

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Barb Tveit has long been the heartbeat that keeps WCCO-TV ticking; and
- WHEREAS: No one would be able to take a paid day off, fill out a timecard, figure out what health care plan is best, or even get a paycheck, if not for Barb; and
- WHEREAS: If you need to know whether a turnaround penalty applies during overtime outside the DMA during a partial vacation week, where you are also using a 189-Comp Personal Day after an FMLA period, Barb will have the answer; and
- WHEREAS: Barb is the keeper of four decades of WCCO-TV secrets, contracts, and corporate policy, and has always been a consummate professional answering every silly question with a smile, even when it has been asked a million times before; and
- WHEREAS: The United States House of Representatives recognizes April 27, 2018, as Barb Tveit Day; and
- WHEREAS: Barb's calming presence and constant willingness to help with timecards, time off requests, station benefits, life choices, paychecks, babysitting, dating advice, lunch choices, name changes, family leave, and more, have helped WCCO TV to run as smoothly as it does; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota recognizes and celebrates the significant contributions of Barb Tveit during her four decades at WCCO TV.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, April 27, 2018, as:

BARB TVEIT DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 24th day of April.
