

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Minnesota is an inclusive state that strives to share its abundant natural resources and rich outdoor heritage with all of its people; and
- WHEREAS: Wilderness Inquiry, a Minnesota nonprofit, embodies this spirit by connecting people of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities to the natural world through shared outdoor adventures; and
- WHEREAS: Since its founding in 1978, Wilderness Inquiry has led over half a million individuals of different abilities and ages on educational excursions in Minnesota and far beyond our state borders; and
- WHEREAS: Wilderness Inquiry's vision for the future is that all Minnesotans, regardless of circumstances, have opportunities to access our public lands and experience our rivers, forests, lakes, and parks from Blue Mounds to the tip of the Arrowhead; and
- WHEREAS: Wilderness Inquiry is celebrating its 40th Anniversary on May 4, 2018.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, May 4, 2018, as:

WILDERNESS INQUIRY DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 24th day of April.
