II. STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

The Department of Administration (Admin) embraces the diversity of Minnesota. In respecting that diversity, Admin's workplace will be free of discrimination and have an employee recruitment and retention effort that reflects the citizens we serve.

Admin is committed to Minnesota's statewide affirmative action efforts and providing equal employment opportunity to all employees and applicants in accordance with equal opportunity and affirmative action laws.

I affirm my personal and official support of these policies which provide that:

- Our workforce will be free from discrimination. No individual shall be discriminated against with regard to race, sex, color, creed, religion, age, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, familial status, status with regard to public assistance, or membership or activity in a local human rights commission as it relates to conditions of employment, personnel practices, or access to and participation in programs, services, and activities.
- We will implement the affirmative action policies, programs, and procedures reflected in this plan to ensure that employment practices are free from discrimination. Employment practices, include, but are not limited to the following: hiring, promotion, demotion, transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertising, layoff, disciplinary action, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training, including apprenticeship. We will provide reasonable accommodation to employees and applicants with disabilities.
- Diversity and inclusion are core values of our organization and we will actively promote a program of affirmative action wherever minorities, women, and individuals with disabilities are underrepresented in the workforce, and work to retain all qualified, talented employees, including protected group employees. We have established agency-wide goals to ensure we are working toward, and ultimately, achieving our diversity and inclusion goals outlined in our strategic plan.
- We measure and evaluate our efforts, including those of its senior leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors, in promoting equal opportunity and achieving affirmative action objectives contained herein. In addition, this agency will expect all employees to perform their job duties in a manner that promotes inclusion and equal opportunity for all.

It is the agency's policy and commitment to provide an employment environment free of any form of discriminatory harassment as prohibited by federal, state, and local human rights laws. I strongly encourage suggestions as to how we may improve. We strive to provide equal employment opportunities and the best possible service to all Minnesotans.

V. STATEWIDE POLICY PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

It is the policy of the State of Minnesota and the Department of Administration to maintain a work environment free from discriminatory harassment based on race, sex, color, creed, religion, national origin, disability, marital status, familial status, status with regard to public assistance, sexual orientation, or membership or activity in a local human rights commission. The Department of Administration is committed to providing a positive environment in which all staff, members of the public and others doing business with the state are treated with professionalism and respect:

Any employee subjected to such harassment should file a complaint internally with the agency's Affirmative Action Officer or designee. If the employee chooses, a complaint can be filed externally with the Minnesota Department of Human Rights, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or through other legal channels. These agencies have time limits for filing complaints, so individuals should contact the agencies for more information. In extenuating circumstances, the employee should contact the State Affirmative Action Program Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity at Minnesota Management and Budget for information regarding the filing of a complaint. Any unintentional or deliberate violation of this policy by an employee will be cause for appropriate disciplinary action.

Each employee is responsible for the application of this policy. This includes initiating and supporting programs and practices designed to develop understanding, acceptance, commitment, and compliance within the framework of this policy. All employees must be informed that harassment is unacceptable behavior. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee will be expected to keep the Department of Administration and its employees apprised of any changes in the law or its interpretation regarding this form of discrimination. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee is also responsible for:

- Notifying all employees and applicants of this policy; and
- Informing all employees of the complaint procedure and ensuring that all complaints will be investigated promptly and carefully.

Definitions:

Harassment is a form of discrimination and in general is the display of behavior by one employee toward another employee which has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

Discriminatory harassment is behavior based on protected class status that is unwelcome, personally offensive, insulting, or demeaning, and that unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment. For example, harassment based on national origin has been defined by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as "Ethnic slurs and other verbal or physical conduct relating to an individual's national origin."

Sexual harassment has also been specifically defined by the Minnesota Human Rights Act, which states in regard to employment, that:

"Sexual harassment" includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other verbal or physical conduct or communication of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to that conduct or communication is made a term or condition, either explicitly or implicitly, of obtaining employment;
- Submission to or rejection of that conduct or communication by an individual is used as a factor in decision affecting that individual's employment; or
- That conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's employment, and in the case of employment, the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

It is possible for discriminatory harassment to occur:

- Among peers or coworkers;
- Between managers and subordinates; or
- Between employees and members of the public.

Employees who experience discrimination or harassment should bring the matter to the attention of the Minnesota Department of Administration's Affirmative Action Officer or designee. In fulfilling our obligation to maintain a positive and productive work environment, the Affirmative Action Officer or designee and all employees are expected to address or report any suspected harassment or retaliation.

Varying degrees of discriminatory harassment violations can occur and require varying levels of progressive discipline. Individuals who instigate harassment are subject to serious disciplinary actions up to and including suspension, demotion, transfer, or termination. Additionally, inappropriate behaviors that do not rise to the level of discriminatory harassment, but are none the less disruptive, should be corrected early and firmly in the interests of maintaining a barrier-free work place. Individuals who participate in inappropriate behaviors at work are also subject to disciplinary actions.

Any employee or applicant who believes that they have experienced discrimination or harassment based on race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local human rights commission, disability, sexual orientation, or age may file a complaint of discrimination.

Complaints of discrimination or harassment can be filed using the internal complaint procedure included in this Affirmative Action Plan.

VI. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE FOR PROCESSING COMPLAINTS FOR ALLEGED DISCRIMINATION/HARASSMENT

---

The Minnesota Department of Administration has established the following discrimination/harassment complaint procedure to be used by all employees and applicants. Coercion, reprisal, or intimidation against anyone filing a complaint or serving as a witness under this procedure is prohibited.

Responsibility of Employee:

All employees shall respond promptly to any and all requests by the Affirmative Action Officer or designee for information and for access to data and records for the purpose of enabling the Affirmative Action Officer or designee to carry out responsibilities under this complaint procedure.

Who May File:

Any employee or job applicant who believes that they have been discriminated against or harassed by reason of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local human rights commission, disability, sexual orientation, or age may file a complaint. Employees who are terminated are encouraged to file their internal complaint prior to their actual separation; however, complaints will be taken for a reasonable period of time subsequent to the actual separation date.

Complaint Procedure:

The internal complaint procedure provides a method for resolving complaints involving violations of this agency's policy prohibiting discrimination and harassment within the agency. Employees and applicants are encouraged to use this internal complaint process. Retaliation against a person who has filed a complaint either internally or through an outside enforcement agency or other legal channels is prohibited. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee may contact the Office of Diversity and Equal Opportunity if more information is needed about filing a complaint.

