

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Fresh-baked products from local bakeries are an integral part of communities—both large and small—in every corner of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Bakeries are often local, family-owned and operated businesses, many of which have spanned multiple generations; and

WHEREAS: The variety and evolution of baked goods reflect the individual character of the community where they are baked and traditions passed down from generation to generation; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota is home to a number of bakeries, many of which boast families and people of lifelong customers within the community; and

WHEREAS: Each of Minnesota's bakeries will mark September 28, 2017, as Minnesota Local Bakery Day and celebrate their enduring presence within their communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, September 28, 2017, as:

MINNESOTA LOCAL BAKERY DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 27th day of September.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
