justification on the hire). Directors, managers, and supervisors will work closely with human resources and the Affirmative Action Officer in reviewing the requirements for the position, posting the position, and identifying candidates for interview (HR staff will review the list of potential interviewees to ensure disparate candidates are represented properly (see objective 1 above)), interviewing and selection to ensure that equal opportunity and affirmative action is carried out. Directors, managers, and supervisors will be asked to document their prospective hiring decisions and the Agency Affirmative Action Officer will review for bias and either grant or restrict the hire.

Any time the hiring supervisor or manager cannot justify a potential non-affirmative candidate, the agency may take a missed opportunity. Initially the Affirmative Action Officer will review the hiring justification and present it to Agency leadership (Commissioner and/or Deputy Commissioner) who will be asked to authorize the missed opportunity. The agency will report the number of affirmative and non-affirmative hires, as well as, missed opportunities to Minnesota Management and Budget on a quarterly basis.

When candidates are offered interviews, employees scheduling interviews will describe the interview format to the candidate and provide an invitation to request a reasonable accommodation for individuals with disabilities to allow the candidate equal opportunity to participate in the interview process. For example, describe if interview questions are offered ahead of time or what technology may be used during the interview process. This allows for an individual with a disability to determine if they may need a reasonable accommodation in advance of the interview.

All personnel involved in the selection process will be trained and accountable for the agency's commitment to equal opportunity and the affirmative action program and its implementation.

B. Pre-Review Procedure for Layoff Decisions

The Affirmative Action Officer, in conjunction with the agency's human resources office, shall be responsible for reviewing all pending layoffs to determine their effect on the agency's affirmative action goals and timetables.

If it is determined that there is an adverse impact on protected groups, the agency will document the reasons why the layoff is occurring, such as positions targeted for layoff, applicable personnel policies or collective bargaining agreement provisions, or other relevant reasons. The agency will determine if other alternatives are available to minimize the impact on protected groups.

C. Other Methods of Program Evaluation

The agency submits the following compliance reports to Minnesota Management and Budget as part of the efforts to evaluate the agency's affirmative action program:

- Quarterly Monitoring the Hiring Process Reports;
- Biannual Affirmative Action Plan;
- Annual Americans with Disabilities Act Report;

The agency also evaluates the Affirmative Action Plan in the following ways:

- Monitors progress toward stated goals by job category;
- Analyzes employment activity (hires, promotions, and terminations) by job category to determine if there is adverse impact;
- Analyzes compensation program to determine if there are patterns of discrimination;
- Reviews the accessibility of online systems, websites, and ensures that reasonable accommodations can be easily requested; and
- Discusses progress with agency leadership on a periodic basis and makes recommendations for improvement.

XII. RECRUITMENT PLAN

The objective of this recruitment plan is to ensure the agency's recruitment programs are publicly marketed, attract, and obtain qualified applicants, enhance the image of state employment, and to assist in meeting the affirmative action goals to achieve a diverse workforce.

Recruitment costs incurred during the 2014-2016 plan year total: $9,254.27.

Below are various recruitment methods or strategies utilized by the agency during the past year.

A. Advertising Sources

All vacancies were posted on the MMB website, MMB Diversity job board, Commerce News & Notes (internal communication) and Minnesotaworks.net, in addition, vacancies were sent to the Workforce Diversity email list (over 400 sites), the DEED representative, the Latino Affairs Council, and the Commerce website and intranet site for distribution. Other areas of advertising were Minnesota State Colleges and Universities career center websites, such as: Mankato State, Winona State University, Bemidji State. University of Minnesota Goldpass continues to be utilized, in addition, Hamline University, St. Thomas and William Mitchell. An attempt to utilize InDEED.com was determined to be unnecessary to pay for since it has an automatic search engine and pulls our postings without a request. Free versions of LinkedIn.com were utilized, including the State of Minnesota account.