Filing Procedures:

1. The employee or applicant completes the "Complaint of Discrimination/Harassment Form" provided by the Affirmative Action Officer or designee. Employees are encouraged to file a complaint within a reasonable period of time after the individual becomes aware that a situation may involve discrimination or harassment. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee will, if requested, provide assistance in filling out the form.
2. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee determines if the complaint falls under the purview of Equal Employment Opportunity law, i.e., the complainant is alleging discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local human rights commission, disability, sexual orientation, or age; or if the complaint is of a general personnel concern. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall also discuss other options for resolution, such as the workplace mediation.
  - If it is determined that the complaint is not related to discrimination but rather to general personnel concerns, the Affirmative Action Officer designee will inform the complainant, in writing, within ten (10) working days.
  - If the complaint is related to discrimination, the Affirmative Action Officer or designee will, within ten (10) working days, contact all parties named as respondents and outline the basic facts of the complaint. The respondents will be asked to provide a response to the allegations within a specific period of time.
3. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall then investigate the complaint. At the conclusion of the investigation, the Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall notify the complainants and respondents that the investigation is completed. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall then review the findings of the investigation.
  - If there is sufficient evidence to substantiate the complaint, appropriate action will be taken.
  - If insufficient evidence exists to support the complaint, a letter will be sent to the complainants and the respondents dismissing the complaint.
4. A written answer will be provided to the parties within sixty (60) days after the complaint is filed. The complainants will be notified should extenuating circumstances prevent completion of the investigation within sixty (60) days.
5. Disposition of the complaint will be filed with the Commissioner of the Minnesota Management and Budget within thirty (30) days after the final determination.

6. All documentation associated with a complaint shall be considered investigative data under the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act. The status of the complaint will be shared with the complainants and respondents. After an investigation is completed and all appeals are exhausted, all documentation is subject to the provisions of the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act.
7. All data collected may at some point become evidence in civil or criminal legal proceedings pursuant to state or federal statutes. An investigation may include, but is not limited to, the following types of data:
  - Interviews or written interrogatories with all parties involved in the complaint, i.e., complainants, respondents, and their respective witnesses; officials having pertinent records or files, etc.; and
  - All records pertaining to the case i.e., written, recorded, filmed, or in any other form.
8. The Affirmative Action Officer or designee shall maintain records of all complaints and any pertinent information or data for three (3) years after the case is closed.

VII. REASONABLE ACCOMODATION POLICY

The Department of Administration is committed to the fair and equal employment of individuals with disabilities. Reasonable accommodation is the key to this nondiscrimination policy. While many individuals with disabilities can work without accommodation, other qualified employees and applicants face barriers to employment without the accommodation process. It is the policy of the Department of Administration to reasonably accommodate qualified individuals with disabilities unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship.

State agencies must comply with all state and federal laws that prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in all employment practices. All state agencies must provide reasonable accommodations to qualified applicants and employees with disabilities unless to do so would cause an undue hardship or pose a direct threat. Agencies must provide reasonable accommodation when:

- A qualified applicant with a disability needs an accommodation to have an equal opportunity to compete for a job;
- A qualified employee with a disability needs an accommodation to perform the essential functions of the employee's job; and

A qualified employee with a disability needs an accommodation to enjoy equal access to benefits and privileges of employment (e.g., trainings, office sponsored events).

Applicant

A person who expresses interest in employment and satisfies the minimum requirements for application established by the job posting and job description.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Coordinator

Each agency is required to appoint an ADA coordinator or designee, depending on agency size, to direct and coordinate agency compliance with Title I of the ADA.

Direct Threat

A significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of the individual or others that cannot be eliminated or reduced by reasonable accommodation.

The determination that an individual poses a direct threat shall be based on an individualized assessment of the individual's present ability to safely perform the essential functions of the job.

Essential Functions

Duties so fundamental that the individual cannot do the job without being able to perform them. A function can be essential if:

- The job exists specifically to perform the function(s); or
- There are a limited number of other employees who could perform the function(s); or
- The function(s) is/are specialized and the individual is hired based on the employee's expertise.

Interactive Process

A discussion between the employer and the individual with a disability to determine an effective reasonable accommodation for the individual with a disability. To be interactive, both sides must communicate and exchange information.

Individual with a Disability

An individual who:

- Has a physical, sensory, or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; or
- Has a record or history of such impairment; or
- Is regarded as having such impairment.

Qualified Individual with a Disability

An individual who:

- Satisfies the requisite skill, experience, education, and other job-related requirements of the job that the individual holds or desires; and
- Can perform the essential functions of the position with or without reasonable accommodation.

Major Life Activities

May include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, and working.

Major life activities also include the operation of a major bodily function, including but not limited to, functions of the immune system, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, endocrine, and reproductive functions.

Medical Documentation

Information from the requestor's treating provider which is sufficient to enable the employer to determine whether an individual has a disability and whether and what type of reasonable accommodation is needed when the disability or the need for accommodation is not obvious.

Medical documentation can be requested using the standardized Letter Requesting Documentation for Determining ADA Eligibility from a Medical Provider.

Reasonable Accommodation

An adjustment or alteration that enables a qualified individual with a disability to apply for a job, perform job duties, or enjoy the benefits and privileges of employment. Reasonable accommodations may include:

- Modifications or adjustments to a job application process to permit a qualified individual with a disability to be considered for a job; or
- Modifications or adjustments to enable a qualified individual with a disability to perform the essential functions of the job; or
- Modifications or adjustments that enable qualified employees with disabilities to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment.

Modifications or adjustments may include, but are not limited to:

- Providing materials in alternative formats like large print or Braille;
- Providing assistive technology, including information technology and communications equipment, or specially designed furniture;

- Modifying work schedules or supervisory methods;
- Granting breaks or providing leave;
- Altering how or when job duties are performed;
- Removing and/or substituting a marginal function;
- Moving to a different office space;
- Providing telework;
- Making changes in workplace policies;
- Providing a reader or other staff assistant to enable employees to perform their job functions, where a reasonable accommodation cannot be provided by current staff;
- Removing an architectural barrier, including reconfiguring work spaces;
- Providing accessible parking; or
- Providing a reassignment to a vacant position.

Reassignment

Reassignment to a vacant position for which an employee is qualified is a “last resort” form of a reasonable accommodation. This type of accommodation must be provided to an employee, who, because of a disability, can no longer perform the essential functions of the position, with or without reasonable accommodation, unless the employer can show that it will be an undue hardship.

Support Person

Any person an individual with a disability identifies to help during the reasonable accommodation process in terms of filling out paperwork, attending meetings during the interactive process to take notes or ask clarifying questions, or to provide emotional support.

Undue Hardship

A specific reasonable accommodation would require significant difficulty or expense. Undue hardship is always determined on a case-by-case basis considering factors that include the nature and cost of the accommodation requested and the impact of the accommodation on the operations of the agency. A state agency is not required to provide accommodations that would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the agency.

General Standards and Expectations

Individuals who may request a reasonable accommodation include

- Any qualified applicant with a disability who needs assistance with the job application procedure or the interview or selection process; or

- Any qualified agency employee with a disability who needs a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of the position; or
- A third party, such as a family member, friend, health professional or other representative, on behalf of a qualified applicant or employee with a disability, when the applicant or employee is unable to make the request for reasonable accommodation. When possible, the agency must contact the applicant or employee to confirm that the accommodation is wanted. The applicant or employee has the discretion to accept or reject the proposed accommodation.

The agency must abide by the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, Chapter 13, in obtaining or sharing information related to accommodation requests.

