

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Minnesota children deserve the love, protection, and stability of a permanent family, who will provide patience, care, and supportive environments; and
- WHEREAS: Hundreds of children in Minnesota's foster care system are waiting to be adopted by families or permanently cared for by relatives who will provide safe, permanent homes; and
- WHEREAS: Many children waiting to be adopted are older or part of sibling groups who must stay together to maintain strong, essential family bonds; and
- WHEREAS: Many children waiting for adoption may have psychological or medical disabilities, and need special care and support; and
- WHEREAS: The commitment of adoptive parents who support children in crisis, and raise them in stable, loving and safe homes, is paramount to their success; and
- WHEREAS: Communities, government agencies, relatives and others can help families and children by providing support before, during, and after adoption.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of November 2017, as:

ADOPTION AWARENESS MONTH

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 27th day of October.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
