

Cities that will benefit from Governor's Water Infrastructure Initiative

This is a partial representation of the cities that will benefit from the Governor's water infrastructure initiative through increased funding for Public Facilities Authority grant and loan programs. Many more eligible cities will be identified in the future as environmental and financial needs are assessed and cities put forward specific project proposals.