How to request a reasonable accommodation

An agency applicant or employee may make a reasonable accommodation request to any or all of the following:

- Immediate supervisor or manager in the employee's chain of command;
- Agency Affirmative Action Officer/Designee;
- Agency ADA Coordinator;
- Agency Human Resources Office;
- Any agency official with whom the applicant has contact during the application, interview and/or selection process.

Timing of the request

An applicant or employee may request a reasonable accommodation at any time, even if the individual has not previously disclosed the existence of a disability or the need for an accommodation. A request is any communication in which an individual asks or states that he or she needs the agency to provide or change something because of a medical condition.

The reasonable accommodation process begins as soon as possible after the request for accommodation is made.

Form of the request

The applicant or employee is responsible for requesting a reasonable accommodation or providing sufficient notice to the agency that an accommodation is needed.

An initial request for accommodation may be made in any manner (e.g., writing, electronically, in person or orally).

The individual requesting an accommodation does not have to use any special words and does not have to mention the ADA or use the phrase "reasonable accommodation" or "disability."

Oral requests must be documented in writing to ensure efficient processing of requests.

Agency request forms can be found at: "Employee/Applicant Request for Reasonable Accommodation Form".

When a supervisor or manager observes or receives information indicating that an employee is experiencing difficulty performing the job due to a medical condition or disability, further inquiry may be required. Supervisors or managers should consult with the agency ADA Coordinator for advice on how to proceed.

When an employee needs the same reasonable accommodation on a repeated basis (e.g., the assistance of a sign language interpreter), a written request for accommodation is required the first time only. However, the employee requesting an accommodation must give appropriate advance notice each subsequent time the accommodation is needed. If the accommodation is needed on a regular basis (e.g., a weekly staff meeting), the agency must make appropriate arrangements without requiring a request in advance of each occasion.

The interactive process entails

Communication is a priority and encouraged throughout the entire reasonable accommodation process. The interactive process is a collaborative process between the employee and/or applicant and the agency to explore and identify specific reasonable accommodation(s). (For information on the Interactive Process see the U.S. Department of Labor, Job Accommodation Network at <http://askjan.org/topics/interactive.htm>). This process is required when:

- The need for a reasonable accommodation is not obvious;
- The specific limitation, problem or barrier is unclear;
- An effective reasonable accommodation is not obvious;
- The parties are considering different forms of reasonable accommodation;
- The medical condition changes or fluctuates; or,
- There are questions about the reasonableness of the requested accommodation.

The interactive process should begin as soon as possible after a request for reasonable accommodation is made or the need for accommodation becomes known.

The process should ensure a full exchange of relevant information and communication between the individual and the agency. An individual may request that the agency ADA Coordinator, a union representative, or support person be present.

The agency ADA Coordinator shall be consulted when:

- Issues, conflicts or questions arise in the interactive process; and
- Prior to denying a request for accommodation.

Agency responsibilities for processing the request

As the first step in processing a request for reasonable accommodation, the person who receives the request must promptly forward the request to the appropriate decision maker. At the same time, the recipient will notify the requestor who the decision maker is.

Commissioner

The commissioner of the agency or agency head has the ultimate responsibility to ensure compliance with the ADA and this policy and appoint an ADA Coordinator.

ADA Coordinator

The agency ADA Coordinator is the agency's decision maker for reasonable accommodation requests for all types of requests outside of the supervisors' and managers' authority. The agency ADA Coordinator will work with the supervisor and manager, and where necessary, with agency Human Resources, to implement the approved reasonable accommodation.

Supervisors and Managers

Agencies have the authority to designate the level of management approval needed for reasonable accommodation requests for low-cost purchases. For example:

- Requests for standard office equipment that is needed as a reasonable accommodation and adaptive items costing less than $100. [Agencies can adjust the dollar amount based on their needs]; and
- Requests for a change in a condition of employment such as modified duties, or a change in schedule, or the location and size of an employee's workspace. [Agencies can choose to delegate specific requests to supervisors or managers or require these types of requests to work through the agency ADA Coordinator].

Analysis for processing requests

Before approving or denying a request for accommodation, the agency decision maker with assistance from the agency ADA Coordinator will:

1. Determine if the requestor is a qualified individual with a disability;
2. Determine if the accommodation is needed to:

- Enable a qualified applicant with a disability to be considered for the position the individual desires;
  - Enable a qualified employee with a disability to perform the essential functions of the position; or
  - Enable a qualified employee with a disability to enjoy equal benefits or privileges of employment as similarly situated employees without disabilities;
3. Determine whether the requested accommodation is reasonable;
  4. Determine whether there is a reasonable accommodation that will be effective for the requestor and the agency; and
  5. Determine whether the reasonable accommodation will impose an undue hardship on the agency's operations.

An employee's accommodation preference is always seriously considered, but the agency is not obligated to provide the requestor's accommodation of choice, so long as it offers an effective accommodation, or determines that accommodation would cause an undue hardship.

Obtaining medical documentation in connection with a request for reasonable accommodation

In some cases, the disability and need for accommodation will be reasonably evident or already known, for example, where an employee is blind. In these cases, the agency will not seek further medical documentation. If a requestor's disability and/or need for reasonable accommodation are not obvious or already known, the agency ADA Coordinator may require medical information showing that the requestor has a covered disability that requires accommodation. The agency ADA Coordinator may request medical information in certain other circumstances. For example when:

- The information submitted by the requestor is insufficient to document the disability or the need for the accommodation;
- A question exists as to whether an individual is able to perform the essential functions of the position, with or without reasonable accommodation; or
- A question exists as to whether the employee will pose a direct threat to himself/herself or others.

Where medical documentation is necessary, the agency ADA Coordinator must make the request and use the Letter Requesting Documentation for Determining ADA Eligibility from a Medical Provider. The agency ADA Coordinator must also obtain the requestor's completed and signed Authorization for Release of Medical Information.

Only medical documentation specifically related to the employee's request for accommodation and ability to perform the essential functions of the position will be requested. When medical documentation or information is appropriately requested, an employee must provide it in a timely manner, or the agency may deny the reasonable accommodation request. Agencies must not request medical records; medical records are not appropriate documentation and cannot be accepted. Supervisors and managers must not request medical information or documentation from an applicant or employee seeking an accommodation. Such a request will be made by the agency ADA Coordinator, if appropriate.

Confidentiality requirements

Medical Information

Medical information obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process must be kept confidential. All medical information obtained in connection with such requests must be collected and maintained on separate forms and in separate physical or electronic files from non-medical personnel files and records. Electronic copies of medical information obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process must be stored so that access is limited to only the agency ADA Coordinator. Physical copies of such medical information must be stored in a locked cabinet or office when not in use or unattended. Generally, medical documentation obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process should only be reviewed by the agency ADA Coordinator.

The agency ADA Coordinator may disclose medical information obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process to the following:

- Supervisors, managers or agency HR staff who have a need to know may be told about the necessary work restrictions and about the accommodations necessary to perform the employee's duties. However, information about the employee's medical condition should only be disclosed if strictly necessary, such as for safety reasons;
- First aid and safety personnel may be informed, when appropriate, if the employee may require emergency treatment or assistance in an emergency evacuation;
- To consult with the State ADA Coordinator or Employment Law Counsel at MMB, or the Attorney General's Office about accommodation requests, denial of accommodation requests or purchasing of specific assistive technology or other resources; or
- Government officials assigned to investigate agency compliance with the ADA.