B. Job and Community Fairs

Commerce attended 2 job fairs in fiscal 2015-16. One of the fairs resulted in an affirmative action hire. Burnsville Workforce Center career fair and Get the Job Fair in Eagan, MN. Both events were beneficial in outreaching to a diverse population and promoting career opportunities with the Department of Commerce. In the future we will be using opportunities like this to collect resumes and target market our positions in the future. We will attend the same or similar job fairs in the new fiscal year.

C. Recruitment for Individuals with Disabilities

Additional efforts need to be made in the area of recruitment for individuals with disabilities. The human resources team will look into advertising positions in the local ACCESS. We will continue to communicate that this protected group is encouraged to apply on all of our job postings.

Recruitment Plan

1. Review of job postings for physical and sensory requirements and follow the Guidelines for Inclusive Job Postings.

Our agency will review all job postings for physical and sensory requirements and determine if the qualifications for the position are job-related and consistent with business necessity. Additionally, our agency will edit language pertaining to physical and sensory requirements and change this language to reflect more inclusive language for job qualifications.

2. Supported Worker

When our agency posts a position, we will review the position for tasks that can be completed by a supported worker. We will work with VRS or the MMB State ADA Coordinator to assist us in our efforts.

3. 700-Hour Program

Where possible, our agency will utilize the 700-hour program which allows our agency to hire an individual with a disability and provide them training. At the end of this period, our agency can hire the individual.

4. Reasonable Accommodation

Department of Commerce
AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN 2016-2018

We will prominently display on our career site that we will provide reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with a disability who apply for our positions where needed. Once hired, we will educate employees and supervisors and managers on accommodating employees in the workplace.

5. Recruitment Events/Job Fairs

We will attend and promote Commerce at job fairs, including, but not limited to: Statewide Career Fairs, People of Color job fairs, University of Minnesota Law School Career Fairs, Veterans Career Fairs, St. Catherine's job fairs, and University of Minnesota Job and Internship Fairs.

6. Internships/Student Worker Appointments

We will continue to promote job opportunities for students through our own Student Worker postings, Hennepin County Minority Bar Association, Right Track, Urban Scholar, and Capital Pathways.

7. Strategic Partnerships

Our agency will build strategic partnerships with DEED - Vocational Rehabilitation Services ("VRS"), DEED - State Services for the Blind ("SSB"), and other state agency partners to conduct job evaluations and to assist in recruitment or referral of candidates to open positions.

Additionally, we will post positions for at least 7 days to ensure equal opportunity to apply for the position.

8. Self-Analysis

Our agency will conduct periodic self-checks to determine if our systems or documents are accessible, language in our job postings is inclusive, and reasonable accommodations have been provided and staff have been trained on how to provide reasonable accommodations.

9. Reporting

Our agency will conduct a quarterly analysis of the number of individuals with disabilities who have applied for positions and the number of individuals with disabilities hired.

D. Relationship Building and Outreach

This year and in years past, we have reached out to state colleges and universities in order to fill over 25 student workers for summer 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016. This has given opportunity and experience to the students. Further, we have also contacted and will continue to reach out to programs in the St. Paul and Minneapolis area that include Right Track, STEP-UP Achieve, Urban Scholars and Exploring the Capitol Pathways program. In addition, we will employ (on a limited/temporary basis) law clerks through the Hennepin County Bar Association Minority Clerkship program. The program places first-year minority law students with Minnesota legal employers for a summer associate experience. The goal of the program is to bring together minority law students and larger legal employers in Minnesota. Ultimately, the program hopes to find its participants becoming future partners and leaders in Minnesota's larger legal employer community.

E. Supported Employment (M.S. 43A.191, Subd. 2(d))

The agency supports the employment of individuals with disabilities and will review vacant positions to determine if job tasks can be performed by a supported employment worker. We will work with community organizations that provide employment services to individuals with disabilities to recruit for these positions.

XIII. RETENTION PLAN

The agency is committed to not just the recruitment of women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, and veterans, but also to the retention of these protected groups.

