

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Educated young people are essential to the future well-being and prosperity of Minnesota; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota encourages all educators, community organizations, and citizens to promote and foster a love of reading and a deep understanding of both written and spoken language in order to provide a path to academic and personal success for all learners; and
- WHEREAS: The Walker-Hackensack-Akeley (WHA) teachers, staff, and administrators have demonstrated tremendous support for reading excellence with all students; and
- WHEREAS: The students of WHA Elementary have accomplished a remarkable achievement by collectively reading 50,000 books during the 2015-16 school year.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, March 1, 2016, as:

ROTARY READER DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 24th day of February.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