Whenever medical information is appropriately disclosed as described above, the recipients of the information must comply with all confidentiality requirements.

Accommodation Information

The fact that an individual is receiving an accommodation because of a disability is confidential and may only be shared with those individuals who have a need to know for purposes of implementing the accommodation, such as the requestor's supervisor and the agency ADA Coordinator.

General Information

General summary information regarding an employee's or applicant's status as an individual with a disability may be collected by agency equal opportunity officials to maintain records and evaluate and report on the agency's performance in hiring, retention, and processing reasonable accommodation requests.

Approval of requests for reasonable accommodation

As soon as the decision maker determines that a reasonable accommodation will be provided, the agency ADA Coordinator will process the request and provide the reasonable accommodation in as short of a timeframe as possible. The time necessary to process a request will depend on the nature of the accommodation requested and whether it is necessary to obtain supporting information. If an approved accommodation cannot be provided within a reasonable time, the decision maker will inform the requestor of the status of the request before the end of 30 days. Where feasible, if there is a delay in providing the request, temporary measures will be taken to provide assistance.

Once approved, the reasonable accommodation should be documented for record keeping purposes and the records maintained by the agency ADA Coordinator.

Funding for reasonable accommodations

The agency must specify how the agency will pay for reasonable accommodations.

Procedures for reassignment as a reasonable accommodation

Reassignment to a vacant position is an accommodation that must be considered if there are no effective reasonable accommodations that would enable the employee to perform the essential functions of his/her current job, or if all other reasonable accommodations would impose an undue hardship.

The agency ADA Coordinator will work with agency Human Resources staff and the requestor to identify appropriate vacant positions within the agency for which the employee may be qualified and can perform the essential functions of the vacant position, with or without reasonable accommodation. Vacant positions which are equivalent to the employee's current job in terms of pay, status, and other relevant factors will be considered first. If there are none, the agency will consider vacant lower level positions for which the individual is qualified. The EEOC recommends that the agency consider positions that are currently vacant or will be coming open within at least the next 60 days.

Denial of requests for reasonable accommodation

The agency ADA Coordinator must be contacted for assistance and guidance prior to denying any request for reasonable accommodation. The agency may deny a request for reasonable accommodation where:

- The individual is not a qualified individual with a disability;
- The reasonable accommodation results in undue hardship or the individual poses a direct threat to the individual or others. Undue hardship and direct threat are determined on a case-by-case basis with guidance from the agency ADA Coordinator; or
- Where no reasonable accommodation, including reassignment to a vacant position, will enable the employee to perform all the essential functions of the job.

The explanation for denial must be provided to the requestor in writing. The explanation should be written in plain language and clearly state the specific reasons for denial. Where the decision maker has denied a specific requested accommodation, but has offered a different accommodation in its place, the decision letter should explain both the reasons for denying the accommodation requested and the reasons that the accommodation being offered will be effective.

Consideration of undue hardship

An interactive process must occur prior to the agency making a determination of undue hardship. Determination of undue hardship is made on a case-by-case basis and only after consultation with the agency's ADA Coordinator. In determining whether granting a reasonable accommodation will cause an undue hardship, the agency considers factors such as the nature and cost of the accommodation in relationship to the size and resources of the agency and the impact the accommodation will have on the operations of the agency.

Agencies may deny reasonable accommodations based upon an undue hardship. Prior to denying reasonable accommodation requests due to lack of financial resources, the agency will consult with the State ADA Coordinator at MMB.

Determining direct threat

The determination that an individual poses a "direct threat," (i.e., a significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of the individual or others) which cannot be eliminated or reduced by a reasonable accommodation, must be based on an individualized assessment of the individual's present ability to safely perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation. A determination that an individual poses a direct threat cannot be based on fears, misconceptions, or stereotypes about the individual's disability. Instead, the agency must make a reasonable medical judgment, relying on the most current medical knowledge and the best available objective evidence.

In determining whether an individual poses a direct threat, the factors to be considered include:

- Duration of the risk;
- Nature and severity of the potential harm;
- Likelihood that the potential harm will occur; and
- Imminence of the potential harm.

Appeals process in the event of denial

In addition to providing the requestor with the reasons for denial of a request for reasonable accommodation, agencies must designate a process for review when an applicant or employee chooses to appeal the denial of a reasonable accommodation request. This process:

- Must include review by an agency official;
- May include review by the State ADA Coordinator; and/or
- Must inform the requestor of the statutory right to file a charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or the Minnesota Department of Human Rights.

Information tracking and records retention

Agencies must track reasonable accommodations requested and report once a year by September 1st to MMB the number and types of accommodations requested, approved, denied and other relevant information.

Agencies must retain reasonable accommodation documentation according to the agency's document retention schedule, but in all cases for at least one year from the date the record is made or the personnel action involved is taken, whichever occurs later. 29 C.F.R. § 1602.14.

VIII. EVACUATION PROCEDURES FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Administration offices are housed in multiple buildings; each building has a separate Evacuation Plan.

An online copy of the agency's weather and emergency evacuation plans can be found at: <http://mn.gov/admin/employees/policies/index.jsp> and a list of the links to each specific buildings Evacuation Plan is attached within the Appendix, at the end of this Plan document.

Knowledge and preparation by both individuals needing assistance and those who don't is key to reducing the impact of emergencies. When developing a plan, safety needs should be determined on a case-by-case basis because it varies with each individual and building.

Everyone has a responsibility to develop their own personal emergency evacuation plan, this includes individuals with disabilities or individuals who will need assistance during evacuation. The Americans with Disabilities Act Coordinator or designee in each agency will work to develop a plan and consult the appropriate building and safety personnel.

Senior Leaders, Directors, managers, and supervisors should review the emergency evacuation procedures with staff, including informing all staff that if additional assistance may be needed, and individuals with disabilities should contact the agency contacts listed within the Appendix of this plan.

Evacuation Options:

Individuals with disabilities have four basic, possibly five, evacuation options:

- Horizontal evacuation: Using building exits to the outside ground level or going into unaffected wings of multi-building complexes;
- Stairway evacuation: Using steps to reach ground level exits from building;
- Shelter in place: Unless danger is imminent, remain in a room with an exterior window, a telephone, and a solid or fire resistant door. If the individual requiring special evacuation assistance remains in place, they should dial 911 immediately and report their location to emergency services, who will in turn relay that information to on-site responders. The shelter in place approach may be more appropriate for sprinkler protected buildings where an area of refuge is not nearby or available. It may be more appropriate for an individual who is alone when the alarm sounds;
- Area of rescue assistance: Identified areas that can be used as a means of egress for individuals with disabilities. These areas, located on floors above or below the building's exits, can be used by individuals with disabilities until rescue can be facilitated by emergency responders; and/or
- For agencies equipped with an evacuation chair: Evacuation chairs or a light-weight solution to descending stairways can be used and generally require single user operation. If an agency is equipped with an evacuation chair, best practice indicates that all employees are trained and have practiced evacuating using an evacuation chair.