A. Individual(s) Responsible for the Agency's Retention Program/Activities

Annette Gratke, Director of Human Resources, 651/539-1502, annette.gratke@state.mn.us

B. Separation and Retention Analysis by Protected Groups

Separation analysis for Commerce employees for FY 15 and 16 were determined by incorporating all dismissal/non-certifications, resignations, retirements and deaths.

	Number of Separated Employees		Percentage of Total Separated Employees
	FY 2015	FY 2016	FY 2015	FY 2016
Women	9	12	32.14%	48%
Minorities	0	3	0%	12%
Individuals with Disabilities	6	1	21.43%	4%
TOTAL	28	25	100%	100%

A. Women

Women represent approximately 48.81% of the total Commerce workforce. Commerce saw a total of 53 separations in FY 15 and FY 16. Women made up 39.6% of all separations. This is proportionately less than the total agency workforce representation.

Retirements made up 52.38% of the 21 total separations of women, which is 39.29% of all agency retirements for FY 15 and 16. Which is proportionately higher than the total agency retirements.

When reviewing the separation analysis from FY 15 and 16, the statistics indicated that there was a substantial increase in retirements versus resignations.

B. Minorities

Minorities represent approximately 10.12% of the total Commerce workforce. Commerce saw a total of 53 separations in FY 15 and FY 16. Minorities made up 5.66% of all separations. This is substantially less than the total agency workforce representation.

Retirements made up 0.00% of the 3 total separations of minorities for FY 15 and 16. Which is proportionately less than the total agency retirements.

When reviewing the separation analysis from FY 15 and 16, the statistics indicated that there was a deficient amount of data to analyze retirements versus resignations and any identifiable trend.

C. Individuals with Disabilities

Individuals with disabilities represent approximately 5.06% of the total Commerce workforce. Commerce saw a total of 53 separations in FY 15 and FY 16. Individuals with disabilities made up 13.21% of all separations. This is proportionately less than the total agency workforce representation.

Retirements made up 71.43% of the 7 total separations of Individuals with disabilities, which is 25% of all agency retirements for FY 15 and 16. Which is proportionately higher than the total agency retirements.

When reviewing the separation analysis from FY 15 and 16, the statistics indicated that there was a substantial increase in retirements versus resignations.

C. Methods of Retention of Protected Groups (as stated previously, the HR staff has turned over and we are unable to provide historical information on retention methods)

- A. This is an on-going initiative from the previous 2014-2016 Affirmative Action Plan. For the new Affirmative Action Plan 2016-2018, HR will be creating more opportunities for training and professional development around cultural competence, unconscious bias, disability awareness, etc. However, a review of the prior work on this initiative does not show movement on this strategy. It is the goal of the new HR staff to create and provide training to managers, supervisors and all employees by working with an outside vendor. Unconscious bias and cultural awareness training is scheduled to take place in early 2017 for all supervisors, managers, and all employees.
- B. This is an on-going initiative from the previous 2014-2016 Affirmative Action Plan, ensuring accessibility of electronic systems, physical office spaces, and other aspects of the employment experience. However, a review of this initiatives for the last plan year shows little to no progress. The new HR staff, in conjunction with our Facilities unit will provide a rapid response to employees who are seeking an accommodation and/or an ergonomic evaluation. Additionally, HR will work with Commerce Communications and MNIT to ensure that documents stored on the intranet and internet are accessible.
- C. Develop an engagement survey, while this was on the last Affirmative Action Plan, it did not come to fruition. The new HR staff will develop and issue an all employee engagement survey in 2017.
- D. The new HR staff will network and participate in mentoring programs. Opportunities will be explored through MNCARRS, university and college alliances, and additional participation in career fairs. This is an on-going initiative, which did not get off the ground during the last plan years.
- E. New for the 2016-2018 plan, HR will improve the onboarding process to ensure all new hires experience is positive and informative.
- F. On-going from past plan year, when applicable, pursue the use of Post Retirement Options or part-time employment opportunities.
- G. New for 2016-2018 plan, HR will automate exit interview survey to better assess why employees separate.