Evacuation Procedures for Individuals with Mobility, Hearing, or Visual Disabilities:

Individuals with disabilities should follow the following procedures:

- Mobility disabilities (individuals who use wheelchairs or other personal mobility devices (“PMDs”)): Individuals using wheelchairs should be accompanied to an area of rescue assistance by an employee or shelter in place when the alarm sounds. The safety and security staff will respond to each of the areas of rescue assistance every time a building evacuation is initiated to identify the individuals in these areas and notify to emergency responders how many individuals need assistance to safely evacuate.
- Mobility disabilities (individuals who do not use wheelchairs): Individuals with mobility disabilities, who are able to walk independently, may be able to negotiate stairs in an emergency with minor assistance. If danger is imminent, the individual should wait until the heavy traffic has cleared before attempting the stairs. If there is no immediate danger (detectable smoke, fire, or unusual odor), the individual with a disability may choose to wait at the area of rescue assistance until emergency responders arrive to assist them.
- Hearing disabilities: The agency’s buildings are equipped with fire alarm horns/strobes that sound the alarm and flash strobe lights. The strobe lights are for individuals with who are deaf and/or hard of hearing. Individuals with hearing disabilities may not notice or hear emergency alarms and will need to be alerted of emergency situations.
- Visual disabilities: The agency’s buildings are equipped with fire alarm horn/strobes that sound the alarm and flash strobe lights. The horn will alert individuals who are blind or have visual disabilities of the need to evacuate. Most individuals with visual disabilities will be familiar with their immediate surroundings and frequently traveled routes. Since the emergency evacuation route is likely different from the common traveled route, individuals with visual disabilities may need assistance in evacuating. The assistant should offer assistance, and if accepted, guide the individual with a visual disability through the evacuation route.

Severe Weather Evacuation Options:

Individuals with disabilities or who are in need of assistance during an evacuation have three evacuation options based on their location in their building:

- Horizontal evacuation: If located on the ground or basement floor, severe weather shelter areas are located throughout each floor;
- Elevator evacuation: If there are no safe areas above the ground floor, the elevator may be used to evacuate to the ground or basement levels; and/or

- Shelter in Place: Seeking shelter in a designated severe weather shelter and remaining there until the all clear is used.

IX. GOALS AND TIMETABLES

Through the utilization analysis, the agency has determined which job categories are underutilized for women, minorities, and individuals with disabilities within the agency and has set the following hiring goals for the next two years (Reference Table 2).

Table 2. Underutilization Analysis and Hiring Goals for 2016-2018

The second, third, and fourth columns of this chart show the number of underutilized individuals of each group in each category at this agency. The fifth, sixth, and seventh columns show the agency’s hiring goals for each group in each category.

Job Categories	Underutilization - # of Individuals			Hiring Goals for 2016-2018
	Women	Racial/Ethnic Minorities	Individuals With Disabilities	Women	Racial/Ethnic Minorities	Individuals With Disabilities
Officials/Administrators			1			1
Professionals					1	1
Office/Clerical			1			1
Technicians		1			1
Skilled Craft	3	2	3	1	1	1
Service Maintenance	25	2	4	7	2	2

Availability:

The agency determined the recruitment area to be Minneapolis/St. Paul metropolitan statistical area for all job categories except for Officials/Administrators and Professionals. The recruitment areas for these EEO categories was determined to be statewide since recruitment for these positions is typically broader (i.e., statewide and sometimes nationwide).

In conducting its underutilization analysis, the agency used both the one and two factor analysis but ultimately determined that agency will proceed with using the two-factor analysis for setting its hiring goals for the 2016-2018 plan. This decision was made based on the fact that the availability numbers are relatively equal. However, it is recognized that in some categories (i.e., skilled craft and service maintenance) we do not have a large population of internal candidates for which to meet our affirmative action goals for women and therefore will need to tap into external resources.

Underutilization Analysis worksheets are attached in the appendix. Numbers less than 10 are indicated with "<10" in accordance with Minnesota Management and Budget's guidance on data privacy.

Women:

The population of women has improved in the following job categories: Technicians and Service Maintenance. During the 2014-2016 plan period the agency set a goal in this category to hire four women in Skilled Craft and ten in Service Maintenance. The agency hired eight women in the Service Maintenance category moving us closer to fulfilling our hiring goal. The agency had an opportunity to hire; however, due to the candidate's inability to pass the physical requirement a formal job offer was not made. Currently, the agency is reviewing the requirements of some plant maintenance positions to determine where barriers may exist for women, minorities, and individuals with disabilities. Although the agency currently shows 25 underutilized female employees, based on the foreseen number of future vacancies an attainable goal is set at 7.

No goals were set for Officials/Administrators, Professionals, and Office/Clerical for the 2014-2016 plan. Based on the analysis no underutilization exists in these categories as we have managed to maintain the same number of women. The agency will analyze separation data to ensure there is no early warning signs suggesting that disparate impact exists. In this next review period, the agency will engage senior leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors in dialogue around recruitment strategies, retention strategies and career development.

Minorities:

The population of minorities within the agency has improved in the following job categories: Officials/Administrators, Professionals, Skilled Craft, and Service Maintenance due to reaching hiring goals set in the prior plan period. Separations of minority employees in the Office Clerical and Skilled Craft categories have impaired the agency's ability to reach its hiring goals. For the 2016-2018 plans the agency has set goals for Professionals, Technicians, Skilled Craft, and Service Maintenance and plans to utilize targeted recruitment strategies to work towards improvements. The agency will partner with the MMB Executive Recruiter to create awareness about our positions among minority communities. The agency will participate in at least two career fairs and work with DEED to get the word out to potential applicants regarding openings.

Individuals with Disabilities:

At the agency, we were able to maintain the same level for the Professionals, Technicians, and Service Maintenance categories. There was an improvement in the Officials/Administrator category. The agency decided to set goals in most of the categories to be more aggressive in recruiting people with disabilities. These improvements resulted from a variety of factors: multiple opportunities to hire new talent, use of a new diversity-focused recruitment, a change in the official availability percentage, and finally, better self-identification by new and current employees. In this review period, the agency will work with programs (i.e., 700 Hour Program and the Governor's Initiatives for getting individuals with disabilities into ground service work, etc.) to identify ways to increase our presentation of individuals with disabilities into the workforce.

X. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

---

In pursuing the agency's commitment to affirmative action, the agency will take the following actions during 2016-2018:

Objective #1: Continuous Process Improvement – continue to implement results of Continuous Improvement process evaluations and develop and build new/revised processes.

Action Steps:

1. Continue reviewing and improving current practices in the Pre-Employment review process.
2. Communicate with senior leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors "up front" and throughout the selection process regarding diversity-related matters.
3. Educate senior leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors about their role in implementing the Affirmative Action plan.
4. Utilize effective resources and best practices to ensure that unbiased hiring decisions are made.
5. Assess needs and develop processes to enhance retention efforts as needed.
6. Continue to monitor all phases of the recruitment and selection process, and build ongoing conversations with managers and supervisors throughout the hiring process.
7. Require "Workplace Expectations – Work Relationships, Workplace Values, and Customer Service" in all position descriptions (includes respect for others, valuing diversity, etc.).
8. Review orientation processes to ensure that diversity needs and expectations are met (content, delivery, location, materials, etc.).
9. Monitor and analyze separation data and incorporate findings within agency retention plan.
10. Engage senior leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors in dialogue about retention strategies and career path development.
11. Work with internal staff to review safety practices related to individuals with disabilities (e.g., identify contact(s) for each building as needed).

Evaluation:

Most of the objectives were set in the agency's last Affirmative Action plan and will continue in the new plan to ensure the agency's ongoing commitment to affirmative action/equal opportunity. The process improvement initiatives is an ongoing effort in keeping the agency on track with its diversity goals.

Objective #2: Recruitment Planning – identify agency recruitment needs, assess current practices and identify best processes to better meet future recruitment needs, and to plan and document recruitment/outreach activities.

Action Steps:

1. Develop and implement an active, robust recruitment strategy for each vacancy where disparity exists.
2. Continue utilizing statewide resources available for all relevant vacancies (e.g., MMB's Enterprise HR diversity recruitment tools website, MMB's diversity email list; DEED's "Job Bank", etc.).
3. Develop standard and targeted recruitment plans and materials when applicable for all relevant vacancies (including sources used, costs, evaluation, and future recommendations).
4. Explore development of an annual recruitment plan including recruitment sources to meet ongoing/recurring needs.
5. Develop and implement a screening question in Recruiting Solutions to track and evaluate recruitment results.
6. Involve managers/supervisors in the recruitment planning for all relevant vacancies.
7. Partner with other agencies to meet current and future staffing needs. Represent the agency and State of Minnesota at recruiting events when feasible.
8. Partner with the Statewide Executive Recruiter to create awareness of Admin executive-level vacancies within diverse communities. Utilize the "Minnesota State Government Executive Job eblast" to promote executive and professional level positions within the agency.
9. Encourage senior leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors to partner with Human Resources at Job Fairs so that managers can share a "day-in-the-life" scenarios/examples with potential applicants.

Evaluation:

Some objectives above were set in the agency's last Affirmative Action Plan and some are new or revised. All objectives will continue in the new Affirmative Action Plan to ensure the agency's ongoing commitment to recruit affirmatively. The agency recognizes the need for targeted recruitment/outreach for categories which historically have proven to be difficult to fill.

Objective #3: Interns, Trainees, Community Outreach, and Internal Outreach – develop multiple means to attract and develop current and future talent pools.

Action Steps:

1. Encourage and increase participation in Internship and other student employment programs; promote at the agency level and with senior leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors.
2. Develop capacity to better use social media for enhanced external recruitment (target to specific groups, educational contacts, etc.).
3. Develop relationships, “talent pipelines”, and trainee-like programs for hard-to-fill positions where possible (e.g., Dunwoody Institute for Electrician, Machinist careers).
4. Expand the use of youth and leadership development programs for low-income students, youths of color, and youths with disabilities who are seeking meaningful training, work, and career exploration opportunities (i.e., “Focus Beyond, Right Track, Step Up, etc).
5. Explore partnerships with community/technical colleges and nonprofits to fill agency positions and as a resource for interns.
6. Participate in Internship career fairs, Employer-of-the-Day events at the Department of Employment and Economic Development, Metropolitan State University’s Networking and Job Fairs, etc., - as resources permit.

Evaluation:

Most of the objectives were set in the agency’s last Affirmative Action Plan and will continue in the new plan to ensure the agency’s ongoing commitment to build a talent pipeline for its current and future positions and to develop relationships with the communities. The agency has utilized student workers and interns during the 2014-2016 reporting period. The agency continues to see value in exploring a variety of options to bring in interns and students workers to the organization.

Objective #4: Implement agency-wide Diversity and Inclusion Team

Action Steps:

1. Assess internal interest, needs, and resources.
2. Encourage employees to participate in the planning, meetings, trainings, activities, etc.
3. Offer inclusion training to provide opportunities for new knowledge, insights, and open discussion (events, video conferences, computer-based learning, etc.).
4. Foster an inclusive, welcoming, and supportive work environment for all employees.

Evaluation:

This is a new objective.

XI. METHODS OF AUDITING, EVALUATING, AND REPORTING PROGRAM SUCCESS

A. Pre-Employment Review Procedure/Monitoring the Hiring Process

The agency will evaluate its selection process to determine if its requirements unnecessarily screen out a disproportionate number of women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, or veterans. The agency will use the monitoring the hiring process form for every hire to track the number of women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, and veterans in each stage of the selection process. Senior Leaders, Directors, managers, and supervisors will work closely with human resources and the Affirmative Action Officer in reviewing the requirements for the position, posting the position, and interviewing and selection to ensure that equal opportunity and affirmative action is carried out. Directors, managers, and supervisors will be asked to document their hiring decisions and equal opportunity professionals will review for bias.

Any time the agency does not meet its hiring goals, the agency must justify its non-affirmative action hires in competitive and noncompetitive appointments or take a missed opportunity. "Missed opportunity" includes failure to justify a non-affirmative action hire. The Deputy Commissioner will authorize any missed opportunity. The agency will report the number of affirmative and non-affirmative hires as well as missed opportunities to Minnesota Management and Budget on a quarterly basis.

When candidates are offered interviews, employees scheduling interviews will describe the interview format to the candidate and provide an invitation to request a reasonable accommodation for individuals with disabilities to allow the candidate equal opportunity to participate in the interview process. For example, describe if interview questions are offered ahead of time or what technology may be used during the interview process. This allows for an individual with a disability to determine if they may need a reasonable accommodation in advance of the interview.

All personnel involved in the selection process will be trained and accountable for the agency's commitment to equal opportunity and the affirmative action program and its implementation.

B. Pre-Review Procedure for Layoff Decisions

The Affirmative Action Officer, in conjunction with the agency's human resources office, shall be responsible for reviewing all pending layoffs to determine their effect on the agency's affirmative action goals and timetables.

If it is determined that there is an adverse impact on protected groups, the agency will document the reasons why the layoff is occurring, such as positions targeted for layoff, applicable personnel policies or collective bargaining agreement provisions, or other relevant reasons. The agency will determine if other alternatives are available to minimize the impact on protected groups.

C. Other Methods of Program Evaluation

The agency submits the following compliance reports to Minnesota Management and Budget as part of the efforts to evaluate the agency's affirmative action program:

- Quarterly Monitoring the Hiring Process Reports;
- Biannual Affirmative Action Plan;
- Annual Americans with Disabilities Act Report;
- Annual Internal Complaint Report; and
- Disposition of Internal Complaint (within 30 days of final disposition).

The agency also evaluates the Affirmative Action Plan in the following ways:

- Monitors progress toward stated goals by job category;
- Analyzes employment activity (hires, promotions, and terminations) by job category to determine if there is adverse impact;
- Analyzes compensation program to determine if there are patterns of discrimination;
- Reviews the accessibility of online systems, websites, and ensures that reasonable accommodations can be easily requested; and
- Discusses progress with agency leadership on a periodic basis and makes recommendations for improvement.

XII. RECRUITMENT PLAN

---

The objective of this recruitment plan is to ensure the agency's recruitment programs are publicly marketed, attract, and obtain qualified applicants, enhance the image of state employment, and to assist in meeting the affirmative action goals to achieve a diverse workforce.

Recruitment costs incurred during the 2014-2016 plan year total: $5,200

Below are various recruitment methods or strategies utilized by the agency during the past year.

A. Advertising Sources

Admin used an array of advertising sources to attract qualified applicants during the 2014-2016 plan period (e.g., websites, job boards, newspapers, memberships, listserves, staffing agencies, etc.): Monster.com, Dice, MN Society of Health Pharmacists, various professional pharmacist sites, LinkedIn, Star Tribune (print and online), Council of Non-Profits, MMB's diversity email list, DEED's MNWorks site, governmentjobs.com, NAFA-Fleet Management Association, Indeed, etc. We will formally evaluate each source used in all future recruitments to assess effectiveness, return on investment, and utility for attracting a diverse pool of applicants.

B. Job and Community Fairs

During the 2014-2016 plan period Admin participated in a number of job fairs including U of MN Job and Internship Fair, Dunwoody Job Fair, DEED Job Fair, Veteran's Career Fair, State of MN Hiring Event housed by the Minneapolis South Workforce Center and the Workforce Center in Burnsville, and Humphrey School Career Engagement Fair.

Admin will plan for future participation in job and community fairs to attract qualified applicants during the 2016-2018 plan period based on research and recommendation on the most relevant sources; we will focus our work specifically on any relevant opportunities to partner with MMB and other agencies as resources permit (e.g., job fairs, community events, conferences, etc.) – e.g., Human Rights conference, DEED Employer of the Day, etc. We will formally evaluate each source used in all future recruitments to assess effectiveness, return on investment, and utility for attracting a diverse pool of applicants.

C. College and University Recruitment Events

Admin HR staff attended the following college/university recruitment events during the 2014-2016 plan period (e.g., college job fairs, mock interviews, employer panels, college/classroom visits, etc.): Minnesota Private College Council's Job Fair, University of Minnesota's College of Liberal Arts Job Fair; University of Minnesota's IT Symposium; Dunwoody Institute's career/technical representatives. We will formally evaluate each college/university source used in all future recruitments to assess effectiveness, return on investment, and utility for attracting a diverse pool of applicants.

D. Recruitment for Individuals with Disabilities

Review of job postings for physical and sensory requirements and ensure that qualifications in job postings are inclusive and do not pose any unnecessary barriers. The agency will review all job postings for physical and sensory requirements and determine if the qualifications for the position are job-related and consistent with business necessity. Additionally, our agency will edit language pertaining to physical and sensory requirements and change this language to reflect more inclusive language for job qualifications.

MN Department of Administration
AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN 2016-2018

1) Self-Identification

- a. At the time of application and once a year, our agency will communicate to our employees that we collect summary data related to the number of individuals who have applied for positions and who are in our workforce. We will inform employees that we collect this summary data to make determinations about where we need to improve in terms of recruitment, selection, or retention of individuals with disabilities.

2) Supported Worker

- a. The agency supports the employment of individuals with disabilities and will review vacant positions to determine if job tasks can be performed by a supported employment worker. We will work with community organizations that provide employment services to individuals with disabilities to recruit for these positions.
- b. Implement and ensure that reviews of positions are taking place. We will work with DEED – Vocational Rehabilitation Services (VRS) or the MMB State ADA Coordinator to assist us in our efforts.

3) 700-Hour Program

- a. Where possible, our agency will utilize the 700-hour program which allows our agency to hire an individual with a disability and provide them training. At the end of this period, our agency can hire the individual.

4) Go Accessible! Campaign

- a. Our agency will distribute marketing material and resources to our staff to remind them to create accessible electronic documents and systems, so that employees with disabilities coming into the workforce can contribute to the workforce and will be able to access similar information and resources as other employees.

5) Reasonable Accommodation

- a. We will prominently display on our career site that we will provide reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with a disability who apply for our positions where needed. Once hired, we will educate employees and supervisors and managers on accommodating employees in the workplace.

6) Strategic Partnerships

- a. Our agency will build strategic partnerships with DEED - Vocational Rehabilitation Services (“VRS”), DEED - State Services for the Blind (“SSB”), and other state agency partners to conduct job evaluations and to assist in recruitment or referral of candidates to open positions. Our agency will work to inform VRS or SSB when a position is posted or prior to a posting if possible about the positions. Additionally, we will post positions for at least 7 days to ensure equal opportunity to apply for the position.

7) Self-Analysis

- a. Our agency will conduct periodic self-checks to determine if our systems or documents are accessible, language in our job postings is inclusive, and reasonable accommodations have been provided and staff have been trained on how to provide reasonable accommodations.

8) Reporting

- a. Our agency will conduct a quarterly analysis of the number of individuals with disabilities who have applied for positions and the number of individuals with disabilities hired.

E. Relationship Building and Outreach

- Initial efforts were completed with Dunwoody Institute to explore and preliminarily develop the concept for future “trainee-like” opportunities for their specialized trades programs.
- Initial discovery done with Department of Transportation on their SEEDS and Phoenix programs.
- Develop contacts and ongoing relationships to promote and select students for the Star of the North Fellowship and other internship programs (e.g., with the Humphrey Institute).
- Participated in the University of Minnesota’s College of Liberal Arts Job Fair.
- Partnering with Minneapolis Community and Technical College (MCTC) and Partners for Pride in Living (PPL) on the Building Operations Technician (BOT) program; Admin will host three interns from this program and anticipate creating a new trainee job classification.
- Partnering with Pride in Living (PPL), Department of Human Services (DHS), and other public employers on a Public Sector Office Administration Program.
- Partnering with the Minnesota Department of Education (MDE), DEED, and the Forest Lake School District to employ young adults with disabilities into the Plant Maintenance division.

We will formally evaluate each source used in future recruitments to assess effectiveness, return on investment, and utility for attracting a diverse pool of applicants. We will continue to identify and forge new relationships as opportunities become available.

F. Internships

Admin used internship programs during the 2014-2016 plan year, including the following: MMB-sponsored use of the City of St. Paul’s “Right Track” program, the Fellowship program, and Urban Scholars, etc. Additionally, we will explore ways to expand program options and opportunities – e.g., St. Paul Public Schools “Focus Beyond” throughout our organization.

G. Supported Employment (M.S. 43A.191, Subd. 2(d))

The agency supports the employment of individuals with disabilities and will review vacant positions to determine if job tasks can be performed by a supported employment workers. We will work with community organizations that provide employment services to individuals with disabilities to recruit for these positions.

H. Additional Recruitment Activities

We will continue use of job boards, college/university programs, high school programs (Right Track). Although there are resource constraints which limit our ability to expand recruitment efforts across all job categories (i.e., existing funding and staff resources are limited); recruitment will be focused on targeted needs and opportunities for recruiting in partnership with other State agencies.

XIII. RETENTION PLAN

---

The agency is committed to not just the recruitment of women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, and veterans, but also to the retention of these protected groups.

A. Individual(s) Responsible for the Agency's Retention Program/Activities

Human Resources in participation with Senior Leaders, directors, managers, and supervisors.

B. Separation and Retention Analysis by Protected Groups

Dismissal/non-certifications, resignations, and retirements were reviewed for patterns and extreme values. There were total of 69 separations during the past two years. Resignations (29) and retirements (29) constituted 84.06% of all separations. The following separation patterns among protected groups were identified: 30.43% women, 11.59% minorities, & 4.35% people with disabilities. The agency will continue to monitor separations of protected group employees and analyze exit interview data to determine reasons behind resignations. The agency will monitor if there are any patterns that emerge and whether certain retention strategies should be implemented to minimize the outflow of talented individuals from the agency. The detailed Separation and Retention reports by protected groups is included in the Appendix.

C. Methods of Retention of Protected Groups

- Continue to create learning/education opportunities related to diversity and cultural competence.
- Continue to review and ensure accessibility as possible.
- Continue to conduct, analyze, and use the results of engagement surveys to develop, correct, or revise practices.
- Evaluate current orientation processes to ensure the agency's practices create a welcoming orientation.

Employee/Applicant Request for ADA Reasonable Accommodation Form

State of Minnesota – Department of Administration
Employee/Applicant Request for ADA Reasonable Accommodation Form

The State of Minnesota is committed to complying with the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") and the Minnesota Human Rights Act ("MHRA"). To be eligible for an ADA accommodation, you must be 1) qualified to perform the essential functions of your position and 2) have a disability that limits a major life activity or function. The ADA Coordinator/Designee will review each request on an individualized case-by-case basis to determine whether or not an accommodation can be made.

Employee Name

Job Title

Work Location

Data Privacy Statement: This information may be used by your agency human resources representative, ADA Coordinator or designee, your agency legal counsel, or any other individual who is authorized by your agency to receive medical information for purposes of providing reasonable accommodations under the ADA and MHRA. This information is necessary to determine whether you have a disability as defined by the ADA or MHRA, and to determine whether any reasonable accommodation can be made. The provision of this information is strictly voluntary; however, if you refuse to provide it, your agency may refuse to provide a reasonable accommodation.

Questions to clarify accommodation requested.

1. What specific accommodation are you requesting?
2. If you are not sure what accommodation is needed, do you have any suggestions about what options we can explore.
  - a. If yes, please explain.

Questions to document the reason for the accommodation request (please attach additional pages if necessary).

1. What, if any job function are you having difficulty performing?
2. What, if any employment benefit are you having difficulty accessing?
3. What limitation as result of your physical or mental impairment is interfering with your ability to perform your job or access an employment benefit?
4. If you are requesting a specific accommodation, how will that accommodation be effective in allowing you to perform the functions of your job?

Information Pertaining to Medical Documentation

In the context of assessing an accommodation request, medical documentation may be needed to determine if the employee has a disability covered by the ADA and to assist in identifying an effective accommodation.

The ADA Coordinator or designee in each agency is tasked with collecting necessary medical documentation. In the event that medical documentation is needed, the employee will be provided with the appropriate forms to submit to their medical provider. The employee has the responsibility to ensure that the medical provider follows through on requests for medical information.

This authorization does not cover, and the information to be disclosed should not contain, genetic information. "Genetic Information" includes: Information about an individual's genetic tests; information about genetic tests of an individual's family members; information about the manifestation of a disease or disorder in an individual's family members (family medical history); an individual's request for, or receipt of, genetic services, or the participation in clinical research that includes genetic services by the individual or a family member of the individual; and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or by a pregnant woman who is a family member of the individual and the genetic information of any embryo legally held by the individual or family member using an assisted reproductive technology.

Department of Administration

PURPOSE

The Department of Administration is a core central service agency for the executive branch serving the Governor, legislature, state agencies, local governments, and the public. Our mission is to provide the best value in government administrative services. That mission is achieved by focusing on three strategies: customer satisfaction, continuous improvement, and employee engagement.

We provide a broad range of business and professional services so agencies can achieve their missions and have a lead role in ensuring the efficient organization of state government. We help agencies get the best value in purchasing goods and services. We oversee the construction and leasing of state facilities. We provide property, liability, and workers compensation insurance coverage for state operations. We set policy for state grants administration. And, we make sure the Capitol Complex buildings run efficiently and keep the Capitol grounds beautiful.

In addition to providing vital services to agencies, we provide key services to the public. On an individual level we ensure that citizens understand their rights to access information kept by government. We provide opportunities for those with developmental disabilities and their families to advocate for their rights to education, work, and participation in their communities. And, we provide assistive technology so those with physical disabilities can lead more independent and productive lives. Our community oriented services help to ensure that grants are distributed efficiently and fairly as well as provide essential population data through our demographic services.

By ensuring that Minnesota's executive agencies receive the best value in government administrative services, Admin contributes to the statewide outcome of: Efficient and accountable government services. By providing persons with disabilities assistive technology to help them be productive and involved in their communities, Admin contributes to the statewide outcomes of: Minnesotans have the education and skills needed to achieve their goals; and Strong and stable families and communities.

STRATEGIES

We utilize multiple strategies and service delivery models to support the statewide outcomes of efficient and accountable government services and ensure the best value in government administrative services. These include:

- Procurement services that use an enterprise approach to achieve the best value by developing contracts for use by multiple government units; standardizing and consolidating purchases; and aggressively negotiating contract terms and pricing.
- Facilities management services, such as maintenance, engineering, and energy retrofits that provide well-maintained facilities necessary for the daily operations of the state's executive, legislative, and judicial branches.
- Construction and space leasing services, such as serving as the State's leasing agent and owner's representative on construction projects, that provide efficient and effective oversight and management of capital construction projects, ensure facility solutions that cost-effectively meet state agencies' space needs, establishing a data system to assist policymakers in prioritizing capital investments, and facilitate effective management and use of state real property assets.
- Government-to-Government Services, such as advising on and providing business services, that provide small agency financial and human resource assistance, continuous improvement (Lean) training, workers compensation, archeological services, and vehicle fleet services.

MN Department of Administration
AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN 2016-2018

- Government management services that advise agencies on achieving energy reduction goals, complying with open government requirements, reducing workers' compensation costs, helping small agencies follow state human resources and financial policies and procedures, and reducing the state's reliance on gasoline.
- Citizen services that include assistive technology, demographic services, resources for citizens with developmental disabilities, and the promotion of the public's access by granting permits to stage public rallies or educating citizens on their rights to government data.
